NORFOLK SURRENDERED.

And royal Jeff himself astound, And Beauregard dismay. For now, to all discerning eyes,

BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL.

"Norfolk is taken!"-startling sound!

Interesting December of Light Comments	APTER BOARDS.
Interesting Report of Lieut. Command- ing Phelps, of the United States Coast Survey.	5000 Schy Nav 6s 82 69 10 Arch-st R 22 25 Schy Nav pf. b5 15 2 6 do 22 44 Arch-st R 22
The following graphic report adds another page to the splendid history now making by the Ameri-	CLOSING PRICES—FIRM. Rid. Asked.: Rid. Asked.
can navy. The officers of the Coast Survey, not content with rendering invaluable scientific ser-	US Tr 7 3-10 N. 105); 106 Elmira 7s '73 $4 86 Philada 6s 99); 100 L. Island R ex-d 15 15 Fhilada 6s now. 102 ; 103 Leo'gh Cl & Nav 55 56
vices, rival the regular navy in their daring opera- tions against the enemy;	Penna 98 893/ 90 Le Cl & Nav sep. 40 41 Reading R 24-69 243/ N Penna R 83/ 9 Read m 6s '80'34) 993/ 100 N Penna R 6a 76 76
U. S. COAST SURVEY STHAMER "COEWIN," \\ WEST POINT, Ya., May 8, 1882. \\ DEAR SIR: It gives me pleasure to inform you that	Read bds '70 923, 93 Read mt 6s '80., 843, 85 Penna R 463, 47 Cataw R Con 17, 2 Catawissa Prf., 9 93, during the recent important movements in York river, the Corwin has performed her full share. On Saturday morning the 4th instant, we discovered	Penna R 1 m 6s. 103½ Frnk & South R 44 Penna R 2 m 6s. 96 98 Sec & Thd-st R. 62 65 Morris Cnl Pref. 116½ 117¼ W Phila R 54½ 55
that Yorktown and Gloucester Point were abandoned, which was instantly telegraphed to the flag-ship. The squadron immediately weighed, and stood up the river- when near Gloucester Point, I received orders to take	Sch Nav Stock. 52 54 Spruce & Pino. 124 124 Sch Nav Prof. 152 154 Green & Coatest 254 26 Sch Nav 6s 82. 694 694 Chos & Walnut, 344 35
the "Currituck" in company, and proceed up the river, about four miles, to reconnoitre the shores, and intercept the enemy's transports and other vessels. We start-	Philadelphia Markets. 22 22/2
ad ahead at full speed, and when near Queen's Creek, discovered a company of the rebel cavalry, which our shells soon dispersed; immediately afterwards, observed	MAY 13—Evening. The Flour market continues dull, buyers holding of Bigler's wharf to be on fire in several places, and three chooners and a launch escaping to the windward. Our shot soon hove to a tcheoner and the launch, (loaded	for lower prices; 500 bbls good City Mills extra family sold on terms kept private, and a few small lots to supply the trade at $5.05.12% for superflue, $5.25.05.50 for ex-with stores, and the effects of General Bains and Lieut. Whitney, C. S. A) and the other vessels were fired and abandoned, their crews escaping to the shore	tras, $5.50@5.75 for extrafamily, and $5.87%@6.50 $\to$ bbl for fancy brands, as to quality. Rve Flour is quiet at
Having reached a point thirteen miles above lork- town, in consequence of my orders, I was compelled to return and, after having secured the prizes and cap-	$2.50, and Corn Meal at $2.60\(\pi 2.65 \) bbls for Penn'a Meal. When is unsettled and lower, with sales of 0\(\pi 10,000\)
tured a sloop in addition, I steamed down theriver, and, when within about five miles of Yorktown. I met one of the gunboats, and her Captain (T. H. Patterson), directed me to cover his vessel in a reconnoissance towards	bu hels—part last evening—at 127@128c for prime Penn'a red, alloat, and 132c for Southern do, closing at the lowest figure; white is dult at 136@140c. Rye is rather dult;
the head of the river. I immediately cast off the prizes, and led up to West Point, where we discovered the place to be abandoned, several partially-built gunboats and	Penu's is offered at 73c. Corn is not so plenty; about 13 000 bushels Southern and Penn's yellow brought 53c, afloat. Oats are quiet at 36@37c for Delaware, and 38c Penn's.
the York river light bost on fire, and two regiments that morning arrived from Richmond, on their way to Yorktown, just leaving in the cars, and white flags waving on	BARK.—First No. 1 Quercitron is wanted at $33.50 per ton. Cottox.—The market is firm, with a small business
ehore. Having executed the duty assigned, we commenced our return, and soon parani the Currituck, bound up,	to note at previous rates. GROCERIES.—There is rather more activity in Sugar and Molasses; sales of the former are making at 7.27% with orders to burn therathroat ordage. On my arrival opposite Bigl-r's wharf, (having captured another schooner on the way down), I received di-	号 jb. Provisions continue firm, Pickled Hams selling at 5以 でちなこ。Shoulders in Salt, 4以c, and Sides at 5以 の rections to return and prevent the destruction of the bridge, which daty was successfully accomplished. Upon my second arrival at West Point, at 9.30 P. M., Captein Shankland, of the Currituck, reported that he	5½c 약 lb. Whisky lis unsettled, bbls. selling at 24@24½c for Pennsylvania; 25@25½c for Western, and drudge at had landed and hoisted the Union flag, and had found about fifty prisoners of the rebels (mostly women and	22% c # gallon. New York Stocks—Second Board, May 13.
children), "living in a horrible condition, in sheds, and without the common necessaries of life". These people were residents of Elizabeth City county, and sent here by General Magruder on account of their Union pro-	5000 U S 6s '81reg.104x 200 N Y Cent R
clivities. I at once decided to remain and hold posses- sion of the place, protest the people and prevent a fur- ther destruction of property by the rebels, until the ar-	5000 U S 5s '74 . cpn. 95 1 500 Erie B
rival of the commanding officer of the naval division. On the 5th inst. we seized a schooner in the Pamunkey river, and also the C. S. sloop "Water-Wich," recently	1000 do abandoned by Capt. Thos. Jefferson Page. During the day I secured much information regarding the movements of the rebel army, which was transmitted to the	41000 Ill War Loan 96% 100 Hud Riv R 42% 2000 Tenn 68 90 59 450 do 42% 2000 do 58% 25 do 42% 25 do 42% 25 do 60 12% 25 do 60 12000 do 52% 50 do 60 10 2000 do 51 52% 50 HI C R Scrip 560 62% proper authoriy. On the 6th the naval vessels arrived, conveying the division of Gen. Franklin. During the evening I received information that the enemy would attempt to destroy the town during the night, which I	90°0 California 7s 94°5 100 do 62°5 2000 Ill Cp Bds '79 97°5 250 Clev & Pittsb R 20°5 4000 Hud Riv 3d 87° 1300 do 20%
at once reported to the commanding officer, and received orders to anchor near the ship yard, where I could com- mand the approaches to the town.	3000 Tol & W 2d 55 ½ 200 Clev & Tol 46 ½ 5000 Mich So S F 96 300 do 46 ½
About 11 A. M., on the 7th. I heard that about 4,003 of the troops recently stationed at Gloucester Point, (who had retreated up the north side of the York river, with	250 C Am Gold 103 100 do 660.46 12 200 Pac M S 8 114 50 Chi & R I 613 150 do 613 150 do 613
the view of crossing at this place, and were prevented by our presence), were crossing the Mattapony river at Fra- zier's Ferry, thirty miles above here. I immediately asked and obtained permission to go after them, and by	CITY ITEMS.
asked and obtained permission to go after them, and by 3 P. M., had carried the old flag thirty-six miles above West Point, till our progress was checked by our draught of water, I learned that 4,000 of the rebels had passed	Messrs. J. W. Proctor & Co.'s Elegant
the previous night, on their way to Dunkirk Bridge. I found white flags hoisted on both shores of the river, and the people generally apparently pleased to see the	Spaing CLOARS.—The proprietors of "The Paris Man- tilla Emporium" (now located at No. 920 Chestaut street) have this season made a most successful hit in their ele-
Union flag once more among them. About three miles above this place, the Mattapony has been obstructed by the sinking of six vessels in the chan-	gant Spring and Summer Cloaks. The superbnew fabric—the "Exhibition Cloth"—(of which Messrs, Proctor nel, but we passed round the south side of them in five fathoms water. In the evening, we returned to our anchorage, and	& Co. were fortunate enough to secure fithe 1st which came to this country.) is being universally admired by the ladies. The exquisite sacques and circulars made from
during the night shelled out a party who were endeavor- ing to set fire to the timber in the ship yard, which had escaped the general destruction by the robels on their evacuation of the place during the 4-h inst.	this new material are certainly the most tasteful thing out. They are at once dressy, adapted to all, and suff- ciently light in texture to be worn, with comfort, in the
I will mention that we had the pleasure of firing the last naual shot at Yorktown on the evening previous to the execuation, and that one of our 12-pound Hotchkiss	warmest weather. As they are selling very rapidly, we advise our fair readers to make their selections without shell, projected a fraction over four miles, exploded and a shilled five of the enemy, and one of the solid short passed about one half a mile beyond the town, or 4½ miles.	A Great Establishment.—There are seve-
All the prisoners who have been captured, or have given themselves up to me, agree in saying that the rebel army from Yorktown ("125,000 well mea") will fall leak to the Chickplownian, and that Can Johnston de-	ral distinctive departments in the trade of this city, in either of which the celebrated old house of Charles Oak- ford & Son, under the Continental Hotel, excels all others.
back to the Chickshominy, and that Gen. Johnston de- clares that he will not attempt to make a stand where our gunboats can cut up his men; they also say that the people "feel that it is all over with them," and soldiers	Of these we may name Hats and Caps, Head-gear for Chil- dren, and Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods. In all of these branches their stock is unequalled, and, being the chief desert whenever they can. I am, respectfully, your chedient servant, THOS. S. PHELPS,	manufacturers and importers in these departments, their prices are unusually moderate.
Lieutenant Commanding, Assistant in Coast Survey. Prof. A. D. Fache LL. P., Superintendent United States Coast Survey.	DEPUTATION OF MINISTERS AND OTHERS FOR YORKTOWN.—We are authorized to state that a deputa-
SORGHUM CULTURE IN BUCKS COUNTY.—There is an increasing disposition among the farmers of	tion of ministers and clergymen, under the anspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, will leave for Yorktown this morning, at ten o'clock, to minister to
Bucks and other counties of Eastern Pennsylvania to devote a part of their attention this year to the	the spiritual and temporal wants of the sick and wounded. Any articles suitable for hospital purposes sent to the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Associa-
culture of sorghum, or the Chinese sugar-cane. It has been tried on a small scale by different persons for several years past, with results generally favor-	tion, No. 1000 Chestnut street, before six o'clock this evening, will be glad received and judiciously appro-
DEATH OF AN AGED CITIZEN.—Christopher Si-	priated by the gentlemen composing this deputation. Pure Liquors for Medicinal Purposes.—
genfoos, of Nockamizon, died at the residence of his grandson, John Sigenfoos, in that township, on	The fact that Mr. 6. II. Mattson, dealer in fine groceries, Arch and Tenth streets, has made it a specialty in his
Monday of last week. He was probably the oldest	business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genuine
man in the county, being in the 98th year of his age, and was a much respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his
man in the county, being in the 93th year of his age, and was a much-respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Buck's County Democrat.	business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genuine liquors, such as brandies, wines, &c., of undoubted purity, has induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORIAH CEMETERY.—This ground is
man in the county, being in the 93th year of his age, and was a much-respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Buck's County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.	business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genuine liquors, such as brandies, wines, &c., of undoubted purity, has induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others.
man in the county, being in the 95th year of his age, and was a much-respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Buck's County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADELPHIA, May 13, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a dis-	business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genuine Riquers, such as brandies, wines, &c., of undoubted purity, has induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORIAH CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hil, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine
man in the county, being in the 93th year of his age, and was a much-respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Buck's County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADELPHIA, May 13, 1862.	business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genuine liquors, such as brandies, wines, &c., of undoubted purity, has induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORIAH CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 123 South Sixth street, where any further
man in the county, being in the 95th year of his age, and was a much-respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Buck's County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADELPHIA, May 13, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to ebb, and prices were sustained with difficulty. Government securities were sold to a very limited extent. City sixes were weaker, and a decline was noted in Reading Railroad shares, and in Schuylkill Navigation preferred. Gatawissa preferred sold at 83. Elmira pre-	business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genuine liquors, such as brandies, wines, &c., of undoubted purity, has induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORIAH CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 123 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agent. Desirable lots, at low prices, and on liberal terms, are now in the market, some of them in sections just opened,
man in the county, being in the 95th year of his age, and was a much-respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Buck's County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. Philadelphia, May 13, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to ebb, and prices were sustained with difficulty. Government securities were sold to a very limited extent. City sixes were weaker, and a decline was noted in Reading Railroad charcz, and in Schuylkili Navigation preferred. Gatawissa preferred sold at 8%. Elmira preferred sold up to 20. In passenger railway charcs a few sales were made. West Philadelphia at 54%; Spruce and Pine, 12%; Arch-	business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genuine liquors, such as brandies, wines, &c., of undoubted purity, bus induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORIAH CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 128 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agent. Desirable lots, at low prices, and on liberal terms, are now in the market, some of them in sections just opened, having hitherto been held in reserve. Office hours from S.A. M. to 4 P. M., and, eitker before or after these
man in the county, being in the 95th year of his age, and was a much-respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death—Buck's County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADELPHIA, May 13, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to ebb, and prices were sustained with difficulty. Government securities were sold to a very limited extent. City sixes were weaker, and a decline was noted in Reading Railroad shares, and in Schuylkill Navigation preferred. Ostawissa pieferred sold at 8%. Elmira preferred sold up to 29. In passenger railway shares a few sales were made.	business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genuine liquors, such as brandies, wines, &c., of undoubted purity, bus induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORIAH CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 123 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agent. Desirable lets, at low prices, and on liberal terms, are now in the market, some of them in sections just opened, having hitherto been held in reserve. Office hours from S A. M. to 4 P. M., and, either before or after these hours, at the residence of the undersigued, No. 314 North Tenth street. FREDERICK A. VAN CLEVE,
man in the county, being in the 95th year of his age, and was a much-respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Buck's County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADSLIPHIA, May 13, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to ebb, and prices were sustained with difficulty. Government securities were sold to a very limited extent. City sixes were weaker, and a decline was noted in Reading Reilroad chares, and in Schuylkill Navigation preferred. Oatawissa preferred sold at 8%. Elmira preferred sold up to 29. In pascenger railway chares a few sales were made. Weet Philadelphia at 54%; Spruce and Fine, 12%; Archstreet, 22%; Thi. tsenth and Fifteenth, 15%, and Green and Coates at 25%. We are requested by the Assistant Treasurer of the United States to remind helders of certificates of temporary loan, payable in coin, that, pursuant to the notice	business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genuine liquors, such as brandies, wines, &c., of undoubted purity, has induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORIAH CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 123 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agent. Desirable lots, at low prices, and on liberal terms, are now in the market, some of them in sections just opened, having hitherto been held in reserve. Office hours from S A. M. to 4 P. M., and, eitker before or after these hours, at the residence of the undersigued, No. 314 North Tenth street. FREDERICK A. VAN OLEVE,
man in the county, being in the 95th year of his age, and was a much-respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Buck's County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADELPHIA, May 13, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to ebb, and prices were sustained with difficulty. Government securities were sold to a very limited extent. City sixes were weaker, and a decline was noted in Reading Railroad charce, and in Schuylkill Navigation preferred sold up to 29. In passenger railway shares a few sales were made. West Philadelphis at 54%; Spruce and Pine, 12%; Archstreet, 22%; Thi. teenth and Fifteenth, 15%, and Green and Coates at 25%. We are requested by the Assistant Treasurer of the United States to remind holders of certificates of temporary loan, payable in coin, that, pursuant to the notice already given, they should be presented for reimbursed ment before the close of the present week. Mesars. Inday & Bicknell report that a counterfeit	business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genuine liquors, such as brandies, wines, &c., of undoubted purity, bus induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORIAH CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 123 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agent. Desirable lots, at low prices, and on liberal terms, are now in the market, soure of them in sections just opened, having hitherto been held in reserve. Office hours from S A. M. to 4 P. M., and, either before or after these hours, at the residence of the undersigued, No. 314 North Tenth street. FREDERICK A. VAN OLEVE, Ceneral Agent. N. B.—Conveyance to and from the cemetery for such as desire to purchase, DR. S. M. LANDIS, Electro-Hygiene and Water-Cure Physician and Surgeon, treats all diseases, without medicines, at 218 North Ninth street.
man in the county, being in the 95th year of his age, and was a much-respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Buck's County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADELPHIA, May 13, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to ebb, and prices were susrained with difficulty. Government securities were susrained with difficulty. Government securities were sust to a very limited extenticity sixes were weaker, and a decline was noted in Reading Bailroad shares, and in Schuylkili Navigation preferred. Gatawissa preferred sold at 8%. Elmira preferred sold up to 29. In pascenger railway shares a few sales were made. West Philadelphia at 54%; Spruce and Pine, 12%; Archstreet, 22%; Thi. tenth and Fifteenth, 15%, and Green and Coates at 25%. We are requested by the Assistant Treasurer of the United States to remind belders of certificates of temporary loan, payable in coin, that, pursuant to the notice already given, they should be presented for reinbursed ment before the close of the present week.	business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genuine liquors, such as brandies, wines, &c., of undoubted purity, bus induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORIAH CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 123 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agent. Desirable lots, at low prices, and on liberal terms, are now in the market, some of them in sections just opened, having hitherto been held in reserve. Office hours from S.A. M. to 4 P. M., and, either before or after these hours, at the residence of the undersigned, No. 314 North Tenth street. FREDERICK A. VAN CLEYE, General Agent. N. B.—Conveyance to and from the cemetery for such as desire to purchase, Dr. S. M. LANDIS, Electro-Hygiene and Water-Cure Physician and Surgeon, treats all diseases, without medicines, at 218 North Ninth street. WINDOW SHADES, all styles, $1 to $5 cach, with durable fixtures, 719 Chestnut street, Philadeiphia.
man in the county, being in the 95th year of his age, and was a much-respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Buck's County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADELPHIA, May 13, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to ebb, and prices were sustained with difficulty. Government securities were sold to a very limited extent. City sixes were weaker, and a decline was noted in Reading Reilroad shares, and in Schuylkill Navigation preferred. Ostawissa preferred sold at 8%. Elmira preferred sold up to 29. In pascenger railway shares a few sales were made. West Philadelphia at 54%; Spruce and Fine, 12%; Archstreet, 22%; Thi tzenth and Fifteeuth, 15%, and Green and Ooates at 25%. We are requested by the Assistant Treasurer of the United States to remind holders of certificates of temporary loan, payable in coin, that, pursuant to the notice already given, they should be presented for reimbursed ment before the close of the present week. Messrs. Imilay & Bicknell report that a counterfeit three-dollarfnote on the Hartford Bank, Connecticut, is now being circulated in this city. On lower left two sailors standing by a shaft, two females sitting with spinning wheel, box, etc. On lower right, group of harvesters, with sheaves of grain, eattle, anchor, &c., well done	business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genuine liquors, such as brandies, wines, &c., of undoubted purity, has induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORIAH CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 128 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agent. Desirable lots, at low prices, and on liberal terms, are now in the market, some of them in sections just opened, having hitherto been held in reserve. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 4 P. M., and, either before or after these hours, at the residence of the undersigued, No. 314 North Tenth street. FREDERICK A. VAN CLEVE, General Agent. N. B.—Conveyance to and from the cemetery for such as desire to purchase, DR. S. M. LANDIS, Electro-Hygiene and Water-Cure Physician and Surgeon, treats all diseases, without medicines, at 218 North Ninth street. WINDOW SHADES, all styles, $1 to $5 each, with durable fixtures, 719 Chestnut street, Philadeiphia. W. H Carrill & Bro. Lace, Muslin, And Jacquard Curtains,
man in the county, being in the 95th year of his age, and was a much-respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Buck's County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADELPHIA, May 13, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to ebb, and prices were sustained with difficulty. Government securities were sold to a very limited extent. City sixes were weaker, and a decline was noted in Bealing Bailroad shares, and in Schuylkill Navigation preferred. Ostawissa preferred sold at 83. Elmira preferred sold up to 29. In passenger railway shares a few sales were made. West Philadelphia at 54x; Spruce and Fine, 12%; Archstreet, 22%; Thi tzenth and Fifteenth, 15%, and Green and Ocates at 25%. We are requested by the Assistant Treasurer of the United States to remind holders of certificates of temporary loam payable in coin, that, pursuant to the notice already given, they should be present week. Messrs. Imlay & Bicknell report that a counterfeit three-dollarynets on the Hartford Bank, Connecticut, is new being circulated in this city. On lower left two sailors standing by a shaft, two females sitting with spinning wheel, box, etc. On lower right, group of harvesters, with sheaves of grain, cattle, anchor, &c., well done The public should refuse all of this plate. The Milford (Del.) News says that, at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the "Farmers and Me-	business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genuine liquors, such as brandies, wines, &c., of undoubted purity, bus induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORIAH CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 128 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agent. Desirable lots, at low prices, and on liberal terms, are now in the market, some of them in sections just opened, having hitherto been held in reserve. Office hours from SA. M. to 4 P. M., and, either before or after these hours, at the residence of the undersigned, No. 314 North Tenth street. FREDERICK A. VAN CLEYE, General Agent. N. B.—Conveyance to and from the cemetery for such as desire to purchase, Dr. S. M. LANDIS, Electro-Hygiene and Water-Cure Physician and Surgeon, treats all diseases, without medicines, at 218 North Ninth street. WINDOW SHADES, all styles, $1 to $5 cach, with durable fixtures, 719 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. W. H. CARRYL & Bro.
man in the county, being in the 95th year of his age, and was a much-respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Buck's County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADELPHIA, May 13, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to ebb, and prices were sustained with difficulty. Government securities were sold to a very limited extent. City sixes were weaker, and a decline was noted in Reading Railroad shares, and in Schuylkill Navigation preferred. Oatawissa preferred sold at 83. Elmira preferred sold up to 29. In passenger railway shares a few sales were made. West Philadelphia at 54%; Spruce and Pine, 12%; Archestret, 22%; Thi trenth and Fifteenth, 15%, and Green and Coates at 25%. We are requested by the Assistant Treasurer of the United States to remind holders of certificates of temporary loam payable in coin, that, pursuant to the notice already given, they should be present week. Mesars, Imlay & Bielhell report that a counterfeit three-dollar note on the Hartford Bank, Connecticut, is new being circulated in this city. On lower left two sailors standing by a shaft, two females sitting with spinning wheel, box, etc. On lower right, group of harvesters, with sheaves of grain, cattle, anchor, &c., well done The public should refuse all of this plate. The Milford (Del.) News says that, at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the "Farmers and Mechanics" Bank of Milford," held at their banking house, an Tuesday last, the following officers ware abseted to serve for the consent poar:	business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genuine liquors, such as brandies, wines, &c., of undoubted in liquors, such as brandies, wines, &c., of undoubted purity, has induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORIAH CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 128 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agent. Desirable lots, at low prices, and on liberal terms, are now in the market, some of them in sections just opened, having hitherto been held in reserve. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 4 P. M., and, either before or after these hours, at the residence of the undersigued, No. 314 North Tenth street. FREDERICK A. VAN CLEVE, General Agent. N. B.—Conveyance to and from the cemetery for such as desire to purchase, DR. S. M. LANDIS, Electro-Hygiene and Water-Cure Physician and Surgeon, treats all diseases, without medicines, at 218 North Ninth street. WINDOW SHADES, all styles, $1 to $5 each, with durable fixtures, 719 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. W. H. CARRIL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $150 to $20 a picce, 719 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. W. H. CARRIL & BRO. ap12.7t MARRIAGE OF THE EMPEROR OF JAPAN.— The Emperor of Japan has taken a wife—the is fifteen years old.) The Empress is a daughter of the "Mika-
man in the county, being in the 95th year of his age, and was a much-respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Buck's County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. Philadelphia, May 13, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to cbb, and prices were sustained with difficulty. Government securities were sold to a very limited extent. City sixes were weaker, and a decline was noted in Bealing Bailroad shares, and in Schuylkill Navigation preferred. Oatawissa preferred sold at 83. Elmira preferred sold up to 29. In pascenger railway shares a few sales were made. West Philadelphia at 54%; Spruce and Fine, 12%; Archstreet, 22%; Thi tzenth and Fifteenth, 15%, and Green and Goates at 25%. We are requested by the Assistant Treasurer of the United States to remind holders of certificates of temporary loam, payable in coin, that, pursuant to the notice already given, they should be present week. Messrs, Imlay & Bicknell report that a counterfeit three-dollarynete on the Hartford Bank, Connecticut, is new being circulated in this city. On lower left two sailors standing by a shaft, two females sitting with spinning wheel, box, etc. On lower right, group of harvesters, with sheaves of grain, cattle, anchor, &c., well done The public should refuse all of this plate. The Milford (Del.) News says that, at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the "Farmers and Mechanics' Bank of Milford," held at their banking house, an Tuesday last, the fallowing officers ware alected to Directors—Why E. W. Dorsey, Jas R. Lofland, Wm. Hill, C. S. Watson, John A. Hazzard, Ww. Tharcy Wm. A. Scribner. President—Wm. N. W. Dorsey, Wm. A. Scribner.	business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genuine liquors, such as brandies, wines, &c., of undoubted purity, bus induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORIAH CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 123 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agent. Desirable lots, at low prices, and on liberal terms, are now in the market, some of them in sections just opened, having hitherto been held in reserve. Office hours from SA. M. to 4 P. M., and, either before or after these hours, at the residence of the undersigued, No. 314 North Tenth street. FREDERICK A. VAN CLEYE, General Agent. N. B.—Conveyance to and from the cemetery for such as desire to purchase, Dr. S. M. LANDIS, Electro-Hyglene and Water-Cure Physician and Surgeon, treats all diseases, without medicines, at 218 North Ninth street. WINDOW SHADES, all styles, $1 to $5 each, with durable fixtures, 719 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. W. H. Carryl & Bro. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $4 50 to $20 a picce, 719 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. W. H. Carryl & Bro. The Emperor of Japan has taken a wife—the is fifteen years old.) The Empress is a daughter of the "Mikader," who is the real Emperor, but does not meddie with temporal affairs. The young monarch did not see his bride until she became his wife. The cortoge from
man in the county, being in the 95th year of his age, and was a much-respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Buck's County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADELPHIA, May 13, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to ebb, and prices were susrained with difficulty. Government securities were sold to a very limited extent. City sixes were weaker, and a decline was noted in Reading Railroad shares, and in Schuylkill Navigation preferred. Gatawissa pieferred sold at 8%. Elmira preferred sold up to 29. In pascenger railway shares a few sales were made. West Philadelphia at 54%; Spruce and Pine, 12%; Archstreet, 22%; Thi trenth and Fifteenth, 15%, and Green and Goates at 25%. We are requested by the Assistant Treasurer of the United States to remind holders of certificates of temporary loan, payable in coin, that, pursuant to the notice shready given, they should be presented for reindursed ment before the close of the present week. Mesars. Inday & Bichnell report that a counterfeit three-dollar-note on the Hartford Bank, Connectiont, is new being circulated in this city. On lower left two sailors standing by a shaft, two females sitting with spinning wheel, box, etc. On lower right, group of harvesters, with sheaves of grain, cattle, anchor, &c., well done The public should refuse all of this plate. The Milford (Del.) News says that, at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the "Farmers and Mechanics" Bank of Milford," held at their banking house, on Tuesday last, the fallowing officers ware allested to serve for the cossing year: Directors—Win F. W. Dorsey, Jas R. Lofland, Wm. Hill, C. S. Watson, John A. Hazzard, Wm. Tharp, Vm. A. Scribner. President—Wm. N. W. Dorsey. Cachier—John W. Adhine, in place of John A. Hazzard, Wen there is a contice the name of C. S. Watson, Esq., among the	business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genuine liquors, such as brandies, wines, &c., of undoubted in purity, has induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORIAH CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 123 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agent. Desirable lots, at low prices, and on liberal terms, are now in the market, some of them in sections just opened, having hitherto been held in reserve. Office hours from S.A. M. to 4 P. M., and, either before or after these hours, at the residence of the undersigned, No. 314 North Tenth street. FREDERICK A. VAN GLEVE, OR. S. M. LANDIS, Electro-Hygiene and Water-Cure Physician and Surgeon, treats all diseases, without medicines, at 218 North Ninth street. WINDOW SHADES, all styles, $1 to $5 each, with durable fixtures, 719 Chestant street, Philadelphia. W. H. Carryll & Bro. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $150 to $20 a piece, 719 Chestant street, Philadelphia. W. H. Carryll & Bro. ap12-7t MARRIAGE OF THE EMPEROR OF JAPAN.— The Emperor of Japan has taken a wife—the is fifteen years old.) The Empress is a daughter of the "Mikade," who is the real Emperor, but does not meddle with temporal affairs. The young monarch did not see his
man in the county, being in the 95th year of his age, and was a much-respected citizen. He was sin possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Buck's County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADELPHIA, May 13, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to ebb, and prices were sustained with difficulty. Government securities were sold to a very limited extent. City sixes were weaker, and a decline was noted in Bealing Bailroad shares, and in Schuylkill Navigation preferred. Gatawissa preferred sold at 83. Elmira preferred sold up to 29. In passenger railway shares a few sales were made. West Philadelphia at 54%; Spruce and Fine, 12%; Archstret, 22%; Thi tzenth and Fifteenth, 15%, and Green and Goates at 25%. We are requested by the Assistant Treasurer of the United States to remind holders of certificates of temporary loan, payable in coin, that, pursuant to the notice already given, they should be present week. Messrs. Imlay & Bicknell report that a counterfeit three-dollarynete on the Hartford Bank, Connecticut, is new being circulated in this city. On lower left two sailors standing by a shaft, two females sitting with spinning wheel, box, etc. On lower right, group of harvesters, with sheaves of grain, cattle, anchor, &c., well done The bubble should refuse all of this plate. The Milford (Del.) News says that, at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the "Farmers and Mechanics' Bank of Milford," held at their banking house, an Tuesday last, the following officers were aleated to serve for the consting joar: Directors—Win F. W. Dorsey, Jas R. Loffand, Wm. Hill, C. S. Watson, John A. Hazzard, Wm. Tharp, Wm. A. Scribner. President—Wm. N. W. Dorsey, Čachter—John W. Adding, in place of John A. Hazzard, Wen. The directors above mentioned as recently elected. This is a valuable acquisition to their already worthy board. Although the in-virution has been in operation a little over six months, it is doing an excellent business, and bids	business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genuine liquors, such as brandies, wines, &c., of undoubted in liquors, such as brandies, wines, &c., of undoubted purity, bus induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORIAH CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 123 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agent. Desirable lots, at low prices, and on liberal terms, are now in the market, soure of them in sections just opened, having hitherto been held in reserve. Office hours from S.A. M. to 4 P. M., and, either before or after these hours, at the residence of the undersigued, No. 314 North Tenth street. FREDERICK A. VAN OLEVE, General Agent. N. B.—Conveyance to and from the cemetery for such as desire to purchase, DR. S. M. LANDIS, Electro-Hygiene and Water-Cure Physician and Surgeon, treats all diseases, without medicines, at 218 North Ninth street. WINDOW SHADES, all styles, $1 to $5 each, with durable fixtures, 719 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. W. H. CARRIL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $150 to $20 a piece, 719 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. W. H. CARRIL & BRO. ap12-7t MAFRIAGE OF THE EMPEROR OF JAPAN.— The Emperor of Japan has taken a wife—the is fifteen years old.) The Emperor, but does not meddle with temporal affairs. The young monarch did not see his bride until she became his wife. The cortoge from Misco to Tedo was a truly magnificent affair. Each Demio, as she approached her domain, turned out a grand of honor, attired in uniform. T
man in the county, being in the 95th year of his age, and was a much-respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Buck's County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. PHLADSLPHIA, May 13, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to ebb, and prices were sustained with difficulty. Government securities were sold to a very limited extent. City sixes were weaker, and a decline was noted in Reading Railroad chares, and in Schuylkill Navigation preferred. Ostawissa preferred sold at 8%. Elmira preferred sold up to 29. In pascenger railway chares a few sales were made. West Philadelphia at 54%; Spruce and Pine, 12%; Archstreet, 22%; Thi tzenth and Fifteenth, 15%, and Green and Goates at 25%. We are requested by the Assistant Treasurer of the United States to remind holders of certificates of temporary loan, payable in coin, that, pursuant to the notice already given, they should be presented for reimbursed ment before the close of the present week. Mesars, Imlay & Bicknell report that a counterfeit three-dollar new on the Hartford Bank, Connecticut, is new being circulated in this city. On lower left two sailors standing by a shaft, two females sitting with spinning wheel, box, etc. On lower right, group of harvestiers, with sheaves of grain, cattle, anchor, &c., well done The public should refuse all of this plate. The Milford (Del.) News says that, at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the "Farmers and Mechanics' Bank of Milford," held at their banking house, an Traesday last, the following officers ward elected to serve for the enseing year: Directors—We F. W. Borsey, Jas B. Lofland, Wm. Hill, C. S. Watson, John A. Hazzard, Wm. Tharp, Wm. A. Scribner. President—Wm. M. W. Dorsey, Gachier—John W. Addine, in place of John A. Hazzard, a valuable acquisition to their already worthy board. Although the in-truston has been in operation a little over risk months, it is doing an excellent buliness, and bids fair to be a perman	business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genuine liquors, such as brandies, wines, &c., of undoubted purity, bus induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORIAH CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 123 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agent. Desirable lots, at low prices, and on liberal terms, are now in the market, some of them in sections just opened, having hitherto been held in reserve. Office hours from SA. M. to 4 P. M., and, either before or after these hours, at the residence of the undersigued, No. 314 North Tenth street. FREDERICK A. VAN CLEYE, General Agent. N. B.—Conveyance to and from the cemetery for such as desire to purchase, DR. S. M. LANDIS, Electro-Hyglene and Water-Cure Physician and Surgeon, treats all diseases, without medicines, at 218 North Ninth street. WINDOW SHADES, all styles, $1 to $5 each, with durable fixtures, 719 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. W. H. Carryl & Bro. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $4 50 to $20 a piece, 719 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. W. H. Carryl & Bro. BAPRIAGE OF THE EMPEROR OF JAPAN.—The Emperor of Japan has taken a wife—the is fifteen years old.) The Empress is a daughter of the "Mikachen, Philadelphia. W. H. Carryl & Bro. ap12-7t MARRIAGE OF THE EMPEROR OF JAPAN.—The Emperor was clothed in fine and costly roles, which are said to have borne a striking resemblance to the hazdeome and fashination of the prices are remarkably low.
man in the county, being in the 95th year of his age, and was a much-respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Buck's County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADSUPHIA, May 13, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to ebb, and prices were sustained with difficulty. Government securities were sold to a very limited extent. City sixes were weaker, and a decline was noted in Reading Railroad shares, and in Schuylkill Navigation preferred. Oatawissa preferred sold at 8%. Elmira preferred sold up to 29. In pascenger railway shares a few sales were made. West Philadelphia at 54%; Spruce and Fine, 12%; Archstreet, 22%; Thi tzenth and Fifteenth, 15%, and Green and Coates at 25%. We are requested by the Assistant Treasurer of the United States to remind holders of certificates of temporary loam, payable in coin, that, pursuant to the notice already given, they should be presented for reimbursed ment before the close of the present week. Messrs, Imilay & Bicknell report that a counterfeit three-dollar note on the Hartford Bank, Connecticut, is now being circulated in this city. On lower left two sailors standing by a shaft, two females sitting with spinning wheel, box, etc. On hower right, group of harvesters, with sheaves of grain, cattle, anchor, &c., well done The public should refuse all of this plate. The Milford (Del.) News says that, at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the "Farmers and Mechanics" Bank of Milford," held at their banking house, an Tuesday last, the following efficers were also ted to serve for the consting joar: Directors—Wen F. W. Dorsey, Jas R. Loffind, Wm. Hill, C. S. Watson, John A. Hazzard, Wm. Tharp, Wm. A. Scribner. President—Wm. M. W. Dorsey, Cachier—John W. Addine, in place of John A. Hazzard, esigned. We notice the name of C. S. Watson, Esq., among the directors above mentioned as recently elected. This is a valuable acquisition to their already worthy board. Although the in	business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genuine liquors, such as brandies, wines, &c., of undoubted purity, bus induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORIAH CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 123 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agent. Desirable lots, at low prices, and on liberal terms, are now in the market, some of them in sections just opened, having hitherto baen held in reserve. Office hours from S A. M. to 4 P. M., and, either before or after these hours, at the residence of the undersigued, No. 314 North Tenth street. FREDERICK A. VAN GLEVE, General Agent. N. B.—Conveyance to and from the cemetery for such as desire to purchase, DR. S. M. LANDIS, Electro-Hygiene and Water-Cure Physician and Surgeon, treats all diseases, without medicines, at 218 North Ninth street. WINDOW SHADES, all styles, $1 to $5 each, with durable fixtures, 719 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. W. H. Carril & Bro. LACE, Muslin, And JACQUARD Curtains, now in store, price $150 to $20 a piece, 719 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. W. H. Carril & Bro. ap12-7t MAERIAGE OF THE Emperor of JAPAN.— The Emperor of Japan has taken a wife—the is fifteen years old.) The Empress is a daughter of the "Mikade," who is the real Emperor, but does not meddle with temporal affairs. The young monarch did not see his bride until she became his wife. The cortoge from Misco to Yedo was a truly magnificent affair. Each Damio, as she approached her domain, turned out a gener of honor, attired in uniform. Th
man in the county, being in the 95th year of his age, and was a much-respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Buck's County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. Philadelphia, May 13, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to ebb, and prices were sustained with difficulty. Government securities were sold to a very limited extent. City sixes were weaker, and a decline was noted in Reading Railroad chares, and in Schuylkill Navigation preferred. Oatawissa preferred sold at 83. Elmira preferred sold up to 29. In pascenger railway shares a few sales were made. Weet Philadelphia at 543; Spruce and Fine, 12%; Archstreet, 22%; Thi. teenth and Fifteenth, 15%, and Green and Coates at 25%. We are requested by the Assistant Treasurer of the United States to remind helders of certificates of temporary loan, payable in coin, that, pursuant to the notice shready given, they should be presented for reimbursed ment before the close of the present week. Messrs. Imlay & Bicknell report that a counterfeit three-dollar net con the Hartford Bank, Connecticut, is new being circulated in this city. On lower left two sailors standing by a shaft, two females sitting with spinning wheel, box, etc. On lower right, group of harvest-sers, with sheaves of grain, cattle, anchor, &c., well done The public should sefuse all of this plate. The Milford (Del.) News says that, at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the "Farmers and Mechanics" Bank of Milford," held at their banking house, an Tuesday leaf, the following officers ware aleated to serve for the coasing lear: Directors—Win E. W. Dorsey, Jas B. Loffard, Wm. Hill, C. S. Watson, John A. Hazzard, Wo. Tharp, Wm. A Scribner. President—Wm. M. W. Dorsey, Cachier—John W. Addine, in place of John A. Hazzard, wen't the directors above mentioned as recently elected. This is a valuable acquisition to their already worthy board, although the in-trauton has been in operation altitle over gix month	business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genuine liquors, such as brandies, wines, &c., of undoubted purity, bus induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORIAH CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 123 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agent. Desirable lots, at low prices, and on liberal terms, are now in the market, sown of them in sections just opened, having hitherto been held in reserve. Office hours from S.A. M. to 4 P. M., and, either before or after these hours, at the residence of the undersigued, No. 314 North Tenth street. FREDERICK A. VAN CLEVE, General Agent. N. B.—Conveyance to and from the cemetery for such as desire to purchase, DR. S. M. LANDIS, Electro-Hygiene and Water-Cure Physician and Surgeon, treats all diseases, without medicines, at 218 North Ninth street. WINDOW SHADES, all styles, $1 to $5 each, with durable fixtures, 719 Chestaut street, Philadelphia. W. H. GARRIL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $150 to $20 a piece, 719 Chestaut street, Philadelphia. W. H. CARRYL & BRO. ap12-7t MARRIAGE OF THE ÉMPEROR OF JAPAN.—The Emperor of Japan has taken a wife—the is fifteen years old.) The Empress is a daughter of the "Mikade," who is the real Emperor, but does not meddle with temporal affairs. The young monarch did not see his bride until she became his wife. The cortogs from Misco to Tedo was a truly magnificent affair. Rach Damio, as she approached her domain, turned out a grard of honor, attired in uniform. The E
man in the county, being in the 95th year of his age, and was a much-respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Buck's County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. Philadelphia, May 13, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to ebb, and prices were sustained with difficulty. Government securities were sold to a very limited extent. City sixes were wasker, and a decline was noted in Reading Reliroad charce, and in Schuylkill Navigation preferred. Oatawissa preferred sold at 8½. Elmira preferred sold up to 29. In pascenger railway shares a few sales were made. Weet Philadelphia at 54½; Spruce and Fine, 12½; Archstreet, 22½; Thi. tzenth and Fifteenth, 15½, and Green and Coates at 25½. We are requested by the Assistant Treasurer of the United States to remind holders of certificates of temporary loan, payable in coin, that, pursuant to the notice already given, they should be presented for reinhursed ment before the close of the present week. Messes, Inday & Bicknell report that a counterfeit three-dollar net con the Hartford Bank, Connecticut, is new being circulated in this city. On lower left two sailors standing by a shaft, two females sitting with spinning wheel, box, etc. On lower right, group of harvesters, with sheaves of grain, cattle, anchor, &c., well done The public should be fine all of this plate. The Milford (Del.) News says that, at the annual meeting of the stackholders of the "Farmers and Mehanics' Bank of Milford," held at their banking house, an Truesday last, the following officers were abelied to serve for the ensaing) ear: Directors—Win F. W. Dorsey, Jas B. Lofland, Wm. Hill, C. S. Watson, John A. Hazzard, Wm. Tharp, Wm. A Scribner. President—Wm. N. W. Dorsey, Wm. A Scribner. President—Wm. N. W. Dorsey is months, it is doing an excellent business, and bid serve for the ensain of their already worthy board, Although tie in-truition has been in operation a little over six months, it is doing an exc	business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genuine liquors, such as brandies, wines, &c., of undoubted in purity, bus induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORIAH CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 123 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agent. Desirable lots, at low prices, and on liberal terms, are now in the market, some of them in sections just opened, having hitherto been held in reserve. Office hours from SA. M. to 4 P. M., and, either before or after these hours, at the residence of the undersigued, No. 314 North Tenth street. FREDERICK A. VAN CLEYE, General Agent. N. B.—Conveyance to and from the cemetery for such as desire to purchase, DR. S. M. LANDIS, Electro-Hyglene and Water-Cure Physician and Surgeon, treats all diseases, without medicines, at 218 North Ninth street. WINDOW SHADES, all styles, $1 to $5 each, with durable fixtures, 710 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. W. H. Carryl & Bro. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $150 to $20 a piece, 719 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. W. H. Carryl & Bro. Philadelphia. W. H. Carryl & Bro. ap12-7t MARRIAGE OF THE EMPEROR OF JAPAN.—The Emperor of Japan has taken a wife—(he is fifteen years old.) The Empress is a daughter of the "Mikachen" of the purchase of the content of the nore, attred in uniform. The Emperor was clothed in fine and costly roles, which are said to have borne a striking resemblance to the hazdsome and fashinus by soil of the same and costly roles, which are said to have bo
man in the county, being in the 95th year of his age, and was a much-respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Bucks County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. Philadelphia, May 13, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to ebb, and prices were sustained with difficulty. Government securities were sold to a very limited extent. City sixes were weaker, and a decline was noted in Beading Bailroad charce, and in Schuylkill Navigation preferred. Gatawissa preferred sold at 8%. Elimita preferred sold up to 29. In pascenger railway chares a few sales were made. West Philadelphia at 54%; Spruce and Pine, 12%; Archstreel, 22%; Thi trenth and Fifteenth, 15%, and Green and Coates at 25%. We are requested by the Assistant Treasurer of the United States to remind holders of certificates of temporary loan, payable in coin, that, pursuant to the notice already given, they should be presented for reinbursedment before the close of the present week. Messrs. Inday & Bicknell report that a counterfeit three-dollar net cose of the present week. Messrs. Inday & Bicknell report that a counterfeit three-dollar net cose of the present week. Messrs. Inday & Bicknell report that a counterfeit three-dollar net contained in this city. On lower left two sailors standing by a shaft, two females sitting with spinning wheel, box, etc. On lower right, group of harvesters, with sheaves of grain, cattle, anchor, &c., well done The public should refuse all of this plate. The Milford (Del.) News says that, at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the "Farmers and Mechanics' Bank of Mirord," held at their banking house, an Trueday last, the following officers were allowed to serve for the coseing year: Directors—Win F. W. Dorsey, Jas R. Lofland, Wm. Hill, C. S. Watson, John A. Hazzard, Wo. Tharp, Wm. A. Scribner. President—Wm. N. W. Dorsey, Gachier—John W. Addine, in place of John A. Hazzard, a valuable acquisition to their already worthy boar	business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genuine liquors, such as brandies, wines, &c., of undoubted purity, bus induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others. Mount Moriah Cemetert.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 123 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agent. Desirable lots, at low prices, and on liberal terms, are now in the market, some of them in sections just opened, having hitherto been held in reserve. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 4 P. M., and, either before or after these hours, at the residence of the undersigued, No.314 North Tenth street. FREDERICK A. VAN OLEVE, General Agent. N. B.—Conveyance to and from the cemetery for such as defire to purchase, Dr. S. M. LANDIS, Electro-Hygiene and Water-Cure Physician and Surgeon, treats all diseases, without medicines, at 218 North Ninth street. WINDOW SHADES, all styles, $1 to $5 each, with durable fixtures, 719 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. W. H. Carryl & Bro. LACE, Muslin, And Jacquard Curtains, now in store, price $150 to $20 a piece, 719 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. W. H. Carryl & Bro. apl2-7t Magniage of the Emperor, but does not meddle with temporal affairs. The young monarch did not see his bride until she became his wife. The cortege from Misco to Yedo was a truly magnificent affair. Each Damio, as she approached her domain, turned out a guard of honor, attired in uniform. The Emperor was clothed in fine and costly roles, which are said to have borne a strikting resemblance to the hazdsome and fashiounable styles of cl
man in the county, being in the 95th year of his age, and was a much-respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Bucks County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. Philadelphia, May 13, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to ebb, and pricts were sustained with difficulty. Government securities were sold to a very limited extent. City sixes were weaker, and a decline was noted in Beading Railroad shares, and in Schulykill Navigation preferred sold up to 29. In passenger railway shares a few sales were made. West Philadelphia at 54%; Spruce and Pine, 12%; Archstreet, 22%; Thi trenth and Fifteenth, 15%, and Green and Coates at 25%. We are requested by the Assistant Treasurer of the United States to remind bedders of certificates of temporary loan, payable in roin, that, pursuant to the notice already given, they should be presented for reindursed ment before the close of the present week. Mesers. Inday & Bicknell report that a counterfeit three-dollar net on the Hartford Bank, Connecticut, is now being circulated in this city. On lower left two sailors standing by a shaft, two females sitting with spinning wheel, box, etc. On lower right, group of harvesters, with sheaves of grain, cattle, anchor, &c., well done The bubble should refuse all of this plate. The Milford Obel.] News says that, at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the "Farmers and Mechanics' Bank of Milford," held at their banking house, an Trueday last, the following officers ware alekted to serve for the cossing year: Directors—Whi F. W. Dorsey, Jas R. Lofland, Wm. Hill, C. S. Watson, John A. Hazzard, Wm. Tharp, Wm. A Scribner. President—Wm. N. W. Dorsey, Wm. A Scribner. President—Wm. N. W. Dorsey was notice the name of C. S. Watson, Esq., among the directors above mentioned as recently elected. This is a valuable acquisition to their already worthy board, Although the in-trutton has been in operation aliatio over six months, it is doing an exce	business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genuine liquors, such as brandies, wines, &c., of undubted inputivy, has induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORIAH CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 123 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agent. Desirable lots, at low prices, and on liberal terms, are now in the market, some of them in sections just opened, having hitherto been held in reserva. Office hours from S A. M. to 4 P. M., and, eitker before or after these houre, at the residence of the undersigued, No. 314 North Tenth street. FREDERICK A. VAN OLEVE, General Agent. N. B.—Conveyance to and from the cemetery for such as desire to purchase, DR. S. M. LANDIS, Electro-Hygiene and Water-Cure Physician and Surgeon, treats all diseases, without medicines, at 218 North Ninth street. WINDOW SHADES, all styles, $1 to $5 each, with durable fixtures, 719 Chestant street, Philadelphia. W. H. CARRYL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $4 50 to $20 a piece, 719 Chestant street, Philadelphia. W. H. CARRYL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $4 50 to $20 a piece, 719 Chestant street, Philadelphia. W. H. CARRYL & BRO. APPRICACE OF THE EMPEROR OF JAPAN.—The Emperor of Japan has taken a wife—the is fifteen years old.) The Empress is a daughter of the "Mikade," who is the real Emperor, but does not meddle with temporal affairs. The young monarch did not see his bride until she became his wife. The cortege from Misco to Ted
man in the county, being in the 93th year of his age, and was a much-respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Bucks County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADELPHIA, May 13, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to ebb, and prices were susrained with difficulty. Government securities were sold to a very limited extent. City sixes were weaker, and a decilice was noted in Reading Railroad shares, and in Schuylkill Navigation preferred. Gatawissa preferred sold at 8%. Elmira preferred sold up to 20. In pascenger railway shares a few sales were made. West Philadelphis at 54%; Spruce and Pine, 12%; Archstreet, 22%; Thi. trenth and Fifteenth, 15%, and Green and Coates at 25%. We are requested by the Assistant Treasurer of the United States to remind holders of certificates of temporary loan, payable in coin, that, pursuant to the notice already given, they should be presented for reimbursed ment before the close of the present week. Messrs. Inday & Bickmell report that a counterfeit three-dollarinete on the Hartford Bank, Connecticut, is now being circulated in this city. On lower left two yailors standing by a shaft, two females sitting with spinning wheel, box, etc. On lower right, group of harvesters, with sheaves of grain, cattle, anchor, &c., well done The public should refine all of this plate. The Milford (Del.) News says that, at the annual meeting of the stackholders of the "Farmers and Mehanics Bank of Mirford," Held at their banking house, and Tuesday last, the following officers were alacted to serve for the cosaing year: Directors—Win E. W. Dorsey, Jas E. Lofland, Win. Hill, C. S. Watson, John A. Hazzard, Win. Tharo, Win. A. Scribner. President—Win. M. W. Dorsey, Cashier—John W. Addine, in place of John A. Hazzard, although the in-tirution has been in operation a little over six months, it is doing an excellent burines, and bials fair to be a permanently established good in the community. The Gir	Interinces to keep constantly on hand a supply of genuine liquors, such as brandies, wines, &c., of undubted inputiv, has induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORIAH CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 123 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agent. Desirable lotts, at low prices, and on liberal terms, are now in the market, some of them in sections just opened, having hitherto been held in reserve. Office hours from S. M. to 4 P. M., and, either before or after these hours, at the residence of the undersigued, No. 314 North Tenth street. FREDERICK A. VAN CLEVE, General Agent. N. B.—Conveyance to and from the cemetery for such as desire to purchase, DR. S. M. LANDIS, Electro-Hygiene and Water-Cure Physician and Surgeon, treats all diseases, without medicines, at 218 North Ninth street. WINDOW SHADES, all styles, $1 to $5 each, with durable fixtures, 719 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. W. H. CARRIL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $150 to $20 a piece, 719 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. W. H. CARRIL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, and JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $150 to $20 a piece, 719 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. W. H. CARRIL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, SHORENS.—Cortain parties are them years old.) The Empress is a daughter of the 4 Mikado," who is the real Emperor, but does not meddle with temporal affair. Bach became his wife. The cortage from Miaco to 1260 was a truly magnificent affair. Bach Danio, as the approached her domain, turned out
man in the county, being in the 93th year of his age, and was a much-respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Buck's County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADELPHIA, May 13, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to ebb, and prices were sustained with difficulty. Government securities were sold to a very limited extent. City sixes were weaker, and a decline was noted in Reading Railroad shares, and in Schuylkill Navigation preferred. Oatawisaa preferred sold at 8%. Elmitra preferred sold up to 20. In passenger railway shares a few sales were made. West Philadelphia at 54k; Spruce and Fine, 12k; Archstreet, 22k; Thit. teath and Fifteenth, 15k, and Green and Coates at 25k. We are requested by the Assistant Treasurer of the United States to remind holders of certificates of temporary loan, nayable in coin, that, pursuant to the notice already given, they should be presented for reinbursed ment before the close of the present week. Messas, Inday & Bicknell report that a counterfeit three-dollar met en the Hartford Bank, Connecticut, is now being circulated in this city. On lower left two sallors standing by a shaft, two females sitting with spinning wheel, box, etc. On lower right, group of harvesters, with sheaves of grain, cuttle, anchor, &c., well done The public should refuse all of this plate. The Milford (Del.) News says that, at the annual meeting of the stackholders of the "Farmers and Meshanics Bank of Mirford," held at their banking house, an Tusaday last, the following officers ware slatted to be ever for the cossing year: Directors—Win F. W. Dorsey, Jas R. Loff and, Wm. Hill, C. S. Watson, John A. Hazzard, Wm. Thare, Wm. A. Scribner. President—Wm. N. W. Dorsey, Wankers alabeted to vertice a valuable acquisition to their already worth board. Although the in-trution has been in operation a little over gize months, it is doing an excelent business, and bid say valuable acquisition to their already w	business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genuine liquors, such as brandies, wines, &c., of undoubted inputiv, has induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORIAH CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 123 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agent. Desirable lots, at low prices, and on liberal terms, are now in the market, some of them in sections just opened, having hitherto bean held in reserva. Office hours from SA. M. to 4 P. M., and, eitker before or after these hours, at the residence of the undersigned, No. 314 North Tenth street. FREDERICKA. VAN OLEYE, General Agent. N. B.—Conveyance to and from the cemetery for such as desire to purchase, DR. S. M. LANDIS, Electro-Hyglene and Water-Cure Physician and Surgeon, treats all diseases, without medicines, at 218 North Ninth street. WINDOW SHADES, all styles, $1 to $5 each, with durable fixtures, 719 Chestnut street, Philadeiphia. W. H. Carrit, & Bro. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $150 to $20 a piece, 719 Chestnut street, Philadeiphia, W. H. Carrit, & Bro. apl2-7t MARRIAGE OF THE EMPEROR OF JAPAN.—The Emperor of Japan has taken a wifer—the is fifteen years old.) The Emperors, but does not meddle with temporal affairs. The young monarch did not see his bride until she became his wife. The cortege from Misco to 1edo was a truly magnificent affair. Each Damio, as the approached her domain, turned out a gward of honor, attired in uniform. The Emperor was clothed in fine and costly robes, which a
man in the county, being in the 93th year of his age, and was a much-respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Buck's County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADSLPHIA, May 13, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to cbb, and prices were sustained with difficulty. Government securities were sold to a very limited extent. City sixes were weaker, and a decline was noted in Reading Railroad shares, and in Schuylkill Navigation preferred sold up to 20. In pascenger railway shares a few sales were made. West Philadelphia at 54½; Spruce and Pine, 12½; Archistred, 22½; Thi trenth and Fifteenth, 15½, and Green and Coates at 25½. We are requested by the Assistant Treasurer of the United States to remind helders of certificates of temporary loan, payable in coin, that, pursuant to the notice shready given, they should be presented for reinhursed met before the close of the present week. Messrs. Imlay & Bickmell report that a counterfeit three-dollarimete on the Hartford Bank, Connectient, is now being circulated in this city. On lower left two sailors standing by a shaft, two females sitting with spinning wheel, box, etc. On lower right, group of harvest-sers, with sheaves of grain, cattle, anchor, &c., well done The public should before all of this plate. The Milford (Del.) News says that, at the annual meeting of the stackholders of the "Farmers and Mechanics Bank of Mirford," held at their banking house, and Tuesday last, the following offices were alacted to serve for the coscing joar: Directors—Win Y. W. Dorsey, Jas R. Loffand, Wm. Hill, C. S. Watson, John A. Hazzard, Wm. Tharp, Wm. A. Scribner. President—Wm. A. W. Dorsey, Cachier—John W. Addhie, in place of John A. Hazzard, who. Tharp, Wm. A. Scribner. President—Wm. A. W. Dorsey, Cachier—John W. Addhie, in place of John A. Hazzard, who. Tharp, The Girard Fire and Marine Insurance Company. The amount of soal transported over the Delaware Packawana, and Wester	Intitioes: to keep constantly on hand a supply of genuine liquors, such as brandies, wines, &c., of undoubted purity, has induced many of our first physicians to reconnected, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORIAH CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 123 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agent. Desirable lots, at low prices, and on liberal terms, are now in the market, some of them in sections just opened, having hitherto been held in reserve. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 4 P. M., and, either before or after these hours, at the residence of the undersigued, No. 314 North Tenth street. FREDERICK A. VAN GLEVE, M. B.—Conveyance to and from the cemetery for such as desire to purchase, DR. S. M. LANDIS, Electro-Hygiene and Water-Cure Physician and Surgeon, treats all diseases, without medicines, at 218 North Ninth street. WINDOW SHADES, all styles, $1 to $5 each, with durable fixtures, 719 Chestmut street, Philadelphia. W. H. CARRYL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $150 to $200 a piece, 719 Cinestnut street, Philadelphia. W. H. CARRYL & BRO. ARRIAGE OF THE EMPEROR OF JAPAN.— The Emperor of Japan has taken a wife—(ha is fifteen years old.) The Empress is a daughter of the "Mikado," who is the real Emperor, but does not meddle with temporal affairs. The young monarch did not see his bride until she became his wife. The cortege from Misco to Tedo was a truly magnificent affair. Rach Damio, as she approached her domain, turned out a great of honor, attired in uniform. The Emperor was clothe
man in the county, being in the 95th year of his age, and was a much-respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Bucks County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. Philadelphia, May 13, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to ebb, and prices were sussained with difficulty. Government securities were sold to a very limited extent. City sixes were weaker, and a decline was noted in Beading Ballroad shares, and in Schuylkill Navigation preferred sold up to 20. In pascenger railway shares a few sales were made. West Philadelphia at 54½; Spruce and Pine, 12½; and Green and Coates at 25½. We are requested by the Assistant Treasurer of the United States to remind hedders of certificates of temporary loan, payable in coin, that, nursuant to the notice shready given, they should be presented for reimbursed ment before the close of the present week. Messrs. Inday & Bicknell report that a counterfeit three-dollat facts on the Hartford Bank, Connecticut, is new being circulated in this city. On lower left two salors standing by a shaft, two females sitting with spinning wheel, box, etc. On lower right, group of harvesters, with sheaves of grain, cattle, anchor, &c., well done The public should refuse all of this place. The Milford (Del.) News ways that, at the annual meeting of the stackholders of the "Farmers and Meshanics' Bank et milrord," held at their banking house, an Tussday last, the following officers ware alabed to serve for the cosating year: Directors—Win N. W. Dorsey, Jas R. Loft and, Wm. Hill, C. S. Watson, John A. Hazzard, Wm. Tharo, Wm. A Scribner. President—Wm. N. W. Dorsey, Cacher—John W. Adding, in place of John A. Hazzard, was valuable acquisition to their already worthy board. Although the instruction has been in operation altitle over six nooths, it is doing an excellent but-ness, and bid fair to be a permanently established good in the community. The Girard Fire and Marine Insurance Company live evidenc	Intitioes: to keep constantly on hand a supply of genuine liquors, such as brandies, wines, &c., of undoubted purity, has induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORIAH CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 128 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agent. Desirable lots, at low prices, and on liberal terms, aro now in the market, some of them in sections just opened, having hitherto been held in reserve. Office hours from S.A. M. to 4 P. M., and, either before or after these hours, at the residence of the undersigued, No. 314 North Tenth street. FEEDERICK A. YAN CLEYE, Seneral Agent. N. B.—Conveyance to and from the cemetery for such as desire to purchase, DR. S. M. LANDIS, Electro-Hygiene and Water-Cure Physician and Surgeon, treats all diseases, without medicines, at 218 North Ninth street. WINDOW SHADES, all styles, $1 to $50 each, with durable fixtures, 719 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, w. H. Carryl & Bro. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $4 50 to $20 a picce, 719 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. W. H. Carryl & Bro. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $4 50 to $20 a picce, 719 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, which the portal affairs. The young monarch did not see his bride until she became his wife. The cortege from Miaco to Tedo was a truly magnificent affair. Rach Demio, as she approached her domain, turned out a guard of honor, attired in uniform. The Emperor was clothed in the and coxily robes, which are said to have borne a
man in the county, being in the 98th year of his age, and was a much-respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Bucks County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADELPHIA, May 13, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to ebb, and prices were sustained with difficulty. Government securities were sold to a very limited extent. City sixes were weaker, and a decline was noted in Reading Railroad charge, and in Schuylkill Navigation preferred sold up to 20. In paacenger railway shares a few sales were made. West Philadelphis at 54½; Spruce and Fine, 12½; Archistred, 22½; Thit teach and Fitteenth, 15½, and Green and Coates at 25½. We are requested by the Assistant Treasurer of the United States to remind holders of certificates of temporary loan, payable in roin, that, pursuant to the notice already given, they should be presented for reinituased ment before the close of the present week. Mesars, Inday & Bichnell report that a counterfeit three-dollar-finete and the Hartford Bank, Comnecticut, is now being circulated in this city. On lower left two sailors standing by a shaft, two females sitting with spinning wheel, box, etc. On lower right, group of harvesters, with sheaves of grain, cuttle, anchor, &c., well done The public should refuse all of the place. The Milford (Del.) News ways that, at the annual meeting of the stackholders of the "Farmers and Mechanics" Bank of Miloral," held at their banking house, an Tuazday last, tha fallawing officers were absted to serve for the costing year: Directors—Wu N. W. Dorger, Jas R. Loff and, Wm. Hall, C. S. Watson, John A. Hazzard, Wm. Taron, Wm. A. Scribner. President—Wm. N. W. Dorsey, Cacher—with W. Adkine, in place of John A. Hazzard, wo. Tharo, Wm. A. Scribner. President—Wm. N. W. Dorsey, Cacher—with W. Adkine, in place of John A. Hazzard, wo. Tharo, Wm. A. Scribner. President—Wm. N. W. Dorsey. Cacher—with W. Adkine, in place of John A. Hazzard, Wm. Taron, Company, we	Intitioes: to keep constantly on hand a supply of genuine liquors, such as brandies, wines, &c., of undoubted purity, has induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORIAH CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 123 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agont. Desirable lots, at low prices, and on liberal terms, are now in the market, some of them in sections, just opened, having hitherto base held in reserve. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 4 P. M., and, either before or after these hours, at the residence of the undersigued, No. 314 North Tenth street. FREDERICK A. VAN CLEVE, General Agent. N. B.—Conveyance to and from the cemetery for such as desire to purchase, DR. S. M. LANDIS, Electro-Hygiene and Water-Cure Physician and Surgeon, treats all diseases, without medicines, at 218 North Ninth street. WINDOW SHADES, all styles, $1 to $5 cuch, with durable fixtures, 719 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. W. H Garryl & Bro. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ or $\frac{1}{2}$ Cuch, with durable fixtures, 7the period of the "Mikado," who is the real Emperor, but does not meddle with temporal affairs. The young monarch did not see his bride until she became his wife. The cortoge from Miaco to Yedo was a truly magnificent affair. Each Damio, as she approached her domain, turned out a gward of honor, attriced in uniform. The Emperor was clothed in fine and costly rokes, which are said to have borne a striking resemblance to the basdoome and
man in the county, being in the 95th year of his age, and was a much-respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Buck's County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. Philadelphia, May 13, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to ebb, and prices were sustained with difficulty. Government securities were sold to a very limited extent. City sixes were weaker, and a decline was noted in Reading Raifroad chares, and in Schuylkill Navigation preferred sold up to 20. In paaceager railway shares a few sales were made. West Philadelphia at 54½; Spruce and Pine, 12½; Archistred, 22½; Thit.teenth and Fitteenth, 15½, and Green and Coates at 25½. We are requested by the Assistant Treasurer of the United States to romind holders of certificates of temporary loan, payable in coin, that, pursuant to the notice already given, they should be presented for reindursed met before the close of the present week. Messes, Inday & Bicknell report that a counterfeit three-dollat-parte on the Hartford Bank, Connecticut, is now befus circulated in this city. On lower left two gallors standing by a shaft, two females sitting with spin-ping wheel, box, etc. On lower right, group of harvesters, with sheaves of grain, cattle, anchor, &c., well done The public should refine all of this plate. The Milford (Del.) News ways that, at the annual meeting of the stackholders of the "Farmers and Mechanics" Bank of milding officers was aleated to serve for the cosating year: Directors—Win F. W. Dorgey, Jas R. Loft and, Wm. Hill, C. S. Watson, John A. Hazzard, Wm. Tharo, Wm. A Scribner. President—Wm. S. W. Dorsey, Cachier—Volum V. Adding in place of John A. Hazzard, who Thare with a valuable acquisition to their already worthy board. Although the instruction has been in operation a little over six wonths, it is doing an excellent business, and bid fair to be a permanently established good in the community. The amount of soal transported over the Delaware Lach	business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genutic liquors, such as brandies, wines, &c., of undoubted purity, has induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORIAH CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few role off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 128 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agent. Desirable lots, at low prices, and on liberal terms, are now in the market, some of them in sections just opened, having hitherto base held in reserve. Office hours from S.A. M. to 4 P. M., and, eitker before or after these hours, at the residence of the undersigued, No. 314 North Tenth street. FREDERICK A. VAN OLEVE, General Agent. N. B.—Conveyance to and from the cemetory for such as desire to purchase, DR. S. M. LANDIS, Electro-Hygiene and Water-Curr Physician and Surgeon, treats all diseases, without medicines, at 218 North Ninth street. W. H. CARRIL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $4.50 to $20 a picce, 710 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. W. H. CARRIL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $4.50 to $20 a picce, 710 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. W. H. CARRIL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $4.50 to $20 a picce, 710 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. W. H. CARRIL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $4.50 to $20 a picce, 710 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. When the price of Granville Stokes, No. 609 Chestnut street where price is the same time funny and notarious at the expense of the organization of our citizens
man in the county, being in the 98th year of his age, and was a much-respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Bucks County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADELPHIA, May 13, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to ebb, and prices were sustained with difficulty. Government securities were sold to a very limited extent. City sixes were weaker, and a decline was noted in Reading Railroad shares, and in Schuylkill Navigation perforred. Gatawissa preferred sold at 8%. Elmira preferred sold up to 20. In pascenger railway shares a few sales were made. West Philadelphis at 54%; Spruce and Fine, 12%; Archstredt, 22%; Thit trenth and Fifteenth, 15%, and Green and Goates at 25%. We are requested by the Assistant Treasurer of the United States to remind hedders of certificates of temporary loan, payable in coin, that, pursuant to the notice shready given, they should be presented for reinbursed met before the close of the present week. Messrs. Inday & Bickmell report that a counterfoit three-dollar-finete on the Hartford Bank, Connecticut, is new being circutated in this city. On lower left two being circutated in this city. On lower left two bailors standing by a shaft, two females sitting with spinning wheel, box, etc. On lower right, group of harvest-sers, with sheaves of grain, cattle, anchor, &c., well done The public should refuse all of this plate. The Milford (Del.) News says that, at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the "Farmers and Mechanics' Bank et Birlord," held at their banking house, and Tuesday last, the following affaces wars absided its serve for the coacing year: The Milford Del. News says that, at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the "Farmers and Mechanics' Bank et Birlord," held at their banking house, and Tuesday last, the following heart of the stockholders of the "Farmers and Mechanics' Bank et Birlord New Says that, at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the "Farmers	business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genutic liquors, such as brandies, wines, &c., of undusted purity, has induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORIAH CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few role off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 128 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agent. Destrable lots, at low prices, and on liberal terms, are now in the market, some of them in sections just opened, having hitherto baen held in resserve. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 4 P. M., and, either before or after these hours, at the residence of the undersigued, No. 314 North Tenth street. FREDERICK A. VAN OLEVE, General Agent. N. B.—Conveyance to and from the cemetery for such as desire to purchase, Dr. S. M. LANDIS, Electro-Hygiene and Water-Cur Physician and Surgeon, treats all diseases, without medicines, at 218 North Ninth street. WINDOW SHADES, all styles, $1 to $5 each, with durable faxtures, 190 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. W. H CARRIL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $450 to $20 a picce, 710 Chestnut street, priladelphia, W. H. CARRIL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $450 to $20 a picce, 710 Chestnut street, priladelphia, W. H. CARRIL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $450 to $20 a picce, 710 Chestnut street, prinadelphia, W. H. CARRIL & BRO. ARRIAGE OF THE EMPEROR OF JAPAN.—The Emperor of Japan has taken a wifer-the is fifteen poers of the program and an advanced to the process of the organization of our citizens into
man in the county, being in the 93th year of his age, and was a much respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Bucks County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. Philadelphia 17, 13, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to ebb, and price were sustained with difficulty. Government securities were sold to a very limited extent. City sixes were weaker, and a decline was noted in Beading Railroad shares, and in Schuylkill Navigation preferred sold up to 20. In passenger railway shares a few sales were made. West Philadelphia at 54½; Spruce and Pine, 12½; Archistrest, 22½; Thi trenth and Fifteenth, 15½, and Green and Goates at 2½. We are requested by the Assistant Treasurer of the United States to remind bedors of certificates of temporary loan, payable in coin, that, pursuant to the notice already given, they should be presented for reinhaused ment before the close of the present week. Messrs. Imbay & Bicknell report that a counterfeit three-dollarinete on the Hartford Bank, Connecticut, is new being circultated in tilus city. On lower light group of harvesters, with sheaves of grain, cuttle, anchor, &c., well done The public should refuse all of this plate. The Miford (Del.) News ways that, at the anunal meeting of the stockholders of the "Farmers and Mechanics" Bank of Miford, held at their banking house, an Tuandra late, the fallowing officers were sleeted to serve for the consoling year: The Birklord (Del.) News ways that, at the anunal meeting of the stockholders of the "Farmers and Mechanics" Bank of Miford, held at their banking house, an Tuandra late, the fallowing officers were sleeted to serve for the consoling year: The Birklord beautiful and the serve of the places were sleeted to serve for the consoling year: The Miford (Del.) The stockholders of the "Farmers and Mechanics" Bank of Miford, held the place of the serve of the present way and the serve of the present ways and the fair to be a permanently	business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genutic liquors, such as brandies, wines, &c., of undoubted purity, has induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORIAH CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few role off the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 128 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agent. Desirable lots, at low prices, and on liberal terms, are now in the market, some of them in sections just opened, having hitherto base held in reserve. Office hours from S.A. M. to 4 P. M., and, eitker before or after these hours, at the residence of the undersigued, No. 314 North Tenth street. FREDERICK A. VAN OLEVE, General Agent. N. B.—Conveyance to and from the cemetory for such as desire to purchase, DR. S. M. LANDIS, Electro-Hygiene and Water-Curr Physician and Surgeon, treats all diseases, without medicines, at 218 North Ninth street. WINDOW SHADES, all styles, $1 to $5 onch, with durable fixtures, 719 Chestmut street, Philadelphia. W. H. CARRIL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $4 to to $20 a picco; 110 Chestmut street, Philadelphia. W. H. CARRIL & BRO. HACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $4 to to $20 a picco; 110 Chestmut street, Philadelphia. W. H. CARRIL & BRO. The Emperor of Japan has taken a wifer-che is fifteen years old.) The Empress is a daughter of the "Mikade," who is the real Emperor, but does not meddle with temporal affairs. The young monarch did not see his price and the suppose of Granville Stokes, No. 609 Chestmut street, which per support of Granville S
man in the county, being in the 93th year of his age, and was a much respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Buck's County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. Philadelphia, 13, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to ebb, and prices were avasined with difficulty. Government securities were sold to a very limited extent. City sixes were waker, and a decline was noted in Beading Railroad charce, and in Schuylkill Navigation preferred. Gatawissa preferred sold at 8%. Elmira preferred sold up to 20. In pascencer railway charces a few sales were made. West Philadelphia at 54½; Spruce and Fine, 12½; Archistreet, 22½; Thi trenth and Fifteenth, 15½, and Green and Goates at 25½. We are requested by the Assistant Treasurer of the United States to remind badors of certificates of temporary loan, payable in roin, that, pursuant to the notice already given, they should be presented for reinhursed ment before the close of the present week. Mesers, Imlay & Bickmell report that a counterfeit three-dollarinete on the Hartford Bank, Connecticut, is new being circultured in titus city. On lower left two sallors standing by a shaft, two females sitting with spining wheel, box, etc. on lower right, group of harvesters, with sheaves of grain, cuttle, anchor, &c., well done file plants. The Milford (Del.) News ways that, at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the "Farmers and Mechanics" Bank of Milford, Pheli at their banking house, an Tranzday last, the fallawing officess were ableted to serve for the consisting ear: Directors—Win S. W. Dorsey, Jas R. Lofland, Wm. Bill, C. S. Watson, John A. Hazzard, Wo. Thare, Wm. A. Scribner. President—Wm. N. W. Dorsey, Cachier—Volu W. Ashine, in place of John A. Hazzard, Volume, The continued as recently elected. This is a valuable acquisition to their already worthy board. Although the in-trutton has been in operation a little over the munity. The Girard Fire and Marine Insurance Compan	business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genuine liquors, such as braudies, where, &c., of undusted purity, has induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORIAH CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 128 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agent. Desirable lots, at low prices, and on liberal terms, are now in the market, soure of them in sections just opened, having hitherto baen held in reserve. Office hours, at the residence of the undersigued, No. 314 North Tenth street. FREDERICK A. VAN CLEYS, General Agent. N. B.—Conveyance to and from the cemetery for such as disire to purchase, DR. S. M. LANDIS, Electro-Hygiene and Water-Cure Physician and Surgeon, treats all diseases, without medicines, at 218 North Ninth street. WINDOW SHADES, all styles, $1 to $5 each, with durable faxtures, 719 Cheshuat street, Philadelphia. W. H. CARRIL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $4150 to $20 a picce, 719 Chestuat street, Philadelphia. W. H. CARRIL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $4150 to $20 a picce, 719 Chestuat street, philadelphia, W. H. CARRIL & BRO. ARRIAGE OF THE EMPEROR OF JAPAN.—The Emperor of Japan has taken a wife—the is fifteen pyears old.) The Empress is a daughter of the "Mikado," who is the real Emperor, but does not meddle with temporal affairs. The young monarch did not see his bride until she became his wife. The cortego from Miago to 1200 was a truly magnificent affair. Each Damio, as she approached be f
man in the county, being in the 93th year of his age, and was a much respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Buck's County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADELPHIA, May 13, 1852. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to obb, and prices were susrained with difficulty. Government securities were sold to a very limited extention, the control of the control	butsiness to keep constantly on hand a sinply of genuine liquors, such as braudies, where, &c., of undented purity, has induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORIAH CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 128 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agent. Desirable lots, at low prices, and on liberal terms, are now in the market, some of them in sections just opened, having hitherto hean held in reserve. Office houre from S. A. M. to 1 P. M., and, either before or after these hours, at the residence of the undersigned, No. 314 North Tenth street. FREDERICK A. VAN CLEYE, General Agent. N. B.—Conveyance to and from the cemetery for such as drier to purchase, DR. S. M. LANNIS, Electro-Hygiene and Water-Cure Physician and Surgeon, treats all diseases, without medicines, at 218 North Ninth street. WINDOW SHADES, all styles, $1 to $5 cach, with durable faxtures, 710 Chestanut street, Philadelphia. W. H. Carkett & Bio. Alace, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $4 80 to $20 a piece, 719 Chestanut street, Philadelphia. W. H. Carkett & Bio. Aprile Emperor of Japan has taken a wife—the is fifteen years old.) The Empress is a daughter of the "Mikaded," who is the real Emperor, but does not meddle with temporal affair. The young monarch did not see his bride until she became his wife. The cortege from places of the organization of our citizens into the Home Guards. For his depth and worker brites are they are subjected of childing manufactured at the renowand temple of Gran
man in the county, being in the 93th year of his age, and was a much respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Buck's County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADRIPHIA, May 13, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to ebb, and prices were sustained with difficulty. Government securities were subt to a very limited extent. City sizes were weaker, and a decline was noted in Beading Bailroad shares, and in Schuylkili Navigation preferred sold up to 29. In passeonger railway shares a few sales were made. West Philadelphia at 54½; Spruce and Fine, 12½; Architects, 2½; Thi tenth and Fifteenth, 15½, and Green and Goates at 25½. We are requested by the Assistant Treasurer of the United States to remind holders of certificates of temporary loan, payable in roin, that, pursuant to the notice already given, they should be presented for reindures, ment before the close of the present week. Mesas, Imbay & Bickmell report that a counterfeit three-dollar flute on the Hartford Bank, Connectient, is now being circulated in this city. On lower left two sallors standing by a shaft, two females sitting with spinning wheel, box, etc. On lower right, group of harvestary, with sheaves of grain, cuttle, anchor, &c., well done The public should refuse all of this plate. The Milford (Del.) News says that, at the annual meeting of the stackholders of the "Farmers and Mechanics" Bank of 50 illord, Winderland of the stackholders of the "Farmers and Mechanics Bank of 50 illord," Held at their banking house, an Transday last, the following officees were sleeked to serve for the caseing loan: The Girard Fire and Marine Insurance Company West a valuable acquisition to their already worthy board. Although the in-rivution has been in operation a little over the maturities which were read a half per cut. This company, we understand, has for some years confined its business to fire insurance. The Girard Fire and Marine Insurance Company 2000	pursiners to keep constantly on hand a supply of genutical liquors, such as brandles, whice, &c., of undusted purity, has induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalds, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MONNT MORLAR CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 123 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agont. Desirable lots, at low prices, and on liberal terms, are now in the market, some of them in sections just opened, having hitherto bean held in reserve. Office hours from SA. M. to 4 P. M., and, either before or after these hours, at the residence of the undersigned, No. 314 North Tenth street. FREDERICK A. VAN CLEVE, General Agent. N. B.—Conveyance to and from the cemetral from the addition, and the street. FREDERICK A. VAN CLEVE, WINDOW SIADES, all Styles, S1 to S5 ench, with durable fixtures, 710 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. W. H. GARRIL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $450 to $200 a piece, 710 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. W. H. GARRIL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $450 to $200 a piece, 710 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, we have a similar to be became his wife. The cortego from Misco to 1edo was a truly magnificent affair. Each Damio, as the expense of the organization of our citizens into the Home Guards. This body has always shown, bride until she became his wife. The cortego from Singo to 1edo was a truly magnificent affair. Each Damio, as she approached her domain, turned out a guest of honor, attired in uniform. The Emperor was clothed in the and cos
man in the county, being in the 98th year of his age, and was a much respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death—Buck's County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADSLIPHA, May 13, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to ebb, and prices were sursined with difficulty. Covernment securities were sold to a very limited extent. City sixes were weaker, and a decline was noted in Beading Railroad chares, and in Schujkill Navigation preforred. Ostawisas pieferred sold at 8½. Elmira preforred sold up to 20. In passenger railway chares a few sales were made. Weet Philadelphia at 54½; Spruce and Pine, 12½; Archartered, 22½; Thi tenth and Fifteenth, 15½, and Green and Goates at 25½. We are requested by the Assistant Treasurer of the United States to remind belders of certificates of temporary loan, payable in coin, that, pursuant to the notice. Shready given, they should be presented for reimbursed ment before the close of the present week. Messes, Inlay & Biddnell report that a counterfeit three-dollaripate on the Hartford Bank, Connection, is new being circulated in tills: city. On lower left two sailors standing by a shaft, two females sitting with spining wheel, box, etc. On lower right, group of harvesters, with sheaves of grain, cattle, anchor, &c., well done The pilliford Col.) News says that, at the annual meeting of the stackholders of the "Farmers and Mechanics" Bank of Mitrod." held at their banking house, an Tuesday last, the following officers were adebted be serve for the cessing past: Directors—Win K. W. Dorsey, Jas R. Loft and, Wm. Bill, C. S. Watson, Jan A. Hazzard, Wm. Thare, Wm. A. Serthner. President—Wm. N. W. Dorsey. Cacher—Voin W. Addins, in place of John A. Hazzard. The difference of the harme of C. S. Watson, Esq., among the classification to their already worthy board. Although the instruction as recently elected. This is a valuable scquistion to their already worthy board. Although the instructi	business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genetic liquors, such as brandles, whee, &e., of undusted purity, has induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalds, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORIARI CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the lighest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 123 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agont. Desirable lots, at low prices, and on liberal terms, are now in the market, some of them in sections just opened, having hitherto bean held in reserve. Office hours from S. M. M. of P. M., and, either before or after these hours, at the residence of the undersigued, No. 314 North Tenth street. FREDERICK A. VAN CLEYE. General Agent. N. B.—Conveyance to and from the cemetery for such as desire to purchase, Dr. S. M. LANDIS, Electro-Hygiene and Water-Cure Physician and Surgeon, treats all diseases, without medicines, at 218 North Ninth street. WINDOW SHADES, all styles, $1 to $5 each, with durable fixtures, 710 Cheshut afreet, Philadelphia. W. H. GARRIL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $450 to $200 a piece, 710 Cheshut street, Philadelphia. W. H. GARRIL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $450 to $200 a piece, 710 Cheshut street, Philadelphia is became his wife. The cortege from Misco to Jedo was a truly magnificent affair. Rach Dennic, as the approached her domain, turned out a gone of honor, attired in uniform. The Emperor was clothed in the and costly roles, which are said to have borded and the second person when the second person who did not regard the company as a me
man in the county, being in the 98th year of his age, and was a much respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death—Buck's County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADSLIPHA, May 12, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to ebb, and prices were sustained with difficulty. Government securities were sold to a very limited extent. City sixes were weaker, and a decline was noted in Reading Raifrond shares, and in Schupikili Navigation perforred. Gatawissa pieferred sold at 8½. Elmira preferred sold up to 29. In passenger railway shares a few sales were made. West Philadeiphia at 54½; Spruce and Pine, 12½; Architect, 22½. We are requested by the Assistant Treasurer of the United States to remind helders of certificates of temporary loan, payable in roth, that, pursuant to the notice already given, they should be presented for reinduresed ment before the close of the present week. Mesars. Inday & Bicknell report that a counterfeit three-dollaripate on the Hartford Bank, Connecticnt, is new heris, circulated in tills city. On lower left, you not weekers, with sheaves of grain, cuttle, anchor, &c., well done The public should be presented for reindurese; with sheaves of grain, cuttle, anchor, &c., well done The public should be for the close of the stockholders of the "Farmers and Mechanics" Bank of Stifford," held at their banking house, an Tuesday last, the fallowing offices wars abided to serve for the cosming year: Directors—Win &. W. Durger, Jac R. Loft ad, Win. Therefore, we will be a permanently established the committee of the stockholders of the "Farmers and Mechanics" Bank of Stifford as recently elected. This is a valuable acquisition to their already worthy board, atthough the in-truston base been in operation attitory. We notice the name of C S. Watson, Esq. among the directors above mentioned as recently elected. This is a valuable acquisition to their already worthy board, atthough the in-truston base been	business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genutical injures, such as brandles, whee, &e., of undustion pririty, has induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of hrealist, the liquors sold at this extablishment in preference to any others. MONT MORIARI CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 128 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agont. Desirable lots, at low prices, and on liberal torna, aronow in the market, some of them in sections just opened, having hitherto been held in reserve. Office hours, at the residence of the undersigned, No. 314 North Tenth street. FREDERICK A. VAN OLEVE, N. B.—Conveyance to and from the cemetery for such as desire to purchase, Dr. S. M. LANDIS, Electro-Hygiene and Water-Curr Physician and Surgoon, treats all diseases, without medicines, at 218 North Ninth street. WINDOW SHADES, all Styles, $1 to $5 onch, with durable fixtures, 710 Chestanut street, Philadelphia. W. H. GARIL & BRO. apil-7. The Emperor of Japan has taken a wife—the is fitteen proved affairs. The young monarch did not see his bride until she became his wife. The ordered was coloned in fine and costly roles, which are said to have borne a striking resemblance to the hazdeoine and fashinghe by the company as a means of display, and we think those where prices are remarkably low. OUR HOME GUARDS.—Certain parties are trying to make themselves at the same time funny and notorious at the expense of the organization of our citizens high the display and we think those where prices are remarkably low. OUR HOME GUARDS.—Cothin parties are trying to make the management of t
man in the county, being in the 98th year of his age, and was a much respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Buck's County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. PRILADSLIPHA, May 13, 1802. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to ebb, and prices were sursained with difficulty. Government securities were sold to a very limited extract. City sixes were weaker, and a decline was noted in Beading Bailroad charer, and a decline was noted in Beading Bailroad charer, and in Schuylkill Navigation perforred. Gatawissa preferred sold at 8½. Elmita preferred sold up to 20. In pascenger railway chares a few sales were made. West Philadelphia at 54½, Spruce and Pine, 12½; Archistred, 22½; Thi tearth and Fifteenth, 15½, and Green and Goates at 25½. We are requested by the Assistant Treasurer of the United States to remind holders of certificates of temporary long, payable in roth in that pursuant to the notice already given, they should be presented for reimbursed ment before the close of the present week. Messas. Junky & Biddnell report that a counterfoid three-dollarphete on the Hartford Bank, Connecticut, is new being circulated in tilus city. On lower loft two sailors standing by a shaft, two females stiting with spinning wheel, box, etc. On lower right, group of harvesters, with sheaves of grain, eattle, anchor, &c., well does public chould refuse all of this places, with sheaves of grain, eattle, anchor, &c., well does public chould refuse all of this place. The Millord (Del.) News ways that, at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the "Farmers and Machanics" Bank of Millord's held at their banking house, with the public chould refuse all of this place. The Millord (Del.) News ways that, at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the "Farmers and Machanics" Bank of Millord's held their banking house, with the public and public chould refuse all of the place of John A. Hazer's way the public chould refuse all of this pl	business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genutical liquors, such as brandles, whice, &c., of undusting pririty, has induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of hrealist, the linear sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORLAIN CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being ligh and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plane may be examined at the company's office, No. 128 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agent. Desirable lost, at low prices, and on tiberal terms, are now in the market, some of them in sections just opened, having hitherto bean held in reserve. Offich hours from S.A. M. to 4 P. M., and, either before or after these hours, at the residence of the undersigned, No. 314 North Tenth street. FREDERICK A. YAM CLEVE, General Agent. N. B.—Conveyance to and from the cemetery for such as desire to purchase, DR. S. M. LANDIS, Electro-Hygiene and Water-Cure Physician and Surgoon, treats all diseases, without medicines, at 218 North Ninth street. WINDOW SHADES, all styles, S.1 to S5 each, with durable fixtures, 719 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. W. H. CARRYL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in a drove of hours, at the with the portel affalrs. The young monarch did not see his bride until she became his wife. The cortego from bride until she became his wife. The cortego from bride until she became his wife. The cortego from bride until she became his wife. The cortego from bride until she became his wife. The cortego from bride until she became his wife. The cortego from bride until she became his wife, and the remarked hours, and the she where the conditions and fashion the she was a substant and the sea bride him
man in the county, being in the 95th year of his age, and was a much respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Buck's County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to ebb, and prices were suratized with difficulty. Government securities were sold to a very limited extract. City sixes were weaker, and a decline was noted in Reading Railroad sharer, and in Schuylkill Navigation perforred. Gatawissa preferred sold at 83. Elmira preferred sold up to 20. In pascenger railway chares a few sales were made. West Philadelphia at 643; Spruce and Fine, 124; Archistred, 224; Thi tenth and Fifteenth, 153, and Green and Goates at 255. We are requested by the Assistant Treasurer of the Chief States to remind bolders of certificates of temporary loan, payable in roin, that, pursuant to the notice stready given, they should be presented for reinhaused ment before the close of the present veck. Messes. Inday & Biddnell report that a counterfoit three-dollarphate on the Hartford Bank, Councetient, is new being circulated in this city. On lower left two salors standing by a shaft, two females stiting with spinning wheel, box, etc. On lower right, group of harvests, with shearts of grain, eattle, anchor, &c., wellow. The Bifford (Del.) Yews says that, at the annual meeting of the stackholders of the "Farmers and Mechanics' Bank (f Bifford') held at their banking house, an Tusaday has, the following officers were salethed to serve for the oscient paser: Directors—Win E. W. Dorsey, Jas. R. Loft ad, Win. Hill, C 8. Waston, bank of the partial counterfoit. We notice the name of C S. Watson, Esq. among the directors above neutroned as recently elected. This is a state of the continual for the shade of the continual fraident of the community. The Girard Fire and Marine Insurance Company Silva evidence of continued unceres and good management in the shape of a semi-annual dividend of three and a half per citt.	business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genutical liquors, such as brandles, whice, &c., of undustion purity, has induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of hrealist, the liquors sold at this extabilishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORLAIR CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 128 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agent. Desirable lost, at low prices, and on liberal ternas, are now in the market, some of them in sections just opened, having hitherto bean held in reserve. Offea houser from S.A. M. to 4 P. M., and, either before or after these hours, at the residence of the undersigned, No. 314 NOTE E. DR. S. M. LANDIS, Electro-Hygiene and Water-Cure Physician and Surgeon, treats all diseases, without medicines, at 218 North Ninth street. WINDOW SHADES, all styles, S1 to S5 each, with durable fartures, 7120 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, W. H CARRIL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $4 to $60 epice, 710 Ghestnut street, Philadelphia, W. H. CARRIL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $4 to $60 epice, 710 Ghestnut street, Philadelphia, W. H. CARRIL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $4 to $60 epice, 710 Ghestnut street, Philadelphia, W. H. CARRIL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $4 to $60 epice, 710 Ghestnut street, Philadelphia, W. H. CARRIL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in street, Philadelphia, W. H. CARRIL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, AND GOOD CORD CORD CORD CORD CORD CORD CORD C
man in the county, being in the 98th year of his age, and was a much respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Buck's County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADSLIPHIA, May 13, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a disposition to ebb, and prices were sustained with difficulty. Government securities were soid to a very limited extent.—City sixes were weaker, and a decline was noted in Reading Raijroad shares, and in Schurlkill Navigation preforred. Gatawissa pieferred sold at 8%. Emira preforred. Gatawissa pieferred sold at 8%. Emira preforred. Gatawissa pieferred sold at 8%. Emira preforred sold up to 29. In pascongar railway chares a few sales were made. West Philadelphia at 94%; Spruce and Pine, 12%; Archstrod, 22%; Thi. tenth and Fifteeath, 15%, and Green and Coates at 25%. We are requested by the Assistant Treasurer of the United States to remind believes of certificates of temporary loan, payable in roln, that, pursuant to the notice shready given, they should be presented for reindanced ment before the close of the present week. Messes, Lindy & Bickhell report that a counterfut three-dollaripate on the Hartford Bank, Connectiont, in new being circulated in this city. On lower loft two salors standing by a shaft, two females sitting with spinning wheel, how, etc. On hower right, group of harvesters, with sheaves of grain, entitle, anchor, &c., well done The public should refuse all of slide plate. The Milford (Del.) News says that, at the annual meeting of the stackholders of the "Farmers and Mechanics" Bank (f 2011/27), held at their banking house, an Tusaday last, the following affisces were adebted be serve for the oscaing pear. The milford (Del.) Non A Hazzard, Won. Thare, Win. A Scribner. President—Win. M. W. Dorsey. Cacher—Chain V. adding, in place of John A. Hazzard. We notice the name of C S. Watson, Esq., among the directors above mentioned as recently elected. This is a valuable acquisition to their a	business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genutical liquors, such as brandles, whice, &c., of undusting prirly, has induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this extabilishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORIAIR CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 128 South Sixth street, where any further information will be chearfully afforded by the agont. Desirable lots, at low prices, and on liberal terms, aro now in the market, some of them in sections just opened, having hitherto bean held in reserve. Offea hourer, at he residence of the undersigned, No. 314 North Tenth street. FREDERICKA VANO CLEVE, General Agont. N. B.—Conveyance to and from the cemetery for such as desire to purchase, Dr. S. M. LANDIS, Electro-Hygiene and Water-Curr Physician and Surgeon, treats all diseases, without medicines, at 218 North Ninth street. WINDOW SHADES, all styles, S1 to So each, with durable fartures, 710 Chestmut street, Philadelphia. W. H GARRIL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in score, price $450 to $200 picce, 710 Chestmut street, Philadelphia with durable fartures, 710 Chestmut street, Philadelphia, W. H GARRIL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in score, price $450 to $200 picce, 710 Chestmut street, Philadelphia is became his wife. The cortego from Misco to 1ed0 was a truly magnificent affair. Each Danio, as she approach his wife. The cortego from Misco to 1ed0 was a truly magnificent affair. Bach Danio, as the application of the farming files and price, and the cortes of the magnificent affair. Each Danio, as the application of the farming files, an
man in the county, being in the 95th year of his age, and was a much respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Buck's County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE RONEY MARKET. PHILADSLIPHIA, May 13, 1802. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested adisposition to eth, and price were suchine with infinently. Government securities were sold to a very limited extent. City sixes were weaker, and a decline was noted in Beading Railroad shares, and in Schuylkill Navigation preferred sold up to 29. In passenger railway shaves a few soles were made. West Philadelphia at 64½; Spruce and Pine, 12½; Archastreed, 22½; Thi tenth and Fifteenth, 15½, and Green and Goates at 25½. We are requested by the Assistant Treasurer of the Thied States to regulate his roin, that, pursuant to the notice shready given, they should be presented for reinhaured ment before the close of the present week. Messex, Inlay & Bucknell report that a counterfeit three-dollarphate on the Hartford Bank, Connectiont, is new being circulated in this city. On lower left two sailors standing by a shaft, two females sitting with spining wheel, box, etc. On bower right, group of harvesters, with sheaves of grain, cattle, anchor, &c., well done The public should refuse all of this plate. The Billford (Del.) News ways that, at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the W Farmers and Mechanics Bank of Stifford, beld at their banking house, no Trassay last, the fallowing offices wase absted be serve for the cossing year: Directors—Win E. W. Dorger, Jas R. Loft and, Wm. Bill, C. S. Watson, John A. Hazzard, Wa. Thare, Wm. A Scribers—President—Wm. M., W. Dorsey, Cognical. We notice the name of C. S. Watson, Esq. among the directors above mentioned as recently elected. This is a valuable acquisition to their adready worthy board. Although the increase of the present in upgraid and stide of the manuality. The Girard Fire and Marine Insurance Company live avidence of continued and the stock. Enhaped No	pures, such as braudies, whes, &c., of unduluted purity, has induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the highers sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MOUNT MORTAIN CEMETERY.—This ground is boated a few reds off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plane may be examined at the company's office, No. 128 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully afforded by the agont. Desirable lots, at low prices, and on liberal torsa, aro now in the market, scowe of them in sections just opened, having hithesto base held in reserva. Offica bours from S. M. M. of J. M., and, either before or after these hours, at the residence of the undersigned, No. 514 North Tenth street. FREDERICK A. VAN CLEYE, N. B.—Canveyance to and from the cemetery for such as desire to purchase, D.R. S. M. LUNDIS, Electro-Hygiene and Water-Cur -Hygieine and Surgeon, treats all diseases, without medicines, at 218 North Ninth street. Window Siaabes, all styles, 51 to $5 cach, with durable faxtures, 719 Chestanut street, Philadelphia, W. H. Carrit & Bio. api2-7. MARRIAGE OF THE EMPEROR OF JAPAN.—The Emperor of Japan has taken a wife—the is fifteen years of the wife of the wif
man in the county, being in the 98th year of his age, and was a much respected citizen. He was in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death.—Buck's County Democrat. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE HONEY MARKET. PHILADSLIPHIA, May 13, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested adisposition to the and price were smalled with difficulty. Government securities were smalled with difficulty. Government securities were smalled with difficulty. Government securities were smalled to a very limited extent. City street only and a decide to water the decided of the Read-right of the street of the smalled to the smalled of the smalled for reinforces of the present week. Messa, Inhay & Bidchwell report that a counterfeit three-dollar fuct on the Hartford Bank, Councetiont, is new being circulated in this city. On lower light, group of harvesters, with sheaves of grain, cattle, anchor, &c., well done the such should be smalled of the plate. The Miliford (Del.) News says that, at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the "Farmers and Mechanics' Bank of Onitoral," held at their banking house, an Tusada hash of onitoral, who hash of the smalled showed the smalled of the plate. The Miliford (Del.) News says that, at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the "Farmers and Mechanics' Bank of Onitoral File and Marine Insurance Company Onitoral Research of the stockholders of the "Farmers and Mechanics' Bank of Onitoral File and Marine Insurance Company Canal Country who hash of the smalled of the country of the	interiores to keep constantly on hand a supply of genutical tipores, such as brandles, when, &c., of undusted purity, has induced many of our first physicians to recommend, for the use of invalids, the thipores sold at this establishment in preference to any others. MONIT MORIAH CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 123 South Sixth street, where any further information will be cheerfully affords by the agont. Destrable lots, at low prices, and on liberal torns, are now in the market, zone of them in sections just opened, having hilherto been held in reserve. Office houre from S.A. M. to 4 P. M., and, either before or after these hours, at the residence of the undersigned, Mo. 314 North Tenth street. FREDERICKA. VAN GLEVE, S. M. LANDIS, Electro-Hygiene and Water-Cur Physician and Surgeon, treats all diseases, without medicines, at 218 North Ninth street. WINDOW SHADES, all styles, S1 to S5 each, with durable fixtures, 710 Cheshutt afrect, Philadelphia. W. H. GARRIL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS, now in store, price $4 60 to 220 a piece, 719 Cheshutt street, Philadelphia, W. H. GARRIL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD GURTAINS, who is a core, price $4 60 to 220 a piece, 719 Cheshutt street, Philadelphia, W. H. GARRIL & BRO. ARAFIGE OF THE EMPEROR OF JAPAN.—The Emperor of Japan has taken a wife—the is fifteen prear soil. The support of Japan has taken a wife—the is fifteen prear soil. The support of Japan has taken a wife—the is fifteen prear soil. The support of Japan has taken a wife—the is fifteen prear soil. The support of Japan has taken a wife—the is fifteen prears wife of the prear wife of the prear wife of the p

100 Schy Na pf.15. 15½
4000 Ponna 5u 90
1000 Phila & Frie 5u 92
500 W Branch bd. 55 87
500 Read 6u 32 100
1000 do. 70 923
1000 do. 70 923
1000 do. 70 923
1000 do. 85 m. Annex 3u 95
1000 do. 70 923
1000 do. 85 m. Annex 3u 95
1000 do. 85 m. Annex 3u 95
1000 do. 70 923
1000 do. 85 m. Annex 3u 95
1000 do. 85 m. Annex 3u 95
1000 do. 80 85 m. M. 100
1000 do. 1000
1000

ARRIVALS AT THE HOTELS

Survey. The following graphic report adds another page	25 Schy Nay pf.b5. 15% 6 do	UP TO 12 O'CLOOK LAST SIGHT. CONTINENTAL HOTEL—Minth and Chostnut ats.	BY THE BARD OF TOWER E "Norfolk is taken!"—startling sou All rebeldom it will confound.
to the splendid history now making by the Ameri- can navy. The officers of the Coast Survey, not content with rendering invaluable scientific ser-	U S Tr 7 3-10 N.105½ 105 % Elmira R Prf. 19% 20 U S Tr 7 3-10 N.105½ 106 Elmira 7s '73 84 86 Philada 6s	Jas Harrison, St Louis E J Marden, Baltimore Max Glaser, Cincinnati M Frohman, Cincinnati Robt P Faulkner, Rolla, Md	And royal Jeff himself astound, And Beauregard dis For now, to all discerning eyes,
vices, rival the regular navy in their daring opera- tions against the enemy;	Penna 58 592 90 Le Cl & Naysen 40 41 Reading R 24-99 243 N Penna R 64 76 Read bds '70 923; 93 N Penna R 10s 94 96	Gen F Foote, Cincinnati V L Doebler, Williamsport P Tillinghast, New York Jas C Ludlow, Newark Prof C Mason, New York	The road to Bichmond open lies; McClellan knows it, and define; The rogues to bar it
U. S. COAST SURVEY STRAMER "CORVIN." \ WEST POINT, YA., MAY 8, 1862. DEAR SIR: It gives me pleasure to inform you that during the recent important movements in York river,	Rend mt 6s '80", 84% 85 Cataw R Con 1% 2	A Welch & la, New Jersey S A Allen B Buzzel & la, Wash, D C Mrs Waldecker, Wash, D C O R W Sibler, Ohio	Ye wretched cottonites, fall back, Run—fly—escape the fierce attack, Or, like your boasted Merrimac,
On Saturday morning, the 4th instant, we discovered that Yorktown and Gloucester Point were abandoned,	Femark 2m 68, 96 Morris Chi Con., 46 47 Morris Chi Con., 46 47 Marris Chi Pref. 1165 17 W Phila R., 54½ 55 Sch Nav Stock., 52 52 Sch Nav Brof., 15½ 15½ Green & Goates., 25½ 26 Sch Nav 68 '82., 69½ 69½ Ches & Walnut, 34½ 55 Prof. Stock., 25½ 22 22 22 22 22 22 22 22 22	J H Heeld, Baltimore J W Fuller, Catasanqua L S Goble, Newark, N J Dr J Reidenstain, Md J P Honaton, U S M C	In atoms be dispers Its iron si tes collapsed, you see, And such rebellion's fate will be; You thought it powerful, but we squadron immediately weighed, and stood up the river, when near Gloucester Point, I received orders to take the "Currituck" in company, and proceed up the river, the company and proceed up the river,	Zimina it., 10/2 Intell parecents	Mrs S E M Lovering, York J C Burbank, Minnesota D D Badger, New York Jas Colbourn, Maryland D A Vanderver, New Jersoy T Graw, New York	Were certain it would now, for the traiter chiefs prepare
cept the enemy's transports and other vessels. We started ahead at full speed, and whon near (queen's Creek, discovered a company of the rebel cavalry, which our shells soon dispersed; immediately afterwards, observed	Philadelphia Markets. MAY 13—Evening. The Flour market continues dull, buyers holding off	Col C E Trail, Maryland Dr Schley, Maryland J Fitzpatrick, Maryland J Duffy, Marietta D W Woods & wf, Lancaster Col S Shock, Columbus	Such wreaths as rebels ought to we The hempen wreath for all who dan Our liberties to mar
Bigler's wharf to be on fire in several places, and three schooners and a launch excaping to the windward. Our shot soon hove to a schoener and the launch, (loaded with attress, and the effects of General Bains and Lieut.	for lower prices; 500 bbls good City Mills extra family sold on terms kept private, and a few small lots to supply the trade at $55.61.2% for superflue, $5.25.65.50 for ex-	F H Schutt, Dunkirk, N Y T B Brycon, Silver Spring J Andersor, Eliver Spring D B Renshaw Lee Blad Naw York Jos C Ryang & Ja, N Y	Hemp for the traitors; but for thos Who are not ranked with Freedom Superior raiment BENNETT above.
Whitney, C. S. A) and the other ressels were fired and abandoned, their crews escaping to the shore Having reached a point thirteen miles above York-	tras, $5.50@5.75 for extra family, and $5 87% @6 50 學 bbl for fancy brands, as to quality. Rve Flour is quiet at $2.50, and Corn Meal at $2.60@2.65 學 bbls for Penu's	Mr Murray, Penns, Ivania Plenry Wall, New York W B Hartley, New York D Fjint, Chicago Mr Danforth, New York R L Hawes Worcestor M B Buffman, Mass	AT TOWER HALL I Our stock of ready made Spring Clothi and most varied in Philadelphia, and b
town, in consequence of my orders, I was compelled to return, and, after having secured the prizes and captured a stoop in addition. I steamed down theriver, and, when within about five miles of Yorktown. I met one of	Mesl. WHELT is unsettled and lower, with sales of 0 2010,000 bu hels—part last evening—at 127 2128cfor prime Penn's red, allost, and 132c for Southern do, closing at the lowest	Bey B R Allen, Boston Cyrus Pa'Loutz, Brooklyn	ceipt of all desirable new styles, we are t though our sales are rapid and extensi sesortment full and fresh. We have all s
the gunboats, and her Capiain (T. H. Patterson), directed me to cover his vessel in a reconnoissance towards the head of the river. I immediately cast of the prizes, and led up to West Pcint, where we discovered the place	figure; white is dull at 135@140c. Rye is rather dull; Penn's is offered at 73c. Corn is not so plenty; about 13 000 bushels Southern and Penn's vellow brought 53c, atlost. Oats are quiet at 33@37c for Delsware, and 38c	J Johnson E O Tufts, Boston James Dexter, Albany Capt J Lawless, U 8 N Francis Barry, New London A Hartough, N Y Jes H Person, Troy, N Y	ties of goods, from low and medium-pric Every one will find Clothing suited to hi and means, among our stock. We have to be abandoned, several partially-built gunboats and the York river light boat on fire, and two regiments that norming arrived from Bichmond, on their way to York- town, just leaving in the cars, and white flags waving on	Print's. BARK.—First No. 1 Quercitron is wanted at $33.50 per ton. Corrox.—The market is firm, with a small business	M. I. Ott, Wheeling, Va. H. N. Poblman, Albany Chas Dodge, Wash, D. C. L. H. Bowler, A. Wife, Boston N. P. Colburn & W. Boston	choice assortment of piece goods, which to order in the best manner, for those wh We buy and sell for cash only; th shore. Having executed the duty assigned, we commenced our return, and soon passed the Currituck, bound up, with orders to burn the railroad bridge.	to note at previous rates. GROCERIES.—There is rather more activity in Sugar and Molasses; sales of the former are making at 7@7 % o $\mathcal{P}$ ib.	Mrs G Merritt, P Amboy N B Harrison F Gox, Boston J D De Russy, U S A W Gerrish, Maryland W Gerrish, Maryland Mrs G Merritt, P Amboy A G Browne, Jr, Boston A B Semple, Louisvillo F Boegler, New York E M Barnum, Oregon	lowest possible prices. TOWER HALL, No. 518 MARKET S 1t BEN
On my arrival opposite Bigl-r's wharf, (having cap- tured another schooler on the way down), I received di- rections to return and prevent the destruction of the bridge, which duty was successfully accomplished.	PROVISIONS CONTINUE firm, Pickled Hams selling at UK at KC; Shoulders in Salt, 4Kc, and Sides at 5Ka 5Kc 4F lb. Whisky is unsettled, bbls. selling at 24x24Kc for	W Gerrish, Maryland Benj W ood, New York Geo K Sheilds, Oregon S B Brown, New York M C Belknap & la, N Y Peter Higgins, New York	MARRIED. CHEQUER—CEKINGABY.—On the Rev. Richardson Graham, Mr. Wm. Cl
Upon my second arrival at West Point, at 9.30 P. M., Captain Shankland. of the Currituck, reported that he had landed and hoisted the Union flag, and had found about fifty prisoners of the rebels (mostly women and	Pennsylvania; 25.625%c for Western, and drudge at 22%c W gallon.	Mad de Viro, New York A C I unham, Hartford M M Merriman, Hartford W Geston, Roybury, Mass R Worthington, Mass	Pattie Cckingaby.
children), "living in a horrible condition, in sheds, and without the common necessaries of life". These people were residents of Elizabeth City county, and sent here by General Magruder on account of their Union pro-	New York Stocks—Second Board, May 13. 5000 U S 6s '81. reg. 1042 200 N Y Cent Rs 89 ½ 23000 docpn. 105 300 do 89 ½ 5000 U S 5s '74. cpn. 95½ 500 Eric Rs 39 ½	L F Morse, Roxbury, Mass W B Fersenden, Prov. R I R P H Doremus & Ia, N Y H T Jenkins, New York James & Bolles, Boston	MATHEWS.—On Monday, May 12, Uriah Mathews, aged 52 years. The friends and relatives are respect attend the funeral, from the residence o
clivities. I at once decided to remain and hold posses- sion of the place, protest the people and prevent a fur- ther destruction of property by the rebels, until the ar-	20000 00	Dr W N Hamilton, Bel F F Emery, Boston Cupt Faunce, U S N Mrs Keeler, New York A Buck, Baltimore J Tome, Maryland S M Shoemaker, Baltimore J B Carson, St. Louis	No. 608 North Seventh street, on Thu May 15, at 7 o'clock. Funeral to procee ton.
rival of the commanding officer of the naval divisios. On the 5th inst. we seized a schooner in the Pamunkey river, and also the C. S. sloop "Water-Wich," recently abandoned by Capt. Thos. Jefferson Page. During the	1060 do. 104% 100 do. 67 41000 Ill War Loan 96% 100 Hud Riv R. 42% 2000 Tenn 6s '90. 59 450 do. 42% 2000 do. 58% 25 do. 42% 5600 Missouri 6s. 52% 350 Mich Cent R. 61	D Austin, Jr, New York Miss A F Hatris, R I Walter B Snow, Prov. R I G E Angele, Prov. B I L A Plummer, New Bedford S J Bach, New York M Kaysor, New York	[Forlestown papers please copy.] BICHARDS.—On Sunday, the 11th i dence, in Reading, Pa., the Hon. M. S. I 76th year of bis ago.
day I secured much information regarding the move- ments of the rebel army, which was transmitted to the proper authoriy. On the 6th the naval vessels arrived, conveying the division of Gen. Franklin. During the	13060 do	MERCHANTS' HOTEL—Fourth st., below Arch. A S Evans, Fort Wayne W C Bayley, Blair co, Pa	LEW18.—On Monday, May 12, Sidne Edwin M. Lewis. MOBRISON.—At Camp of Fourth R V. C., Falmouth, Virginia, on Saturd attempt to destroy the town during the night, which I at once reported to the commanding officer, and received orders to anchor near the ship yard, where I could com-	30LU 101 & 11 20 35 1/2 200 Clev & 101 46 1/2	MERCHANTS' HOTEL—Fourth st., below Arch. A S Evans, Fort Wayne John A Lemon, Hollidays'g D Watson, Hollidaysburg G S Reed, Clearfield T M Courtrey, Poland, O T M Hali, Poland, O
mand the approaches to the town. About 11 A. M., on the Tih. I heard that about 1,000 of the troops recently stationed at Gloucester Point, (who had retreated up the north side of the York river, with	5000 Mich So S F. 96 300 do. 46% 250 C Am Gold 103 100 do. 560.46% 200 Pac M S S 114 50 do. 64% 50 do. 30.113 150 do. 64%	Clark Stough, Poland, O John C Duft, Pa A Dissinger, Rizabethtown M Barry, Lancaster D Henderson, Shippensburg Amos Davis, Easton Wm Webster, Md Geo S Finney, Md	I. O. of O. F., Southwark Hose Company Refreshment Committee, Southwark Hox the Masonic and Odd Fellows' fraternitic respectfully invited to attend the funeral,
the view of crossing at this place, and were prevented by our presence), were crossing the Mattapony river at Fra- zier's Ferry, thirty miles above here. I immediately asked and obtained permission to go after them, and by	CITY ITEMS.	J Boynton, Clearfield James J Conner, Pa W B Howard, N Y Geo H Stewart, Shippens'g John Grabil, Shippensburg M G Einstein, Harrieburg	dence of his father, No. 836 South Tr o'clock, this (Wednesday) afternoon. To ladelphia Cemetery. FIGGINE.—On the 12th inst., Daniel
3 P. M., had carried the old flag thirty-six miles above West Point. till our progress was checked by our draught of water. I learned that 4,000 of the rebels had passed the previous night, on their way to Dunkirk Bridge.	MESSRS. J. W. PROCTOR & Co.'s ELEGANT Spring Cloaks,—The proprietors of "The Paris Man-	L Colliflower, Quincy, Pa J D Schall & Ia, York, Pa James White, Pittsburg Wm G Foster, Millbridge S G Brower, N Y	49 years. His relatives and friends are respecting attend his funeral, from his late resid
I found white flags hoisted on both shores of the river, and the people generally apparently pleased to see the Union flag once more among them. About three miles above this place, the Mattapony has	tilln Emperium? (now located at No. 920 Chestnut street) have this season made a most successful hit in their ele- gant Spring and Summer Cloaks. The superbnew fabric	S Van Loon, Wilkesbarre Th P Simpson, M Chunk H P Walton Delaware H H Mill New Joyaca	Brandy wine street, on Thursday, 15th in P. M. MONAGHAN.—On the morning of Maria S. Galton, wife of James J. Monag been obstructed by the sinking of six vessels in the chan- nel, but we passed round the south side of them in five fathoms water.	the "Exhibition Cloth"—(of which Messrs, Proctor & Co. were fortunate enough to secure fithe 1st which came to this country.) is being universally admired by the	D Stratton, Selem, N J J R Hiester, Lancaster A Johnston, Holliday sburg F McCoy, Hollidaysburg J R Walker, II lidaysburg J R Walker, II lidaysburg	year of her age. Her relatives and friends, and those of respectfully invited to attend her funeral dence of her husband, No 609 Fitzwa
In the evening, we returned to our anchorage, and during the night shelled out a party who were endeavor- ing to set fire to the timber in the ship yard, which had escaped the general destruction by the rebels on their	ladies. The exquisite sacques and circulars made from this new material are certainly the most tasteful thing out. They are at once dressy, adapted to all, and suffi-	S B Black, Springfield, O Mrs S M Hamili, N Jorsay	(Wednesday) afternoon, the 14th inst., at out further notice. Funoral services Church. Interment at Cathedral Cemete evacuation of the place during the 4th just. I will mention that we had the pleasure of firing the last naval shot at Yorktown on the evening previous to the evacuation, and that one of our 12-pound Hotchkiss	ciently light in texture to be worn, with comfort, in the warmest weather. As they are selling very rapidly, we advise our fair readers to make their selections without	John H Zigler, Harrisburg R T May, Easton, Md Miss Hamill, New Jersey J Blair, Shippensburg Miss J Cummings, Salmagr W W Belt, Clearfield John MBowman, Muncy, Pa	WILEY.—Suddenly, on Saturday, the K. Wiley, in the 51st year of his age. The relatives and friends of the family Lodge, No. 246. A. Y. M., Chosen Frien 100, I. O. of O. F., and School Directors shell, projected a fraction over four miles, exploded and killed five of the enemy, and one of the solid shot passed about one half a mile beyond the town, or 4½ miles. All the prisoners who have been captured, or have	delay. A Great Establishment.—There are several distinctive departments in the trade of this city, in	AMKRICAN HOTEL—Unestant st., above Fifth. S.T Brown, Huntingdon, Pa Wm McFarland, Pa T J Fitzsimmons, N C F S Wilson, Bellefonte, Pa	from his late residence, No. 978 North F. low Laurel, this (Wednesday,) 14th in given themselves up to me, agree in saying that the rebel army from Yorktown ("125,000 well mea") will fall back to the Chickshominy, and that Gen. Johnston de- clares that he will not attempt to make a stand where	either of which the celebrated old house of Charles Oak- ford & Son, under the Continental Hotel, excels all others. Of these we may name Hats and Caps, Head-gear for Chil-	A H Fiske, Pennsylvania J Knabb & w, Reading Wm Phillips, Ohio M W Williams, Indiana Jacob Bausmore, Lancaster Miss S A Bear, Lancaster J M Reville, Delaware H Parker, Boston	Services in the Second Baptist Churcheret, above Poplar. Interment at Odd tery, WARDLE.—On the 10th inst, Birs. E
our gunboats can cut up his men; they also say that the people "feel that it is all over with them," and soldiers desert whenever they can. I am, respectfully, your obedient servant,	drer, and Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods. In all of these branches their stock is unequalled, and, being the chief manufacturers and importers in these departments, their	J Esser, Mauch Chunk H Lawson, Norristown E S Perter & w, New York Wm A Orbison, Penna Wm Ellery, U S N J T Johnston & Ia, Penna	of Dr. Thomas Wardle, and daughter of a Fag., aged 35 years. The relatives and friends are respect attend the funeral, from the residence of
THOS. S. PHELPS, Lieutenant Commanding, Assistant in Coast Survey. Prof. A. D. Fache LL. P.,	prices are unusually moderate. DEPUTATION OF MINISTERS AND OTHERS FOR YORKTOWN.—We are authorized to state that a deputa-	Geo W Tate & la, Penna I B Chapman, Prov, R I S F McKee, Hazleton Mrs J Bradshaw, Indiana Miss M Guilford, Lebanon G M Barney & ls, Vermont Miss A Eldridge, Vermont	246 North Tenth street, this (Wednesda 9 o'clock.
Superintendent United States Coast Survey. Songhum Culture in Bucks County —There	tion of ministers and elergymen, under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, will leave for	A W Whitcomb, Randclph N Chesman, Boston A C Crosby & w, Com F Hoyt, Georgetown, Mass	SECOND MOURNING VALENCIAS, AND GINGHAMS SON invite attention to their New Stock Second Mourning Glughams, 15 to 25 or is an increasing disposition among the farmers of Bucks and other counties of Eastern Pennsylvania to devote a part of their attention this year to the culture of sorghum or the Chinese sugar-cane. It	Yorktown this morning, at ten o'clock, to minister to the spiritual and temporal wants of the sick and wounded. Any articles suitable for hospital purposes sent to the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Associa-	E J Prunner, Pennsylvania John Crossley Jr, N Y J B Champin, Philada E S Hidden, New York	Second Mourning Silk and Wool Poplin Second Mourning Silk and Wool Valen Black and White finest French Jacone
has been tried on a small scale by different persons for several years past, with results generally favorable.	tion, No. 1009 Chestnut street, before six o'clock this evening, will be glad received and judiciously appro- priated by the gentlemen composing this deputation.	Thomas B De Walden, Washington, D C BT. LOUIS HOTEL—Chestnut strest, above Third	Plain Black finest French Jaconets, 25 Lupin's Black Challies, 44 cts. Lupin's Black Barege, 7-4 wide, 62% Lupin's Black Crape Maretz, 25 cts.
DEATH OF AN AGED CITIZEN.—Christopher Sigenfoos, of Nockamizon, died at the residence of	PURE LIQUORS FOR MEDICINAL PURPOSES.— The fact that Mr. 6. II. Mattson, dealer in fine groceries,	E Hewey, Alexandria, Va J Jones, Washington, D C E J Marden & I, Washington Rev S Livermore & wf, N C L M Thompson, Pa C Geddes S Isaacs J T Johnston & I, St Louis	Lupin's Black Tamartines, 25 cts. G. MAXWELL LELEVENTH and CHESTNUT, 1
his grandson, John Sigenfoos, in that township, on Monday of last week. He was probably the oldest man in the county, being in the 93th year of his age, and was a much-respected citizen. He was	Arch and Tenth streets, has made it a specialty in his business to keep constantly on hand a supply of genuine liquors, such as brandies, wines, &c., of undoubted	J Turner, Port Carbon Geo R Lewis, Reading. Ayers Codington, N J W Bears, Brooklyn G R Holmes, Providence, R I A Peters, Providence, R I Louis Lelong, Newark, N. J Capt Wilkins, U S A	at the lowest cash prices in the mar lines of a great variety of new Spring own late importation and manufactur
in possession of all his faculties to the time of his death—Buck's County Democrat.	purity, has induced many of our first physicians to re commend, for the use of invalids, the liquors sold at this establishment in preference to any others.	John H Rheem, Carlisle, Pa E F Hazleton, Baltimore Louis Stern, N Y Simon Stern, N Y THE UNION—Arch street, above Third.	careful selections from New York impo Beal and Imitation Thread and Guipun Buttons, No. 5 Trimming Ribbons, Pari Closks and Presses, French Bugle Trimo
FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.	MOUNT MORIAN CEMETERY.—This ground is located a few rods off of the Darby road, about the same distance from the city as Laurel Hill, and is beautifully	Mrs M Hill, Pittsburg N P Banks, Highspire H Staymaker, Pittsburg Thos Smith & la, Altoona Thos Lloyd, Muney, Pa	ing, Silk Gimps, Thomson Freres' Ps Spool Silk, new colors, at 2 cents per sp and Single Zephyr, for summer knitti Corsets, Travelling Fans. and Magic
THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADELPHIA, May 13, 1862. To-day the tide in the Stock Market manifested a dis-	situated on the highest point of ground for miles around. Its soil is admirably adapted for the purpose designed, being high and dry. The public are invited to examine		offered to the ladies as goods of the mos and sdapted to the requirements of close purchasers. The usual liberal allowance to cash buy position to ebb, and prices were sustained with difficulty. Government securities were sold to a very limited extent. City sixes were weaker, and a decline was noted in Bead-	its claims before purchasing elsewhere. General and sectional plans may be examined at the company's office, No. 123 South Sixth street, where any further	Stephen Keefer, Hanover A J Cline, Fulton co	J. G. MAXWE Store and Factory, ELEVENTH and ay24-1m
ing Railroad shares, and in Schupikili Navigation pre- forred. Catawissa preferred sold at 8%. Elmira pre- ferred sold up to 20.	information will be cheerfully afforded by the agent. Desirable lots, at low prices, and on liberal terms, are now in the market, some of them in sections just opened,	T S benick & la. Ohio S H Freeman	AID FOR THE WOUND PUTATION OF THE YOU CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION OF PHIAD
In passenger railway shares a few sales were made. West Philadelphia at 54%; Spruce and Pine, 12%; Archarcel, 22%; Thi trenth and Fifteenth, 15%, and Green	having hitherto been held in reserve. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 4 P. M., and, either before or after these hours, at the residence of the undersigued, No. 314 North	NATIONAL HOTEL—Bace street, above Third. Thes Francis, St Clair Henry Cott, Allentown	TO-DAY, (Wednesday.) for the purpose scenes of the latest battles, under the Government, to administer aid and sympand wounded. Those who desire to aid and Coates at 25%. We are requested by the Assistant Treasurer of the United States to remind holders of certificates of tempo- 	Tenth street. FREDERICK A. VAN CLEVE, General Agent. N. B.—Conveyance to and from the cemetery for such	O K Recher, Alientown A C Mussel, Danvine	Deputation by contributions of articles means for their purchase, can have the plied by sending to the Rooms of the CHESTNUT Street, above Touth, before rary loan, payable in coin, that, pursuant to the notice already given, they should be presented for reinbursed ment before the close of the present week.	DR. S. M. LANDIS, Electro-Hygiene and Water-Cure Physician and Surgeon, treats all diseases,	J.M. Harley, Ricks co. Il Ballie & wf, Lehigh co.	THE REV. DR. GREG
Messrs. Imlay & Bicknell report that a counterfeit three-dollar nete on the Hartford Bank, Connectiont, is new being circulated in this city. On lower left two	without medicines, at 218 North Ninth street. WINDOW SHADES, all styles, $1 to $5 each, with durable fixtures, 719 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.	D II Trexler, Sinder co, Pa W Faux, Danville E Wilson, Danville E II Hazleton, Canton, Pa R D Hazleton, Canton, Pa	that circumstances compelled them to po ture, "Quife unknown to them" the rived in the city, prepared to carry out h The Lecture will come off, without fail mailors standing by a shaft, two females sitting with spin- ning wheel, box, etc. On lower right, group of harvest- ers, with sheaves of grain, cattle, anchor, &c., well done	W. H CARRYL & BRO. LACE, MUSLIN, AND JACQUARD CURTAINS,	Miss E C Illig, Lebanon M C Slean, Bloonsburg J H Buck, U S A Miss M Bauman, Lebanon W B Koons, Bloomsburg Mis Orth, Lebanon, Pa	DAY EVENING next, the 14th instan Tickets already issued good for WEDN NING, in the ACADEMY OF MUSIC.
The public should refuse all of this plate. The Milford (Del.) News says that, at the annual meeting of the stackholders of the "Farmers and Me-	now in store, price $150 to $20 a piece, 719 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. W. H. Carryl & Bro. ap12-7t Marriage of the Emperor of Japan.—		I. Q. O. F.—FOURTH LODGE, No. 144, and the Order respectfully invited to meet at the HAL GEBMAN Streets, this afternoon, at 3 o chanics' Bank of Milford," held at their banking house, an Tuesday last, the following officers were elected to serve for the coseing year:	The Emperor of Japan has taken a wife—(he is fifteen years old.) The Empress is a daughter of the "Mikade," who is the real Emperor, but does not meddle with	Mrs P W Adman, Attleboro C H Wetherbee, Hammontn Mrs Newbold, Attleboro - Jas Burson, New Jersey Thos Scott Northumbueland E Stranb Lawidner	the funeral of our late brother, WM. MC 1t* JOHN
Directors—Wn: F. W. Dorsey, Jas R. Lofland, Wm. Hill, C. S. Watson, John A. Hazzard, Wm. Thare, Wm. A. Scribner. President—Wm. N. W. Dorsey. Cashier—John W. Adhine, in place of John A. Hazzard.	temporal affairs. The young monarch did not see his bride until she became his wife. The cortoge from Miaco to Yedo was a truly magnificent affair. Each	A Snyder, Georgetown M Keeney, Wyoming co M K Taylor, Taylorsville Geo E Hess, Willow Grove Lynd Watson, Moorestown C M Shaw, Lahaska	MASONIC NOTICE.—THI and the Order generally, are invited to r OHESINUT Street, this afternoon, at 30 the funeral of our late brother, WM. Mo
resigned. We notice the name of C. S. Watson, Esq., among the directors above mentioned as recently elected. This is a valuable acquisition to their already worthy board.	Damio, as she approached her domain, turned out a guard of honor, attired in uniform. The Emperor was clothed in fine and costly robes, which are said to have	Jos B Staples, Yardleyville Wm Smith, Milford, N J Wm Carr, New Brunswick	By order of the W. M. 1t* JOHN
Although the invitation has been in operation a little over gix months, it is doing an excellent business, and bid- fair to be a permanently established good in the com- munity.	borne a striking resemblance to the hazdsome and fash- ionsble styles of clothing manufactured at the renowned temple of Granville Stokes, No. 609 Chestnut street.	COMMERCIAL—Sixth street, above Chestnut. Lt C Schafnocker, N Castle D J Brown, Oxford, Pa Wm H Brown, Oxford, Pa Jus Keeler, Phoenixville Miss Keeler, Phoenixville John Boyd, Chester co	PERSONS IN PAYOR OF THE ACTION TO the REPUBLIC OF having an interest in her welfare, and where against all MONARCHIGAL DESPROPEAN INFLUENCE Address,
The Girard Fire and Marine Insurance Company give evidence of continued success and good manage- ment in the shape of a semi-annual dividend of three	where prices are remarkably low. OUR HOME GUARDS.—Certain parties are trying to make themselves at the same time funny and	Wm H Eder, Maryland J K Burnitr, Delawaro S D Chandler, Chester co Thos P Potts Wm Johnston, Concord, Pa G Griffith, Found T J Miles, Harrisburg Mrs Parker, Chester Valley	South TWELFTH Street, Philadelphia. NOTICE—SHOE FINDERS undereigned, hereby agree to che
and a half per cent. This company, we understand, has for some year; confined its business to fire insu- rance.	notorious at the expense of the organization of our citizens into the Home Guards. This bedy has always shown, by its willingness to do military duty whenever wanted,	W Porter, Williamsburg E W Hooper S J Seneca, Maryland BLACK BEAR—Third street, above Callowhill.	Durinese, from 10th day of MAY to 1 TEMBER, at 5 P. M. ard on SATURD WILLIAM JO ISAAC BARTO
The amount of toll transported over the Delaware Lackawanna, and Western Railroad, for week ending Saturday, May 10, was as follows: Week. Year.	that it was composed of persons who did not regard the company as a means of display, and we think those, who, by innendoes or jibes, affect to eneer at them, are	C Harper, Jenkintown G D Stitzel & wf, Reading Mrs M Fasig, Reading Mrs R Bernhart, Berks co D Kemmerer, P4	LAING & MAC EDWIN W. P. May 14-3t* JOSEPH GOD
Tons. Cwt. Tons. Cwt. Phipped North. 7,201 03 90,463 09 Shipped South. 18,281 05 269,877 14	inferior in every particular as citizens. The Home Guards, of Philadelphia, is an institution of which we are proud. Another institution in which Philadelphia	Mrs Kenmerer, Pa G Van Bushirk, Pottstown W Harner, Pennsburg J His sland, Emmetsburg W M Dale, Byberry M A Sollers, Pennsylvania M V B Vanarisalen, Pa John Hersh, Pennsburg W M Dale, Byberry	REPUBLICAN GENERA TEE OF SUPERINTENDENO bers of the Committee will meet at SHI
Total	has pre-eminence, is the celebrated Men's and Boys' first-class Clothing Establishment of Charles Stokes', under the "Continental,"	G Worthington Jos Young, Allentown H J Forney, Harrisburg Maj Lark, Lebanon J C Cornell, Pennsylvania B F Apple, Pennsylvania D P Ritier, Middleport A Heilman, Virginia	BROAD and CHESTNUT Streets, or AFTERNOON, May 15, 1862, at 4 o'cl gailon. JAMES F REES BORN, GEO H. EDWARD SIMPSON, JAMES DI
Tons. Cwt. Shipped North. 5,676 03 75,352 01 Shipped South. 20 355 18 257,581 19	A New LITANY.—From doctors' pills, western chills, and other ills, deliver us. From want of gold, and wives that scold, and maidens	Sol Raub, Virginia BARLEY SHEAF—Second street, below Vine. T White & la, New Jersey J Duberre, Penna	JOS. HEMPLE, SAML. FL. FURMAN W. MAYHEW.
Total	old, and sharpers "sold," deliver us. From Cossack spears, mock auctioneers, and woman's tears, deliver us.	B F Stredling, Bristol M Cooper, Bucks co Miss Cooper, Bucks co J C Bich, Penna N Richardson & la, Penna J Comiy, Byberry	THE PEOPLE OF PENNSYLVAN cordially to unite in
Week. Year, Tons, Cwt, Tons, Gwt, Tons total For week ending May 19 6,075 11 52,577 18	From stinging flies, and greenish eyes, and baker's pics, and babics' cries, a man that lies, deliver us.] From garments old, that are sold, at any other estab-	J Cadwallader, Fox Chase A Banahowtr, Bucka co J B Yarkaa, Lancastor city W C Wartord, Pt Pleasant B Cadwallader, Doylestown J Earry, Attleboro A Meon, New Jersey J Stackhouse, Middletown	SUSTAINING THE NATIONAL ADM in its patriotic efforts to suppress a section rebellion against the
Increase	lishment than that of Granville Stokes, No. 699 Chostnut street, deliver us.	A R W Knight, Feasterville A Blaker, Newtown J Ely, Bucks co H Gorson & la, Lahaska W Taylor, Edgewood A Dover, New Jersey	UNITY OF THE REPUBL
leading testure again in financial circles on Saturday. Nothing was added to the discount lines. The new paper faken was not equal to the maturities which were paid.	LETTER BAGS A: the Merchants' Exchange, Philadelphia. Ship Lancaster, DecanLivespool soon	M Comfort, Bucks co J White, Penna Mra W Stuckert, Penna Dr Dyer, Prestown W Warford, Tienton T Ent, Lembertswille	vernment, our hundred thousand heroic b braving disease and the perils of the field Union of our fathers, are requested to se of DELECATES squal to the Legislative
Good paper was caperly sought after at 10 per cents, and the transactions ranged from this figure down to 6 per cent. Mesers, Prexel s Co. furnish the following quotations:	Ship Tonawanda, Julius. Liverpool, soon Ship Northampton, Elwell. Liverpool, soon Bark Sea Eagle, Howes Port Sanin Trinded soon	J Eugart, Hartsville W Evans & la, N Jersay A Rittenhouse, Maryland E H Robinson, Maryland F Eastburn, Eddington E Evans, New Jersoy	of the State, at such times and in such best respond to the spirit of this call, to r STATE CONVENTI
New York exchange	Brig Loange, Evans. Havara, soon Schr Francis Barrett, Nickerssn. Barbados, soon MARINE INTELLIGENCE.	C Evans, Now Jersey M Stuckert, Bucks co BTATES UNION—Market street, above Sixth. S S Eacket, Shippen, Pa Henry Strecker, Penna	HARRISBURG,
Country funds. % to 6-10" American gold. 3 to 3% pro 73-10 Treasury no.es. 5% to 6 pre. One. year certificate a Par to y dis. The New York Post of this evening says;	SO SEE FOURTH PAGE ARRIVED.	T.A. Woods, Blair, Pa Jos T. Roed & dau, Md E. McMister, Clearfield John H. Leo, Clearfield Henry Thatcher, Fenna Aley Pare, Panna	On THURSDAY, the 17th day of Ji o'clock on said day, to NOMINATE CANDIDAT for the offices of
There is quite a full on the Stock Exchange to-day. The excitement of resterday has given place to a feeling of dullness throughout the list, and prices generally are	Brig Emma, Baker, 6 days from Boston, with muse to Twells & Co. Schr Hattie, (Br) Barbane, 14 days from St John, NB, with pickets to E & Sonder & Co.	Rocman Shaw, Jr, Clearfield F Hefright, Penna Joa R Carnous, Henna John Boiton, Princeton C Hopton, Princeton Geo Snyder, Liverpool Peter Cilts, Penna John Bruner, Henna W J Kirk, Fenna Jon S Dieber, Fonna	AUDITOR GENERAL AND SURVEYOR to sell, but buyers used inclined to hold off for further news from Virginia and the Southwest. The firmest of the share fiet are Burlington and Quin-	Schr Caroline, Fox, 3 days from New York, with mase to D Cooper. Schr F Feed, McCalmon, 8 days from Portland, with	D. Neff, Reading Thos Woodward, Iowa W. A. Croft, Harrisburg John Caveny, Penna Saml McMeen, Juniata co Jas Thompson, Millin co	and to take such measures as may be de to strengthen the Government in this soa peril to a common country.
ey, and Columboa and Cincinnati. The former sold at 70, the latter at 1.6. Pacific Muli is and at 1144 $114 \cdots ! Panama, 129.	Schr Magnum Bonum, Harding, 8 days from North Feitto, in ballest to Twells & Go. S. hr F Lucas, Taylor, 4 days from Seaconnet, with fish	M R Thompson, Mifflin co L S Vail, New York F D Snow, Boston W H Hibbs, Boston BALD EAGLE—Third street, above Callowhill.	A. K. Ma Chairman of the People's Stat
New York Central closed at 89% 6883%. Eric 40.619%, Eric Preferred 57%, Rudson 43%, Michigan Contral 51%, Rock Island 65%, The railly and bands are firm, aspecially the Issues of the Holedo and Wala h and Hudson River. Chicago and	to captain. Schr S Sawyer, Gamage, 6 days from Boston, in ballast to captain: Schr Col Lester, Delany, 5 days from Fortress Monroe.	Mits Metzger, Allentown Mrs S Nickols, Bucks co A Swartley, Famyra L F Ott, Montgomery co A Eisenbart. Overfield	GEO. W. HAMMERSLY. Secretaries JOHN M. SULLIVAN, Secretaries OFFICE GIRARD FIRE RINE INSUBANCE GOMIYAN
Northwestern Seconds and firm at 24% 25. There was 100d demand for North Carolinas at an advance of 1% 49 cent.—sales at 84. Illinois and Indianabouts are firm at full prices.	in ballast to exptain. Schr Fessenden, Hooper, 10 days from Eastport, with laths and oil to E A Souder & Co. Schr Eben Sawyer, Tracy, 11 days from Portland, with	R G Houck & la, Boyertown Elius Deemer, Pa Wilson Kriser, Pa L H Lawall, Allentown Mrs Shick, Springtown	have this day declared a semi-annual three and a half per cent., payable to the this Company, on and after the 15th insta
The list of Government stocks shows a reaction of $\frac{1}{2}$ of per cent. The 63 of 1881 are selling at the close at 105%. The 7-30 Treasury notes were firm early in the	plaster to E A Souder & Co. Schr Mail, Kelly, 5 days from Providence, with mase to Crowell & Collins	I cano Smith, Easton, Pa Uriah Long, Lehigh co, Pa T E Kaufman, Allentown MOUNT VERNON HOTEL—Second st., ab. Arch.	myl4mwl·1m ALFRED S. GILLE OFFICE OF THE NESQ VALLEY R. R. Co.—PHILADELI 1862.—The stockholders of this Company thee that the third instalment of FIVE D
may at 105 %, but chee with sales at 105 %. Money is easy at 4 4 5 per cent, on call. The banks and large money of extensishments flug difficulty in keep- ing their means analoged, even at these low figures.	Schr Annie Virden, Chambers, I day from Lewes, Del, with coin to Jas L Bewley & Co, Schr Am ie Gibbon, Bussell, I day from Salem, NJ, with oats to Jus L bewley & Co, Sch Vandalsa, Cooper, I day from Smyrna, Del, with	8 W Brodhead, Del W Gap L Brodhead 8 Furguson, Hopewell A P Gropper, Mil Geo Harding, Luzerne co Solomon Berger, Penna Geo F Smith, Bucks co	payable at the Office of the Company on t
Philadelphia Stock Exchange Sales, May 13. [Reported by S. E. SLAYMAKER, Phila, Exchange.] FIRST BOARD. 100 Resping R. 15. 912 (2000 Physics P. 7s. et al.)	Sch Vandelse, Cooper, I day from Smyrna, Del, with corn to Jes L Bewley & Co. Schr Charles Atkinson, Atkins, 1 day from Milton, Del, with corn to Jas L Bewley & Co.	SPECIAL NOTICES.	TE Should prepare themselves for the
70 N Paris 1: 83 195 do 193	CLEARED. Schr S Buck, Bagler, Melton, Mass, Noble, Caldwell & Co.	DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS—Ex- hausted Nature's Great Restorer. They invigorate,	they are best adapted, and which will c to their intellectual and moral improved NOLOGY is applied for this, and other at 922 CHESTNUT Street, by JOHN L
209 do. 55. 8% 50 do. 20 20 20 20 20 20 20 20 20 20 20 20 20	Schr Thos H Seymour, Kolly, Boston, do Schr Elizabeth English, English, New Orleans, Tyler, Sione & Co. Schr Horizon, Jaryis, Hatterss Inlet, do	strengthen, and purify the system, Cure Dyspensia, Acidity of the Stomach, Diarrinos, &c. A perfect ap- petizer and tonic. They invigorate the body, without stimulating the brain. They are compounded of pure	CORN EXCHANGE BANK, PHIA, May 6, 1862.—The Direction
5500 do. new 103 1000 U S 6s Coup 181. 1952; 250 Ontaw R prf. b5. 82 24 Bk N Liberties. 60	Schr Ocean Waye, Baker, Ship Point, A G Cattoll & Co. Str J S Shriver, Depuis, Baltimore, A Groves, Jr. Str Beverly, Pierce, New York, W P Clyde.	stimulating the brain. They are compounded of pure St. Croix Rum, Roots, and Herbs, and are recom- mended by all who use them. Adapted to old or young, but particularly recommended to the weak and	per cent., payable on demand. my 8-6t J. W. TO
5 do. 9 41 Penna R. 47 8000 Reading 6: *86. *52 2000 do	MEMORANDA. Ship Ratier, Almy, cleared at New York yesterday for Sun Francisco. Hurk Telegraph, Giles, cleared at Boston 12th inst.	languid. Sold by all Grocers, Druggists, Hotels, and Saloons. P. H. DRAKE & CO.	COMMERCIAL BANK OF VANIA, PHILADELPHIA, May f Directors have this day declared a divide PEB CENT., payable on and after FRID
1000 do 92 % 8000 N Penna 6s 79 10 Cam & Amb 11 132 % 995 N Penna R scrip. 73 %	or Priladelphia. Park Harriet Fisk, Fisk, for Falmouth in 4 days, was at Sagua 4th inst. Bill Francis, King, honce, was waiting at Matanzas	DEAF MADE TO HEAR.—INSTRUMENTS to assist the hearing in every variety, and of the most	clear of State tax. my7 16t S. C. PALM GIRARD HANK, PHIL MAY 13, 1882 — The Directors hav
3000 Phil & Frie 6s., 92 1000 Penna 6s., 90 16 Spr & Pine R., 12½ 10 Gr & Coates-st R 25½ 40 Harrisburg R., 55½ 400 City 6s new, 103	Schr B Watson, Willeby, for New York, sailed from	approved construction, at P. MADEIRA'S, 115 South Tenth street, below Chostnut. my13-3t*	bolders on and after the 16th inst, free of my14 7t W. L. SCHAFF
40 Harrisburg R 55½ 400 City 6s new 103 1000 Reading 6s 70 92% 43 Gr & Coatus R 25½ 50 N Penna R 65½ 1000 Schuy Nav pri 15½ SECOND BOARD.	Schr H W Godfrey, Weeks, hence, arrived at Boston 12 h it st. Schr Fifield Matthews, Fox, for Philadelphia sailed from Newport 10th inst.	ONE-PRICE CLOTHING, OF THE LATEST STYLES, made in the Best Manner, expressly for RE- TAIL SALES. LOWEST Solling Prices marked in	MIDDLE COAL FIELD BAL

Our ONE-PRIOR SYSTEM is strictly ad-

Plain Figures. All Goods made to Order warranted

se22-ly JONES & CO., 604 MARKET Street. CARD PRINTING, BEST AND CHEAPEST

CIRCULAR PRINTING, best and cheapest in the

from Newport 10th inst.

Science T Benedict. Goldemith, Hickman, Dickerson, Vy 1s, Sumera, and Altred Banting, Dunham, sailed from Second tith inst. for Panadolphia.

Set r Ution, Libby, hence, arrived at Postsmouth 9th hered to. All are thereby treated slike.

```
Its iron si tes collapsed, you see,
And such rebellion's fate will be;
  You thought it powerful, but we Now, for the traiter chiefs prepare
   Such wreaths as rebels ought to wear :
   The hempen wreath for all who dare
                                   Our liberties to mar;
   Hemp for the traitors; but for the
   Who are not ranked with Freedom's foes, Superior raiment BENNETT shows.
   stock of ready-made Spring Clothing is the largest est varied in Philadelphia, and being daily in re f all desirable new styles, we are thus enabled, al
  h our sales are rapid and extensive, to keep on ment full and fresh. We have all styles and quali goods, from low and medium-priced to the finest one will find Clothing suited to his taste, position cans, among our stock. We have also a full an assortment of piece goods, which will be made up er in the best manner, for those who prefer, buy and sell for cash only; therefore, at the WER HALL, No. 518 MARKET St., Philadelphia.
 MARRIED.

EQUER-CEKINGABY.—On the 12th inst., by Richardson Graham, Mr. Wm. Chequer to Mrs.

Cekingaby.
 DIED.
ATHEWS.—On Monday, May 12, Rachel, wife of a Mathews, aged 52 years.
It friends and relatives are respectfully invited to d the funeral, from the residence of her husband, 108 North Seventh street, on Thursday morning, 15, at 7 o'clock. Funeral to proceed to Southerny.
   ylestown papers please copy. ]
HARDS.—On Sunday, the 11th inst, at his resi-in Reading, Pa., the Hon. M. S. Bichards, in the ear of his age.
W1B.—On Monday, May 12, Sidney, infant son of 1 M. Lewis.

RRISON.—At Camp of Fourth Regiment, P. R., Falmouth, Virginia, on Saturday, May 10th, am Morrison, aged 35 years, son of Archibald and Morrison.

e friends and relatives of the family, Solomon's e, No. 114, A. Y. M., Fourth of July Lodge, No. 144, of O. F., Southwark Hose Company, Cooper Shop shment Committee, Southwark Hone Gnards, and Iasonic and Odd Fellows' fraternities generally, are cifully invited to attend the funeral, from the resident in the father, No. 838 South Third street, at 3 ck, this (Wednesday) afternoon. To proceed to Phiolic Cemetery.
   hia Cemetery.

GINS.—On the 12th inst., Daniel Figgins, aged relatives and friends are respectfully invited to his funeral, from his late residence, No. 2228
   ywine street, on Thursday, 15th inst., at 4 o'click NAGHAN.—On the morning, of the 12th inst., a S. Galton, wife of James J. Monaghan, in the 21st t her age.
relatives and friends, and those of the family, are fully invited to attend her funeral, from the resiof her husband, No 609 Fitzwater street, this dnesday) afternoon the 14th Inst., at 1 o'clock, withfurther notice. Funoral services at St. Paul's ch. Interment at Cathedral Cennetery. *
ILEY.—Suddenly, on Saturday, the 9th inst, John Viley, in the 51st year of his age.
He relatives and friends of the family, also Shekinah ie, No. 246. A. Y. M., Chosen Friends Lodge, No. I. O. of O. F., and School Directors of the Sixteenth on, are respectfully invited to attend the funeral, his late residence, No. 378 North Front street, bulaurel, this (Wednesday.) 14th inst, at 2 o'clock ices in the Second Baptist Church, Newmarket t, above Poplar. Interment at Odd Fellows' Cemeesday) afternoon, the 14th inst., at 1 o'clock, wi BDLE .- On the 10th inst., Mrs. Elizabeth S., wife agec 35 years.

relatives and friends are respectfully invited to the funeral, from the residence of her husband orth Tenth street, this (Wednesday) morning, a
   COND MOURNING POPLINS
 VALENDIAS, AND GINGHAMS.—BESSON & invite attention to their New Stock of—cond Mourning Ginghams, 15 to 25 cents.

ond Mourning Silk and Wool Poplins, 62½ to 75.

ond Mourning Silk and Wool Valencias, 75 cts, cki and White finest French Jaconets, 25 cts, while Black finest French Jaconets, 25 cts.

wing Black Challics 44 cts.
  in's Black Challies, 44 ets.
pin's Black Barege, 7-4 wide, 62% ets.
pin's Black Crape Maretz, 25 ets.
pin's Black Tamartines, 25 ets.
G. MAAWELLIA & SUN, 1 ELEVENTH and CHESTNUT, have now open, he lowest cash prices in the market, magnificent of a great variety of new Spring Goods, of their late importation and manufacture, as well as of ful selections from New York importations. Their and imitation Thread and Guipure Laces, Fancy ones, No. 5 Trimming Ribbons, Paris Grnamments for he and Presses, French Bugle Trimmings, Silk Belt-Silk Gimps, Thomson Freres' Paris Trail Skirts, of Silk, new colors, at 2 cents per spool, Fresh Split Single Zephyr, for summer koltting, Paris Wedy stet. Travelling Fans, and Magic Ruffles, are all Sitt, new colors, at z comes her spool, r reas Spain ingle Zophyr, for summer knitting, Paris Worly e, Travelling Fans, and Magic Ruffles, are all it to the ladies as goods of the most reliable make, lapted to the requirements of close, discriminating ousual liberal allowance to cash buyers,
J. G. MAXWELL & SON,
and Factory, ELEVENTH and OHESTNUT.
AID FOR THE WOUNDED.—A DE-PUTATION OF THE YOUNG MEN'S RISTIAN ASSOCIATION of Philadelphia will leave DAY, (Wednesday.) for the purpose of visiting the se of the latest battles, under the authority of the ernment, to administer aid and sympathy to the sick wounded. Those who desire to aid the work of the utation by contributions of articles of necessity, or ns for their purchase, can have them faithfully ap-
by sending to the Rooms of the Association, ESTNUT Street, above Tonth, before 10 o'clock P. M.
GEORGE H. CTUART, President.
 THE REV. DR. GREGG HAS ARBIVED.—The Committee regret exceedingly circumstances compelled them to postpone the Lesing the Unite unknown to them? the Doctor had aring the city, propared to carry out his engagement. Lecture will come off, without fail, on WEDNES-EYENING next, the 14th instant, at 8 o'clock ets already issued good for WEDNESDAY EVE. G, in the ACADEMY OF MUSIC. my13-2t*
 I. Q. O. F.—FOURTH OF JULY LODGE, No. 144, and the Order in general, are ctfully invited to meet at the HALL, THIRD and MAN Streets, this afternoon, at 3 o'clock, to attend uneral of our late brother, WM. MORRISO S.

JOHN GRAY, Sec'y.
   MASONIC NOTICE.—THE OFFICERS and members of SOLOMON'S LODGE, No. 114, 16 Order generally, are invited to meet at the Hall STNUT Street, this afternoon, at 3 o'clock, to attend iperal of our late brother, WM. MORRISON.
order of the W. M.
 PERSONS IN FAVOR OF EMIGRA-TION to the REPUBLIC OF MEXICO and g an interest in her welfare, and who will stand by senipst all MONARCHIGAL DESPOTS, and EU-
EAN INFLUENCE Address, "Libery," 338
I TWELFTH Street, Philadelphia.
    NOTICE-SHOE FINDERS-WE, THE undersigned, howby agree to close our place of ess, from 10th day of MAY to let day of SEP-BER, at 5 P. M. ard on SATUBDAYS, at 3 P. M. WILLIAM JOHNS & SON, ISAAO BARTON & CO, LAING & MAGINNIS, EDWIN W. PAYNE & OO., JOSEPH GODFREY & CO.
   REPUBLICAN GENERAL COMMITTEE OF SUPERINTENDENOE.—The mentithe Committee will meet at SHINN'S HOTEL, D and OHESTNUT Streets, on THURSDAY CHNOON, May 15, 1862, at 4 o'clock, for organi-E4 F. REES BORN, GEO H. MOORE,
ARD SIMPSON, JAMES DICK,
HEMPLE, SAML FLEMING,
MAN W. MAYHEW.
   E PEOPLE OF PENNSYLVANIA, who desire AINING THE NATIONAL ADMINISTRATION
     atriotic efforts to suppress a sectional and unholy UNITY OF THE REPUBLIC,
   no desire to support, by every power of the Go-ent, our hundred thousand heroic brethren in arms, g disease and the perils of the field to preserve the
of our fathers, are requested to select the number RCATES equal to the Legislative Represent State, at such times and in such manner as will espond to the spirit of this call, to meet in STATE CONVENTION, HARRISBURG,
  THURSDAY, the 17th day of July next, at 11
    on said day, to NOMINATE CANDIDATES
  AUDITOR GENERAL
   take such measures as may be deemed necessary
   ngthen the Government in this season of ce
      a common country.
   N. W. HAMMERSLY, Secretaries.
  OFFICE GIRARD FIRE AND MA-RINE INSUBANCE COMPANY, 415 WAL-
St., PHILABLEHIA, May 12, 1862.—The Directors this day declared a semi-annual DIVIDEND of and a half per cont., payable to the stockholders of burgany, on and after the 18th instant.
     mwf.lm ALFRED S. GILLETT, Treasurer.
     OFFICE OF THE NESQUEHONING VALLEY R. R. Co-PHILADELPHIA, May 10, TALLEY K. R. CO.—PHILADELPHIA, May 10,—The stockholders of this Company are hereby no-that the third instalment of FIVE DOLLARS PER AE is called in, by order of the Board of Directors, le at the Office of the Company on the 26th inst.
10-tf JAMES S. COX, Treasurer.
    Young men out of employment should prepare themselves for the sphere to which are best adapted, and which will contribute most intellectual and moral improvement. PHRE-GY is applied for this, and other purposes daily, CHESTNUT Street, by JOHN L. OAPEN, sucto Fowler, Wells, & Co. ap25-1m CORNEXCHANGE BANK, PHILADEL-PHIA, May 6, 1862.—The Directors have this clared a cividend of THREE AND A HALF at, payable on demand.

1. W. TORREY, Cosh.
```

```
The regues to bar his way.
                                                                                                      WATCHES AND JEWELRY.
                                                                                             WE HAVE JUST RECEIVED
                                   In atoms be dispersed:
                                                                                                             A SPLENDID ASSORTMENT
                                   Were certain it would burst.
                                                                                                                AMERICAN,
                                                                                                        ENGLISH, AND SWISS
                                                                                                   WATCHES,
                                  AT TOWER HALL BAZAAR
                                                                                                     LEWIS LADOMUS & CO.,
                                                                                                               802 CHESTNUT STREET.
                                                                                                 Also, a large assortment of ONYX JEWELBY.
                                                                                           REMOVAL.
                                                                                                        J. C. FULLER
g Removed from No. 42 South THIRD Street to BENNETT & C).
                                                                                            No. 712 CHESTNUT Street, 2nd Floor, (Onnosite Musonic Temple.)
                                                                                                      Now offers a Large and Desirable Stock of GOLD AND SILVER WATCHES.
                                                                                               ROGERS & BROTHERS' SPOONS AND FURKS, FINE JEWELRY,
                                                                                                  To which the attention of the trade is invited.
                                                                                           "AMERICAN WATCH COM-
                                                                                                                   GOLD AND SILVER
                                                                                                    WATCHES,
                                                                                                        FOR LADIES AND GENTLEMEN.
                                                                                           COMPANY'S SALESROOM.
                                                                                                   No. 712 CHESTNUT Street, Second Floor,
                                                                                                                (opposite Masonic Temple.)
                                                                                                                   I. B. MARTER, Agent.
                                                                                             TULCANITE RUBBER JEWELRY
                                                                                                                      A beautiful line of
                                                                                           GENTLEMEN'S VEST CHAINS, LADIES' CHATALAINE CHAINS, THIMBLES, CROSSES, STULS, BUTTONS, &c.,
                                                                                                            J. C. FULLER,
                                                                                                   No. 712 CHESTNUT Street, Second Floor,
                                                                                                       AMERICAN, ENGLISH,
                                                                                             AND
SWISS WATCHES,
JEWELRY, AND SILVERWARE,
AT REDUCED PRICES.
JOS. H. WATSON,
ap25-1m 326 CHESTNUT STREET.
                                                                                                                      FINANCIAL.
                                                                                              A MERICAN GOLD WANTED,
                                                                                                                         At high prices.
                                                                                                   ONE-YEAR CERTIFICATES FOR SALE.
                                                                                               SEVEN-AND-THREE-TENTHS AND COUPON
                                                                                                                    BONDS FOR SALE.
                                                                                                                 DREXEL & Co..
                                                                                                                                  34 South THIBD Street.
                                                                                               INITED STATES
                                                                                                     ONE-YEAR LOAN FOR SALE.
                                                                                              COUPON BONDS AND 7 8.10 NOTES
                                                                       myl4-tf
                                                                                                                   BOUGHT AND SOLD.
                         MAXWELL & SON
                                                                                                    QUARTERMASTERS' RECEIPTS
                                                                                                CASHED, COLLECTED, OR EXCHANGED.
                                                                                                          DREXEL & Co.,
                                                                                                   34 SOUTH THIRD STREET.
                                                                                                        INSURANCE COMPANIES.
                                                                                            GIRARD FIRE AND MARINE INSURANCE COMPANY.
                                                                                             office 415 walnut street, Philadelphia.
                                                                                              The public can rely upon its responsibility, and ability to pay losses promptly. Its disbursements for the enefit of the public, during the last nine years, a xcoed $500,000,
                                                                                             and we respectfully solicit its favor in the future.
                                                                                            CHAS. I. DUPONT,
                                                                                          JOHN W. CLAGHORN, JOHN THORNLEY
                                                                                           O. F. HEAZLITT,
                                                                                                                                     ABBAHAM HART,
                                                                                           DAVID BOYD, Jr.,
                                                                                                                                     PETERS. HOE, of N. Y
                                                                                           WM. M. SWAIN,
                                                                                                                                     FURMAN SHEPPARD
                                                                                           JOSEPH KLAPP, M. D. N. S. LAWBENCE,
                                                                                           WM. C. BUDMAN,
                                                                                                                              JOHN SUPPLEE.
                                                                                                                         THOMAS CRAVEN, President.
                                                                                                                         A. S. GILLETT, Vice President
                                                 JOHN GRAY, Sec'y.
                                                                                              JAS. B. ALVORD, Socretary.
                                                                                             DAME INSURANCE COMPNY,
                                                                                           TAME INSUKANCE COMPNY
No. 406 CHESTNUT Street.

FIRE AND INLAND INSURANCE.

DIBECTORS.

F. N. Buck,
Chas. Richardson,
Honry Lewis, Jr.,
Alox. Whildin,
Geo. A. West,
O. W. Davis,
FRANCIS N. BUCK, President
CHARLES RICHARDSON, Vice President
WILLIAMS I. BLANCHARD, Secretary.

MILLIAMS I. BLANCHARD, Secretary.

MILLIAMS I. BLANCHARD, Secretary.

MILLIAMS I. BLANCHARD, Secretary.

MILLIAMS I. BLANCHARD, Secretary.
                                                                                           COMMONWEALTH FIRE INSU-PENNSYLVANIA.
                                                                                                                         DIRECTORS.
                                                                                              David Jayne, M. D.,
John M. Whitall,
Edward C. Knight,
Thomas S. Stewart,
                                                                                                              Whitall, Stewart, Bobert Shoemaker, William Struthors, Elijah Jones.
DAVID JAYNE, M D., President.
JOHN M WHITALL, Vice President.
                                                                                             BAMUEL S. MOON, Secretary.
Commonwealth Building, 613 CHESTNOT set-If if PEOPLE'S STATE CONVENTION.
                                                                                           Street, Philadelphia.
                                                                                             POHLEN'S WEESP ANCHOR
                                                                                           GIN. 300 pipes Bohlen's Weess Anchor Cie, new landing at Lombard-street wharf, from on board Dutch schooner Pauline & Cornells, from Rotterdam, and for sale by the sole importers.

HENRY BOILLEN & CO.,

myl4:6t 221 and 223 South FOURTH Street.
                                                                                           DISSOLUTION OF PARTNER-
                                                                                           SHIP.—Notice is hereby given that the firm of CHARLES E. SMITH & CO., at the Fairmount Iron Works, has been dissolved by minimal consent. The business will be settled and closed by May 10, 1862. CHARLES E. SMITH.
                                                                                           The business will be continued by the undersigned under the firm of MORRIS, TASKER, & CO. Office No. 209 South THIRD Street.

my13-1m MORRIS, TASKER, & CO.
                                                                                           DENTAL PRACTICE.—The Practice of a Dentist that has been actively engaged in business, in a central part of the city for the past eight years, will be disposed of upon reasonable terms. Address "Dental Practice," Philadelphia Post Office. my14-3t*
                                           SURVEYOR GENERAL,
                                                                                           OLIVE OIL.—A fresh lot of Olive Oil, in large and small bottles, for sale, to strive ber ship Ocean Shipner, by OHAS. S. CABSTAIRS, my14 No. 126 WALNUT St. and 21 GRANITE St.
                                                A. K. McCLURE.
                                                                                           CHAMPAGNE—An invoice for sale, to arrive per ship Wm. Frothingham, by CHAS. S. CARSTAIRS, myl4 No 126 WALNUT St. and 21 GRANITE St.
                     Chairman of the People's State Committee.
                                                                                          DELICIOUS HOT AND COLD BATHS may always be had at the famous Hair-Dyeing Salcon, FOURTH and BRANCH my14if-tt
                                                                                         ARMY CLOTHING AND EQUI-
ARMY CLOTHING AND EQUI-
PAGE OFFICE.

PHILADRIPHIA, May 12, 1862.

NOTICE is hereby given to those concerned that all goods, of every description, which have been delivered at the Schuylkill arsensl, and which have been rejected on inspection or reinspection, and of which notice to the owners has been long since given from this office, are required to be taken away on or before the 17th instent, in default of which they will be removed and stored at the expense of the owners, as the space they now occupy is much needed for public supplies

G. H. CROSMAN,

Deputy Quariermaster General.
                                                                                       stant, in default of which they will be removed and stored at the expense of the owners, as the space they now occupy is much needed for public supplies

G. H. CROSMAN,

m) 13-i17

Deputy Quariermaster General.

JAMES HOMER & SON'S CHOICE

new crop Teas. SEVENTH and NOBLE Streets, and SIXTH and WOOD Streets.

my9-1m*

150

BARRELS CARBON OIL FOR to the trade, in small lots, at 415 COMMERCE Street.

mr13-6t*

LATOUR OLIVE OIL.—468 baskets

LATOUR OLIVE OIL, just received, and for sale by JAURETCHE & LAYERGNE, 202 and 204 South FRONT Street.

QAUTION.—Having goen a spurious article of Oil branded "J. Lulour," we caution the public against the street of the college of the public dates.

TALE DVEING AND SHAMPOO.

TALE DVEING AND SHAMPOO.
   COMMERCIAL BANK OF PENNSYL-YANIA, PHILIADELPHIA, May 6th, 1862.—The Directors have thin day declared a dividend of THRES
PEE CENT., payable on and after FRIDAY, 16th inst., clear of State tax.

my 7 16t

S. C. PALMEE, Cashler.
   my716t

S. C. PALMEB, Cashler.

GIRARD HANK, PHILADELPHIA,
Whend of FOUR PER CENT., payable to the Stockholders on and after the 16th inst, free of State Tax.
my147t

W. L. SCHAFFER, Cashler.

"OFFICE OF THE NEW YORK AND MIDLE COAL FIELD BAILIGAD AND COAL COMPANY."—A special meeting of the Stockholders of the Company will be held on FUESDAY, the 27th instant, at 11 o'clock A. M., on business of great importance.
                                                                                          QAUTION.—Having seen a spurious article of Oil branded "J. Latour," we caution the public against purchasing the same, as the genuine J. Latour Oil can be procured only from us.

JAREUTOHE & LAVERGNE, myll; tf 202 and 204 South FRONT Street.
                                                                                           TAMES HOMER & SON HAVE A Splendid assortment of fine Groceries, cheap. SE-VENTH and NOBLE Streets, and SIXTH and WOOD Streets. mys.1m* Tith instant, 8111 Output Ar. In., 1919 of the Board of Directors.

By order of the Board of Directors.

JOHN BINGHAM, President.

Litesi, HENRY ROBINSON, Secretary. my12-(27)

MECHANICS' BANK, PHILADEL-
THIA, MAY 6, 1862.—The Board of Directors of this bank have this day declared a dividend of FOUR PER CENT., payable on and after the 18th instant, agreeably to the provisions of charter.

my7-94

J. WIRGAND, JE., Cashier
                                                                                            CLAM SOUP SERVED UP DAILY
```

```
NEW PUBLICATIONS.
                                                                                           RETAIL DRY GOODS
OFFICE PENNSYLVANIA RAIL-BOAD COMPANY.
The BOAD OGMPANY,
PHILADELPHIA, April 16, 1862.
The BOAED OF DIRECTORS have this day declared a semi-annual Dividend of FOUR FER OENT. on the Capital Stock of the Gempany, clear of State tax, payable on and after May 16th, 1862.
Powers of Attorney for collection of Dividends can be had on application, at the office of the company, No. 238 South THIRD Street.

THOS. T. FIRTH, apl7 typel GREAT OPENING.
                                                                                                                                                                                               THE NEW BOOKS.
                                                                                     SUMMER DRESS GOODS.
                                                                                                                                                                      ABTEMUS WARD, HIS BOOK.
                                                                                                                                                        All the rich things that have ever been written by the renowned humorist "Artenus Ward," collected in one handsome volume, with numerous comic illustrations by prominent artists. Price $1.
                                                                                THOS. W. EVANS & Co.
                                                                                              WILL OPEN, MAY 14TH,
                                                                                                                                                            WHY PAUL FERROLL KILLED HIS WIFE.
                                                                                                                                                         "Paul Ferroll," which was published several years ago, created a sensation of no uncommon character, and this exciting new novel, by the same powerful author, will be eagerls sought for. Price $1 in cloth, and 50
                                                                              line of Summer Dress Goods not before exhibited comprising many of the most desirable styles of the season, which they will sell at very low prices. Among cents in paper.
                                                                            PLAID ORGANZINES, at 187 cents
                                                                                                                                                                              LES MIERABLES.
                                                                                     per vard.
                                                                                                                                                        Victor Hugo's superb novel, just out in Parls—his masterpiece. Pronounced in Europe "the Literary Event of this Century." A careful American translation will be out in a few days. Cloth and paper binding.
                                                                              PLAID MOZAMBIQUE, at 18; cents
                                                                            SOLID CHECK MOZAMBIQUE, at 25
                                                                                                                                                         These books are sold by all booksellers, and will be sent by mail free, on receipt of price, by

CARLETON, Publisher, cents per yard.
                                                                            CHENE CHECK MOZAMBIQUE, at (Late BUDD & CARLETON.)
                                                                                    25 cents per yard.
                                                                                                                                                         No. 413 PROADWAY, corner Liepenard street, N. Y. my14 we-tf)
                                                                             BROCHE CHECK MOZAMBIQUE, at 25 cents per yard.
                                                                                                                                                         NEW BOOKS!! NEW BOOKS!!
                                                                                                                                                          THE PEABL OF ORB'S ISLAND. A story of the Coast of Maine. By Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe; outhor of "Uncle Tem's Cabin," &c. 12mo. $1.25.
                                                                              Nos. 818 and 820 CHESTNUT STREET.
                                                                               my14-3t
                                                                                                                                                           AGNES OF SORBENTO. By the same author.
                                                                                      M. NEEDLES, (2mo. $1.25.
THE PARABLE OF THE TEN VIRGINS. In six
                                                                                                                                                        directures, and a sermon on the Judgeship of the Saints. By Bey. Joseph A. Seiss, D. D., author of the "Last Lines," &c., &c. I. tmo. 75 cents.

STELLA; or, The Pathway Heavenward. Hinstated, 16mo, 25 cents.
"MOTHER'S LAST WORDS," and "OUR FATHER'S CARE." Bullads for boys and girls. By Mrs. Sewell 18mo, 30 cents.
                                                                                           1094 CHESTNUT STREET,
                                                                             Has just opened a choice invoice of wide
REAL LACE AND POINTE APPLIQUE BARBES.
at 25 per cent. below regular rates.
                                                                                Also,
BEAL GUIPURE LACES AND EDGINGS, myl4-tt
                                                                                                                                                          Sewell 18mo, 30 cents. PAPA'S LITTLE SOLDIERS. By C. E. K. 18mo.
                                                                                 MODE GRENADINE VEILS.
                                                                                                                                                         For gale by
WILLIAM S. & ALFRED MARTIEN,
606 CHESTNUT Street.
                                                                                         FRENCH PUFFED CAMBRIC.
                                                                              A further supply of the above scarce and desirable
                                                                                         E. M. NEEDLES
                                                                                                                                                                            PHOTOGRAPHS.
                                                                                                   No. 1024 CHESTNUT STREET.
                                                                               my14.3t
                                                                              NEAT LAWNS, OF FINE QUA-TOHOTOGRAPH ALBUMS, Imported from Paris, Berlin, and Vienna, latest styles and improvements, wholesale and retail. SCHOLZ & JANENTEKY, 112 South EIGHTH Street. my9-1m Select Colors Plain Silks.
Fine Flam Good Silks.
Shawls of Plain Styles.
Dress Goods, neat d-sign
                                                                                                                                                                     FOR SALE AND TO LET.
                                                                                                          EYRE & LANDELL.
FOURTH and AROH Streets.
                                                                                                                                                        FOR SALE—A VALUABLE
                                                                             ORGANDIES FROM AUCTION,
                                                                                                                                                         BUILDING LOT, IN BRIDESBURG, 60 feet by 200 feet. Variety of Fruit Trees on the property. Terms - $400 cash; balance ($1,100) cun iemain for 5 $ years. Apply to W. II. FLITCRAFT, m; 13-34* 510 MINOB Street, Philadelphia.
                                                                                          French Organdies, 18% conts.
French Organdies, 25 cents.
                                                                                          French Organdies, 25 cents.
French Organdies, 31 % cents.
French Organdies, 37 % cents.
                                                                                                                                                       FOR SALE OR TO RENT—A situated on TWENTY-SECOND Street, below Vine. The building is thirty-four feet front, with three ovens and machinery complete for making cakes and cracket s, trying-room, water and gas introduced, &c., &c. The lot is one hundred and forty-six feet deep to a back street, upon which there is a two-story brick Stable, fitted up for six horses; also, a large Wagon-shed adjusting. The whole will be sold a great bargain, and upon easy terms. Apply to JOHN H. DAVIES, No. 537 North EIGHTH Street, Handel and Haydn Hall.

Ny13-21*
                                                                                                                                                              FOR SALE OR TO RENT-A
                                                                              my14_tf
                                                                           ZOU-ZOUS OF THE PRESENT
ZOU-ZOUS OF Light Cloth.
ZOU-ZOUS OF Black Silk.
ZOU-ZOUS OF Plack Silk.
ZOU-ZOUS OF Plack Cloths.
Cloths and Silks to make them.
EYRE & LANDELL,
my14-tf FGURTH and ARCH Streets.
                                                                              WIDE BLACK GRO-GRAIN SILKS
FOR MANTLES.
4-4 Good Black Silks.
                                                                                                                                                         STEAMBOAT FOR SALE.--
                                                                                                                                                       Stamboat "QUASSAICK," length 150 feet, 22 feet beam, and 7 % feet hold, 175 tons. Beam ongine 26 inch cylinder by 6 feet stroke. STEAM ENGINES AND BOILERS, new and second hand, for sale. Apply to

C. W. COPRLAND, my12-mwf.3t

122 BROADWAY, New York.
                                                                                           4-4 Good Direct Class.

Black Silks, all grades.

EYRE & LANDELL.

FOURTH and ARCH Streets.
                                                                             ORGANDIES AND LAWNS, JUST OPENED.
Dark Ground Lawns.
Dark Organdy Lawns.
100 pieces fast-colored Lawns, 12% cts.
EYRE & LANDELL,
my14-tf FOURTH and ARCH Streets.
                                                                                                                                                       ELEGANT GERMANTOWN RE-SIDENCE TO LET.—The commodious mansion, with large lot, stable, and coach-house and garden, on ARMAT Street, (Linden Place,) within three minutes' walk of Church-lane Station. This property is beautifully situated, well shaded, and is replete with conveniences—gas, bath, and water closet, &c. A desirable winter and suppmer radidance. Apply to E. & L.,
                                                                                                                                                         winter and summer residence. Apply to
W. P. WIUSTACH,
my7 wfm6tif*
No. 38 North THIRD Street,
                                                                                                                                                        TO LET—A furnished Residence, FOURTH AND ARCH,
                                                                                                                                                                near Germantown, with lawn, fine shade, and
ng. Apply JOS. B. BARRY, 12-5t* 430 WALNUT street.
                                                                                                                                                        FOR SALE OR TO LET, LOW.
                                                                                               OFFER FOR SALE,
                                                                                                                                                         A desirable HOUSE and Stabling, Carriage House, &c., situated in MEDIA, Delaware county, within three minutes' walk of Earl street and of Chemnut Grove Board-NEAT PLAID SILKS,
                                                                                                                                                          ng House. Apply at 220 MARKET St., Philad
The property is very desirable. my SHEPHERD'S PLAID SILKS,
                                                                                                                                                        BILLIARD TABLE—FOR SALE
                                                                                                                                                         D very cheap; quite equal to new; to be sold on account of the Owner going to Europe. Address Box 1594, Post Office, giving address. my12-3t*
                                                                                 PLAIN COL'D POULT DE SOIES.
                                                                                 LEATHER COL'D MOHAIR,
                                                                                                                                                        TO LET -A Pleasant Country House
                                                                                 LAVA COL'D DELAINES, MILITARY GOODS.
                                                                                 TOURISTS' DRESS GOODS.
                                                                                                                                                         ARMY GOODS
                                                                                 5-4 SHEPHERD'S PLAIDS, NEW,
                                                                                                                                                                                      ON HAND
                                                                                 CLOTH SACKS, NEW SHAPE,
                                                                                                                                                           DARK AND LIGHT BLUE KERSEYS.
                                                                                                                                                          STANDARD 6.4 AND 3.4 INDIGO WOOL-DYED
                                                                                  CLOTHS FOR MAKING SACKS.
                                                                                                                                                         BLUE FLANNELS.
                                                                               ap30-wsm tf
                                                                                                                                                          INDIGO BLUE MIXTURES.
                                                                             MANTLE ROOM.
                                                                                                                                                           COTTON DUCK, 10, 12, AND 15-OUNCE.
                                                                                                                                                                  FARNHAM, KIRKHAM, & CO.,
                                                                                         SILK SACQUES.
                                                                                                                                                                                       225 CHESTNUT STREET.
                                                                                         SCARF MANTLES.
                                                                                                                                                                                CLOTHING.
                                                                                         SHAWL STYLE.
                                                                                                                                                          NEW DEPARTMENT.
                                                                                         CLOTH SACQUES.
                                                                                 COOPER & CONARD,
                                                                                                                                                                            A SELECT STOCK
                                                                                     S. E. corner NINTH and MARKET Streets
                                                                               VARD-WIDE FRENCH
                                                                              CHINTZES, 18% CTS.—We have just received a small lot of yard-wide French Chintzes, and a small lot of YARD-WIDE FRENCH BRILLIANTES at 18% c.
                                                                                                                                                                 BOYS' CLOTHING.
                                                                             of YARD-WIDE FRENCH BRILLIANTES at 18:
These goods have never been sold less than 31c.
EHEAP LAWNS.

1 lot Brown-ground Lawns at 12½c.
1 lot Black-ground Organdies, 18½c.
1 lot Black-ground Organdies, 18½c.
1 lot French Organdies, 18½c.
1 lot French Jaconet Lawns, 18½c.
1 lot French Cambric Lawns, 18½c.
Fine Cambric Lawns, 18½c.
50 pcs. BROCHE FOPLINS at 14c., cost 20c.
We are cloring out the balance of our
                                                                                                                                                                     GARMENTS MADE TO ORDER.
                                                                                                                                                            COOPER & CONARD,
                                                                                                                                                                    neast corner NINTH and MARKET Streets.
                                                                               We are cloring out the balance of our
STOCK OF FANOY BILKS
                                                                              STOCK OF FANCY SILKS
At extraordinary low prices.
Elack and White Check Silk Poplins at 75c.
Light Cloths for Sacques, all shades.
R. STEEL & SON,
myl3 No. 713 North TENTH Street, above Coates.
                                                                                                                                                         COOKING RANGES, FURNACES, &c.
                                                                                                                                                          Cooking ranges.
                                                                                                                                                         ELEVATED DOUBLE-OVEN COOKING
                                                                              PEMOVAL OF THE RANGE.
                                                                              PARIS MANTILLA EMPORIUM
                                                                                                                                                           This Bange has afforded more satisfaction than any yet effected to the public.
                                                                                        TO 920 CHESTNUT STREET.
                                                                                                                                                            ARNOLD & WILSON,
                                                                               We are now daily opening new styles in WARM AIR FURNACES,
                                                                              FRENCH SACQUES,
                                                                                                                                                         VV Of the most approved and economical pa
SUITED TO ALL CLASSES OF BUILDINGS.
                                                                                                                                                            ARNOLD & WILSON,
                                                                                 PALETOTS,
                                                                                                                                                                                          1010 CHESTNUT Street.
                                                                                       BOURNOUX,
                                                                                                                                                         ENAMELED SLATE MANTELS.
                                                                                              MANTELETS,
                                                                                                                                                                      VERY LOW PRICES.
                                                                                                 SCARF MANTELETS, &c.
                                                                                                                                                             ARNOLD & WILSON,
                                                                                                COMPRISING ALL TER
                                                                                                                                                                                         1010 CHESTNUT Street.
                                                                                 LATEST NOVELTIES
                                                                                                                                                           TOW-DOWN AND COMMON
```

Of our own and the European Capitals, to which we respectfully invite the ATTENTION OF LADIES.

my8-1m

J. W. PROCTOR & CO.

Inens at importers' prices.

—RICHARDSON'S and DUNBAR DICKSON'S celebrated SPIRTING and FRONTING LINENS, received from the manufacturers direct, and guarantied perfect—to which the attention of buyers and the trade generally is respectfully invited.

SHEPPARD, VAN HARLINGEN, & ABRISON,
ap19-rptf 1008 CHESTNUT Street

DRY GOODS JOBBERS.

NEW SPRING AND SUMMER

M. L. HALLOWELL & Co.,

333 MARKET and 27 NORTH FOURTH STS.,

Wholesale Dealers in

SILKS AND FANCY DRY GOODS,

Desirous of selling off their stock of goods, provious to removing to their New Store, in

"JAYNE'S MARBLE BUILDING."

Offer for the remainder of the season, at Wholesale only, their ATTRACTIVE STOCK of recently-purchased

DRESS GOODS,

COST OF IMPORTATION.

LOW PRICES.

A well-selected assortment of other goods in their line, many of which will be sold at a

GREAT SACRIFICE.

HAIR DYEING AND SHAMPOO-

ING done in best style at the Bathing Saloon FOURTH and BRANCH.

my9-iff

CLOTHES-SAVING MACHINE. TIME-SAVING MACHINE.

Halay, Morse, & Boyden's Clothes Wringer sayes inbor, time, and clothes, and is an improvement which will mest certainly be generally adopted. It is self-adjusting, simple, and durable, and is far superior to every other device for the purpose intended. Over five hundred have been sold within the last thirty days in this city. No family should be without one. They are warranted to give perfect satisfaction.

For sale by L. E. SNOW, at the Office of JOY, COM, & CO, northeast corner of FIFTH and CHESTNUT streets. Orders from the Country promptly attended to. my 10-1m

LABOR-SAVING MACHINE.

(Sundays excepted) by JAMES PROSSER, 808
MARKET Street.
Families supplied as usual.
my7-tf

ALL KINDS OF SEWING MA-CHINES REPAIRED. Needles 40 cents per dozen. 217 FINE Street. New Machines for sale or ex-change; warranted.

BIOTINA ROOFING,

At prices generally much under

They will also offer, at

On ARCH Street, above Nineteenth,
Commencing
MONDAY, May 19th.

POSITIVELY FOR ONE WEEK ONLY,
(After which it will proceed on its annual summer tour.)
Admission, 25 cents; children under nine years, 15 cents.

THREE PERFORM ANGES $\(^2\)ACH DAY.

Doors open at 10 \text{ A. M. 2} and 7 \text{ P. M. Recently many rare and valuable additions have been made, the proprietors having expended on this establishment the enormous sum of $105,000. The resources of every clime have been caused to contribute to this UNEQUALLED ZOOLO JIOAL EXHIBITION.

It has been pronounced by the clergy, press and elite of the site of the wire of the world.

It has been pronounced by the clergy, press and elite of the site of the wire of the wire of the wire of the site of the site of the wire of the site of the wire of the site of the wire of the world.

THE LIVING WILD ANIMALS

all occupy new and superb cages, resembling ministure palaces. The ornamental painting on them is the most extraordinary effort of rictorial art and enterprise arch seen in any country. Mone, Davis, a pusal of THE GREAT VAN AM 3URGH, whose name has rung through Europe and America, WILL EATER THE DENS OF TRAINED ANIMALS. whose name has rung through Europe and America, WILL ENTER THE DENS OF TRAINED ANIMALS. WILL ENTER THE DENS OF TRAINED ANIMALS, Also, will appear, THE GREAT WAB ELEPHANT HANNIBAL.

B. F. THOMAS Keeper.

PERFORMING ELEPHANT TIPPO SAIB, trained and performed by Prof. NASH. Also, Ponicy Mankeys, Mules, &c. Other grand fratures of the one tertainment are the COLOSSAL GOLDEN CHARIOT, containing Otto Horn's Cornet Band; also, the dens, cages, and wagons. These, the most magnificent pieces of workmanship ever constructed, are all new and supper beyond precedent. No descriptive language will appear exaggerated to those who behold them while parsing through the street in a GONGEOUS PROCESSION, on the marbling of MONDAY. May 19th, preceded by 71 HE WORLD BEROWNED VAN AMBURGH, in posson, the original lion and tiger tamer, who appears in all his pristice vigor and excellence of former years, notwithstanding the frequent reports of his being torn to pieces by the animals. See marning papers for route of procession, May 19th.

TNATITITION FOR THE BLIND. INSTITUTION FOR THE BLIND-RACE and TWENTIETH Streets.

Exhibition every WEDNESDAY, commencing at a last past 3 o'clock. Admission, TEN OENTS.

Store, 11 South EIGHTH Street. niy7-w4t REAT WORLD'S FAIR, Commences MONDAY, May 19th, for one week, my12-12t* DENNSYVLANIA ACADEMY OF

WASHINGTON ADVERTISEMENTS

GOVERNMENTSALE OF CONDEMNED ANIMALS.

ON WEDNESDAY MORNING,
May 14th, commencing at 10 o'clock, we shall sell, at the "CORBAL," near the National Observatory—A number of HORSES and MULES, condemned as unit for the Government service.
Terms cash, in Government funds.

J. J. DANA,
Capt. Ass'r. Q. M. U. S. A.
JAS. C. MCGUIEE & CO.,
my10-4t
Auctionsers.

AMUSEMENTS.

AMERICAN ACADEMY OF

MUSIO.

MRS. HENRIETTE BEHRENS'
FIRST ANNUAL CONCERT,
MONDAY EVENING, May 19th, 1832.

The following artistes will appear: Mad'ile OCTAVIE GOMIEN, the young and beautiful

GEORGE SIMPSON, the celebrated Tenor, from

W. York.

Mr. A. R. TA3 LOR, Philadelphia's own favorita Basso.

Mr. CARL WOLFSOHN, the eminent Pianist.

Mr. EDW. MOLLENHAUER, the renowned Violinist.

Mr. CARL ANSCHUT%, the popular Conductor.

Mr. H. G. THUNDER, the celebrated Accompanist.

A GRAND CHURUS of ladies and gentlemen, includated.

ing the

M.ENNERCHOR YOGAL SOCIETY.

Conductors: Mr. Carl Assetutz, Mr. P. Wolsteffer, Mr. S. Bebrens.

The stage will be transformed into an elegant

JARDIN D'HIVERS AMERICAIN.

Full programmes will be really on Thursday.
Tickets, including reserved seats, 50 cents.
Ticket slices open on Thursday, at J. R. Gould's, Seventh and Chestnut, the Continental Hotel, and the Academy.

MORNING CONCERT,
THURSDAY, May 15th, 1802,
At the Foyer of the Academy of Music,
Tickets, One Dellar each, to be had at J. R. GOULD'S and ANDRE'S MUSIC STORES. No tickets will be sold

Doors open at 1; to commence at 2 o'clock. ap14-2t

ABOK-STREET THEATRE,
Acting Stage Manager......W. S. FENDERIOKS.
Srsiness Agent and Treasurer.....JOS. D. MURPHY.
BENESIT OF J. K. MORTIMER
TO.NIGHT, WEDNESDAY, May 14, 1862, SECOND LOVE.

Ralph Thornhill SECOND LOVE.

To be fellowed by the farce of TRYING IT ON.

Welsingham Potts. J. K. Mortimer.

To conclude with the drama of DICK TURPIN AND TOM KING.

WALNUT-STREET THEATRE—
NINTH and WALNUT Streets.
THIS (WEINESDAY) EVENING, May 11, 1862.

A MERICAN ACADEMY OF

as Berths.

Sig. MV210, Musical Director and Conductor.

SATURDAY EVENING, SECOND OPERA NIGHT.

Admission to Parquet, Press Circle, and Balcony, $1.

No extra charge for Boserved Seats. Family Circle, 50 cents; Gallery, 25 cents.

Box Office open to-day from 9 to 4 o'clock. my13.3t

MARK HASSLER'S
GRAND FAREWELL CONCRET,
THURSDAY EVENING, May 22.
Foll particulars will soon be published. my13 tf

INSTITUTION FOR THE BLIND.

T EVENING EXHIBITION THURSDAY, May 15th. For the convenience of those who cannot attend on WELNESDAY AFTERNOON, a fine selection of VOCAL and ORCHESFEAL PIECES

ARCH Street, above Nineteenth For one week, commences May 19th. my 12-12t

TAN AMBURGH & CO.'S MAM-

This instructive and interesting collection of Living Animals, containing every variety known to naturalists, will be exhibited under

AN IMMENSE NEW PAVILION,

the largest tent ever constructed, (containing upwards of 47,600 square feet of cloth, gaily decorated with flags of

On ARCH Street, above Nineteenth,

commence at 8 o'clock

.ny13-2t

A CADEMY OF MUSIC.

Admission TEN CENTS.

GREAT WORLD'S FAIR,

The performance will commence with DIANA, THE LOVELESS.

MRS. FOSTER'S

MRS. JOHN DREW'S

Contralto.
Miss JOSEPHINE O'CONNELL, the young Phila-ipma vocanst. Miss BLACK BURN, from St. Augustine's choir.

AUCTIONEERS.

BY J. C. MoGUIRE & CO.,

THE FINE ARTS. Thirty-ninth Annual Exhlebition of Pointings and Soulpture, 1025 OHESTNUT Street. Open from 9 A. M. till 6 P. M., and from 7 P. M. till 10 P. M. P. M. till 10 P. M.
Admittance 25 cents; Season Tickets 50 cents, Stockholders, Artists, and Contributors will receive heir tiekets at the Academy; no admissions without Open from 9 A. M. till 7 P. M., and from 8 till 10
P. M. ap28 WANTS.

PARLOR GRATES,

FOR HARD OR SOFT COAL.

ARNOLD & WILSON,

PAPER HANGINGS.

HOWELL & BOURKE,

COBNER OF

FOURTH AND MARKET STREETS,

MANUFACTURERS OF

PAPER HANGINGS

No. 610 CHESTNUT STREET.

FOR THE ARMY, FINE SHIRTS.

COLLARS, STOCKS, AND WRAPPERS.

W. W. KNIGHT'S.

NO. 606 ARCH STREET.

TIES, SCARFS, GLOVES, SUSPENDERS,

HOSIERY, AND UNDERCLOTHING,

FINE SHIRT MANUFACTORY.

The subscriber would invite attention to his
IMPROVED OUT OF SHIRTS,

Which he makes a specialty in his business. Also, can stantly receiving FOVELTIES FOR GENTLEMEN'S WEAR.

J. W. SCOTT,
GENTLEMEN'S FURNISHING STORE,
No. 514 CHESTNUT STREET,
169-tr Four deors below the Continents

my9-6t* Apply or address No. 109 ALMOND St.

A RTESIAN WELLS BORED,

FLANNEL OVER-SHIRTS

Manufactured at

A full line of

Always on hand.

Stock to the Finest Decorations.

DHILADELPHIA

1010 CHESTNUT Street.

Hot-air Registers and Ventilators—a large assortment. YOUNG LADY, who speaks Fronch, desires a Situation as GOYERNESS. Is competent to teach the higher English branches, French, at A sudimants of Music. Has no objections to the country or travelling. Address "L. V.," Press Office.
mj 14-wf2t* A LADY WISHES A SITUATION Address "M. H.," Chatham, Pennsylvania. my14-126 PAPER HANGINGS. WANTED-A SITUATION AS GOVERNESS, Music taught. Address Miss J 14, Press office. my18-8t* PARTY WITH A LARGETRADE A and a thorough practical knowledge of a mercantile pursuit, in which there is but little competition, desires a capitalist as Pariper. One with not less than fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) preferred. Address, with real name, at this Office, "Merchant." my13-30* A YOUNG MARRIED MAN wishes a situation in a wholesale establishment, of any kind; would be willing to make himself generally useful. Address R. KENT, 22 North Third Street. my10 AND WINDOW CURTAIN PAPERS, Offer to the Trade a LARGE AND ELEGANT AS. SORTMENT OF GOODS, from the cheapest Brown

For the U. S. MARINES. WANTED—
For the U. S. Marine Corps, for see service aboard of men-of-war, SEVERAL HUNDRED ABLE—BODIED MEN, between the ages of 18 and 35 years.
All information that may be required, will be given at the Rendezvous, 311 South Front street, below Spruce, Philadelphia, my 9-tf Captain and Kecrniting Officer. N. E. COR. FOURTH AND MARKET STREETS. N. B.—Solid Green, Blue, and Buff WINDOW PAPERS WANTED-A House with all the WANTED—A House with all the Modern improvements, having at least six chambers, with fixtures for Stove. Limits, BAOE to WALLACE. EIGHTH to BROAD. Bent not over $300. Box 1717 P O.

GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS. GEORGE GRANT, MANUFACTURER OF AND DEALER IN SAFES. GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS,

LILLIE'S SAFE DEPOT RE-

MOVED to No. 21 South SEVENTH Street, new the Frankin Institute.

The undersigned, thankful for past favors, and being detormined to merit future patronage, has secured an elegant and convenient store, and has now on hand a large assortment of Lillie's Celebrated Wrought and Chilled Iron Fire and Burglar Froof Safes, (the only strictly fire and burglar proof safes made.) Also, Lillie's Bank Vault, Safe, and Bank Locks.

Lillie's Bank Vault Boors and Locks will be furnished to order on short notice. This is the strongest, best protected, and cheapest Door and Lock yet offered.

Also, particular attention is called to Lillie's New Cat inct Safe, for Plate, Jewerry, &c. This Safe is conceded to surpass in style and elegance anything yet effered for this purpose, and is the only one that is strictly fire and burgler proof.

Sprolar Notice.—I have now on hand say twenty of Farrel, Herring, & Co 's Safee, most of them nearly new, and some forty of other makers, comprising a complete assortment as to sizes, and all lately exchanged for the new celebrated Lillie Safe. They will be sold at vory low prices. Please call and examine.

EVANS & WATSON'S

EVANS & WATSON'S STORE,

16 SOUTH FOURTH STREET,

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

A lungs variety of FIRE-PROOF SAFES sivery opband

MONUMENTS AND GRAVE STONES at very reduced prices at Marble Works of A. STEINMETZ, RIDGE Avenue, below Eleventh Street. TRESH BOLL BUTTER, EGGS, &c., I received daily at B. E. GOTTWALE, No. 112 3PRING GARDEN street.