THE CITY.

FOR ADDITIONAL CITY NEWS, SEE POURTE PAGE. How the Evacuation of York-TOWN WAS RECEIVED HERE .- Our citizens renatural the name of the evacuation of Yorktown very quietly. The strategy of the rebel generals has been so mysterious of late that few pretend to account for this latest of all movements, and, indeed, it is generally shought that the rebels themselves have no very clear ideas as to what they mean to do. A few were fearful yesterday that the evacuation of Yorktown meant the electruction of Banks, McDowell, or Barnside, but the mass of people took the retreat to be a last desperate attempt of the Confederacy to save its capital and the territory of the Old Dominion. Most folk regarded the evacuation as a crowning garland for the wily and wise generalship of McClellan, but a few of the timorous and doubtinl regretted that the rebel army, or a portion of it, was not entrapped and captured. It was said in some quarters that the slow movements of McDowell could now be axplained, and that he had waited at Fredericksburg in order to give the rebels an opportunity to evacuate York-town, and thus subserve the designs of McClellan. Some think that Richmond will now be left unguarded, and that the rebel Congress did not make their late exodus unauthorizedly. In view of this anticipated event, the wise ones say, what will be done with Norfolk-will it be "Sleo given up? A hundred speculations engross the hour, but all believe that the days of the rebellion are

ARRIVAL OF THE REMAINS OF MAJOR ARRIVAL OF THE REMAINS OF MAJOR GENERAL CHARLES F. SMITH.—On Saturday afternoon, about six o'clock, the body of Major General Charles F. Smith reached this city. Major General Charles F. Smith reached this city. Major General Smith was a netive of Publishelphia, and, at the time of his death, was in his fifty-sixth year. General Smith Contracted, while in Mexico, the disease which caused his death at Savanush, Tennessee. During the war with Mexico, the deceased bore a gallant part in the struggly. He was coloned of the Third regiment of United States in Jantry, brevetted for "gallant and distinguished conduct at the battles of Palo Alto and Resease de la P. Jima, in Texas, May 9th, 18 16." and again, "for gallant conduct in the several conflicts at Moureeve, in Mexico, on the 21st, 22d, and 23d of September, 1846;" and, again, "for gallant and meritorious conduct in the battles of Constrease and Churubusco, in Mexico, August 20th, 3847." His crowning achievement was at the assault upon Fort Donelson, when his geliant charge at the head of his division drove the rebe's from their entrenchmon's in dismay. For his services in this action he was commissioned Major General of volunteers.

The remains were received at the passenger depot of the Pennsylvania milroad, at Eleventh and Market atreets, on the arrival of the train.

The body was accompanied from Cincinnati by Mr. Anderson, a brother of General R-bert Anderson. He brought with him the uniform of General Shith and the service word which he carried at the time of the assault REPUBLICAN CONVENTION .- An ad-Journed meeting (I this body was held on last Saturd ay evening at the County Court House, the President, Bir. W. J. Wainwright, in the Chair. There was a very large attendance of the members, and on notion of Mr. 5. D Southworth, the following additional special rules were adopted unanimously:

The secretary of each ward association, formed purmant to these rules, shall engross this obligation: "hereby bind and obligate myself to sustain and vote for the nominees presented by the Republican Party, pursuations or associations whatever," which shall be signe which he is returned, if he has, at any time since his connection with the ward association to which he belong, acted as a member of, or in any connection with, any other political party whatever; and in each and every Convention held-uner these rules, the following obligation shall be drawn up by the secretary of the Convention, and be signed by each and every delegate; at We hereby bind and obligate conserves to sustain and wote for the nominees of this Convention."

It was announced that the Republicans of the Sixth ward would meet at the usual place to complete their organization, under the rules, on next Tuesday evening; after which, the Convention made arrangements to send delegates to the coming State Convention, and then ad-

SAUNDERS' CADETS AT GIRARD COLLEGE.—On Saturday, at 10 o'clock, the cadets of Sauna ders' Institute, West Philadelphia, were drilled, for the acond time, by their military instructor, major Eckendorf, on the ground of Girard Codege, by invitation of the faculty. Their reputation had drawn together an immense number of isr iss and gentlemen, who expressed their gratification in the most fattering manner. PhilaGelphiads, and indeed, ell Peuce) iranivaes, have reason to rejoice that, without any parade, tailitary instruction of the highest order has been so successfully introduced into so distinguished and long-established seminary as the Saunders' Institute. This surprisingly-successful experiment proves that systematic physical exercise, in the military form, will promote, instead of retarding, incellectual culture. We never saw a healthier collection of youths in appearance than Saunders' Cadets, and we have reason to know that they excel as much in close application to hard study as they do in those military feats which invariably draw crowds of cultivated and admiring spectators whenever they appear before our citizens. At the conclusion of the drill, the Cadets marched to the residence of Major Eckendorf, and, with many others, were delightfully refreshed. Saunders' Cadets at Girard Col-ARREST OF SHOPLIFTERS. A few PEACH CROP IN DELAWARE AND MARYLAND.—We are reliably informed that the prospects of an abuncant peach crop were never so flattering as thus far during the present season, and that, unless some late frost kills the fruit, by far the largest crop were grown in Eastern Maryland will be gathered. One inselligent gentleman informs us that over one militon of frees have been planted this session on the penincular, embracing Delaware and the Eastern Shore of Maryland, company over but thousand series of land. The acute eccupying over ten thousand acres of land. The apple erop, from present appearances, also promises to be a very large one. There is great trade in lands on the line of the Delaware Publishiar Hailroad. Large track of sand are being laid out for peach orchards in the riel alluvial bottom of Bohemia manor.

THEN AND NOW AT FORT DELAWARE. —Fort Delaware is now the abode of upwards of three hundred rebeis. Less than a year ago we expected daily that it would be menaced by privateersmen or by the dissifected people of Delaware and Maryland. Approps of the feeling of the State of Delaware in the matter, the Wilmington Inquired calls strenguedly for the discovery and arrest of the leaders of the cabal that designed seizing the fortrees. It closes its article thus: "The Fort Delaware and Delaware and Chesapeake Canal affair should be looked into. That there was a plot to take Fort Delaware is be; ond contradiction. One of the par-ties, we believe, is in Fort Warren; another of the party, we believe, is a high officer of Delaware."

FUNERAL OF REV. W. H. BRISBANE. HUNERAL OF MEV. W. H. Brisbane will be buried to-day, after religious exercises in the Green-street M. E. Church. Mr. Brisbane entered the ministry, on trial, in 1848. In the spring of 1848 he was appointed a junior preacher of the circuit, of which Bethel and Chesapeake City, Md., formed a part. In 1849, Elkton, Chesapeake City, and Bethel were formed into a circuit, and Mc. Brisbane was appointed junior preacher—Hev. W. H. Elliott being the senior. In 1850 he was ordained a deacon, and received Elder's Orders in 1852.

DEATH OF DANIEL S. BEIDEMAN .-Mr. Daniel S. Beideman, a well-known active Democrat, died at his residence, in the Eleventh ward, on batterlay morning. The deceased was a memoer of the Board of the Northern Liberties prior to the going into effect of Consolidation. In 1855 he was elected to represent the Eleventh ward in Select Council, and he retained his east in that body until January last. He was a member of the Commission for the Relief of Families of Volunteurs at the time of his death. at the time of his death.

DESERTERS IN THE CITY.-We regret to have to chronicle a shameful case of desertion from the ranks of our Home Guard. During the night of da-turday last three of the Girard Home Guard, who were engaged in the honorable task of guarding the body of Major General Smith made their escape from the State Acuse and from Independence Square by scaling the iron railings. They have not yet been arrested. ROBBERY AND ARREST. - Yesterday afternoon an Eastern man named Thomas Monks was robbed of $100 in a vile den in St. Mary street, k-pt by FATAL BURNING .- On Saturday morning a man named Patrick O'Kane, living at Seventh and St. Mary streets, was badly burned by his bed taking fre. He was removed to the Hospital, where he died at eight o'clock in the evening. He leaves a wife and one A LECTURE. —The Hon. Edward Ever tt will lecture at the Academy of Musica on Friday evening next, upon "The Character of the War," far the benefit of the Volunteer Refreshment Saloons. The cloquent orator will insure a crowded house.

FLORAL FAIR, -A floral fair for the benefit of the Cooper Shop Hospital and Soldiers' dome will shortly be held. A meeting of ladies to make arrange-ments for the above object will be held, on Tuesday afternoon next, at Concert Had.

BODY FOUND.—The coroner was summoned yesterday to hold an inquest upon the body of an unknown white woman found floating in the Delaware at ROBBERY .- A dwelling house, No.

2126 Moust Vernon street, was entered on Siturday eve-ning, between nine and ten o'clock, through the trap-door, and robbed of a silk dress, valued at thirty dollars DECEASE OF MR. SCHUYLER.-Mr. Philip B. Schuyler, a well-known citizen of the Northern Liberties, died at his residence, Germantown avenue and Fifth street, on Saturday afternoon.

DEATH OF A POLICEMAN.—George W. Mshan, a member of the police force of the Fourteenth ward, died on Friday night, at his residence, Brown street, below Twelfth, from an attack of typhoid fever. A FINE BUILDING IMPROVEMENT .- The vicinity of Ninth and Chestnut streets is soon to be em-bellished with another magnificent building improveabout to be erected on the Burd property, by Messrs J. F. & E. B. Orne, proprietors of the well-known carpet warehouse, on Chestnut street, opposite the Siate House. This edifice, when completed, will not be rivalled by any carpet house in the United States. The new store will have a front on Chestnut street of thirty-five feet, with a denth of two hundred and thirty-five feet. The plates in the windows will be among the largestiever imported, and are to measure nine by nineteen feet. The building will be four stories above ground, and the entire Niuth street side will be of white marble. The Chestaut-street front will be surmounted by a magnificent block of martin, the cost of which alone will exceed three thousand dollars. The coat-of-arms of the Burd family are to be mblazoned upon the latter in boid relief, and the entire edifice will constitute an architectural acquisition to Puiadelphia, worthy of her taste and wealth, as well as of the honored associations of that central locality, and the enterprise and spirit of its occupants. The commencenent of this extensive improvement at this time is signiheart, and shows, among other indications, that the sheck given to the commercial enterprise of our city by the rebellion has been but temporary, and, as compare twith the effect of it in the South, trivial. We are authoized to state, in this connection, that the preparations of he firm above referred to, to furnish the community with elegant carpets, will be correspondingly increased, One of the partners of the firm, Mr. J. Mr. Gough is in fact one of the few living orators of whom the public His lecture this evening, which the reader will find advertised in another column, to be given at the Academy of Music, is entitled " London by Night." This lecture, it appears, has been prepared expressly for the occasion, and by knowing ones is said to be his best effort. His lecture on this theme, delivered in this city some months ago, those who heard it will never forget. It was the most graphic description of men and things as they appear to an acute observer, that we have ever heard, and if score of times by the same audience. The Academy will no doubt be filled to its utmost capacity. WARBURTON'S HATS .- Mr. W. F. Warburten, the hatter, of Chestnut street, has made a great hit graceful coverings for the head, adupted to all tastes, ages, and professions, are decidedly the greatest success in the hatting line of this season. The public will, of course, not be surprised to learn that so decided an improvement in this department thould be associated with the name of the press before Yorktown, speaking of the skirmish at Lee's Mills, in which the Massachuaetts First and Fiffeenth and Baxter's Fire Zonaves were engaged. The armor vest was struck three times with rifle balls, and they all glanced off, doing him no damage!" What was the worth of that vest to that soldier? Mr. Charles Stokes, who furnished that vest, is manufacturing them to order to an extent hardly equal to the demand. To the soldier in the field they are invaluable. THE UNBRELLA.—The umbrella has been used from a very remote antiquity, as is evident from not used by men in England until during the last century, and it is said that Jonas Hanway, who died in 1786, gotten up at Granville Stokes' One-price Mammoth Temple, No. 609 Chestnut street, where the finest spring and summer garments in the country are manufactured THE CAPTURE OF NEW ORLEANS .- Some of the Secesh are queer chaps—the mayor of New Orleans, for instance. In roply to Commodore Farragut's demand to surrender, the mayor gets up a very pretty specimen of unadulterated bosh. After discussing the beauties of had just been shooting down women and children for cheering the old flag, and he goes on to predict a certain attack of paralysis to any individual who should ever think of hauling down the stars and bars. As a sanitary neasure, it would perhaps have been as well to allow the nayor to have his own way; but in a different point of view it was essential that Becesh should go under. That the truth lies in the "Vis Medis" was never made that the truth lies in the "Vis Medis" was never made clearly exemplified than in the controversy now may between the above parties Borace Bunner contends that in the Executive lies the right te ampendable With of Habsan Corpus, under the contendence of the other constitution. His opponents as ardently advocate that the power lies in Congress. Lawrer-like, these gentlemen pleat their respective views with special arguments, and ignory the fact that, though it is addict, from the dehated in the soveral conventions, that our forefathers considered that the power was to be invested in Congress, yet the grant was not made, as is clearly shown by Mr Biuney in his Second Part, lately issued. See pages 12, &c. Now; it is also evident that no such power was granted to the Executive. Where, therefore, does it lie! If not granted, it surely remains in the State Governments, who had this right provide Federation, subject, of course, to such restrictions as were contained in their respective Constitutions. This is almoyel yiew of the matter in controversy, but that it is entitled to consideration will be proven by reading the many pamphlets written on the subject, increase in all, which can be purchased at my be proven by reading the many pamphlets written on the aubject, rineteen in all, which can be purchased at my store.
