Al-ternate-John W.Jaekeon. Rev. C. Karsner moved a reconsideration of the vote by which the P. E. was not allowed to omploy Rev. J. S. J. McConnell. He gave the substance of conversation he had with him, and read communicanons explain-ing the misunderstanding to his case. He was entirely satisfied that this young man was worthy of confidence, as a good man, a preacher of solity, and desidedly in favor of the Union and the Government. The vote was reconsidered. His recommadiation, which was laid on the table, was taken up, and the P. E. was granted permission to employ him in the itinorant work.

Nos granter preserve a statement, that his views on Thurs ay had been incorrectly stated in some of the papers. He was reported as having said that the "wretched newspapers have deluded the people with the ery of Union, Union, Union." He demanded that the correction should be made. His remark, he stated, was in regard to Secession newspapers which had de-buded the neode.

was in regard to Seccesion newspapers which had de-luded the people. Rev. James Moore, an ordained minister of the Metho-dist Protestant Church, came before the bar of the Con-ference for the purpose of having his ordination recog-nized. The usual yous were presented to him, which he took, and thus he becomes a munister of the M. E. Church, without the reimposition of hands. The order of the day—viz: the report of the Education Committee—was then taken up. The report consists of two parts, the first in reference to The time follows:

vere invited to take part. Edwin Wilmer, Esg., made an address in strong terms Ldwin Wilnier, Esq., made an address in strong terms in favor of the president, faculty, and institution at Wil-mingion, Delawara. He eloquently pleaded for the relief of the college from all financed embarrassment. Ho be-lieved it could be done. When Mapoleon proposed a passaze of the Alps, one of his generals said it was im-possible "Impossible, inpossible," said Napoleon, "the word is not French." So said Mr. Wilmer-when a work should be accomplished by the Church, the word impossible is not Methodistic.

prossible is not Methodistic. He believed any pastor could raise, from his people, at least $50 for that purpose. He would pledge that amount to the pastor that the Bishop should send for the church to the paster the the bary matter the beautiful figure, compa-he closed his address with a beautiful figure, compa-ring the Church to a hole ship, outriding every storm and destined to sail on till the light of the millennial mora should dawn on a world redeemed and saved, ending with which down a work recent of and sorted, that in the venerable Bishop made a statement explanatory and apologetical. He stated that he had been com-pelled to call upon assistance in presiding over the Con-terence. He had supposed that when old age should come the world would furn dark, and the durch dage should come the world would furn dark, and the Church turn green, and lifs be a burden. His general heatth was good, but he was suffering from a complaint which Dr. Clark says cannot be cured—namely, old age. But he has no more gumption than to believe that the world is making pro-rease

The debate upon the interests of the Female College was continued until the hour of quarter before 12 o'cleck. An afternoon session was ordered for 3 o'clock. Rev. B. J. Way was granted leave of absence on ac-court of sick pass.

NEW PUBLICATIONS. DEPARTURE OF THE BODIES OF THE DEPARTURE OF THE BODIES OF THE BULL RUN VICTIMS.—YA-terday morning, the bodies of Coloret Stocum, Major Bhitom, and Caption Towers, of the Bhode Island regiment, who fell at Buil Run, were removed from Independence Hall, where they had been since Wednesday. About tight o'clock in the morning, the three hearse, surmonned by nodding plumes, and driven by men who were class in deep black, and who were streamers of crape upon their hals, maile their ap-pearance in front of the hall. The collins were brought from the ball and placed in the hearse; The second was appropriated to the collin of Major Balou, while the third was occupied by the remains of Colonel Sircum Each of the backs enclosing the collins was covered with the entriet on the hearses, the ine wasformed in the follow-in order: T. O. H. P. BUBNHAM, 143 WASHINGTON STREET, BOSTON. PUBLISHES THIS DAY: CADET LIFE AT WEST POINT.

BY AN OFFICEB OF THE U.S.A. One Volume, 16mo, elegantly printed and bound, Stee Frontispiece,

This book is calculated to have a peculiar interest for all. The author's lively, animated, and pictures que style; his admirable descriptions of cudet life, in its social as well as military aspects ; his keen sense of the ludicrous, which finds congenial sphere of exercise in the ad-ventures which he narrates, added to the wide-spread interest which attaches to this "stronghold of romance, chivalry, and song," cannot fail to attract the general reader, while its practical suggestions partaining to military life, and the insight which it gives into the dis pline and routine of duty at West Point, commend it to nilitary readors To the graduates of West Point, the interests, the incl-

dents, and the localities will be brought back with all the freshness of actual presence, and be welcomed as the familliar face of an old triend. SACRED BOOKS OF ALL NATIONS. NOW READY : THE KORAN; OR, MOHAMMEDAN BIBLE. Translated into English immediately from the original Arabic. By GEORGE SALE, Gont.

To which is prefixed the Life of Mchaumed, or the His tory of that Doctrine which was begue, carried on, and finally established by him. One handsome vol., 12mo. 472 pp. Cloth, extra. Price $1. The Koran forms the Moslem code of penal and religious law; and is believed by them to be inimitable by uman pen; and therefore insisted upon as a permanen numan per, and therefore maisted upon as a permanent miracle, greater than the raising of the dead to life, and alone sufficient to convince the world of its heavenly origin. It would not be far out of the way (says Prof. Tayler Lewis, of Union College, an able writer) to regard it as one of the apocryphal books of the Bible. The great interest consists in its in tependent narration of some of the leading events in the early Old Testament history, and it is in its oft-asserted claim to be the religion of Abraham that this sublime poem of Mohammed has its real power and long-enduring hold in so many parts of the older continent.

The Koran is written with the utmost elegance and purity of lauguage. The Koran will be followed by translations of THE TAX ON DOGS .- A correspondent sends us a communication asking that the Government may put a tax on canines. Just Published: A POPULAR TREATISE DEAFNESS. ITS CAUSES AND PREVENTION. By E. BUNFORD LIGHTHILL, M. D., with Illustrations. One elegant 12mo, cloth bound. Price 50 cents. The deplorable degree of ignorance existing among the general public in regard to matters concerning this highly valuable organ, has convinced the author that a popular work on the subject would be of immense value, and he has endeavored in this little volume to disseminate, in plain and simple language, a perfect knowledge of the causes which produce deafness, and the means best calculated for its prevention.

PURE COD-LIVER OIL

PURE COD-LIVER OIL., The repugnance of most patients to COD-LIVER OIL, and the inability of many to take it at all, has in-duced various forms for disguise for its administration that are familiar to the Medical Profession. Some of them answer in special cases, but more often thelychicle neutralizes the usual effect of the Oil, proving quite an unpalatable and of less therspecito value. The repug-nance, names, &c., to invalids, induced hy disgust of the Oil, is entirely obvicted by the use of our CAPSULES. OOD-LIVEB OIL CAPSULES have been much need lately in Europe, the experience there of the good re-sults from their use in both hospital and private practice, saide from the naturally suggested advantages, are suf-factorit to wairfait our claiming the virtues we do for them, feeling assured their use will result in benefit and deserved favor. The third resolution was read and unanimously adopted. The fourth being under consideration, Rev. J. R. An-derson moved to strike out "by whom kings reign," &c., as in this country we do not believe in the Divine right of kings! [Laughter.] He thought that in republican Americà we do not need any such quotation. Kings were given by the Almighty as a great infiction. The amendment was laid upon the tablo, and the reso-lution was adopted unanimously. The fifth resolution was taken up. Rev. P. LARCENY OF TEAS AND CHEESE .-Yesterday afternoon, a colored man named Allen Wood was charged before Aldernan Beiller with the theft of two boxes of tea and a cheese from the Reading Rail-road depot. At the same time, Dennis Heenan was road depot. At the same time, Dennis Heenan was charged with receiving the groceries, knowing them to be stolen. It appeared at the hearing that Wood was in the employ of a furniture dealer at Second and Race streets, and had frequent occasion to take loads of furniture to Broad and Callowill streats. For some time past various article had been missed from the depot, and suspicion fell on Wood, from the fact that whenever he brought a load of furniture he would throw his horse blanket on the ground, and when he went driving, it seemed to cover some bulky article. Accordingly, at his last visit be was watched, and was seen to place a cheese box under his blanket as he left the station. He was taken into custedy and sent down to Moyamensing prison. Having been caught in flagrante delictu, he con-fessed the theft, and said that he had sold the proceeds ef former robberies to an Irishman named Koenan. A search was instituted for this latter personage but without avail till he was accidentally discovered in this wise. Detectives Lamon and Bartholonew, who had the master in hand, paid a visit to the prison, and while passing along acorrider near the cell in which Wood was confined, observed that has had when be none have no heat ensumatter in hand, paid a visit to the prisen, and while passing along according reast the cell in which Wood was confined, observed that he was talking through his grating to an Irishman. They suspected this man at once, and asked him his name. The individual, not dreaming for a moment that he was talking to detectives, answered that he was Dennis Heenan. He was immediately taken into custody, and admitted having bought cheese and tea from Woed. His story was corroborated by the subsequent discovery in his house of both tes and cheese. Both priseners were held to answer at court. RAILROAD MATTERS .- In addition to
