To CORRECT some inaccuracies in the report of the oil meeting, at the Board of Trade Rooms, on Monday evening, we publish, by request, the following statement events of the second statement of the second state on Bronday evening, we paonen, by request, the converge statement: The valley of Oil Circle is about one-eighth of a mile in width. The large flowing wellsake mostly within a range of eight miles along the circle. There were lately 150,000 barrens of cill, in vate, al-ng the circle, besides the daily flow and what was lying in barrels at the railroad sta-tions, and at the city oil wharf, avaiting transportation by river and rail. More than $2,500,000 have been in-verted in the oil business in the Vename oil region. The by river and rail. More than $25,000,000 have been in-verted in the oil business in the Venance oil region. The popular demand for the oil is so great that the lamp manu-facturers have not been able, during the past whiter, to keep pace with it. The export to Europs is destined to equal, if not exceed, the cotton trade. The public of Philadelphia are incretulous with regard to this trade, but a visit to Venance county, 140 miles up the Allegheny river, from Pittsburg by steamboat, would remove all doubts

THE IRISH DRAGOONS .- The Fifth Re-THE IRISH DRAGGONS.—The Fifth Re-giment of Gen. Musgher's Brigads is still at Camp Hen-ry, Frank'ord. The regiment is Lot ye: fully organized. The men are provided with full uniforms, salres, &c. The bill which has passed the Congressional Committee, aboliching all cavalry regiments now forming in the se-veral States, will, of course, apply to this regiment. The men, however, are equally willing to serve as infantry. The regiment although organizing in this city, is mado up of Pitt-burgers. Company E, which was mustered in last week, is entirely a Pittaburg company, and officered as follows: Captsin, Patrick Kane; First Lieutenant, Hugh Kelley; Second Lieutenant, James P Kano. This is but one annowa a great numbur which have been munifi-cently patronized by the patriotic citizens of the Iron City.

THE VERDICT.—Yesterday afternoon Coroner Conrad concluded his inquest in the case of John S Pildhafd, ubo, it will be reinenbered, was admitted into the Pennsylvania Hospital, on the evening of the 16th ult., with a compound fracture of the skull, and died everal days afterwards. His injuries were supposed to have been the result of foul play. Two wit-nesses were examined yrestrday. The evidence showed that he was at a tovern at No. 400 South Water street, and at six o'clock in the morning fell down the staircase leading from the dining room to the kitchen. His head strick upon a piece of iron, causing the fracture men-tioned. In that condition Mr. Pritchard walked about during the day, and in the even ing word to see his em-ployer, who then took him to the hespital. The jury ren-dered a verdict of accidental death.

THE NAVY YARD .--- A committee of THE INAVY YARD.—A committee of City Councils, consisting of Messrs. Dolman, Megary, and Barger, visited Washington, a few days since, to urge the enlargement of the Philadelphia Navy Yard, by the purchase of adjoining property, which has already been described in The Press. They had an interview with the Secretary of the Navy and the Congressional delegation. The prospects of the proposed extension are not considered goed at present, although the same will be much needed as mon as the season opens for work. Nothing of much importance is now going on at the yard, except the building of the Monongahela, the re-pairing of the Powhatan, &c. About seventeen hun-dred men are at present employed. dred men are at present employed.

It is called the "Sleeping Children," and was executed in Bome, whore the artist spent four years, for a monument. This group attracted much attration in Rome, and Mr. Reinhart received is unch attration in Rome, and Mr. Reinhart received is to the greats for a monument. - Mr. Church is now engaged on a large landscape which offers a very striking contrast to his last work, the icebergs. It is a view of a volcanic mountain near Quito, in S. uth America. The subject is full of graudeur, and the picture promises, in its present state even, to be one of his greatest achievements.

one of his greatest achievements. — The National Academy of Design will hold their next, the thirty-ninth, annual exhibition in the hand-some galleries of the art institution, on Browdway. The National Academy has abandoned, for the present, the pian of erecting a building on the lots purchased near the free academy for that purpose. The exhibition will be opened early in April, and so well pleased are the artists with the arrangements made for the occasion, that they will take pride in sending their best pic-tures.

Artists with the antalognome meeting their bost pic-tures. — We find in the Beston papers favorable mention of a young artist, named Sonthard, whose studio is in salem, and who paints seasile scenes, as well as genre and his-torical subjects. He has lately returned from Rome, where he was a fellow student with Ames. Another ar-tist, whose pictures are spoken of in the Boston papers as "clegant productions of genius," is Mr. Paul Wober. According to one of our Boston cotemporaries, Mr. We-ber has reached "the very summit of pictorial art." — C. B. King, who for years has contributed more largely than any other man, by his clever fancy sketches and excellent portraits, to the cultivation of art in thig city, from Jeffreson's time to the present, is slowly wast-ing by a disease probunced in curable, and his demise, ere long, may be fixed as certain. Thus, link by link, the men who connected us with the Fathers of the Revo-lution are fast heing broken; for in his day he linned the features of Jefferson, Madieon, Red Jacket, Marshall, La-fayette, Lawrence, and Decatar, and his two portraits of Mrs. Madison will long remain as monuments worthy of a colemporary of Stuart, Pine, and Vand-rlyn.
