THE CITY.

COURT DECISIONS .- Yesterday, in the Supren & Court, a number of opinions were delivered, summer which were the following: Fianzgan vs the City of Philadelphia. The decree of the Court of Niel Prins, refusing a special injunction to restrain the city from proceeding with the construction of the Chestout-street Bridge, is affirmed. Opinion by Woodward, J

Woodward, J. Board of Wardens va the City of Philodelphia. This was also an application for an injunction to restrain the city from proceeding with the construction of the Chest-nut-street Bridge, on the ground that the plain iffs had not granted a license to the city to erect the same. The opinion of the Court was delivered by Woodward, J., affirming the decree of Justice Bead, at Nisi Prins, dis-missing the bill and refusing the injunction. Judge Woodward coucludes as follows: " Our opinion is, that it is the right hald duty of the city to build the bridge, without reference to the wavlens of the port. Those gentlemen have the same interest in the question as other respectable citizens and tax-payers, but as a Board of Port Wardens they, have no interest whatever, and, therefore, their bill was properly dismissed." The following judgments were also entered yesterday morning:

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF GUAR-

FOR SALE AND TO LET. AN IMPORTANT DECISION RELATIVE

An Important DECISION BELATIVE TO WHAT CONSTITUTES A LEGAL TENDER – A few days since an important case was heard in one of the courts of as adjacent county, by which it was de-cided that the treesury notes issued by the Governmeat constitute a legal tender in the payment of debis. It appears that Elizabeth Duke, late Elizabeth Boate, at-ninistratix of George Boate, doceased, iasued an execu-tion against Henry Grambo, on which the sheriff sold critic that the printager must pay in gold enough to satisfy plantit's claim. After the sale, it appearing that there were disputes between different lien creditors as to the distribution of this fund, the sheriff paid the momey into court, and an anditor was appointed to re-port distribution, who decided to allow plantitit the ba-lance of her claim in full-to wit : $1,962.50. The audi-tor's report having been confirmed by the court, plaintiff's counsel demanded gold of the prothonotary, who refused to pay it, but tendered the amount-after deducting per contage- and $1,942.60 in Dinied States treasury notes, issued mudé add of Congress of July 17 last. This was refused, and at adjourned con't a rule was asked against the prothenotary, commanding him to show cance why an attachment should not issue against him, to compet him to pay over this sum in gold. It is proper to state that the partnasser had not really plad the purchase mong in gold to the shariff, noë he to the prothonotary, but that as arrangement had been made between them and the Commonwealth Bank of Printes, unless cempelled to pay in gold was at a premium of about Ag per cent. ; so the plaintiff, find him gold then, could have secured a nice little sum by sell-ing the gold. But in the meantime, since the sale, the premiums ind diffient to about My per cent.—still, how-ever, something of an object on so large a sum. As the case stowd at the time of the sale, the momey and premisme and the time of the sale, the momey is provided and thy meilling a legal treasary no ize shared an the tinset of the sign a
