and the explanation which the late Premier made and the explanation which the late Premier made before the Parliament of that country does not touch upon the alleged cause which led to his downfall. Some surprise has been expressed at the attitude which Garibaldi maintains towards Batazzi, but there is a motive in it, in all probability, that does not ap-pear on the surface. In Rome a conspiracy has been discovered, which has excited a considerable sensation, and it is said that a number of persons belonging to the Liberal party, several of whom have sought safety in flight, have been compro-mised. It is clear that the insurrection now pre-vailing in Greece has the sympathy of the great bedy of the people, and there is every chance of its vailing in Greece has the sympathy of the great body of the people, and there is every chance of its being successful. The Government is evidently unpopular, if not odious, and a revolution will pro-bably take place that threatens to give uncasi-ness to the Great Powers of Europe. The Mexi-can expedition is giving trouble to our own Cabi-net, and the conduct of the Spaniards has been evidently displeasing to France. It is regarded as a laby inth, out of which our Government cannot a larger introduction of the outer the comparison of the sec its way, and there are runnors that the Opposition, having nothing better to fasten on, may make it the lever for turning out Lord Palmerston. A Town COUNCILLOR IN TROUBLE.—Mr. Barney Sheehan, an eccentric member of the Cork Town Council. got into trouble on the 3d. His oddities have been tolerated to an extraordinary extent by his fellow-oitizens, but Baron Hughes did not un-derstand that sort of indulgence. In reference to a remark of counsel about frivolous actions, Mr. Sheehan, in a loud voice, said, "It's all the fault of them humbug pious attorneys, my lord," The judge inquired who the man was, and at once or-dered him to be placed in the dock. "Oh, my lord," said Barney, "but I beg your pardon, sir, for a minute. I didn't mean anything at all, in-deed, sir." Ho was kept in the dock till the court rose, at six o'clock, when Professor Barry pleaded for him, and obtained his ro ease, on con-dition that he should not enter either of the courts during the rest of the sittings, Baron Hughes ex-playing that he had been aware that the same person had interrupted the court on former occa-sions.

The ENGLISH AT RONE.—To the English gentry who were presented to him the other day, Plus IX. was peculiarly kind, assuring them of the interest he took in them, and expressing an earnest hope that their journey through this transitory world, in which they were but passengers, might be a smooth one. Among those that were admitted to the honor of his levce was a well known racing man, and who, as a Protestant, could draw no other augury from the above benediction of his holiness save "that he wished him a good year;" and, as he had lost on the last three Derbys, it is needless to add that he cordially echoed the Pontiff's desire.—Letter from Rome. PURE COD-LIVER OIL. The reprgnance of most patients to COD-LIVER OIL, and the inability of many to take it at all, has in-duced various forms for disguise for its administration that are familiar to the Medical Profession. Some of them answer in special cases, but more eften thely chicle neutralizes the usual effect of the Oil, proving quite as unpalatable and of loss therapentic value. The reprg-nance, nauses, kc., to invalids, induced by disgust of the Oil, is entirely obviated by Mie use of our CAPSULES. COD-LIVER OIL CAPSULES have been much need lately in Europe, the experience there of the goodWre-suits from their use in both hospital and private practice, aside from the naturally suggested advantages, are suf-ficient to warrant our classing the virtues we do for them, feeling assured their use will result in benefit and deserved favor.
