AN APPEAL .--- We are requested to call the attention of the benevolent to the "Women's Employment Society of Germantown," an association designed to furnish sewing to deserving and industrious poor wo n en who are unable to procure sufficient work elsewhere to afford them a support, but who would greatly prefer earning for themselves to receiving from the hand of charity. The garments so made are fold at a low price to those in need, or given to those in extreme desti The ladies of this association believe that in no other way can the same amount of money be expe afford an equal amount of relief, without encouraging pauperism, and are convinced that the benevolen citizens of Germantown will find themselves abl through this instrumentality to reach and assist a class of deserving poor who thankfully avail themselves of this means of procuring aid for their fami lies instead of receiving alms. While returning their eful acknowledgments for the assistance receive during the past, they would call atten that, until the spring advances, in April, there is a suspension of factory work, and, consequently, an increase domand for employment, which they can no longer re-spond to on account of their funds being exhausted They would, therefore, respectful y and earneally appeal to their friends for the means to continue this charity.
