THE LATEST WAR NEWS.

We publish this morning, further details of the late battle at Winchester. A despatch from General Banks...

Our special correspondent connected with the Burnside Expedition has written as a capital letter, descriptive of the taking of Newbern, North Carolina. It is somewhat lengthy, but its style is so simple and unassuming...

We learn from Beaufort, N. C., via Fortress Monroe, (and from our correspondent at the latter point) that the rebel steamer Nashville, variously reported as having been captured and burnt, has been seen again...

Several weeks ago, Gen. Wool, on behalf of the Federal Government, and Gen. Cobb, on the part of the rebels, entered into an agreement that all prisoners captured in battle should be exchanged.

By the arrival of the steamer China, at New York, we have two days' later news from Europe. The proposed amendments of the Liberal party in the French Legislature to the paragraphs relative to Amer's affairs, in the address to the Emperor...
