Terrific Explosion from Benzine. LOSS OF LIFE

Yesterday afternoon, about half past five, a terrific extion occurred in the Twentieth ward, from the use o benzine, in Wright's japan varnish manufactors. The building stood on Marshall street, between Meetler and Diamond street, and between Sixth and Seventh, and was a three-story brick, with a two-story back building.
The building was originally intended for two dwellinghouses, but was afterward converted into a factory, for the manufacture of japan varnish Between the main and back building was a double partition wall. The fur-paces and kettles for boiling the varnish were in the intter place. In the front building was a large tank for receiving the varnish after it was boiled, and which was convered through a pipe. At the time of the accident, varnish was being boiled in one of the kettles, about six feet in diameter. The contents of the kettle took fire, and caused a most terrific explosion, which made a lond report, shaking all the houses for squares, and completely demolishing the whole factory, nothing being left standdemolishing the whole factory, nothing being left standing except the partition wall between the two buildings. At the time of the accident only two men were in the place, one of whom was Mr. James L. Wright, the proprietor—a young tumarried man, about 26 years of age, who has succeeded his father in the business, the latter having been known in this city for many years as a celebrated menufacturer of japan varnish. The other person in the factory was a German employee named Adam Herhott, who was sitting on the floor cleaning a pan mear the large kettle in which the varnish was being boiled, in the second story of the back building. Herbott was blown out of the building, and fell on the ground a distance of about twenty-five yards. When he recovered from the shock he raised himself until assistance arrived. He was immediately conveyed to the drug sterr of Dr. Kerns, Sixth and Germantown road, where his injuries were attended to, after which he was conveyed to his residence in Parmer street, near Girard avenus, by two of the Ninetecutn-ward officers. Dr. Helfrich was then summoned, when he was found to have sustained severe internal injuries, besides spraining his ankle and being burned in a must shocking manner about the head, neck, and hands. The physician thinks his life may be saved, although his situation is very critical.

At the time of the explosion, Mr. Wright, the propries ing except the partition wall between the two buildings.

At the time of the explosion, Mr. Wright, the propried tor, was down stairs in the tront part of the building. About twenty minutes after the accident his body was found buried under the ruins, where he had been shockingly crushed. When lifted up, he breathed once or twice, but was unable to speak, and expired almost immediately. The body was taken to the establishment of Mr. Philip B. Schuyler, undertuker, near by, and subsequently removed to the residence of his father, in New Market street, above Callowhill.

Market street, above Callowhill.

The bricks and other portions of the ruin were hurled by the explosion several squares, failing on roofs, in yards, &c., but, fortunately, no one was seriously injured. A son of Lieut. Jacoby, of the Twentieth ward police, who resides in Sixth street, a few feet from where the factory stood, was struck with a brick and slightly injured. The varnish in the kettle took fire and flowed over the ruins, setting fire to the work and causing an alarm to be rung by the State House bell. The firemen ing property.

The Fire Marshal was soon at the scene, but it was impossible last evening for him to procure any satisfactory account of the accident, Mr. Wright, the proprietor, Juding killed, and the German only being employed to do the hauling for the establishment. The latter had never done any work about the place until yesterday afternoon, when he was assisting.

He stated to the Fire Marshal that all he knows about the horrible affair is, that Mr. Wright was down stairs and he up stairs, near the kettle containing the boiling varnish; he heard a kind of hissing noise, followed by a varnish; he heard a kind of hissing noise, followed by a large blaze and a loud oxplosion; he saw the building falling all round him, the roof going up, and himself moving through the air with great rapidity. He lost all recollection, and, upon recovering, narrated the whole thing as if it had been a dream. The German states that Mr. Wright had slavar used turpentine in the manufacture of varnish until within a day or two since, when he determined to try the experiment of using benzine. Mr. W informed him that he knew of the dangers attending the use of this combustible, but thought that, with proper care and attention, all accidents might be avoided. The kettle which exploded contained some two or three barrels of benzine. So far, the precise cause of the accident can only be the subject of conjecture, but that the explesion was occasioned by benzine there can be no doubt. by benzine there can be no doubt.

Coroner Courad will hold an inquest this morning or the body of Mr. Wright.

Public Amusements. Mr. John Drew's benefit comes off to-night at the Arch street Theatre, when the remarkable performance of the "Comedy of Errors" and the ccentric comedy of the "Serious Family" will be performed. Mr. Forrest plays Hamlet at the Walnut-street Theatre to-morrow night. Choice seats can be obtained for his performance at the Continental Hotel. Next week, Dan Rice and his horses come to this theatre.

Mr. Gottschalk appears at the Musical Fund "Hall next week for one night.

McKeon's house was crowded last night.

The panamora of the "Rebellion" is doing well, and is witnessed nightly by crowded houses. The Germania "Rehearsal" comes off as usual Christy's Minstrels open at the Musical Fund Hall to-night. The company is one of the best in the country.

T. BUCHANAN READ'S NEW POEM.—Our accomplished and gifted townsman, the painter-poet, who has lately returned from Italy, has written a poem, yet unpublished, called "The Wild Wagoner of the Alleghanies," which another townsman, Mr. James E. Murdoch, distinguished for his great dramatic ability, lately read in Cincinnati, for the benefit of our wounded soldiers, and the net proceeds amounted to $1,200. He subsequently read it before the Legislature of Ohio on their invitation, and subsequently with great success at Pittsburg and Baltimore. At the request of a number of our leading citizens, Mr. Murdoch will publicly read this patriotic poem, at the Academy of Music, next Thursday—the proceeds to be applied, we believe, to the benefit of the Cooper and Union Volunteer Refreshment Saloons. The hero of the poem, the locality, and the main incidents are Pennsylvanian-the author and the elocationists are both Philadelphians, and no where could such a patriotic effusion be more appropriately presented

CITY ITEMS. Anniversary Festival of the Young Men's Christian Association.

The anniversary festival of the Young Men's Christian Musical Fund Hall last evening, was one of the most eleasing social entertainments of the kind that we have ever attended. Much of the credit of this success is due to the good sense displayed by those to whom the arangements for it were entrusted. The large hall, which, we must say, never exhibited its beautiful interior to better advantage, was filled with just a sufficient number to impart a social character to the entertainment, and comfort to the guests. The platform was tastefully decorated with two immense American mags, and along the two tables, which extended centrally the entire length of the hall, seating 250 persons at one time, the colors of the Union, in the form of diminutive flags, imparted : patriotic fragrance to the tempting ylands which graced

The supper itself may be best described as an elegant collation, including tea and coffee, and concluding with ce creams, jellies, and confectionery. Most of the provisions were presented for the occasion by individual and as their preparation was conducted by a number of the lady friends of the Association, under the competent direction of Mrs. Rebecca Hammitt, the expense of the stival was comparatively little. The proceeds realized from the sale of tickets go into the fund for carrying on he general objects of the Association. Music by a quartet from Hassler's Band, singing by Stuart, Esq., taking the chair at the stage-end of one of the tables. After all were helped, Mr. Stuart, in a few brief remarks, gave an outline of the work which the Association is now doing, especially among the soldiers. We need hardly add that Mr. Stuart graced his office, as chairman, in his usual felicitous style, adding much to the life and spirit of the occasion, by his well-timed comments in introducing the various speakers as the entertainment pro-At the table, a blessing was invoked by the Rev. He was followed in a neat speech by the Ray.

Anthony Atwood, D. D., who was succeeded by the Rev. Daniel March, the newly-installed pastor of Citatonstreet Presbyterian Church. His speech was a very a ppy platform effort, and was received with evident sfaction. The next speaker was the Rev. Thiesham Gregg, D. D., of Dublin. His address was mainly devoted to the relations of Ireland to the Beligious world, Other short addresses followed, after which, at a late hour, a number of uncut fancy cakes were presented to some of the more distinguished guests, which constituted bee of the more distinguished guests, which constituted happy finals to the festivities of the evening.

HURLBURT & BRODHEAD'S OILS.—As the Christian & Gurran. Oils for Lubricating and Illuminating purposes, soid by Messrs. Hulburt & Brodhead, at their warerooms, No. 240 Arch street, have been demonstrated to be the best in the market, for various reasons, we take the liberty of inviting the attention of the trade, and shippers more especially, to this fact. From their superior facilities for obtaining these superior oils, and their large stock constantly on hand, they are prepared at any moment to fill orders of any amount, from one barrel to five hundred barrels. See their advertisement in another column. REMOVAL .- Charles Oakford & Sons, instead of occupying the two stores on the cast side of the main entrance to the Continental Hotel, as heretofore, will hereafter occupy the two beautiful stores between the entrance to the Hotel and Ninth street. These stores have been fitted up in a tasteful manner, and the various departments in which Oakford & Sons have eitherto excelled, will be conducted by thom in future with still greater vigor. These gentlemen deserve great credit for their enterprise and liberality. Their sales in future will be superintended, personally, by Charles Oak

A TRUE PATRIOT .- In the sudden shock of war which has burst upon us like a clap of thunder from a clear sky, it is natural that the true instincts of men will be shown out. The true patriot will stand firmly by his post of duty, and lend the Government all the aid in his power to prosecute the war until it can be brought to an honorable termination, and, above all, will econ ise and save his money by purchasing his clothes at the one-price emporium of Granville Stokes, No. 609 Chast. nut street, where the cheapest and most superior stock of seasonable garments is kept constantly on hand or made to order at the shortest notice. THE BLACK FLAG.-It has been suggested that what has been spoken of as the black flag at Fort Donelson may have been really meant for a white flag. It is thought that the Confederates used a piece of their ersonal linen for the purpose; but that, as they hadn't had wash-day for some three months, the garment, meant to | much less than our usual rates. be white, was very naturally mistaken by Union eyes, at Heavy and bulky puckages received and receipted for a distance, for the flag of piracy. TOOK AND LIVE! A WORD TO THE WISE IS SUFFICIENT!—All diseased conditions, both Acute and Chronic, where there is viality enough left to react, are permanently cured, by WARNANTEE, at 1220 WALNUT Street, Philadelphia and, in care of a failure in most obstinate maindles, in charge is made. Electrical Institution, established two charge is made. Electrical Institution, established the following: A class of maladies provail to a fearful extent in communities, documing 100,000 youths, of both sexes, annually to an early grave. Those diseases are very imperfectly understood. Their external manifortations or symptoms are nervous debility, relaxation, and great expensions are proposed to the state of the state haustion, marasmus, or wasting, and constitution of the tiestes of the whole body, shortness of breathing, or to tissues of the whole body, shortness of breathing, or too hurried breathing on ascending a hill or flight of shirty pulpitation of the heart, asthma, bronchitis, and a dry, sore throat, trembling and shaking of the arms and lower limbs, aversion to society, business, and to study; sometimes diamess of the eyesight, loss of memory, diaziness of the head, muralgia, pain in various parts of the budy, pains in the back and lower limbs, lumbago, dyspepsia, constipation of the howels, deranged secretions of the kidneys and many other glands of the body, producing viru'ent diseases in both males and femules, likewise epicepsy, hysterie, and different forms of nervous apasms. Now, then, in ninety-nine cases out of every hundred of all the shove-named disease, and a host of others not paned, as consumption of the lungs or of the spinal named, as consumption of the lungs or of the spina pervee, have their origin in the Polvic Viscora, hence the want of success by any of the old medical systems of want of fuccess by any of the old medical systems of practice.

All of the above-named maladies are trented by Professor BOLLES, at 1220 WALNUT Street, and in all cases a Warrantee by spacial contract is given, when the ratient desires it. Consultation from fe28-21*

MR. MURDOCH'S READING OF

T. BUCHANAN BEAD'S NEW POEM.

COBRESPONDENCE

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 22, 1862.

James E. Murdoch, Eng.—Sir: Having seen by the papers that you are once more delighting the lovers of literature with your beautiful readings, and. especially, that you are giving, with marked success, in other cities,
"The Wild Wagoner of the Alteghenies," an unpublished poem by our townsman, T. Buchanan Read, we take pleasured useful gate to would, satiry a very large circle of your and the poet's friends in this city if you would, at your coallest convenionce, give us the opportunity of enjoying it.

Claiming, as we do, both you and Mr. Read as Philadelphians, and understanding that the work is purely Penneyl'vanian, and a patriotle poem of the days of '76, it seems to us that, at this time, it would be a very fitting entertainment to give, and have no doubttnat your audience will be both large and appreciative. Hoping for a favorable reply, we are, with very sincere respect,
