THE PRESS. GBLISHID DAILY (SUNDAYS EXCEPTED.) BY JOHN W. FORNEY. FICE NO. 111 SOUTH FOURTH STREET. THE DAILY PRESS. RIVE GENTS FRE WEEK, payable to the Carrier- lied to subsoribers out of the City at Six Dollars ANNOW, FOUR DOLLARS FOR BIGHT MONTH'S	O.				Pre	øø.	THE WAR PRESS will be sent to subscribera by mail (per anoum in advance) at
THE DOLLARS FOR SIX MONTHS—invariably in ad- ce for the time ordered. THE TRI-WEEKLY PRESS, (added to Subscribers out of the Gity at TREE Dol- is PER ANNUM, in advance.	VOL. 5.—NO. 217.	Р	HILADELPHIA, WED	NESDAY, APRIL 16, 1	862.	TWO CENTS.	BO Posimasters are requested to act as Agents in THE WAR PRESS. BO Advertisements inserted at the usual rates. St lines constitute a square.
CLOTHING. 10 THE GENTLEMEN OF PHI-	JEWELRY, &c. CLARK'S	RETAIL DRY GOODS. GRAY SILK POPLINS. Beet quality Grays and Checks, Very glossy and desirable.	The Press.	ing seventy two years old, is laid up now with a painful, and perhaps fatal complaint. He has been cut for the stone, and cannot be said to have yet	THE GREAT BATTLE OF PITTSBURG. TWENTY-TWO HUNDRED REBEL PRISONERS TAKEN.	LATE SOUTHERN NEWS. REBEL ACCOUNTS OF UNION VICTORIES.	A NARROW ESTAPE-IN THE MIDST OF A BATTERT. And now I have elumsily brought you up to Friday, the day of the fall of McCulloch and Mo- Intoch. At night, a friend and myself, within five miles of Renthere like some shad shad for the scane
A CARD.	ONE DOLLAR STORE, 602 CHESTNUT STREET. NEW GOODS,	Bild Very glossy and deen and the same set of	WEDNESDAY, APRIL 16, 1862.	recovered from the operation. Thore are renewed accounts of the increasing in- firmity of the Pope. He is feeble, but it is de- clared that his bodily health is not worse than that	ALL THE UNION BATTERIES RECOVERED. A PLAG OF TRUCE FROM BEAUREGARD.	THE BATTLES OF WINCHESTER AND PEA BIDGE.	miles of Bentonville, rose and started for the scenc of the impending battle. About nine or ten miles up Sugar Creek, north of Bentonville, I stopped to get a drink of water, my friend going on ahead. In a few minutes, the Federal scouts, and then one of that backment in the scouts and then one
t having been next to an impossibility, hereto-	NEW STYLES, AND NEW PRICES. For ONE DOLLAR you can buy any one of the fol- lowing articles:	Bpl4 SHARPLESS BROS. WIDE CHIN3ZES. Bright Styles for Children.	OUR FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE. LETTER FROM LONDON.	of most men of seventy who have led assettic lives. His death, no doubt, will materially alter Napo- leon's relations with Italy. The new Pope, who	Bridges on the Mobile and Ohio Railroad Destroyed.	The Richmond Whig of the 9th inst. comes to us with accounts of the Winchester and Pea Ridge battles, in noither of which are the rebels, by their	pied it just behind my friend and before me. I rode out into the brush, and then commenced the rose of cannon four miles in advance, where Var
e, to obtain CUSTOMER-MADE CLOTHING, MODERATE PRICES, and finding that many stlemen would prefer their Clothing MADE TO DER, if they could secure at the same time	Sets of Silver Plated Tea Spoons, ii ii ii Dogart ii ii ii Table ii ii ii ii ii Croks.	Nent and Bold Styles for dresses. Magenta figures and Lilacs. SHARPLESS BROS., apl4 OHESTNUT and EIGHTH Streets.	End of the Wooden Walls-Muil-clad War- Ships-The Age of Irou-The Peabody En- dowment-Parliamentary Defeat of the Miu-	ever he may be, would probably have to get on as best he could, without the protection of a French army in Rome. Lord Palmerston has latterly become a martyr	REBEL COMMUNICATION WITH ALABAMA CUT OFF. GENERAL GRANT'S OFFICIAL REPORT.	own testimony, defeated. In reference to the former engagement, styled by the rebels the battle of Kernstown, the editor of the Whig says: "The subjoined account of Gen. Jackson's brilliant en-	thousand Missourians against twice that number o well-posted Federals After listening some mo ments to the terrible tumult in the distance sud
ALLY FIRST-CLASS STYLES, and at ALLY REASONABLE PRICES, we have, at apprast solicitation of our patrons, organized,	G G Desert G Pair G Knife and Fork. G G Napkin Rings. G G G Butter Knives.	CLOAKS! CLOAKS! CLOAKS! THE GBEATEST BARGAINS IN THE CITY IVENS & CO.'S,	istry—The Princess Royal—Queeu Victoria and the Albert Obelisk—Commissions in Mourning—Victoria and the Russell De- spatches—The Orleans Princess—King Leo.		GEN. HALLECK IN COMMAND.	counter with the enemy in the lower valley of Virginia should have reached us several days ago. It is from a distinguished and thoroughly reliable source, and we give it insertion, notwithstanding	or three cannon opened their brazen throats, hurlin their missiles of death through the undergrowth is almost every direction. As the sound of the can non came the third or fourth time, like the noise it connection with our extensive Ready-Made es-Rooms, a complete CUSTOMER DEPART- ENT. in which the prominent features are, st. Fine and Medium Materials, made up in	Silver Plated Sugar Bowl. " " Butter Dialt. " " Molaasen Pircher. " " Créatin "	No. 23 SOUTH NINTH STREET. THE LARGEST STOCK, THE BEST ASSORTMENT, THE CHOICEST COLORS, THE FINEST QUALIFIES, THE MOST SUPERB TRIMMINGS,	pold in Danger—The Pope's Ailments— Palmerston's Gont—Longevity of the No- bility—Lord Lyndhurst—Great Exhibition— Thackeray's Editorial Farewell—The April	during Mr. Gladstone's speech introducing the Budget, next week. It is certain that, two days after the Globe sorrowfully recorded his illness,	OUR LOSS FIFTEEN HUNDBED KILLED AND THIRTY-FIVE HUNDBED WOUNDED. THE LOSS IN ARTILLERY.	much of the information it imparts has been anti- Sipated." StAston, March $1. To the Editor of the Whig:	springtime on the marshy margin of a lake, only more shrill, loud, and apparently more numerou than even the frogs, came the war whoop and hideous yell of the Indians. Here I was un consciously in the music almost of McCulloph
t-class styles; d. Unexceptionable Fitting Garments; d. Prices FAR LOWER THAN HAS BEEN STOMARY;	" " Castor. " " Waiter " " Goblet. " " Drinking Cop.	THE NEWEST STYLES, THE BEST WORK, AND DECIDEDLY THE LOWEST PRICES,	Magazines: Cornhill, Fraser, Blackwood, Bentley, New Monthly, and Temple Bay- Thackerny's New Story-Sir George Lewis- Bulwart fractories	East, despite the gent, was in the chair, as usual	PROXIMITY OF THE TWO FORCES.	I send you such particulars as I have been able to gather of the bloody battle near Winchester. It is impossible to get accurate accounts of the de-	charging squadron, and in range of a battery e three guns that were hurling death and defiance a them.
th. A corps of the most celebrated cutters in scountry. In extensive assortment of the choicest im-	" " Sugar Sifter. Gold Plated Vest Ghain, all styles. " " Guard " " " " Neck " " "	IN THE CITY, I V E N S & C O .'S, No. 23 SOUTH NINTH STREET. mh26.5m	Mrs. Wood's Newest New Novel—Sala's New Tale a Failure—Jerrold and Heraud—West- minster Review Changes Hands—Penny Il- lustrated Papers+" Punch" Declines, and		PROSPECTS UF ANOTHER FIGHT. CINCINNATI, April 15.—The Commercial has in- formation from a reliable man who left the battle	tails of the conflict, 38 thors engaged can only speak of what occurred in the range of their observation, and they were kept too busy to look much around them. From all accounts it was the most desperate contest of the war. Many who participated in	The battery was speedily charged and captured those supporting it being borne backward three quarters of a mile by the innettons forward pre-ted and domestic fabrics from the New York I Philadelphia markets, suitable for Coats, Pants, I Vests, always on hand. R our Ready made Salesrooms can always be	" " Ghatelaine; " " " Grazeslet, " " " Medallion, " " " Armlets, " "	103 NORTH EIGHTH STREET, second doob above arch, LADIES' DRESS TRIMNINGS, &c.	"Fun" Prospers. [Correspondence of The Press.] LONDON, March 29, 1862.	strong as Derby, aged 63. It has often been noticed that the members of the British peerage have wonderful longevity. The fact is, they have rural life during six months in the	ground on Thursday evening. He estimates our loss in killed at 1,200 to 1,500, wounded 3,500 to 4,000, and missing 2,500.	both engagements think that Manassas was child's play compared with Winchester: and from the fact that the loss on our side was twenty per cent. of the whole number engaged, and that of the encomy still greater. I am inclined to think their opinion is well	of the Confederates. Their retreat, most of th way, was through a confield, down a rad upon it borders, but continuing into woods adjacent, full o undergrowth, where the main force of the enemy nd every variety and style of well-made fashion- e clothing. Spring stock now ready. PRICES DERATE.	" " Breast Pin, " " " " Ear Rings, " " " " Pin and Drops, all styles. " " Studs and Buttons, " "	The Copartnership heretofore existing between KAUFMAN & LONNERSTADTER Having been dissolved by mutual consent, the under- signed respectfully informs the patrons and friends of	Within living memory, no event has so com- pletely excited wonder and interest in the mind of England as the encounter between the two American mailed vessels, the Merrimac and the Monutor .	year, abundant wealth, and little to trouble them. We have just had an account of the death of Lord Torphichen, a Scotch peer, in his 93d year. He was	The rebels lost more killed than we did, but not so many wounded. About 1,009 unwounded rebel prisoners were taken, and about 1,200 wounded. Up to the time he left, 2,200 rebels had been bu-	founded. DISPARITY OF THE FORCES-THE REBELS RETIRE IN GOOD ORDER. General Jackson's official report will give the	tling musketry, which soon increased to a Niagar in sound. For hours there was hardly an inter mission says that created by the stunning roor of
WANAMAKER & BROWN, MERCHANT TAILORS AND CLOTHIERS,	 Golitary Slovo Button, all styles. Goson Studs, Goson Stu	the old firm, and the trade in general, that he has taken all the up-stairs rooms of NO. 103 NORTH EICHTH STREET, ABOVE ARCH. To continue the manufacturing of all kinds of	I have been told, by people who remember both, that not even the battle of Trafalgar, which cost the life of Nelson, or the news of Bonaparte's re- turn from Elba, or the victory at Waterloo, which	born in 1770, just when Lord George Germaine and Sir Philip Francis were astonishing the world with the Letters of Junius, and he did not succeed to the title until 1815. What events did this old	ried. Our troops retook, on Monday, all the batteries lost on Sunday, and captured twelve pieces from the enemy.	only reliable account of the battle as a whole; but we have gathered some facts from those engaged, and civilians who left Winchester since the fight, which will shed some light on the subject. I learn	were dealended. Within this vortex of fire fel McCulloch and McIntosh. At one time, havin concluded to make my way to the immediate com mand of General Price, after passing from th
"OAK HALL," S. E cor. SIXTH and MARKET Streets. mh27-ff	" "Pon with Penell Case. Ladues' or Gentlemen's Port Monnaie, Gubas, Bags, Purses, &c., &c. All Goods warranted as repre- gented. We have on hand a large assortiment of Photo- eraph Albums, Mantel Clocks, Travelling Bage, and	DRESS, CLOAK, AND MANTILLA TRIMMINGS, FRINGES. BUTTONS, TASSELS, CORD, HEAD NETS, Of all descriptions. Ac., Ac.,	was scarcely expected, caused more excitement than the news that in American waters had been solved the question of the utter superiority of	man witness!the American Revolution, the Par- tition of Poland, the downfall of the French Monarchy, the Republic, the Empire, the Resto-	So confident were the rebels in their ability to hold our camps, which they took on Sunday, that, with a single exception, they did not destroy them.	from a reliable source that the number of infantry engaged on our side was 2,200: In addition to these were the Rockingham and Augusta Batteries, and probably some others, making an aggregate force of	confield down to the edge of the woods, just a four of us entered the woods, a shell was thrown a us, bursting in our midst, but without injury to an of our party. We were brought to a stand-still
WHOLESALE HOUSES. Y AND 54-INCH	Gold Jewelry, which we are closing off at cost. The at- tention of the trade respectfully solicited. D. W. CLARK'S ONE DOLLAR STORE.	And will offer inducements in price and quality, as well as prompt attendance to orders, in every article apper- taining to his line. WM LONNERSTADTER,	iron-clad to wooden war ships, however strong the latter. As reported in The Trmes , the exploits of the Merrimac were magnified, and those of the Mo -	Bourbons, the rise and fall of Louis Philippe, the accession of Napoleon III, the Crimean and Italian Wars, and, finally, the American Civil War. The	On Tuesday, Beauregard sent a flag of truce, re- questing permission to bury his dead, and saying "owing to the heavy reinforcements you received on Sunday night and Monday, and the fatigue of	for many nours our little pane of neroes maint	path. Whether any more came in the same direction I am unable to say. We yielded the place
SKY-BLUE KERSEYS,	apl-2m 602 CHESTNUT Street.	ap4-2m] No. 103 North EIGHTH Street, ab. Arch. NEW GOODS OPENING DAILY. -Plaid Foulards, black, brown, blue, and lilac. Plain brown Foulards, one vard wide.	nitor proportionably minified, (I claim copyright of this word, as its inventor). Still, it was admitted that the steam ram is a decided success, that hence- forth our old "wooden walls" are worth nothing	death of Lord Torphichen leaves Lord Lyndhurst the oldest man in the British peerage. Born in Boston, Massachusetts, in 1772, he will complete his nincticth year on the 21st of next May. He	my men, I deemed it prudent to retire, and not re- new the battle." The permission was not granted. The bearer of the flag of truce admitted that	of the enemy, and inally withdrew in good order, when increasing numbers of the foe threatened to surround them. "OLD STONEWALL JACKSON." The first runnor was that Jackson had been	over the cornfield and rode back to the deserted guns. Abent forty five men lay in the space of two or three hundred yards to the rear of the hattery all save one entirely dead.
BLACK CADET AND OXFORD Do.	1862. SPRING. 1862.	Diques, white ground and bouquets of Chintz colors. Wool De Laines, choice shades. Piaid and small figured Wool De Laines, for children. A large assortment of Ginghams, at 12%, 20, and 25 cents.	in warfare, and that we must greatly increase the weight of our naval artillery to have a chance of holding our own at sea. The Morning Herald	was only two years old when his father, the painter, brought him to England from America. At this moment, when he pleases to make the effort, there is no more effective orator in the House of Lords,	Beauregard received a slight wound in the left arm. An Important Expedition. PITTSBURG LANDING, April 14.—A force of 4,000	caught in a trap, and dreadfully worsted. But this is altogether a mistake. Jackson was duly apprised of the movements of the enemy. and acted with his eyes wide open in the whole affair. His	FRIEF TRIEMPH OF THE STARS AND DARS. It is now sunset, and we have everywhere ad vanced the "Stars and Bars." I have said nothing of Generals Van Dorn and Price, for the reason
PRINTED Do, in variety. RLACK AND FANCY MIXED DOESKINS.	ABBOTT. JOHNES. & CO., 527 MARKET STREET,	A fresh assortment of Cloaking Cloths. Small figure dark brown Mohairs, choice. Shepherd's Plaids, from 18% to 50 cents. Silk and Wool Poplins in great variety, at JOHN H STOKES', No 700 AlVH Streat	admits that a revolution in naval warfare is accom- plished, and significantly adds: "Let us hope that this naval battle will infuse a little fresh spirit into the Admiralty, if the completion of the Warrior	though he is so feeble, bodily, as to be unable to deliver a speech on his legs. The great Exhibition, the roof of which leaks so	troops, in five transports, left the Landing on Sa- turday night, accompanied by the gunboats Tyler and Lexangton, and proceeded up the Tennessee river to a point near Eastport, Mississippi, where	object was to give the enemy a foretaste of what they had to expect in the valley, and if they were satisfied with the result I am sure "Old Stone.	that I have been separated from them during the entire fight; but all accounts from all quarter state that the Missourians surpassed all succent and modern history of valor under these generals General Van Dorn exclaims—"The Old Guard o
ANCY CASSIMERES AND MELTONS.	Have now open an entirely new and attractive stock in ENGLISH, FRENCH, GERMAN, AND	No. 702 ARCH Street. N. BGood black Silks, 87%, 81, and 81.12%. Call and examine our $1.12% black Silks. mh28 TINE LACE CURTAINS - REAL	has exhausted all their strength. If things pro- gress as they do now, it is tolerably evident we shall not be the first, but the third naval Power."	much that manufacturers refuse to send in their finer wares until it is made water-proof, will be opened on the first of May by a Royal Commission, but will then be far from complete.	they landed, and proceeded inland to Bear Creek Bridge. Here they destroyed the two bridges on the Mo-	I learn through a gentleman who left Winches- ter on Tuesday that Mr. Philip Williams and other gentlemen applied to the Federal commander for permission to bury our dead. This was granted.	Mapcleon was not composed of braver men." " have never in battle seen their equals," &c , &c Traly can he say so. We have seen their trial and their gallantry. Amidst the bravest of the
JOSEPH LEA, 20-11 125 AND 130 CHESTNUT STREET	AMERICAN DRESS GOODS.	P BAEGAINS. An extensive assortment of RICH LACE OURTAINS, of new and beautiful designs, at 20 per cent. below im- porters' prices, ranging from 56 up to 522 per pair. ALSO.	For the Daily Telegraph, the penny rival of The Times, I cannot say that I entertain much love—it has been too constant, too bitter, and too unfair in its anti-American articles for that. But	Napoleon and his wife will probably attend the opening. In my last letter, I stated that Mr. Thackeray	bile and Ohio Railroad, one measuring one hundred and twenty-one, and the other two hundred and ten feet in length. A rebel cavalry force of one hundred and fifty	and the pious duty was performed in a suitable manner. The number of our dead was 33, which has been increased by subsequent deaths to about 90. Our whole loss in killed, wounded, and pri-	brave, we know that the army of Missouri and it leader, Sterling Price, should have the bighes plass, GREAT ENPECTATIONS-DEATH OF HIVES.
MILLINERY GOODS. 862. SPRING. 1862.	Also, & full assortment in WHITE GOODS, RIBBONS, GLOYES,	Nottingham Lace Curtains, Nottingham Lace Dra- peries, and Tamboured Muslim Draperies, at greatly re- duced prices. SHEPPARD, VAN HARLINGEN, & ARRISON, Curtain Warehouse,	it is a journal extremely well written, and remarka- ble for the variety and general accuracy of its news. On Wednesday, it gave a New York letter containing an account of the combat of the Merri-	was about resigning the editorship of the Cornhill Magazine, with its cares and salary. In the April number, which was published to-day, Thackeray makes his bow. His plea is that he wants relief	men was found there, who, after having four killed, skedaddled in the most approved Southorn style. The expedition returned on Sunday night, without having lost a man.	soners, was about 465. Of these about 200 were wounded. Most of the wounded have been brought to Staunton, where they are comfortably quartered and are cared for in the hospital, which has been established in the spacious and commodious build-	The next morning (Suturday) we all expect ed to capture the entire Federal army. I way on the way in my second attempt to reach Genera Price, when the most terrific shocks from artillary that ever saluted the Western ear burst forth. The
OUIS DANNENBAUM.	To which they invite the attention of the trade.	app 1008 CHESTNUF Street. NEW SPRING PRINTS, CHOICE STYLES. MERRIMACS.	mac and Monitor-brief, but correct. Next day it came out with another account, over two columns long, from its special correspondent in New York.	from the troubles of editorship, whereby his days were made miserable and his nights sleepless. Something more than this can account for a man's abandoning Four Thousand Pounds a year—almost	This was one of the most successful of its kind during the war, completely cutting off the commu- nication of the main rebel army, at Corinth, with	ings of the Institution for the Deaf, Dumb, and Blind. I am happy to say that much the larger proportion of the wounded are slight, involving no permanent disability. The wounded are cheerful	guns of friend and foe, at least one bundred and thirty-five in number, were in concert. Amids this torrife cannonade, and whilst the Missouriam again struggled farcely with the foe, our army
No. 57 North SECOND Street. (Between blarket and Arch.) ow prepared to offer a large stock of	SPRING STOCK	SPHAGUE, PACIFIC, ALL TWELVE AND A HALF CENTS. A large lot best styles and fast colors at 10c. COWPERTHWALT & CO.	which is the most graphic description of a sea fight I ever read. It is a picture painted in words in- stead of celors. On the information thus supplied was given an editorial—forcible and truthful,	as much as our Palmerston or your Lincoln is paid for governing an empire. Thackeray says "though editor no more, I hope long to remain a contributor	Alabama and the rest of the Confederacy, except New Orleans. A flag of truce arrived at the outposts yesterday, with the son of Governor Johnson, of Kentucky,	and anxious to be sufficiently restored to their re- spective commands. OUR LOSS, WITH ENBELLISHMENTS. Reliable advices from Winchester represent the	fell back. It was in this moment that the head of Churchill Clark (gallant young hero) was taken of by a shot from a rified cannon; and here, too Rives, the dashing hero of other fields was killar
RIBBONS, LKS, AND MILLINERY GOODS.	SILK AND FANCY DRESS GOODS. A. W. LITTLE & Co., mbl5-tf No. 325 MABKET ST.	mh15-tf N. W. cor. EIGHTH and MABKET Sts. CLOAKS, PALATOTES AND MAN- TILLAS.—Ladies in want of the above articles will find it to their advantage to visit the old established house	showing how, for the first time in the world's his- tory, iron met iron, in what more resembled a con- test between pre-Adamite monsters—" dragons of the prime." as Mr. Tennyson calls them, gigantic	to my friend's magazine. I believe my own special readers will agree that my books will not suffer whon their author is released from the daily task of reading, accepting, refusing, losing, and finding the	asking for his father. The Pittsburg Battle. ST. LOUIS, April 15.—Several gentlemen. con-	loss of the enemy in killed at near 1,500, and the wounded at a much larger figure. It is said that about 360 dead bodies were brought to Winchester for transportation northward. These, as we sup- pose, were the elite , whose friends were able to	by a wound, which, as he told me a few days be fore, he most dreaded. a Minnie ball in the bourds. RETREATING. The reasons for retreating were doubtless good lerchants and Milliners will find an admirable assort- it of the above Goods, of the newest styles, at low	1862. SPRING. 1862.	of Mrs. HENRY, No. 38 Not in NINT Street, below ARCH. The letest Paris Styles always on hand at prices that astonial everybody. spi-3m NEW CLOAK STORE !	the prime." as Mr. Tennyson calls them, grgantic steel-coated Ichthyosaurus and Plesiosaurus than a sea-fight. The commencement of this article, though a	works of other people. To say 'No' has often cost me a morning's peace and a day's work. I tremble recenti metu. Oh, those hours of madness, spent in searching for Leuisa's lost lines to her dead piping	nected with the army at Pittsburg, arrived here yesterday. Among them is Captain Lagow, of Ge- neral Grant's staff, who is the bearer of General Grant's official report of the battle at Pittsburg.	incur the cost of removal. The mass, of course, were buried in the neighborhood of the battle-field. Upon inquiring as to the cause of the disparity of the casuallies in the two armies. I learn from	At any rate we are not disheartened; and of one thing rest assured—the army under Gen. Price will never surrender. The enemy's loss in this battle was fully four times as great as ours. That
res, and are invited to call and examine. #2" "WELL BOUGHT IS HALF SOLD." h21-1m*	RIEGEL, BAIRD, & CO.,	IN The most elegant assortment in the city. No. 29 South NINTH Street, mh26-3m First door above Chestnut.	little efflorescent, is worth giving : Good-bye to the wooden walls of Old England ! Good-bye to the "fighting Temeraires" and "Saucy Arethusas" of the sea, with their wings	bullfinch, or Nhoj Senoj's mislaid essay! I tell them for the last time, that the (late) editor will not be responsible for rejected communications,	They left the army on Friday night. General Halleck arrived at Pittsburg on Friday, and assumed command of the army. Gen. Grant, in his official report, estimates our	some of our men that the enemy were so thick that it was impossible for our men to miss. Every shot took effect; if missing the column at which it was aimed, it was sure to hit in the rear.	were so utterly paralyzed as to be unable to pursue us, and are said to be now falling back. The result
62. SPRING. 1862	IMPORTERS AND JOBBERS	CLOAKS.—If you want the best value for your mouey, go to the City Cloak Store, 142 North BIGHTH Street, above Cherry. mh28-3m I STEEL & SON WILL OPEN	of white canvas, and their ribs of island oak! Never again will their dainty prows plough the blue water to fight the battles of Albica. They may carry stores, like humble traders, or rot at their moorings, like hulks, but their fighting days	and herewith send off the chair and the great Cornhill Magazine tin box with its load of care. While the present tale of 'Philip' is passing through the press, I am proparing another, on which I have	loss at 1,500 killed and 3,500 wounded. The loss of the enemy in killed and left on the field is greater than ours. An estimate of their wounded cannot	AN ANNIHILATING VOLLEY. The most deadly strife occurred near the boun- dary of two fields which were separated by a stone wall. One of our regiments were in one field and	the fruits of the victory.
WOOD & CARY. (Successors to Lincoln, Wood, & Nichols.)	or DRYGOODS.	L. this morning from New York a choice lot of RICH STYLES OF SILK GRENADINES. BIOH STYLES OF CHENE SILKS. BLACK AND WHITE CHECK SILKS. CHEAP PLAIN AND FIGURED BLACK SILKS.	are over! They, and their fellows, are as much out of date as a Greek trireme or a Roman galley. It is the age of iron! We must hang a coat-of- mail upon our wooden men-of-war, and build cur	worked at intervals for many years past, and which I hope to introduce in the ensuing year; and I have stipulated for the liberty of continuing the little essays which have amused the public and the wri-	be made, as many must have been sent to Corinth and other places. The loss of artillery was great—many pieces being disabled by the enemy's shot, some losing all their	six Yankee regiments in the other. At first they fired across the wall, but after a while each party advanced in a run, to get the benefit of the shelter of the wall; our men reached it first, and the Yan- kees were then about forty yards distant. Our	[For The Press.] I have for some time past been much interested in reading the remarks in the papers, for and against the passage of a general bankrupt bill, and
No. 795 CHESTNUT STREET, Have now in Store & complete stock	NO. 47 NOBTH THIBD STBE MT.	Persons wishing to purchase a GOOD SLLK at a LOW PRICE, would find it to their advantage to examine our stock. BLACK AND WHITE PLAIDS, 18% TO 44c. FRENCH CHALLES, MOZAMBIOUES, POIL DE	new ones of the solid metal. Down must come the stately taparing masts, and away make 16 all graceful curves and lines of beauty! Bluff and ugly bows, topsides tumbling home like the roof of Gaffer Giles' big barn, and the spars	ter, and which I propose to contribute, from time to time, to the pages of the Cornhull Magazine ." All this is very well, but if any magazino editor gave	horses and many of their men. Not less than two hundred horses were killed, The rebel army has its headquarters at the foot	men immadiately dropped on their knees, and, taking deliberate aim, fired deadly volleys into the advancing lines of the enemy. The effect was ter- rific, and it is said that an Ohio and a Pennsylvania	it seems to me all the argument which has any weight is in favor of the passage of a judicious bill The committee appointed by the Board of Trade.
OF RAW AND MILLINERY GOODS,	PEILADELPHA.	CHEVEES, and other NEW DRESS GOODS, of every	of a bark on the hull of a line-of-battle ship; this is the new order of the day. Forests are nothing now, and mines are everything; we must dig our new navies out of the bowels of the enrit in	himself a minimum of trouble, it was Thackeray, after the first three months. There is no announce- ment of his successor, and, indeed, there are strong doubts of his own resignation. We must wait.	of Pea Ridge, extending two miles from Corinth. The advance of the United States troops is eight miles from Pittsburg, leaving only a space of two miles between the opposing armies.	lian upenty men of one of these regiments were left standing.	some time since, had an interview with gentlement from New York, and went over a bill item by item, and expressed themselves satisfied, except in a few minor points, which it was agreed should be altered
SHEK BONNETS, STRAW AND PALM-LEAF HATS, &c.	Merchants visiting this city to purchase DRY GOODS will find our Stock large	100 doz., 62 and 65c., worth 75. 100 doz., 70 ard 75c., worth 87. 100 doz., 87 and 81, worth 81.25. 100 doz., 81 12 and $1.25, worth $1.50. 100 doz., $1 12 and $1.25, worth $1.75.	place of felling them from the green woodlands. There is an end for good and all to the poetry of a sea fight! In those to come the air must be foul with a hundred funnels, and the water be loaded	and may see. The April magazines, which I have just glanced over, are of various merit. There are two new	A battle may be brought on any moment. We have the strongest assurance that our army is ready for the encounter.	SIGNAL COURAGE-" COVERED HIMSELF WITH GLORT." I learn that the regiments engaged in this terri- ble čohtest were Durke's and Fulkerson's, which greatly distinguished themselves. Colonel Echols	I do not see how they now can consistently come out and recommend that the whole matter be re- ferred to a committee during the recess of Con-
o which they respectfully invite the attention of the ner patrons of the house and the trade generally. ar12-2m	and admirably assorted, and at Low FIGURES. In certain classes of Goods we offer inducements te	100 dow., $1.50 and $1.62, worth $2. Just opened, a small lot of White Plaid French Organ- dies, a very scarce and desirable article, suitable for eve- ning dresses. ap7 No. 713 North TENTH Street, above Coates.	with a hundred thousand tons of metal. Enormous bolts of iron will hurtle upon enormous iron plates from iron guns of awful dimensions. The ships themselves will not be ships, but metal monsters, horrible beaked sea-unicorns, or turtles floating up	chapters of the "Adventures of Philip," and, in a Roundabout Paper, the commencement of "The Notch on the Axe," another story by Thackeray. In the other articles, the useful predominates—The	LETTER FROM CAIRO. General Halleck's Departure for the Tennes- set River-A Bustling Scene-Flag Presenta-	it said to have acted with signal courage, coolness, and ability, and I am happy to add that Colonel Allen had an opportunity of putting the stamp of falschood on the alanders that were circulated	gress. What good can result from such a course certainly cannot be seen, as the matter for the lass year has been before the community, and it was a reference of the whole subject to committees of
SPRING. 1862. M. BERNHEIM,	purchasers unequalled by any other house in miladelphia. mbl8-2m NEW IMPORTATIONS.	CLOAKS! A MAGNIFICENT ASSORTMENT ALL THE NEWEST STYLES IMPORTED THIS	with death and destruction under their impenetra- ble shells. And all because of the fight which was fought in America, at Norfolk waters, on the 9th of March of the present year of grace! Our readers	Brain and its use. Firedamp and its Victims, and Inner Life of an Hospital, surely are articles better suited for a medical periodical than a literary ma- gazine.	stor Arter-A Disting Scene=Fing Presenta- tion to the General's Body Guard-A Brief and Soldierly Speech-General Halleck's Staff. [Correspondence of The Press,]	against him at Manassas. My informant remarked, "he had covered himself all over with glory." In referring to these gentlemen, I do not wish to be regarded as, by imputation, disparsing others	both Houses of Congress that produced the bill above referred to. The truth is, the only thing that can be accomplished by further delay, is still keeping a large number of enterprising business
No. 728 CHESTNUT STREET, as now is store, and is daily receiving, the latest		SEASON, With every new material, made up and trimmed in the very best manner, at prices that defy all competition, AT THE PARIS CLOAK STORE,	will find the story in the graphic letter of our spe- cial correspondent which we print to-day: and they may make their minds up that since King Edward's cannon opened the eyes of the Frenchmen at Cressy, there has been nothing more revolutionary in the	Fraser is heavy, and Sir George Lewis, a Cabi- net Minister, contributes to it a ponderous chapter upon the Roman Book Trade under the Empire.	CAIRO, April 10, 1862. Yesterday afternoon General Halleck and suite embarked on board the steamer Continental for	Every man did his duty nobly, and I learn that General Jackson expressed the opinion that they were a band of heroes. The Fifth Virginia Regi- ment was held in reserve, and did not participate ac- tively in the earlier part of the fight, but was called	men down for another year, and deprive their families of the benefit of their labor and busines talent. To young persons this may not be of much importance, but to men in middle life every day
BBONS, FRENCH FLOWERS,	HOSIERY, GLOVES. GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS,	N. E. COENEE EIGHTH AND WALNUT STS. mh26-3m IMPORTERS AND JOBBERS.	annals of warfare. The peroration is brief and pointed : "We must learn all about this great encounter, and give up, though with a sigh, the thought of ships less costly	Sir George, who is a poor Secretary of War, would have made an excellent country schoolmaster. He edited the Edinburgh Review for a time, and nearly swamped it, by his surpassing dullness. The	the Tennessee river. All day long the levee had been the scene of the greatest bustle and confu- sion. Soldiers, mules, wagons, negroes, baggage, horses, and equipments, seemed to have dropped	to perform the perilous task of covering the retrest. This duty it performed nobly, losing many of its gallant members, but dealing death and destruction upon the enemy, who were kept at bay.	counts. The opposition to this law springs from very short-sighted policy, and is for the most part made
WREATHS, SILKS, CRAPES, LACES, AND OTHER	LINENS, SHIRT FRONTS, WHITE GOODS, AND	$\widetilde{\mathrm{H}}^{\mathrm{azlett}}$, lathbop, & lyons,	or complete than the Blerrimac and her antagonist. It is fortunate we have already the beginning of our iron navy, we must forge and rivet the rest, at	author of "Guy Livingstone," that muscular ro- mance, has a novel called "Barren Honor," run- ning through Frazer, and very good it is. Blackwood's Mugazane has a few striking papers,	down promiscuously on to every available portion of the boat. It seemed impossible that order should ever be brought out of such chaes. The entrance of the General on board the boat did not	ONLY TWO GUNS LOST. We lost two guns in the bailing-one from the Rockbridge and one from the Augusta Battery. The Rockbridge gun was struck by a cannon ball	by note-shavers and money-lenders, who are no satisfied with all a man has, but want all he can over expect to make. The bill presented is both creditor and debtor bill, and recommended by some
MILLINERY GOODS. which he respectfully invites the attention of the	EMBROIDERIES.	No. 414 MABKET and 409 MERCHANT STBEETS, IMPORTERS AND JOBBERS OF	all convenient speed, for we cannot surrender the empire of the sea, and the little Monitor admo- nishes us that it must belong, for the future, to the best ironmusters ."	including a further portion of "Caxtoniana," in which Bulwer treats of Shyness (of which he really can have no personal knowledge.) and runs into trans- cendental metaphysics in a dissertation "On Intel-	appear to cause any suspension of the general bustle. A body of about 100 infantry filed in open ranks	and disabled. The loss of the other was caused by the killing of one of the horses, which frightened the others, and caused them to turn suddenly and capsize the carriage. The enemy were close upon us, and left no time to replace it. Our men, how.	of the most wealthy and largest business houses in New York and Boston, as well as in this city. It is not denied by the parties who have arrayed them
TRADE. PRICE'S LOW.	THOS. MELLOR & Co., mhl9-3m 40 and 42 North THIRD Street. TAMES, KENT,	ENGLISH, FRENCH, AND GERMAN FANCY GOODS.	Scarcely less striking, though in a very different way, is the impression made by the princely gene- rosity of Mr. George Peabody, the American banker here. The correspondence, detailing how he had	lectual Conduct as distinct from Moral—The 'Su- perior Man.' ²² There is a long article on Charles Lever, a continuation of the Chronicles of Carling-	across the levee, and a carriage drove up to the end of the passage way thus opened. General Halleck and two of his aids, with their arms full of luggage and various traps, walked quietly down behind the	ever, cut out and secured all the horses but one, and he was cut out by the enemy, and escaped from them and came galloping to our camp. It would seem as if even the horses were infacted	selves as opponents to it, that many men who are honest and worthy are waiting to avail themselve of its benefits, but they can see nothing beyond their own pockets. It is not necessary to go out o
SPRING. 1862.	SANTEE, & CO., IMPORTERS AND JOBBERS	WHITE GOODS, EMBROIDERIES, CLOYES, HQ- SIERY, LACES, TRIMMINGS, RIBBONS, COMBS, BRUSHES, &c.,	presented £150,000 to the Poor of London, appeared in The Times on Wednesday, and was eagerly read by thousands and tens of thousands are noon. Lord	ford, and a tromendous puff of Spence's "Ameri- can Union." Spence, by the way, is said to have been commissioned to New York, as ordinary Ame- rican correspondent of The Times . Dr. Russell is	stevedores, who had not ceased their occupation, and entered the boat without twenty men being aware of the distinguished presence. The ladies of Mrs. Ubsdell Pierson & Co.'s establishment had	with the spirit of rebellion and hatred to the Yankees. ALL VIRGINIANS ENGAGED—NINE UNION COLONELS KILLED.	our own city to learn the legitimate workings of the bill. Let one who is acquainted with the business men of Market, Third, Front, and Chestnut streets prior to 1857, go up and down those thoroughfare
IBBONS, MILLINERY, STRAW GOODS,	DRY GOODS,	Are now opening and receiving a new and choice stock in the above line, to which attention of buyers is in- vited. mh29-1m	Shaftesbury and the Exeter-Hall clique of exclu- zive Christians alone object to it, on account of the only condition attached to the gift—that, "now and for all time there shall be a rigid exclusion	recalled. His "special" correspondence from the United States has neither added to his own credit or that of The Times .	made a beautiful silken flag, to present to General Halleck's body guard; but the general, having had too much other business on hand to give any atten-	All the troops engaged in the battie near Win- chester were, I believe, from Virginia, except a company or two from Maryland. I do not know all the regiments engaged. They were nine in number, but reduced to skeletons by furloughs.	and seen the number of the largest and finest of the stores closed, and ask what has become of the partie who formerly occupied those stores, and he will fin
& Co., NO. 431 MARKET STREET,	Nos. 239 and 241 N. THIRD STREET, ABOVE RACE, PHILADELPHIA, Have now open their usual LARGE AND COMPLETE STOCK	MILITARY GOODS. SKY-BLUE KERSEYS,	from the management of this fund of any influences calculated to impart to it a character either secta- rian as regards religion, or exclusion in relation to local or party politics." The Exeter-Hall folks are		ment had to be substituted. The company of Capt. John Foster, an inde- pendent cavalry company from Ökio, which has	Among them were Allen's, Harman's, Fulkerson's, Patton's, Echols', Cummin's, Burke's, and Pres- ton's (now Moore's). Allen's, Fulkerson's, Burke's, and Echols'. I believe suffered most.	that the most of them were forced to stop, not be cause they had been improvident or speculative but from circumstances beyond their control. The were, for the most part, solicited to buy goods, and
e now open-and to which daily additions are made- USUAL HANDSOME VABIETY OF	or FOREI3N AND DOMESTIC DRY GOODS, Among which will be found a more than usually attrac-	(27 and 54-INOH.) DARK-BLUE KERSEYS,	"unco' pious." and nothing, except when they can be sectarion. It is unknown, of course, how the Pea- body gift is to be appropriated; but there is a strong	with a new story of his own, "The Lord Mayor of London; or, City Life in the Last Century," of	been in service and in the field ever since the first	Col. Echols' left arm was broken by a rifle or musket ball, about four inches below the shoulder. He was quite comfortable when I visited him, and I hope will save his arm. The report here is that the enemy lost eight or nune colonels, and a large	indeed, they were almost forced to do so; and would ask what for? surely not to keep in thei stores, but to sell to the country, which they hav
RIBBONS, NNET MATERIALS, FLOWERS, RUCHES.	tive variety of LADIES' DRESS GOODS; Also, a full assortment of	DARK-BLUE INFANTRY CLOTHS, INDIGO-BLUE CAP CLOTHS, SKY-BLUE CASSIMERES, (New Regulation, for Officers' Pants.)	feeling that it will be most advantageously employed in providing good, healthy, and cheap homes for the poor of London. The Government, nearly beaten on what is called	tale, now nearly complete, by Mrs. Henry Wood, called "The Shadow of Ashlydyat." A clever story it is. Just now, Mrs. Wood is extremely po-	flag was presented. A short and appropriate speech was made by Mr. Leighton, of Keokuk, in which he alluded to the fact that there were thirty-four	number of afficers of inferior grade. The Battle of Pea Ridge. The same issue of the Richmond Whig favors	them more than half the night, striving to make as honest living for their families. And now, from the general breakdown in the country, all is gone. Th
RAW AND FANCY BONNETS, MISSES' AND CHILDREN'S HATS, FLATS, SHAKER HOODS, and L OTHER ARTICLES IN THE MILLINERY	MERRIMACK AND COCHECO PRINTS, and PHILADELPHIA-MADE GOODS. To which they invite the special attention of buyers.	WHITE DOMET FLANNELS, CANTON FLANNELS, 1002., 1202., & 1508. TENT DUOK.	the Educational "Revised Code," anticipated a defeat in the House of Commons, on account of an opposition to it led by Mr. Walpole, Home Secre- tary under Lord Derby, and announced, last night,	pular, and the libraries are literally besieged for the dozen or so of novels that she wrote before "East Lynne" suddenly made her famous. In the April number of Temple Bar , Mr. Sala'	stars on the flag, and said that the donors deemed it a fit emblem of our Union to present to the keeping of its most segacious and able defenders. General Halleck responded briefly, as follows:	the public with an account of the battle of Pea Ridge, alias the battle of Elkham. It is an ex- tract from a letter written by an officer of Price's army to the Hon. G. G. Vost, of Richmond. Not	merchant has acted in good faith, doing what h agreed to do when he bought the goods; and now when willing to give everything up he has in th world, to be released, he is not permitted to do so
LINE, /hich will be offered at the LOWEST MARKET PRICES. he attention of the trade is respectfully invited.	YARNS, BATTS, & CARPET CHAINS.	All warranted United States Army standard. FOB SALE BY ALFRED SLADE & CO., 40 South FRONT Street, and 39 LETITIA Street,	just when the debate was about being renewed, that they were willing to make such modifications in their plan as would meet the views of its oppo-	new story, "The Strange Adventures of Captain Dangerous," hangs fire dreadfully, and reads very like—a failure. There was life, there was cha-	"I thank the donors for the flag, and I thank, more especially, the ladies by whose fair hands it was made. I hand it over to the care of Captain Foster, feeling perfect confidence that he will con-	being official, it may be relied upon to a certain ex- tent: "The battle's fought," but whether or not	because he cannot entirely satisfy some selfish penurious beings who live like sharks, preying of the community. It is high time that such being (for they are not men) should be put down, and the
Particular attention given to filling orders. h13-2m	A. H. FRANCISCUS, wholesale dealer in yarns,	Philadelphis. fel8-tmy1 BLINDS AND SHADES.	nents. The Opposition have begged for some days to consider the concessions, and Monday is fixed for their decision. That the Government would have been largely outvoted, if it persisted in the Revised	racter, there was action, mixed up with many ab- surdities, in "The Seven Sons of Mammon," but Captain Dangerous, intended to be strikingly out of the way, is merely a dull extravaganza. To com-	tribute as much as any one to maintaining that Union of which it is the sacred emblom; and when that shall have been done, he will bring it back to you in St. Louis, and announce to your citizens that every star on its silken folds represents a sister	"won," neither Confederates nor Federals can tell. Yet all can understand. We have abandoned the field, and have had to ask. permission of them to bury our dead. Captain Schonburg, who went up with our flag, reports that he superintended the	worthy hard working man permitted once more to be released from the oppression which they would heap upon him. Let this persecution cease here
729 OHESTNUT Street, below Eighth. holce Stock of SPRING MILLINERY GOODS,	433 MABKET and 5 North FIFTH Street. PHILADELPHIA. Buyers will find a full Stock of	BLINDS AND SHADES.	Code, is admitted by the compromise it has made. The Princess Royal has returned to Prussia, where, rumor says, she is not quite as happy as she ought to be. Queen Victoria is apparently getting	pensate, there are continuations of two racy stories, "Aurora Floyd" and "Lady Letitia's Lilliput Hand," and, among the miscellanies, a genial pa- per upon Winthrop Mackworth Praed, who wrote	State of a reclaimed Union." Captain Foster responded briefly and with feeling, that he was a man of few words, but everything	interment of sighty-eight bodies, and the enemy claim that they buried others of our dead. They may have done so, but it was unintentionally omit- ted on our part, and in isolated instances. Our	and all unite in having a judicious bankrupt iar passed at once, and the community will soon see th revival of business, the active step and smiling fac of many now suffering deep oppression. Some con
UMBRELLAS AND PARASOLS.	COTTON, LINEN, AND WOOLLEN CARPET CHAIN,	B. J. WILLIAMS, No. 16 NOBTH SIXTH STREET,	out of the depths of her grief, for she rides and drives out every day, transacts business with her Ministers, and so on. She continues peremptory in	verses of society (as the French call them), better than any other man of his time. Heraud has "A New View of Shakspeare's Sonnets." This Mr.	that the General had said he would do—he should consider as an order, and do it. Great cheering and enthusiasm followed these brief and pithy speeches, and the little crowd quietly dispersed. Thus unos-	loss in killed does not exceed one hundred and thirty. It cannot go up to one hundred and fifty. Among them, however, are McCulloch, McIntosh, Rives, and that gallant, young, embo- diment of chivalry, Captain Churchill Clark. A	tend that all that is owing will be swept away, with the passage of a bankrupt law. I beg leave to differ with this class. I do not believe it will cause on
YM. H. RICHARDSON HAS BEMOVED TO 500 MABKET STBERT,	COTTON YARN, TWIST, FILLING, WADDING, BATTING, COTTON LAPS,	VENETIAN BLINDS	her opinion, which is a command under the circum- stances, that an immense granite obelisk in Hyde Park, on the site of the Crystal Palace of 1851, is to be the Memorial to Prince Albert. In the Island	Heraud is he who, once upon a time, wrote an epic, which none of his friends could read. Meeting Douglas Jerrold, he made the usual inquiry, "Have you seen my Descent into Hell?" Jerrold shrick-	tentatiously passed off this very pleasant ceremony, which was as agreeable as unexpected to those con- cerned. The following is the pertion of General Halleck's	crimson ocean drawn from Hessian and Yankee verus would be no recompense for the loss of these heroic sons of the South. Generals Price and Slack, and Col. Carneal, were with many others	man from paying every dollar he will now pay, fo if a man is a rogue and does not intend or want t pay his debts, he need not seek a bankrupt law t release him; indeed, he would be the last man to ap
Southwest corner of Fifth, And offers a beautiful assortment of	COTTON LAPS, THE YARNS, TWINES, CANDLE WICK, COVERLET YARN, BROOM TWINES, SHOD THREADS, GILLING AND SEINE TWINES,	WINDOW SHADES.	of Mull, belonging to the Duke of Argyle, is an entire block of stone which may be cut twelve feet at the base and eight at the top, and the	ed out, "No. I wish that I had !" which was surely more cutting than civil. But Jerrold abounded in such amenities.	etaff now on board the boat. Some remain behind, and will follow next week : Major General H. W. Halleck.	wounded, the two latter seriously, Slack almost in the same spot he was shot at Springfield. Garneal has his shoulder badly bruised, and Gen. Price an ugly hole through the arm, below the elbow. But	ply to that source. And, in regard to the argumen urged, that the Southern States will all take advan tage and not pay, it is equally weak and foolish Any State can, through its Legislature, pass laws t
MBRELLAS, PARASOLS, TENTS, AND CANES,	BED CORDS, WASH AND PLOUGH LINES,	The largest and finest assortment in the City at the LOWEST PBICES. STORE SHADES LETTERED. Repairing promptly attended to. ap3-3m	weight would be 1,000 tons. The expense of polishing, of removing, and of erecting this mono- lith would be immense. The Times says "per- haps, from first to last, nearly half as much as the	New numbers of the Edinburgh, Quarterly. and Westminster Reviews will be published next week. The Westminster has passed into the hands of Mr. Trubner, the foreign bookseller, who pro-	Brigadier General G. W. Cullom, chief of staff and engineers. Captain N. H. McLean, assistant adjutant gene- ral.	I must tell you what came under my own observa- tion during the conflict. THE DEFEAT ATTRIBUTED TO UNDER-ESTIMATION OF OUR STRENGTH.	prevent the collection of debts within its border thus effectually closing the door to every one wh wants to collect his money, and giving parties no
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL. mh28-1m HATS AND CAPS.	COTTON, HEMP, AND MANILLA CORDAGE. Also, a full assortment of FLY NETS,	LOOKING GLASSES. JAMES S. EARLE & SON,	cost of an iren-plated frigate." The general im- pression, as far as can be judged, is decidedly	mises to improve it. That can easily be done, for	Brigadier General A. J. Smith, Chief of Cavalry. Colonel R. D. Cutts, Chief of Topographical En- gineers.	When the enemy left Cove Creek, which is south of Boston Mountain, Generals Price, McCulloch, Pike, and McIntosh second to think—at least camp talk amongst those in command so represented— that our united forces would carry into action near-	wishing to pay a much better way to get clear of their indebtedness. Such a state of affairs woul speedily cause those who now oppose the propose law, on this ground, to flee to it for drotection.
C. H. GARDEN & Co.,	Which he offers at Manufacturers LOWEST NET CASH PRICES.	MANUFACTUBERS AND IMPORTERS	The statute introduced into the House of Com- mons, a few weeks ago, authorizing the issue of military and some other commissions without the	country. There sprung up here, last year, on the repeal of the tax on paper- the last of our infamous taxes	Colonel F. D. Callender, Chief of Ordnance. Colonel J. V. D. Du Bois, Chief of Artillery. Colonel J. C. McKibben, Aid de camp and Judge Advocate.	ly 30,000 men, more frequently estimated at 35,000 then a lower figure. I believe that General Van Dorn was confident that not a man less than 25,000 were panting to follow his victorious plume to a	AFFAIRS AT NEW ORLEANS.—A refugee from New Orleans has arrived at Cincinnati. New Orleans he represented to be in a very distregge
Maunfacturers of and Wholesale Dealers in HATS, CAPS, AND FURS; STRAW GOODS,	Wooden and Willow ware. Λ H. FRANCISOUS.	LOOKING GLASSES, OIL PAINTINGS, FINE ENGRAVINGS, PIOTURE AND PORTBAIT FRAMES,	Queen's signature, seems to have been quietly withdrawn. Her Majesty has commenced signing some, out of the thousands of public documents that want her holograph to complete them,	upon knowledge—a variety of cheap illustrated newspapers. Of some eight or ten, two survive and flourish. These are the Penny Illustrated Paper and the Illustrated Weekly News . They	Major J. J. Key, Aid-de-camp. Captain W. W. Smith, Aid de-camp. Assistant Surgeon P. V. Schenok.	field where prouder honors awaited than any he had yet gathered. Besides this, he under estimated the number of our foes. In no case did our esti- mate reach seventy five per cent. of their actual	and only partially defended condition. Foreig residents of wealth were despairing of the resto ration of trade, and, so far as possible, had alread left, or were preparing to 20, most of them leaving
PANCY SILK AND STRAW BONNETS, Artificial Flowers, Buches, Feathers, &c., 600 and 602 MARKET Street, S. W. corner o SIXTH Street. 7 A large and complete stock. The best terms and	433 MARKET and 5 North FIFTH Street, PHILADELPHIA,	PHOTOGBAPH FBAME, PHOTOGBAPH FBAME, PHOTOGBAPH ALBUMS, CABTE-DE-VISITE POETEAITS,	There is a current anecdote that the first batch of army commissions sent by Sir George Lewis for her signature was indianably returned to the War	respectively give from ten to twelve good engra- vings in each number-landscapes, buildings, events, portraits, story-pictures, and so on-with	Lieutenant C. D. Throckmorton, aid-de-camp. Lieutenant J. T. Price, aid-de-camp. Captain John Foster, commanding escort. Mr. L. C. Weir, Military Telegraph.	number. It was believed that Curtis left Rolla with not more than fifteen or sixteen thousand men. A part, of course, would be left as they came along to hold Springfield and other points. I am certain the energy have more accurate information	either for the West Indies or Europe. The bank were shundantly supplied with specie-abou $18,000,000-but there was scarcely any in circu- lation, and Confederate money was only wort forty conts on the dollar. Ciricos engaged lowest prices. Cash and prompt "time buyers" are ticularly invited to examine our stock. mhl-2m	WHOLESALE DEALER IN WOODEN AND WILLOW WARE. Always on hand, a full Stock of	EARLE'S GALLERIES, 816 CHESTNUT STREET,	Office, with a sharp message from her Majesty that she would not sign any document unless it were blackened on the edges and margin, in token of public mourning It is said that Palmerston has	the news, politics, and general literature of a regu- lar newspaper. All this for a penny—equivalent to two conts with you—is a great deal. What is more, these papers pay. Blanchard Jerrold edits	To those who have never seen General Halleck, it may be interesting to know that the steel en- graving of him is a very correct likeness. I sup- pose there is but one, as I never have seen or heard	in regard to us than we of them; and, besides this, caution accompanies superior discipline. THE OBSTINACY AND SKILL OF SIGEL.	than in the defence of the city from apprehend- attack, and only a feeble resistance could be mad against a well-organized force Every hope of
WATCHES, JEWELRY, &c. FRESH ASSORTMENT, at LESS	TUBS, BUCKETS, CHUENS, MEASURES, BROOMS, WHISKS, FANCY BASKETS.	ja15 PHILADELPHIA SEWING MACHINES.	some difficulty in persuading the Queen that it would occupy a hundred clerks during several months to fill up anow a fresh lot of commissions so	the first-named, and David Lester Richardson, who was awfully cut up in Blackwood as "a Diamond Poet," a quarter of a contury ago, and has since been Principal of a college in Calcutta, conducts	of more. It gives, however, the idea of a large man, while he is below the medium height, straight, active, and well-formed, and has a	besides teamsters and camp-followers. The army went without tents, carrying a blanket each, with three devsions. Long and enorgeficially did	their protection against the Union arniv, as we there as throughout the Southwest, was hung upo the success of the army concentrating at Gorinti and consequently all available war material, pa-
FRESH ASSOCIATENT, at LESS THAN FORMER PRICES. FARE & BBOTHER, Importers, $24 OHESTNUT Street, below Fourth. hb20-4	WALL, SORUB, and SWEEPING BBUSHES, LOOKING-GLASSES and WINDOW PAPER, Mats, Keelers, Flour Buckets, Nest Boxes,	WHEELER & WILSON SEWING MACHINES,	decorated with "The trappings and the signs of woe." It is generally stated and believed that Vic- toria, with her own pen, altered the despatch	the other. Millais, the pre-Raphaelite, is now regularly en- gaged to illustrate "Once a-Week," together with	brisk, energetic gait, significant of his firm and decisive character. His nose is delicate, and well formed, his forchead ample, his mouth by no means devoid of humor, and his eye the most	the poor fellows trudge on through mud and snow, until twenty five miles were measured the first day. The second day discovered no abatement in their zeal, and the third morning confronted them with	ticularly in the way of men, was sent thither. A UNION PAPER AT NASHVILLY -S. C. Merce has established an outspoken, unconditional Unio
ABOR-SAVING MACHINE. CLOTHES-SAVING MACHINE. TIME-SAVING MACHINE.	WASH BOARDS, ROLLING and CLOTHES FINS. FLOOR and TABLE OIL CLOTHS.	628 CHESTNUT STREET, mhll-3m PHILADELPHIA.	which Lord Russell sent to Lord Lyons, last De- cember, demanding the restoration of Messrs. Ma- son and Slidell by the United States. She thought that the language was too imperative, and mate-	John Tenniel, Charles Keene, and the new Punch man, George du Maurier. This reminds me that the sale of Punch has sensibly declined of late. The re-issue of its semi-annual volumes, with a	remarkable I ever saw in any man, except Profes- sor Agassiz. It is of a hazel color, clear as the morning star, and of a most intense brilliancy.	Sigel's forces, in the environs of Bentonville. Gates' regiment, the battalion forming General Price's body-guard, and the Louisiana regiment, charged and routed the enemy, the gallant Lou-	paper at Nashville, Tennessee. It is called the Nashville Union. Its motto is "Freedom and Nationality." In his introductory the editor says "The present State Government has no compromise to offer, and will take no step backward in its grad faley, Morse & Boyden's Clothes Wringer saves labor, e and clothes, and is an improvement which will most killip be generally updoted. It is self-adjusting, sim- , and durable, and is far superior to every other de- to for the supress intended. Over five hundred have	LOWEST NET CASH PRICES.	BLACKSMITHS BELLOWS,	rially softened it. It is also believed that the ac- cession of the Orleans Princes to the Federal army was made with Victoria's full concurrence. The	prefetory index or key to the engravings and inci- dents, has been a complete failure. Fun, its new rival, now seven months old, is making great	When he looks at a man it seems as though he were going literally to read him through and through. No amount of oily duplicity, no brazen effrontery, no studied concealment, could avail anything be- fore that keen, penetrating glance. It is an eye	decds of desperate valor under the immediate eye of our heroic general. Sigel retreated several times, but, with characteristic stubbornness, placing his batteries and receiving our charges once or	work of restoration and reconstruction. It is firml resolved to succeed triumphantly or to perish u terly, and neither persuasion nor threats can delo it from its duty: and so long as it discharges th and the purpose interaction of the set of th	mh11-2m	KEMBLE & VAN HORN, mh20-3m No. 321 MARKET Street, Philada FRESH ROLL BUTTER, EGGS, &c., received daily at 8./Z. GOTTWALS', No. 812	Orleans family, with whom she is connected by the marriage of her uncle Leopold to Louis Philippe's eldest daughter, are understood to take	headway. TUE Richmond Enganter says that the military	to make all rogues tremble, and even honest men look about them to be sure they have not been up to some mischief. The profound and implicit con-	twice damaging the assailing columns very much, and in no instance losing a gun. In this way he	duty in pursuance of the Constitution and the law