ST. PATRICK'S DAY AND ITS CELE-BRATION.—The anniversary of the birth of St. Patrick, the tutelary Saint of Ireland, occurs to-day, and will be duly celebrated with proper spirit. St. Patrick is said to have been born in the year 373, at Kilpatrick, near the mouth of the Clyde, in Scotland. Some authorities say that he was born at Ross, in Wales. At the age of sixteen, he was carried captive to Ireland, by a band of marauders, but, after a detention of six months, made his escape and returned to Scotland. Being carried off a second time, and escaping again, he resolved to become a missionary to the Irish, was ordained in Scotland, and, after a long preparation, was consecrated bishop. His ecclesiastical nomenclature of Patricius was given to him by Pope Celestine, who sent him to Ireland in the year 433. There he presched the Gospel with such extraordinary effect, that, although not absolutely the first to in-troduce Christianity into that country, he has always received the credit of its general conversion. He baptized the Kings of Dublin and Munster, and the seven sons of the King of Connaught.

St. Barnard tertifies that he fixed his metropolitan se at Armagh In his old age he wrote his "confession," the authenticity of which is much doubted. A popular legend secribes to him the banishment of all venomous tures from the island by means of his crozier, which was said to have been kept with great care at Dublin, as late as 1360. St. Patrick died at Down, in Ulster, about the year 464, and was there buried.

The celebrated shamrock, which is an emblem of the day, is a species of grass, also called trefoil, containing three leaves upon one stock. The Irish, when he first addressed them upon the doctrine of the Trinity in Unity, were occasionally disposed to stone him to death, upon which eccasions he always produced the shamrock, sing them if it was not as possible for the Father, Son, and Holy Chost to grow upon a single stalk, as those three green leaves, and thus reconciled them to the faith.

Other historians say that St. Patrick was not a native of Ireland, nor was he born in Scotland as many suppose, but he first eaw light in the neighborhood of Boulogne, in the year 337. He was taken prisoner by the Irish Monarch Nial, of the Nine Hostages, in 403, when only 16 years old—that powerful Hibernian ravaging the maritime districts of Gaul at that period. On arriving in Ireland he was, with other prisoners, sold as a slave, and carried into that rection of the country now known as Antrim. There his duly was the humble one of tending sheep; and this quiet and solitary occupation giving him a capital opportunity to think, he formed plaus for future action. At last he succeeded in escaping to Gaul, and reached once nore his boyhood's home. His friends and relatives, as a mater of course, were delighted to see him, and he was placed in the College of Tours, where he studied dwinity and finully became a priest. "Patricius" did not face the reloister, however, and resolved to return to the country of his captivity to preach to the heathen, who darkened that beautiful land.

He landed in Jubbin about the year 423, and started at once for the region where he had so long lived as a shepherd. He had followers with him, and his party were attacked by a chiettain named Dicho, as they were travelling to the interor, being mistaken for a band of prirates. But St. Patrick returned good for evil, and made Dicho one of his first converts; so that, instead of being put to death by him, he became one of his warmest friends and most zealous co-operators in spreading Christianity abroad

The Sant criebrated Divine worship first in a barn, called Patrick's Barn, and finally lighted fires on Tara Hill in honor of Easter fectival; and they blazed, too, in the very eyes of the princes and chieftatins, among whom were king Lugarice. Gest was the astonishment of the the very eyes of the princes and chieftains, among whom was King Lugaire. Great was the astonishment of the nobles on seeing this fire sporting up to the heavens in nobles on seeing this fite sporting up to the heavons in sight of the Halls of Tara, and the Saint was summoned to the presence of Lugaire. He addressed the King so eloquenty and ably, on the subject of true religion, that, almost permaded to yield to his (the Saint's) belief, he did not quite surrender. He gave him permission to preach, however, and the result was that he built a church on the very pot which had before been devoted to the sacrifices of the Pruidical god, Crum Cruuch. Success centinued to follow the feetsteps of St. Patrick during the whole course of his exertions to spread Christianity in Ireland—the Pruids and others, whose enmity he had o encounter, offering a less forcible resistance that is were erected in considerable numbers throughout Ireland, and, to give the new system the advantages of organization, the See of Armagh was founded, and it was filled by St. Patrick himself.

This morning there will be an orchestral performance at St. Patrick's Church, and Haydn's Mass, No. 3, will e sung by the choir.

It is expected, however, that two regiments of the Irish brigade, now recruiting here, will parade. CHARGED WITH ATTEMPTING TO DE-FRAUD.—On Saturday, in the Court of Quarter Sessions, an individual, formerly a grocer, was heard on a writ of habeas corpus, charging him with defrauding his creditors. A number of wholesale dealers were examined, creditors. A number of wholesale dealers were examined, with whom the defendant had been dealing for a number of years. As a general thing he paid his obligations of years. As a general thing he paid his obtigations promptly. To the present creditors, examined in the case, he was indebted in sums ranging from $170 to $500. A half dozen witnesses were examined. He finally sold out his stock at public auction, and the creditors remain uspaid up to the present time. The defendant, it is alleged, continued making heavy purchases, although he was arranging to sell out by auction.

A person in the employ of acfendant stated that after the store was closed and the bill of sale put up, persons came is there and bought goods in much larger quantities than usual; did not know that defendant brought the customers there reditors unpaid.

The counsel for the defence seked that his client be discharged, as there was not the least particle of evidence that he intended to defraud his creations. What was a construction of the control of AN INTERESTING CASE.—An interest-

A PRAYER FOR A TIME OF CITYIL WAB.—Bishop Potter has directed the following additional prayer to the clergy of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, to be read as there shall be occasion:

"O Eternal God, the shield of our help, beneath whose sovereign defence Thy people dwell in safety, we bless and praise, we laud and magnify Thy glorious name, for all Thy goodness to the people of this land, and especially for the success with which of late Thou hast crowned our efforts to maintain the authority of law and to restore once more the blessings of nuion and peace. Inspire our souls with grateful love; lift up our voices in eongs of thankfulness; make us humble and watchful in our prosperity, and prepare us for whatever reverses Thou shalt see that we need. Give wisdom and grace to our nilers. Pour constancy and courage and charity towards all men into the hearts of our people. Draw towards us those who are now alienated from us in appearance or in heart, and hasten, O Lord of Hosts, the blessed day when as one people we may once more give thanks unto Thee in Thy holy church, and by our daily lives show forth Thy praise, through Jesus Christ, our most blessed Lord and Saviour. CHARGED WITH LIBEL.—On Saturday CHARGED WITH LIBEL.—On Saturday morning Mr. E. W U Greene was charged with libel before Recorder Enru, and he entered bail to swait a hearing at 10 o'clock this morning. The charge was preferred against him by Mr. B. M. Dusenberry, a member of the Board of School Controllers. We understand that Mr. Greene, in this suit, will act as his own counsel, and resort to the constitutional right to cross-examine the witnesses. He designs, we learn, to make an address on the condition of the present Board of Countrol. The case will, without doubt, prove a very interesting one.

POCKET PICKED. - Alderman Shocmaker was robbed in a passenger railway car, on Friday evening, of a pocket-book containing about forty dollars in notes, and a lot of valuable papers, consisting of re-reipts, due bills, &c. The car was crowded, and the aller-man remembers that a couple of young men crowded hard man remembers that a couple of young men crowded hard against him. He did not miss his pocket-book until reaching the box office of the Continental Theatre.

THE CONTINENTAL DINNER—AN INJUNCTION ASKED FOR.—On Saturday, in the Distict Court, a bill was presented, in equity, praying a precial and perpetual injunction to prevent the city of Piliadelphia from pa ing the cost of the late dinner, by Councils, at the Continental Hotel. The hill is preferred by George F. Lewis and George Smith, citizens and taxpayers, against Philip B. Lutts, clerk of the Common Council. Emunuel Rey, clerk of Select Council, James McClintock, treasurer, and J. E. Stevens & Co. It recites the passage of the ordinance appropriating two thousand dollars for the expenses of the entertainment, and the Mayor's veto of the same, and the passage of it over the veto by a two-thirds vot—of both chambers. The complainment sallege that the said ordinance is illegal, and make the following objections to its validity:

1. That a considerable portion of the said sum of $2,000 was designed to cover the expenses of an entertainment—viz: eating, drinking, and smoking, provided by Councils for themselves and their guests, the said object not being properly or legally the subject of municipal enactment, assessment, or taxation.

2. That the moneys thus misappropriated were raised by general taxation. and cannot lawfully be devoted to any objects other than those of the general welfare, the entertainment referred to having no connection with the public or general good.

3. That the moneys thus misappropriated were raised THE CONTINENTAL DINNER—AN IN-entertainment referred to having no connection with the public or general good.

3. That the moneys thus misappropriated were raised by escelle taxation for certain specified purposes, and were paid and received for those particular purposes, and none others; that the entertainment of Councils was not amongst the purposes thus enumerated, and the withdrawal of the funds from the purposes to which they were to pledged is a perversion thereof, and a breach of the trust reposed in those controlling the appropriations.

4. That the Councils are, in this particular, the trustees of the public funds, and cannot lawfully appropriate the same to their ewn uses.

4. That the Councils are, in this particular, the trustees of the public funds, and cannot lawfully appropriate the same to their own use.

5. That by the filtieth section of the act of the General Beembly, passed the second day of February, A. D. 1854, commonly called the Consoliration Act, it is on-acted that "No member or members of Council, whether as a committee or otherwise, shall make any disbursement of corporate moneys, nor audit the accounts thereof, nor perform any other executive duty whatever."

And your orators charge that the action of the said Councils, herein complained of, is in direct violation of said section, the members of said Councils assuming in said ordinance to make "disbursements of the corporate moneys," to "audit the accounts thereof," and to "perform executive duty."

6. That b: the twenty-fourth section of the act of May 13th, 1356, it is proviced that "It shall not be lawful for any department or committee of said city, or the officers thereof, or fer the prison inspectors, to draw any moneys out of the City Treasury, or to use any savings, or the proceeds of the sales of any work or materials for or in any office, department, or prison, or any revenues whatsoever thereof, for any entertainment, eating, drinking, or smoking furnished to any members or officers of said city corporation, departments, or officers thereof, or of said prison, but shall pay the whole of said moneys into the City Treasury, and every warrant drawn for the expenses of every department of the gubic service and prison shall contain the declaration that no part thereof has been used for said preposes; and it shall be lawful penses of every department of the public service and prison shall contain the declaration that no part thereof has been used for said purposes; and it shall be lawful for the City Controller, and his duty, whenever required by any crizen, to administer an oath or affirmation to any person presenting a bill as ainst the city as to its accuracy, the prices actually paid or contracted to be paid therefor; whether others, and who, are interest therein, ordered whether entire he may deem needful to proand as to whatever matter he may deem needful to pro-tect the interests of the city." 7. And your orators charge that the action of said

Councils herein complained of is in direct violation of said section, the Councils being the legislative "department of said city," and the arowed object of said misappropriation being "to draw moneys out of the City Treasury for eating, drinking, and smoking, furnished to them as members and officers of said city." city."

8. That it is contended by defendants that said alleged ordinance was legally passed over the Mayor's veto, whereas your orators charge to the contrary thereof, that the same did not receive the number of yotes requisite and necessary to enact the same over said veto.

9. That said alleged ordinance directs that the warrants for said n.isappropriation shall be drawn by the clerks of Councils, there being no authority in the law for conferring such a power on said clerks.

The Count allowed the bill to be filed, ordered a cautionary injunction to be issued, and fixed Thursday next for the hearing of the case.

A SERIES OF FIRES.—On Saturday A SERIES OF FIRES.—On Saturday afternoon, shortly after five o'clock, a fire occurred at No. 235 Race street, in a five-storied brick building, owned and occupied partly by S. Levine & Son, manufacturers and dealers in webbing girthy, tassels, &c. There is also a large four-storied building in the rear of the one above mentioned. Mesers Levine & Son occupy the first floor front as a store, and all the rest of the building except the second story. The back building was occupied by various tenants, among whom were Clarenback & Herster, entiers; John Howard, last-maker; Reinhold & Moore, tobaceo cutters; and S. Bache and James Paramore & Son, polishers and grinders. There were a few other tenants in the building. The fire origitated in the engine-room, and is believed to have been accidental It burned into the store where Levine & Son had a steck of goods, valued at $5,000. This stock was conciderably damaged by fire and water. The loss is covered by insurance in the Franklin, Royal, and Northern Assurance of London Companies. The other portions of the building were slightly damaged by water.

The place had been closed for some time previous to the discovery of the fire, the workmen having gone to their homes. The fire was discovered by Officer Shrouds, of the Sixth ward police, who promptly gave the alarm. Through the exertions of the chief engineer and firemen the flames were prevented from injuring the surrounding properties. properties.

Between eight and nine o'clock on Saturday morning, a fire also occurred in a three-story brick building, No. 817 Market street. The structure was occupied by A. S. Noe as a turniture store and uploist ring establishment. The fire origina'ed in a closet at the head of the stairs, in the third story, and extended through the hatchway to the roof. The flames were subdued before any considerable damage was done. The building, which was slightly damaged, belongs to the Kates estate, and is insured in the Green Tree Insurance Company. The greater portion of the stock of Mr. Nee was removed. The remainder sufficed may from years. His least is defineded at about fored much from water. His loss is estimated at about $500. The stock, fixtures, &c., are insured for $1,000 in the Spring Garden Insurance Company. The origin of the fire was rather mysterious. Fire Marshal Blackburn is investigating the matter.

Late on Friday night, a fire occurred at the dwelling of Mr. Carling, in Manayunk. The damage done did not amount to nuch.

The alarm of fire about eight o'clock was caused by the burning of a frame stable, at the corner of Meetler street and Germantown road, attached to the hotel of Elias Ruth. The damage done was trifling. SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT.—The young ladies of the Fifteenth ward public schools were assembled in the Girls' Grammar School room, of the Livingston building, on Friday afternoon, to congratulate each other on the great success of their concert, held on the 25th ultimo at the Academy of Music, and to see and hear the elegant piano purchased with the profits. It was indeed a brilliant sight, of bright eyes and smiling faces. The room was tastefully decorated, as was remarked, "in the Gordonic style;" stars and stripes all around, in tasteful profusion. A beautiful feature of the occasion was the presence of all the teachers in the Sifteenth section, about sixty in number, charmingly dressed, and decidedly good-looking. Professor Fischer conducted the singing, and the school went through their pieces in grand style. Mr. George F. Gordon matic a short address, presenting the piano to the school, and making a full statement of the natters connected with the concert, showing: total proceeds $534; expenses $334; price of piano, purchased from Shommaker & Co, Chestnut street, above Tenth, $325—twenty-five dollars $334; price of piano, purchased frem Shoemaker & Co, Chestnut street, above Tenth, $325—twenty-five dollars being a donation from Shoemaker & Co. From the demonstrations of applause with which Mr. Gordon was greeted, we should judge he was a lavorite. Short speeches were now made by Thomas Potter and A. B. Ivens; after which, Directors Charles Adams, Henry Hoff, A. G. Hoffman, S. Danials, J. C. Dihainay, J. Keller, J. Clark, and Thomas Wood served out, in great abundance, ice cream and cakes.

The Concert Committee, composed of Misses Deihr, Potter, Bradbury, Cooper, Mendenhall, and Fischer, had a brilliant closing to their concert business.

The former principal, the late Miss Gillingham, (now Mrs. Gasper,) appeared as a visitor, and was greeted with hearty applause by her old pupils. It was an occasion long to be remembered. EAST BALLIANACORE Correspondence of The Press.]

BALTIMORE, March 13 BALTIMORE, March 13

EIGHTH DAY.

The service of this morning was conducted by Rev. Win. Hurden. The minutes were read and approved. Several ministers, including Samuel Kepler, Samuel Barne, A. A. Reese, and John H. Dashiell, desired to correct the reporters in regard to some remarks made on yesterday. A communication was read by the Secretary from the "Afficial body" of York (Penna.) station, requesting the Conference, if agreenble, to hold its next seesion in that ancient borough. The pastor of the charge, Rev D. Monroe, remarked that nothing would afford the people their more pleasure than for the Conference to accept their invitation. He would warrant them a cordial reception. The invitation was unnimously accepted.

ference to accept their invitation. He would warrant them a cordial reception. The invitation was unanimously accepted.

The report of the Methodist Book Concern was then read, which gave evidence of system and energy in conducting, and prosperity attending it. Dr. Carlton then asked permission to speak in behalf of the "Concern." He remarked that it was in a hea'thy condition; that the afflicting debt due the Southern Church was entirely paid; that the amount ordered by the General Conference to be paid the Pacific and California advocates had been transmitted; the salaries of the agents, bishops, &C., &C., had been promptly mot, and a handsome surplus remaining. The troubles we are passing through, as a nation, have already had a sud-circu upon the recipits of the "Concern," there being a great falling off in the purchase of books and periodicals, but he trusted they ear usbering in would be one of more than ordinary fales; and yot, were the times to remain as they are at pretent, he believed they could still make it support itself. He called especial attention to the periodicals of the Church. The time was when he received more money from the old Battimore Conferences for the Book Concern than from any other two Conferences in the connection, but there had been a sad falling off. The Christian ideocate and Journal, while it contained some things that many distited, this should be no reason why they should not subscribe for it. Because he found articles in books that did not chime in with his cyinions, was no reason why he should cease reading them—not at all. This he regarded as a parallel case. The Quarterly Review next claimed his attention, and the Sunday School Teacher's Journal, the latter of which should be in the hands of every lover of Sabbath Schools. He then spoke of the Sanday School Advectate, and of the choice selection of "Libraries" on hand, having acded to the already large supply forty-nine new ores during the past year.

The committee appointed upon the affairs of Dickinson College begged l han of twelve thousand dollars to remove all claims gainst said college.

President Jchnson, in an able speech, besought the Conference to look well into this subject, as it was one of the gravest importance. The proper education of the youth, who should fill their place in the ministry, was a matter of infinite moment. Many young nien around him at the precent, had been rearred within the academic hall of old Dickinson, and others were waiting for admission. The number of individuals who could trace their aspirings to this place was upwards of nine hundred, and were to be found in all the veri-d avocations of life.

The committee's report was then adopted unanimously. mously. Rev. Reuben E. Wilson and Rev. George Warren offered the following:
"That the n embers of the East Baltimore Conference,

"That the n embers of the East Baltimore Conference, in Convention assembled, request the presiding bishop not to appoint as presiding closer of any district a minister who has held that office for four consecutive years." At opted by a decided yete.

The Baltimore Conference having closed its session, the ministers availed themselves of the opportunity to meet their brethern of East Baltimore Accordingly they repaired to the "rooms," headed by Rev. Bishop Janes, whe was introduced to the Conference.

A report from the Sunday school Committee was then read by the accretary and adopted; also, one from the Preachers' Aid Society, which was also received and adopted. A paper was presented to the Conference containing a preamble and resolution as follows:

Whereas, The position of chaplaincy is an important and responsible position, and that the Government is entitled to all the takents and time of an individual thus applied to all the takents and time of an individual thus applied to all the takents and time of an individual thus applied to all the takents and time of an individual thus applied to all the takents.

The time for adjournment having arrived, a motion was made and adopted stating that we adjourn to meet this evening at 7% o'clock. Benediction pronounced by Rev. Henry Sicer, D. D.

A vote of thanks was tendered to the citizens of Baltimore for their kind hospitality, to the Bishop and secretaries for their efficient services, and to the presidents of the various railroads for their fiberal reduction of fare to and from the Conference. services, and to the presidents of the various railroads for their liberal reduction of fare to and from the Conference.

Obituary notices were read; first, that of Rev. James Ewing, who died full of peace, and in holy triumph. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

Evend, of Rev. Samuel B. Dunlap, who, amid all the commotion and distress caused by our national treables, in this city especially, remained calm and undisturbed until the hour of his death, when he fell asleep sweetly in the arms of Jesus.

Bishop Ames then arose to address the Conference, before reading the appointments.

It espoke of the superior advantages of the "Itinerant System;" how that in a sister denomination in New England there were four or five hundred churches without pastors and vice versa, while in the Methodist connection every church was supplied, and every effective minister had work, and of the six thousand pastors in the United States, only about thirty do not go to their work on an average. He challeaged the world to produce a plan wrought with more efficiency and harmony. He spoke of the trials they would endure; seme of the charges were hard eace; but about dilargely, and God will requite. No avocation is free from care and difficulties; meet those in the itinerancy with courageous hearts. Some of you have pleasant fields; strive to make them better; others are not so pleasant; so much more necessity of laboring assiduously. His syn pathies were not so much enlisted (though he knew all about the til so of an itinerancy for his breturen as they were for the families; and this afflicting of families caused him much anxiety, though the system was superior to any other in existence.

He besought them earnestly to be careful of a broth x's reputation. A word spoken, apparently harmless, might hedge up that brother's way for a twelvemonth.

He did not censure ambition in young men, $f$ it was of the proper character. The Word of God expressly sald that the minister should be careful to covet the best gifts.

MEDICINAL. GLUTEN CAPSULES

PURE COD-LIVER OIL. The reprignance of most patients to COD-LIVEB OIL, and the inability of many to take it at all, has induced various forms of disguise for its administration that are familiar to the Modical Profession. Some of them answer in special cases, but more eften they chelden neutralizes the naust effect of the Oil, proving quite as unpalatable and of less therapeutic value. The repugnance, nauses, &c., to invalids, induced by disgust of the Oil, is entirely obvicted by the use of our CAPSULES. UOD-LIVER OIL CAPSULES have been much used lately in Europe, the experience there of the good-results from their use in both hespital and private practice, aside from the naturally suggested advantages, are sufficient to warrant our claiming the virtues we do frem, feeling assured their use will result in benefit and deserved favor.
