ANOTHER LARGE MEETING IN BEHALF OF THE BOLDERSOne of the most important, as well as the most practical enterprises, conducted under the au-prizes of the Young Men's Christian Association, of this city, is their present work among the Soldiers, in the various departments of the army. From the chairman of the momittee having this work in charge, P. B. Simons, Eq., we learn that they have already distributed some fifteen hundred thousand pages of religious and aemi-ro- ligious reading, besides a large number of Bibles, and other books; and the letters which the committee is preceiving weekly from chaptains and others bear en- courging testimony to the manner in which this effort is being appreciated by the brave men fit the camps. The last of the series of meetings in behalf of this ob- ject was held on Sunday evening, at the Church of the Intercessor, (Rev. B. A. Carden's,) Spring Garden stroat, below Broad. The attendance was immease, the beauti- ful new edifice having been filled in every part, and many were obliged to go away for want of standing com. ANOTHER LARGE MEETING IN BEHALF OF THE BOOTERSOne of the most important, as well as the most practical enterprises, conducted under the aurites of the Young Men's Christian Association, of this city, is their present work among the Soldiers, in the various departments of the army. From the chairman of the momittee having this work in charge, P. B. Simons, Eq., we learn that they have already distributed some fifteen hundred thousand pages of religious and semi-ro- ligious reading, besides a large number of Bibles, and other books; and the letters which the committee is receiving weekly from chaptains and others bear en- going appreciated by the brave mein fin the camps. The last of the series of meetings in behalf of this ob- fect was held on Sunday evening, at the Canreto of the Referensor, (Rev. B. A. Carden's,) Spring Garden stread, blow Brood. The attendance was immease, the beauti- ful new edifice having been filled in every part, and many were obliged to go away for want of standing com. MR a hymn and an opening prayer, the objects of the freeting were stated by the Rev.
