ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT OF THE HOMEOPATHIC MEDICAL COLLEGE. - The fourteenth mencement of the Homosopathic Medical Col-Hall. There was a fair attendance, despite the incle-mency of the weather. A band of music, under the eadership of Mr. Bergfield, was in attendance. The faculty of the college and the graduates marched into the hall at noon. The former took sease on the platform, while the latter occupied the two first benches in the hall.

The exercises were opened by a fervent prayer, delivered by the Rev. J. H. Alday, of this city.

The medley of national airs was then performed by the orchestra.

J. K. Lee, Esq., Professor of Materia Medica, then delivered the valedictory charge to the graduates. After referring to the sacrifices and semials which the young gentlemen had made to attain their present position, the gentlemen had made to attain their present position, the professor remarked:

"Hut it must not be presumed that when the term of pupilage ends, and the student expands into the pluysician, habits of study can be relinquished, and the mind lapse into a condition of stuggish stupor. He who adopts this erronceus idea is guilty of an act of fatuity which clips the wings of ambition, and strips him of the ability to soar to the heights of distinction and enroll his name on the annals of enduring fame. He may perform the ordinary routine of duties with some degree of acceptability, and win for himself a local reputation, still he will ever grepe amid impenetrable derkness, and leave behind no trace of his existence, no lasting monument to perpetuate his memory and endear him to postority. He may enjoy the prestige of wealth and honorable lineage, but, instead of these contributing to his success, they will only render his failure more conspicuous and deny him that ernall boon which obliviou would prove to his expiring moments. only reader his failure more conspicuous and dony him that small boon which oblivion would prove to his expiring moments.

"To the knowledge here acquired, the physician should constantly seek to make additions, by enlarging the circle of his investigations, and extending his researches far up the ordinary channels of information until he reaches the rippling stream which gushes from their fountainheads. He must descend from generalities to the study of munte details, from the consideration of principles to a careful analysis of the premises upon which they are based, ever eurneatly endeavoring to discriminate between truth and error, so as to winnow the wheat from the chair and separate the gold from its alloy.

"And to intellectual culture and rigid application, he must bring an unreserved devotion to his profession which would cause him to abnegate self, and, if necessary, suffer immolation on the altar of humanity."

The Professor concluded his address by remarking that, although their daily intercourse may be interrupted, and the endearing relation of teacher and pupil dissolved, still the hearts of the professors would pulsate with joy at the intelligence of the success of the graduates, and tenderly sympathize with them in the darkest hour of misfortune.

Richard Gardiner, M. D., by anthority of the Board of Managare, then conferred the degree of the college upon the following-named graduates:

Bailey, G. W., New York; Barnes, G. L., Bhode Elsand; Bender, J. S., Pennsylvania; Brouse, H. Kelsay, Pennsylvania; Bushes, Miles W., Pennsylvania; Wilson, Pusey, Delaware.

EMIGRATION TO HAYTI-THE LOT-EMIGRATION TO HAYTI—THE LOTTERY MEN YERRUS THE NEGROES.—We have been presented with the f-thowing table of emigrants that will probably depart for Hayti by the next steamer. The number from New York is 614; Philadelphia, 420; Boston, 102; Cincinnati, 12?; Chicago, 89; Albany and Troy, 32; St. Louis, 194; Milwaukee, 27; Providence, 17; Portlane, 14; Louisville, 46, and other places—in all, making nearly 2,500.

The lottery-policy men in all the cities oppose the removal of colored people to Hayti. Sixty-four colored policy shops in New York have closed, the fact being returned to the policy headquarters in Broadway, near Canal street. The colored people have been, in a great degree, the patrons of 4-11-44. The leading lottery firms, if rumor be correct, are engaged in circulating reports detrimental to the emigration scheme. An unsigned circular is being distributed in some sections of reading as follows:

170 THE COLORED PEOPLE. "The scheme now on foot to steal you from the land of promise, and deprive you of a home where your claims of promise, and deprive you of a home where your claims birth? Here, your rights will soon be protected; there, you have but the protection of BARBARIANS. who have not yet learned to manago me mean or government.

"Be not deceived! Suffer not this imposition! A made. When far away from your old homes, and removed from the pale of civilization, the burning tear will be yeur only consolation.

"Men of color, prove your nobility of character by rofusing to become parties to this new design of an American Slave Trade. Many Civizens."

RECRUITING.—Regiments that have been languishing during the winter in camps around the city are now filling up rapidly, recruiting having taken a new start, caused by the stirring news from the Western army. The army must be now nearly up to its maximum number, and recruiting will soon cease, except to fill vacancies caused by death or otherwise. There are quite a number of recruiting stations opened in the city for regiments now in active service, and these appear to be the favorites with those now coming forward to enrol themselves. Two recruiting stations have been opened for Col. Murphy's regiment—one at 24 South Fifth street, and the other at the corner of Coates street and New Market. Lieut. Richards has charge of one, and Capt. Kinsler of the other. Both are succeeding in their efforts to fill the runks of the Twenty-minth Regiment. The recruiting station under charge of Lieut. Vallee, of Col. John H. Taggart's regiment, is on Second street, above Race, and the efforts of the Lieutenant are meeting with a fair share of success. Col. Taggart's regiment took a gal.ant part in the fight at Dranesville, and established its character for bravery, and it is therefore a favorite regiment at home. Composed in great part of Philadelphians. and commanded by a Philadelphia colonel, it cannot fail soon to have its ranks filled to the maximum number.

PERSONAL. - A deserter from the FERSUNAL.— A UESCITEI ADDIT THE Eighth Alabama Regiment at Yorktown, Va., reached this city a day or two since from Fortress Mouroe, where he has been for several mouths. His name is J. H. Prim, and he is a native of North Carolina. He was poorly clad when he arrived here, but he has been provided with a new suit of clothes by the refreshment saloons. vided with a new suit of clothes by the refreshment saloons.

General B. F. Kelly, the hero of Phillipi, who has been on a visit to Washington, returned to the city on Saturday evening, accompanied by his daughter.

The funeral of Philip Murray, late a member of the Second Delaware Regiment, took place on Sunday from the residence of his mother, in Manayunk, and was very largely attended. The Roxborough Home Guards, commanded by Captain A. D. Levering, accompanied by the Washington Brass Band, were present. The funeral ceremonies were held in the Catholic church at Manayunk, and the body was desposited in the vault of the burial ground attached. The remains are to be removed to Kellyville.

WILMINGTON MATTERS. A correswill.Mington Matters.—A correspondent referring to the general prostration of business throughout Delaware, says that no city has suffered more than Wilmington—her manufacturing interest, to a considerable degree, has been paralyzed. The coach, the iron boat building, leather, car wheel and car spring establishments suffered vastly. It is unnecessary to enumerate the great number of persons currently of the say that one thousand persons were constantly employed, with excellent wages, in the carriage establishments; now only one handred are visible.

DEPARTURE OF RELEASED PRISONERS. DEPARTURE OF KELEASED L'RISONERS.

Colonel Wood, of the Fourteenth New York Regiment, recently released from Richmond, Virginia, reached this city on Sunday, and was received by a committee of the City Councils of Brooklyn. He remained at the Continental until yesterday morning, when he left for New York. The following gentlemen, of the Brooklyn Board of Aldermen and citizens, left with him: Aldermen Ternan, Strong, Belknap, Lynch, Maloney, Fisher, and Van Brunt; General Crooks, Justice Boerum, Judge Morris, Clinton Riley, ex-Alderman Cashow, L. Hanley, George Applegate, Superintendent Duffy, J. B. Del Vecchio, Mon. A. A. Meyers.

The coats were given out on an order from Washington, but as the Government does not sell anything on credit, the officer allowing the garments to pass from his hands will be placed in an umpleasant position, unless the Committee on Safety and Defence of the City pay the bill, and then trust to the honor of the Government to reimburse the city for certain money spent by the latter in the way of duties on arms, reconneissances, &c

THE CONTESTED ELECTION CASE,—
The case of Stevenson vs. Lawrence was to have been resumed yesterday morning in the Court of Common Pleas, but as the court had other business to transact, Mr. Brewster, for Mr. Stevenson, urged that the case should go over until 12 o'clock. Mr. Cassidy, on bohalf Mr. Lawrence, suggested that the Court was done with the case, and the parties were now out of court. The act of Assembly required that these contested election cases should be decided within the term next succeeding that in which the proceedings were commenced.

Mr. Brewster urged that the court was required to certify to the Governor the decision arrived at, bafore a commission could issue. Judge Thompson inquired if the parties were disposed to make any motion, but this the counsel for Mr. Lawrence declined to do, and left the subject with the court.

After conferring with Judge Ludlow for some time, Judge Thompson, without expressing any opinion in regard to the point raised, announced that the case would be taken up to morrow, and in the meantime counsel could come to some conclusion as to the course to be pucy sued by them in the matter. THE CONTESTED ELECTION CASE.

REQUIEM MASS.—On last Saturday morning, at 9 o'clock, the funeral obsequies of Miss Anita R. Ludalam, a highly talented and hospitable young lady of West Chester, Pa., were held at the Catholic Church of St. Agnes, at that place. The church was beautifully draped in mourning, and a solemn requiem mass was celebrated by the pastor. Rev. John F. Frendergast, assisted by Rev. Thomas O'Neill as deacon, and Rev. Michael McEvoy as sub-deacon, surrounded by a host of acolytes and ecclesiastical dignitaries holding burning tapers, &c. Father Prondergast preached a highly impressive sermon upon the occasion, and the beautiful service of the Church, as prescribed in the ritual, was elegantly sung hy an oxcellent choir, which was under the direction of Mr. Thomas E. Harkins, leader of the fine choir attached to St. John's Catholic Church, in this city.

A POLICY CASE. — A man named A POLICY UASE. — A man named groupe Beideman, residing at New Market and Coates streets, was before Alder man Shoemaker, a day or two since, for selling policies for a Kentucky letter?. The complaint was made by a woman whose husband has been dealing very extensively in the policies. This man expended all his carnings in the purchase of tickets, and his circumstances have thereby become so reduced as to leave him without fire in his house, and placed his wife and three or four children in almost a state of starvation. The police, when they arrosted Beideman, selzed some twenty-five or thirty packages of lottery policies found in his house. The accused was committed to answer at court.

Smith, Pittaburg; Samuel T. Bodine, J. Craig Miller. CHARGED WITH PICKING POCKETS .-William Curtis, halling from New York, was arrested on Sunday at the Baltimore depet, charged with having picked the pocket of a gentleman from Delaware of $300. On the Shores of Tennessee. "Movs my arm-chair, faithful Pompey, In the sunshine bright and strong, For this world is fading Pompey— Massa won't be with you long; And I fain would hear the south wind Bring once more the sound to me, Of the wavelets eoftly breaking On the shores of Tonnessee.

Mournful though the ripples murmur, As they still the story tell, How no vessels float the banner
That I've loved se long and wall.
I shall listen to their music, Dreaming that again I see Stars and Stripes on sloop and shallop Sailing up the Tennessee.

"And, Pompey, while old Massa's waiting
For Death's last despatch to come,
If that exiled starry banner
Should come proudly saiting home,
You shall greet it, slave no longer—
Voice and hand shall both be free
That shout and point to Union colors
On the waves of Tennessee." "Massa's berry kind to Pompey;
But ole darkey's happy hore,
Where he's tended corn and cotton,
For dese many a long gone year.
Over youder Missis' sleeping—
No one tends her grave like me:
Mebbe she would miss the flowers

"Pears like she was watching Massa—
If Pompey should beside him stay,
Mebbe she'd remember better
How for him she used to pray;
Telling him that way up yonder
White as snow his soul would be,
If he served the Lord of Heaven
While he lived in Tennessee."

Silently the tears were rolling Down the poor old dusky face As he stepped behind his master In his long-accustomed place.
Then a silence fell around them.

Master, dreaming of the battle
Where he feught by Marion's side,
When he bid the laughty Tarleton,
Stoop his lordly crest of pride.
Man remembering how you sleeper
Once he held upon his knee, Ere she loved the gallant soldier, Balph Vervair, of Tennessee.

Still the south wind fondly lingers
'Mid the veteran's silver hair;
Still the bondman close beside him
Stands behind the old arm-chair.
With his dark-hued hand uplifted,
Shading eyes, he bends to see
Where the woodland boldly jutting
Turns aside the Tennessee.

Thus he watches cloud born shadows Glide from tree to mountain crest. Gilde from tree to mountain crest,
Softly creeping, aye and ever
To the river's yielding breast.
Ha! above the foliage yonder
Something flutters wild and free!
"Massa! Massa! Halleluyah! "Pompey, hold me on your shoulder, Help me stand on foot once more.

Help me stand on foot once more,
That I may salute the colors
As they pass my cabin door.
Here's the paper signed that frees you,
Give a freeman's shout with me—
God and Union! be our watchword
Evermore in Tennessee."

. Then the trembling voice grew fainter And the limbs refused to stand; One prayer to Jerus—and the soldier Glided to that better land. When the flag went down the river
Man and master both were free,
While the ring-dove's note was mingled
With the rippling Tennessee. [Harper's Weekly.

MEDICINAL. TLECTRICITY WHEN APPLIED by Prof. C. H. BOLLES, will cure all forms of acute and chronic diseases where there is vitality enough left/fr Dy Prof. C. H. BOLLES, will cure all forms of acute and chronic diseases where there is vitality enough left to react.

The like of such sudden and astonishing cures were never knewn before. Read the following from a preacher of the M. E. Church, No. 1633 Helmuth street, Phila,

"In attempting a definition of my disease, I can only give some of the map symptoms which, taken altogether, were the most horrid; and even medical men did not know my disease from pathological symptoms. However, Prof. C. H. BOLLES, by whom I was cured, located my disease in the Lelvic viscera in five minutes after I entered his office, and offered to warrant a perfect cure in eight applications, and I frankly admit that in eight applications of Electricity, administered by Professor BOLLES, 1220 WALNUT Street, Philadelphia, I am perfectly cured, and te me this is most astonishing, for I had exhausted the catalogue of old-school remedies, and grew worse all the time. I had long believed that in Electricity resided a potent agent for the cure of disease, if a right application could be made, and now I can comprehend from its powerful effects on me for a speedy cure, although no shocks were given. All was pleasant, and accemplished as if by magic.

"I will give most of my symptoms for the benefit of suffering humanity. I had dyspopsia, bad marasmuts, or wasting of the tissues of the whole body; at times difficulty of breathing, some palpitation of the heart, much bronchite, trembiling of the linubs after exercise, aversion to business and company at times, gloom, inability to collect my thoughts vigorously on any subject, a loss of memory, pain in various parts of the body, suffered much from lumbago, deranged secretions of the kidneys and other glands of the system, constant dragging pains in the lumbar region, and severe nervous dizziness.

"I believe it is my duty, as a lover of humanity, to recommend this discovery of Prof. BOLLES to the afflicted of all classes. There seems to be no guess work, no confusion, no matter of doubt in his GLUTEN CAPSULES PURE COD-LIVER OIL. The repugnance of most patients to COD-LIVER OIL, and the inability of many to take it at all, has induced various forms jof disguise for its administration that are familiar to the Medical Profession. Some of that are laminar to the Medical Profession. Some of them answer in special cases, but more eften they chick neutralizes the usual effect of the Oil, proving quite as unpalatable and of less therapeutic value. The repugnance, nauca, žo., to invalids, induced by disgust of the Oil, is entirely obviated by the use of our OAPSULES. OOD-LIVER OIL CAPSULES have been much used lately in Europe, the experience there of the goodfresults from their use in both hospital and private practice, aside from the naturally suggested advantages, are sufsaids from the naturally suggested advantages, are suf-ficient to warrant our claiming the virtues we do for them, feeling assured their use will result in benefit and deserved favor.
