ENGLAND. STEAM RAMS.—Mr. Nasmyth, in a letter to the Times on the importance of steam rams, says: "No iron plates, however thick, as forming the sides of an iron-plated war ship, could ever with-sides of an iron-plated war ship, could ever with-sides of an iron-plated war ship, could ever with-sides of an iron-plated war ship, could ever stand the crushing in action of an end on blow from a steam ram possessed of the momentum due to two thousand tons, moving with even so moderate a ve-locity as ten miles an hour. While such a crushing blow would be fatal when delivered on to the side of the energy. the result to the steam ram would be practically harmless." practically harmless."

CAPT. COWPER COLES, in a rather gassy letter CAPT. CONFER COLES, in a rather glassy forces to the Times, guarantees to prove that vessels on his plan may be made seaworthy; that one may be built neutry 100 feet shorter than the Warrior, equal to ber in every way, needing only half the crew, drawing four feet less water, and costing $\pm 100,000$ less, while with it he would undertake to disable and capture the Warrior in an hour.

SIR W. ABUSTRONG has a letter in the Times explaining the principle which has readered the last experiment successful in penetrating and smashing iron plates. The smooth-bore gun has a lasi experiment successful in penetrating and smashing iron plates. The smooth-bore gun has a velocity excelling that of the rifle gun by more than a quarter. A smooth-bore gun has been mode by Sir W. Armstrong, length fourteen feet, weight twelve tons, and it was tried against the Warrier target on Tuesday, in presence of the Duke of Cam-bridge, the Duke of Somerset and other high offi-cials of the Admiralty and War Office. The first shot was 156 pounds, and was fired at a distance of two hundred yards, with a charge of forty pounds of powder. This solved all doubts; the from mass was shattered into ornubs of metal, and the teak splintered into fires literally as small as pins. An increased charge was next tried, and the shot passed not osly through the plates, toak, and through the inner skin, but buried itself in the massive timbers that supported the target of twe gun Sir W Armstrong says that a gun of twe low Softwert with a charge of 50 pownds of powder, will break throng h the side of the War-rier, or the strong-st ship aftoat. The Times re-marks that no weapon of offence or defence seems left to us now so effectual as a large armor-clad and very swift steam-ram. Inco Tower — in the autumn of last year the IRON TOWER -In the autumn of last year the Federal Government sent an order to this country for the construction of four iron towers similar to that now on board the Monitor. The commission that now on board the Monitor. The commission was accepted, and would have been faithfully exe-cuted if the Trent affair had not occurred, and so prevented the shipment of all warlike stores, among them these particular castles. The contractor is now saddled with the produce of his labor, as, in the meantime, the Americans supplied themselves on the spot; and he now contemplates offering them to the Emperor of the French, as on this side of the water we are provided with Coles' cupolas, which weigh only seventy two tons to Ericsson's two hundred tons. AGRICULTURAL REPORT. - The past month (March) has been very ungenial for the growing crops, particularly on the heavy and low lands. The dry weather, however, in the month of Febru-ary prevented much of the evil that would have resulted from late heavy rains. Sowing time has been much retarded, and the spring crops will con-connective he late. sequently be late.

A PROSPECTUS has been issued for a company to A PROSPECTUS has been issued for a company to carry out in France, Austria, Belgiam, Sweden, Holland, Denmark, Sardivia, and Spain, the boat-building patents of Mr. Nathan Thompson. of New York. It is to be called the European Company for Boat building by Machinery, with a nominal capital of £500,000, in shares of £1 each. A simi-lar company already exists for this country, and is about to compute on operations under the superincapital of £300,000, in shares of 11 such. A sumi-lar company already exists for this country, and is about to commence operations under the superin-tendence of Messrs. Forrestt, of Limehouse, who have relinquiched their own business to adopt the new method. The prospectus contains a number of strong testimonials from the highest naval and other authorities, including the professional officers of the Admiralty Board, to the effect that Mr. Thompson's patents are calculated to work an en-tire revolution in the system and expense of boar-building. The right of the patents in India, where the results may, perhaps, be of primary importance from the extent of coast and river mavigation, is also to be sccured to the present company. It is contemplated that only one-fourth of the nominal capital will be called up. MEETING OF COUNCILS. Commission for the Relief of the Families of Volunteers—The Salt Question—Cost of the Investigation—Proposed Drainage for the Railway Tracks—The Independence Square Drainage—Councils and the Newspaper Reports The Streets to be Cleansed with Machines-Penrose Ferry Bridge.

Both branches of Councils met yesterday afternoon. SELECT BRANCH, THEO. GUYLER, President, in the chair. Petitions and communications as follows were received ad referred to their appropriate committees:

For the opening of Oxford street in the Twenty-third ward. For a road from Ridge road to the Wissabickon. Mr. Miccarr submitted an elaborate report from the Chief Engineer of Water, stating that the reservoirs of the Kensington works have been cleansed and repaired, and water supplied to the residents of this locaticy from the Spring Garden works. An accumulation of soft mud was found in the reservoirs, nudoutledly derived from the river Delaware, and which appears to have been dewas found in the reservoirs, nucleutedly derived from the river Delaware, and which appears to have been de-posited at the rate of nearly an inch per month. At rresent these works supply the Seventeenth, Eighteenth, Ninettenth, and parts of the Sixteenth, Wenty-third, and Twany-Effh wards, and it is recommended that an additional Cornish engine be erected at the works, capa-ble of pumping ten millions per day, with a forty-eight-inch accending main, which would be sufficient to meet all emergencies. The proposed main between the Spring Garden and Kensington res-rwoirs would contain $11,091 gallus. The capacities of the ascoral reservoirs are as follows: The Gerinthian avenue reservoir, 57,500,000 gallons. The Gerinthian avenue reservoir, 57,500,000 gallons. The demand on the Corinthian-avenue reservoir is about 3,600,000 gallons per day, and has, therefore, a capacity of 103% days' supply. The demand on the Spring-Garden roservoir is 1000 gallons daily, and its capacity is of not more than 1% days' supply. The demand on the Kensington reservoir as bout 2,500,000 gallons daily, and its capa ity is less than four days' supply. The total quantity of water supplied by the Kensington vorke, in 1861. was 982,805,740 gallons, or a daily average of 2,695,38 gallons. The total cost of supplying the a'vore was $2,2470 12. The cost of con-necting and raising the Kensington reservoir is estimated at $257,554.

Sidney and Twenty-second streets, and Ridge avenue, was adepted. An ordinance creating a Twelfth division of the Twen-tieth ward was introduced and passed. It was made from the Third, Seventh, and Eleventh divisions of the ward. Mr. CRAIG offered an ordinance appropriating $150,000 for the relief of the families of volunteers, the mousy to come from a lean of one million made for this and other nurposes. Agreed to.

for the relief of the families of volunteers, the monopy to cume from a less of one million made for this and other purposes. Agreed to. An ordinance to pay expenses of the joint spacial com-mittee upon the sait question, in the sum of $170, was adopted. Five hundred copies of the report cost $190, while the clock réceives $70 for reporting and preparing the matter for the printer. Agreed to. The flippant resolution offered in Common Council to ascertain whether arrangements could not be made to insure full and more correct reports of Councils in the Papers, was taken up. Mr. Miscaar said, for the simple reason that the re-ports in the daily papers were as elaborate and correct as could be wished, and there was no need of Councils bearing any expense of this kind. The papers roport our speeches full enough, and perhaps too much so for some of the members. [Laughter.] If they were to do it more extensively, God only knows where it would end; camp, in Council, where the resolution comes from. There are men who speak as long as they soc the reporters writing, and what they say is wholly for bun-combe. The medion to postrome was agreed to.

ventilation of the public buildings in Independence Equare was brought up on third reading. The ordinance authorizes the Commissioner of City Property to ex-tend the drainage in the basement areas on the southern side of both the east and west wings of the State House buildings, and that he is also authorized to construct a retiring room at the rear of, and adjoining to, the room of the Court of Quarter Sessions, not exceeding to feet in depth by elseen feetin width, and one story in height, and to courform in design to the architecture of the present court room, and that the further sum of fifteen hundred disiars be appropriated for the purposes specified. An amerdment was officted by Mr. Givenob to remove the small structure in rear of Independence Hall, which has long since been declared a nuisance on account of the foul air arising therefrom.

fixed at 2,200f. A phorosition of the Archbishop of Toulouse, to celebrate as a glorious event a massacre of Protest-ants three centuries ago, is severely condemned by the principal French journals. A MEMONIAL.—The Moniteur Judiciare of Lyons states that a large silver watch was lately purchased at a public sale for 15f This watch, on examination, was found to have belonged to the sanguinary revolutionist, Couthon. The name of the forecious Conventionalist was engraved in the interior of the case under a death's head, over which oak leaves.

THE JAPANESE ANDASSADORS.—A despatch from Marseilles announces the landing at that port of the Japanase ambassadors. They were received by the Marquis de Trevise, senator, and by Count de Maupaa, with military honors.

Maupas, with military honors. M. OCTAVE FEUILLET, who has been elected to fill the chair in the French Academy left vacant by the death of M. Soribe, is celebrated both as a dramatic writer and a novelist. His most remark-able dramatic works are La Nut Terrible, Le Bourgeois de Rome, La Crise, Le Pour et le Contre, Péril en la Demeure, La Fis, Le Village, Dalila, La Tentation, and Rédenption. His best novels are said to be Bellah, L: Cheven Blane, and Le Roman d'un Jeune Homme Pauvre. M. Octave Feuillet is a townsman of M. de Tocqueville, and, like him, has obtained a seat de Tocqueville, and, like him, has obtained a seat in the Academy at a very early age.

The ordinance was agreed to. The resolution from Select Council, providing for the psyment of interest on city warrants issued since the 1st of January, was taken up. A motion to postpone the consideration of the bill in-definitely was lost. Mr. Harper opposed the passage of the resolution, on the ground that most of the warrants had found their way into the hands of speculators. Mr. Quis moved to strike out the words "and that the warrants shall be paid according to the date of their ou-dorsements."
