id from th bee-hive appearance which their large retail wareroom have presented for some days past, their gtory in this di-rection has not yet culminated. Every day adds some desirable novely to their slrendy rich and extensive stock. Among the strticles now attracting most attention on their counters, we may designate as special favorites their new chintmes, new ginghams, new organities, neat nlaid eilks, Shepherd's p'aids, fashionable silks, black figured silks, and colored Poult de Soies.

A POPULAR DRY GOODS STORE .- Among the houses here most successfully engaged in the sale of general dry goods-especially of the more staple kind-at retail, that of Mr. Granville B. Haines, at No. 1013 Market street, cboys Tepth street, is a deservel favorite. His stock is always fresh, well assorted, sea conable, and exceedingly moderate in prices, and his customers are always waited upon by pollies and attentive sesistants. 'We invite attention to his new advertise neuts n another column of our paper to-day, as offering rare inducements to all who wish to purchase Marceilles counterpanes, table linens, napkius, towels, crash brilliants, flannels, and goods of this description generally.

THE JAYNE'S HALL CRAVAT STORE .--- We invite attertion to the card of Mr. J. A. Eshleman, in another column, giving "facts" with regard to the "Jeyne's Hall Cravat Store."

MESSRS. J. H. MICHENER & Co., Nos. 142 and 144 North Front street, have deservedly the reputation of curing the most delicious Hams that are sold in this or any other market. We have tried them, and our verdict it : their favor is but a corroboration of what hundreds have raid who have tried them in their fami:ies, and who would now use no others. These hans are known by the appropriate brand "Excelsior," and • e believe are sold by all first-class grocers. The style of curing them is pe-culiar to themetives, there being a sweetness of flavor and freedom from saline taste that we find in no other home. They are the meat of all meats for the warm weather.

EASTER GONFECTIONERY BY MESSRS. E. G. WHITMAN & Co.-Messrs. E. G. Whitman & Co, Second street, below Chestnut, have brought ont a choice variety of elegant Spring Confections specially suitable for the Easter holidays. Their place has become an indispensable institution for old and young. Their mixtures, va-rious chocolate preparations, burnt and roasted almonds, gum-drops-medicinal and plain, pastes, mint and cream andles, and a bundred other varieties, are not equalled in punity and richness of flavor by any others manufactured in this country.

THE SAFEST, MOST ORNAMENTAL, CONVE-NIEST, AND RCONOMICAL PORTABLE LIGHT in use is the celebrated Witters Lamp for burning Korosene Oil, manufactured and sold, wholesale and retail, by Messes. Witters & Co., at their Light Emporium, No. 35 North Eighth street, corner of Filbert. PURE MAINT LIQUORS FOR TABLE AND MEDI-

CINAL PURPOSES .- Mr. C. H. Mattson, dealer in fine family groceries, Arch and Tenth streets, has constantly on hand the test English Brown Stout and the finest brun's of Scotch Ales for invalids or table use, to which we invite the at ention of all who may wish a really pure stricle of this kind ptreets. E. S. FARBON & Co. IT HAS BEEN COMPUTED that the number of human heings on the Larth is about one thousand millions. They speak 3 084 known tongues, in which there are more than 1,100 religions or creeds preached. The average duration of life is 33% years. One fourth of those fourn die before they reach the age of seven years, or be-fore they are old enough to appreciate the fine and durable styles of spring and summer clothing manufactured by Grapville Stokes, the Fashioner and Clothier, at No. 509 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, where the cheapest garments in the city can always be procured. THE "BULLET-PROOF" VEST, APPROVED BY OFFICERS OF THE ARMY .--- This valuable invention can be inspected at the Clothing Store of Mr. Charles Stokes, under the Continental, who is the agent for this city. Its mere name indicates its value to the soldier.

REFRIGERATORS AND WATER-COOLERS for the million, at E. S. Farson & Co.'s manufactory, corner ap19-2t of Dock and Pear streets.

THE "BULLET-PROOP ?? VEST, APPROVED BY OFFICERS OF THE ABMY .- This valuable invention can be inspected at the Clothing Store of Mr. Charles Stekes, under the Continental, who is the agent for this city. Its mere name indicates its value to the soldier.

BOYS' SPRING CLOTHING .- Charles Stokes, the proprietor of the celebrated "one-price" Clothing Store, under the Continental, has added to his stock an extensive and well-selected stock of Boys' and Children's Clething-cut in the latest styles, and sold at prices never cfore offered in this city. You are invited to examine.

JEFF DAVIS' LATEST MESSAGE .--- The latest nessage of Jeff Davis is a refreshing piece of cool impudence. He talks of Southern pluck, in attacking unnrepared men two to one, cants about Divine aid, and keeps shady about the fact that Beauregard was licked the second day at Corinth. Fibbing seems to be chronic with the head rebel. We cannot ree why he does not drop lying, and if he must write messages, let him indite some wholesome reprets that the wicked rebellion has deprived the actors in it of the opportunity of procuring their garments at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth. ELEGANT CHESTNUT-STREET MANSION AND FUR-
