THE PRESS.-PHILADELPHIA, MONDAY, MAY 26, 1862.

Philadelphia-Post, Present, and Future,

To the Editor of The Press ; There is probably no city in the world more completely endowed with the natural elements of independence than this city. While, however, we may justly bonst of advantages, geographical and otherwise, which, with a corresponding degree of enterprise on the part of our citizons, would secure for us an enviable pre-eminence, the fact must not be overlooked that it is the all conquering energies of a people which, after all, give permanent vitality to a community, whether agricultural, manufacturing, mining, or commercial. At one period in our history, for nearly a century,

Philadelphia was regarded throughtout Europe as the commercial centre of this continent. Even as late as fifty years ago our foreign exports averaged $187 for each inhabitant; vessels of the largest tonnage were employed in the European and India trade, and the names of her merchants were known and respected at all the European exchanges How is it now? Why, our foreign exports have dwindled down to less than $14 for each inhabitant; the very name of our city is almost forgotton in Europe, and in some parts of our own country we are but little known, while the name of New York is on every tongue. Many suppose we are too far from the sea for a great shipping port; but the position of Paris on the Seine, Liverpool on the Mersey, London on the Thames, and New Orleans on the Mississippi, proves the contrary. The geographical position of Philadelphia is eminently desirable to the establishing of large commercial interests, and by means of first-class, direct, and rapid steam communication with foreign ports to create here, at tide water, a grand central exchange mart, directly on the natural highway from Europe to the great produce region of our country, and to draw a large portion of those heavy operations with the West, now almost exclusively enjoyed by New York, to this city, which is really the natural centre for the foreign. commerce of the Middle and Western States, and should be their actual contro of business with the seaboard. It lies one hundred miles nearer to them by rail, and possesses many important commercial advantages over any other city on the continent. It is, in fact, the best unoccupied port in the world for a steamship line. A large portion of our manu-factures are consumed in the West, though mostly purchased by Western merchants in New York. where they in turn sell the products of the West, from which it is shipped to all parts of the world. In the meantime, we sit, with arms folded in envious, wondering apathy ; making no proper effort to draw any portion of that immense trade that has made New York what she is, and would make Philadelphia what she should be, if the right means were employed to secure it. But what means are right? We answer : The first step is to establish a commodious, safe, and rapid ocean steamship line. We must extend our great highway across the water; draw the travel this way, and business is sure to follow. Even now, in the absence of steam accommodations, freights naturally incline this way. The great Pennsylvania Railroad, alone, lands thousands of tons daily at our doors; and with the immense accession to business that must follow the completion of the Philadelphia and Eric Railroad, a direct and rapid communication with Europe will be found indispensa-Be it remembered, that the port of Erie is open to lake navigation about six weeks earlier in the spring than Buffelo; consequently, this route to the sea via Philadelphia will be their principal outlet for the best season in the year. Citizens, look ye to it. A line of ocean steamers cannot be built too PILGRIM. scon.

THE SOLDIERS' VOTE -THE CON-THE BODDIERS VOTE — IHE CON-TESTED SEATS.—On Saturday morning, at the open-ing of the Court of Common Pleas, Mr. F. O. Brewster, on behalf of Mr. Stevenson, called the attention of Judges Allison and Luidlow to the contested election case of Sie-venson vs. Lawrence. Mr. Brewster stated that his col-leagne, Mr Constroe, had eent notice to the counsel for Mr. Lawrence that the case would be called up with a view to have an early day fixed for the final disposition of the matter. Mr. Hirst, in reply, said that the case of the Clerk of the Orphanis Court stood in such a position that it was for the court to indicate what disposition was to be made of it. It had stepped at a point where the two judges (Thompson and Ludiow) differed on a question of juris-(Thompson and Androw) undered on a diffetion of Juria-diction. Mr. Hirst, therefore, suggested that Judge Al-lison be invited to sit in disposing of the question before the court. After that motion was disposed of, he would

THE FUNERAL OF MR. JOHN DRAW. The funeral of the late John Drew, the popular come-dian, took place on Saturday afternoon, from the late resi-dence of the deceased, in Eighth street, above Arch. The occasion drew together an immense concourse of peo-ple, many of whom were personal friends of the deceased. The religious services at the bone were conducted by the Rev. Dr. Ducachet. The remains were placed in the late belonging to the Actors' Order of Friendship in Glenwood Cemetery, Mr. Drew having been a member of the order. The secilation joined in paying the tribute of respect to their departed brother The theatrical profession, generally, was largely repra-sented on the melanchely occasion, most of the actors and other attachés of all the theatrical establishments in the city being present. Phocenix Lodge, No. 130, A. Y. M., also took part in the ceremonics. Mr. Drew, before leaving the country on bis European tour, made a will, in which he constituted his wife his sole legates and the guardian of their children. Sho is also the sole executive of the state. The lease of the Arch. stres Theatre was in the name of the deceased, although it was popularly known in the name of Mrs. Drew. MILITARY FUNERAL.—The funeral of Captain Wm. C. Barnard, formorty aid-do-camp of Gen-eral Kearney, who fall at the battie of Williamsburg, took place yesterday afternoon at two o'clock, from the City Hall, Camden, with all the civic and military bonors due his rank. The procession left the Hall and proceeded to the Catholic burying ground at Gloucester. Mr. Bar-nard was a cadet at West Point from the First Congres-s'onal district of New Jersey, and when the reboliton broke out he resigned his position and hastened to Wash-ing on, where, without pay, he volunteered his services in drilling our undisciplicad troops. There he attracted the attention of General Kearney, who immediately placed bim cu his staff, in which capacity he acted ustil he fell in the fight at Williamsburg. The City Gouncil of Caméra have appropriated $200 to assist in giving this young marks to his country all the honors a city can give in rendering suitable sepultare to one of its own brave volunteers. The Gymnast and Ellsworth Zouawes of this city active as a guard of honor upon the occasion. In addition to the civit authorities of Canaden, the lat Regiment of Gray Reserves, Colonet P. O. Ellmak, t, the United States Marines from the Navy Tard, and the life-giment of United States Volunteers succamped at the flace Course at Canden, participated in the observate. The displey was one of the most imposing ever witnessed in Canden. MILITARY FUNERAL .-- The funeral of

The counsel would be entirely satisfied with any arrangement the court would indicate. Judge Allison auggested that the judges who had heard the case in the early stages should now conclude it. The application should, therefore, be handed over to Judges bompson and Luclow. Judge Ludlow said that the last time the case way be-Jugge Ludlow said that the last time the case was be-fore the court, the judges differed in opinion on the ques-tion of jurisdiction; or, rather, what was to be done with the case where there was an equal division of the court on a question of jurisdiction. His own opinion was that the jurisdiction tell, while Judge Thrompson took the opposite view. Judge Ludlow though it very desira-ble that, as the main question had been decided by the Supreme Court, the case should be disposed of at the esrliest possible moment, and the three judges of the court might determine the question pending. He would confer with the president judge Allison, that the court would indicate an early day.

would request of his coll-figue, Judge Allison, that the coort would indicate an early day. This case concluded, hir. Thayer, on behalf of Mr. Thompeon, desired the court to make a similar order in reference to the short if's case. Judge Allison die not think there would be any neces-sity for his attendance in the sheriff's case, unbas re-quested by the other judges. Mr. Thayer, in reply, said that in the case of Thomp-son vs. Eving there had been no difference of opinion in the court.

the court. Judge Ludlow said the case would be disposed of at an

Judge Ludiow said the case would be capased of at an early day. Mr. Hirst thought the sheriff's case was different from that of the Citrk of the Orphane' Court. He had not had time to read the opinion of the Supreme Court, but he understood that a question might be or saised whether or not the vote of the soldiers taken within the State limits was within the ground covered by the doclaton. He had understood that one of the judges of the Supreme Court. had stated that the opinion did not cover the votes of vo-lunters cast within the State, and that such a vote was legal. Another point was whether the decision covered persons between the sges of 21 and 22 years. A St he ma-jority of Mr. Thouseon was very small (146,) there persons between the sges of 21 and 22 years. As the ma-jority of Mr. Thompson was very small (146.) there might be little difficulty in arrying at a conclusion. The case stood thus: A complaint had been filed; there had been a motion to quash the petition in whole or in part, and there had been a motion to issue a commission, and these motions had not yet been decided. Mr. Thay er said that, as he regarded the motion for a commission, the court could have no emburrasement, as the motion was withdrawn. As the case now stood, Mc. Thompson was entitled to the office, and great fauntices was being done to him by keeping him out. The offices was known to be profitable, and overy day that Mr. Thompson was deprived of the place was wirking a great wrong to bin.

All go blackwest in a would committee with Junge-Thompson, and give an early asswer. At a subsequent period, the court fixed Saturday next, at 12 o'clock, for hearing a re-argument on the question of jurisdiction in the case of "tevenson vs. Lawrence. The case of Thompson vs. Ewing was fixed for Monday, be 2d of June.

The case of Thompson vs. Ewing was fixed for Monday, the 2d of June. In concluding his decision relative to the constitution-ality of the seldiers' vote, Judge Woodward alludes to the sanctity of the elective franchles, and to the frauds to which the law authorizing "the seldier vote," has given rise. He says: It is doe to our citizon soldlery to add, in respect to the cases of fraud that have been before us, that no soldier was inpulcated. The frauds were perpe-trated, in overy balance, by political speculators, who provided about the military camps, watching for opportu-nities to bestroy true ballots and substitute false ones, to forge and falsify returns and to cheat citizen and soldier slike out of the foir and tunal election provided for by law. And this is the great vice of the 42d section—that it creates the occasion sub furnishes the opportunity for exon insible practices. This would be a reason, drawn from our experience of the last half year, for con-string it articity, if a trict construction wave rounired. But it is so parably in conflict with the Constitution, and But it is so parably in conflict with the Constitution, so repugsant to all the substantial parts of the enacts into which it was heedlessly thrust, that no strictness of construction is called for. Taking the section as it stan is, construction is called for. Taking the section as its gan 3, as every reader, whicher clerk or layman would under-stand it, or the learned Judge below administered it, we hold it to be subversive of the amended chause of raticio 3d of the Constitution, and also of the constitutional sections of the general election law of 2d Ju y, 1839.

The work upon this vessel has been pushed stadily forward since last November, and will be combined until she is fairly silest in the caujument and completion. The work upon this vessel has been pushed stadily forward since last November, and will be continued until she is fairly allost in the waters of the Atlantic, at which time we shall test they ra-lidity of iron armor, and so set the world right upon the question of naval supremacy. Including her armament, the tomasse will be § 350 tons. When completed, the vessel will be one of the finest of the kind in the world, and will te far superior in inany ro-spects to the British frigate Warrior. Her armament, has not jet been fully determined, but she will carry at least sitteen guns, of eleven inch bore, and will, doubt-less, have several deck pivot-guns. Notwithstanding her immense wright, she has been so modelled as to draw but fitteen fact of water, besides having the additional advantage of greater stendiness in a heavy sea. The greatest leature of the new frigate will be the accessingly small quantity of water which she will be made to draw. She will be the lightest draught of over five hundred fons, except the Pawnee, in our navy. In this respect the vessel will be superior to the much talked of War-rior, the weight of both being taken into consideration. The lattr draws tenty, even feet of vater, or more fush the whole depth of the New Ironsides-twenty-two feet. Owing to the declivity in the sides, it will almost be a work of impossibility for an enemy to board her. The declivity of the sides commences at the water's adga. The bulkarks are strated 10 feet from a vertical line that joins the foot of the Dulwarks and the water mark. Besides this, the from plates are so con-structed as to project 6 feet beyond the sizen below water, which will contake them to act as a battering run, by which vestels may be run down and swamped. Her bollers, engines, rudder, and extering apparatus will all be blow water-mark and out of harm's reach in case of action. The declivity, balls will glance from the vessel, in addition to the knees and waterways. The vessel is visited by large numbers daily, ter, 114 cases chloroform and quinine, 5 cases eastor oil, 10 kegs B. C. soda, 2 bbls camphene, 9 bbls bottled ale, 50 pkgs shoe blacking, 5 cases shoe brushes, 27 cases Kca-tucky jenne, 185 pkgs dried peaches, 4 cases paper col-lars, 93 chests teas. WEEKLX MORTALITY, - The weekly report of the Board of Health has been published for the week ending May 24th, 1881. During the week there has been 257 deaths-118 adults and 189 children. The has been 257 desihe-118 adults and 139 children. The largest number of deaths wore childron aged noder one year; the sumllest were old porsons from 80 to 90 years of age. The greatest mortality wars in the First ward, the smallest in the Twenty-fifth ward. Of the number of deceased persone during the work 192 were natives of the United States, 45 foreign, and 20 nuknown Compared with the corresponding week of 1861, and of last week, the meritality was as follows: Week ending May 25th, 1861, was 247; week ending May 17th, 1862, was 255; males, 127; females, 130; boys, 66; girls, 70.

CONCERT TO THE SICK SOLDIERS .-About one hundred of the pupils of the Tiffkenth-ward Grammar school, under the charge of Miss Bradbury and her assistante, visited the military hospital at Twenty-second and Wood streets, last week, and gave a concert to the sick addiers. Miss A II Cooper presided at the piano. A number of delightful melodies were rung. The "Star Spangled Banner" and "Freedom's Relly" met with hearty applanse. The children had also prepared a kundred white handkerchiefs, which were distributed smong the soldlers by seven little girls at the close of the performance.

ANNIVERSARY OF THE DEATH OF

ANNIVEREARY OF THE DEATH OF Cot. ELLSWORTH —Saturday, the 24th, was the anni-varsary of the death of Col. Ellsworth. At an early hour on the morning of the 2 th of May, 1861, Ells-worth's Zouaves, the 2d, 7th, 12th, 16th, 69th, and 71st New York militia, the New Jersey and Michigan bri-gades, and the District militia, embarked on transports, proceeded to Alexandria and landed. The town had been evacuated during the night by the enemy. But a single Union life was lost in the occupation—that of the lamout-ed Ellsworth, who was assussing of the lamout-he had tern down the reheir ag from the hotel.
