LECTURE BY WENDELL PHILLIPS .- From an advertisement elsewhere it will be seen that Mr. Wendel Phillips, "the silver-tongued orator of America," will deliver a lecture at Concert Hail to-morrow (Wednesday) evening, on "The War and the Times." The universal interest felt in the sentiments of Mr. Phillips at the present crisis will, doubtless, secure for him a ver large audience.

DRIED AND SMOKED FISH OF SUPERIOR QUALITY .-- Mr. C. H. Mattson, dealer in Fine Groceries Arch and Tenth streets, has now on hand a fine lot of Smoked and Spiced Salmon; also, Sardines, Mess Mackerel, Cod, and all other kinds of dried and preserved fish. Cremer & Co., 18 South Eighth street, GENERAL MCCLELLAN'S ADDRESS TO THE ARMY.—The address of General McClellan to the army of the Potomac has the true Shakspearian ring about it. It reminds one of the speech of Henry V. before the battl f Agincourt, when he said, that

"Gentlemen in England, now a-bod, Shall think themselves accure'd they were not here." "Our George" concludes his address by saying, "and when this sad war is over, we will all return to our homes, and feel that we can ask no higher honor than the proud-consciousness that we belonged to the army of the Potomac." The General might also have added that during the progress of the war, he and his loyal fellow-warriors had enjoyed the comfort and satisfaction of wearing elegant and substantial uniforms from the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth.

Passes to Fortress Monroe.—The Secretary of War has issued an order prohibiting all persons, except those in the service of the United States, from visiting Fortress Monroe. It is understood that no ex--ceptions will be made except of those who hold the pas f Secretary Stanton. This will not be granted to any but a few who have already received permission to go to Norfolk on flags of truce. Passes will also be issued by Granville Stokes, the Fashioner and Clothier, at No. 600 Chestuut street-not to visit the Fortress, but his Main moth Clothing Emporium which he keeps constantly stocked with seasonable garments of the latest styles an fashions, which are worth seeing.

COLONEL BROWN, OF FORT PICKENS, BEFORE THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN IN NEW YORK-THE COLONEL A JOKE .... In the interview the Colonel held with tha sugust body, the other day, many inquiries were made, during the conversation, concerning Billy Wilson and his "through Baltimore or death" Zonaves. One of the aldermen remarked that there was no chance for "stealin's down there, (alluding to the number of light-fingere gentry supposed to be in the regiment). The Colone answered by saying "No;" but then they have good "pickin's," and that seems to be their "forte;" immediately after which the Colonel left. Some of the Board, next day, were heard to declare that they believed that was a joke the Colonel perpetrated yesterday, and they were glad he had left the city. The Colonel is expected a "Continental" to-day, and we hope he will not talk much, for the reputation of the house. The Continents celebra ed Clothing Store of Mr. Charles Stokes.
