THE MILITARY EXCITEMENT.—The FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. excitement of vesterday was by no means as great as or ever, to hear further accounts from General Banks' command, on account of there being so many Philadelphians in it. The different recruiting stations of the Reserve Brigade and Home Guard presented quite busy and interesting sceres. During the day numbers of new recruits were obtained, and it is stated that no difficulty will be experienced in filling up the ranks. The drummers and iffers were parading through the streets besting up recruits, reminding one somewhat of the scene presented soon after the fall of Fort Sumpter. Owing to the action taken by Stlect Council yesterday afternoon in regard to equipping the Home Guard, many of the members of that organization lost all interest in the matter before them. The course of Councils was strongly condemned, and it was intimated that their action would be the means of disbanding the whole of the Home Guard In an emergency of this kind the Guard would then tender their services to the Government as a hady independent and having no connection with the city. The recruiting for the Reserve Brigade progressed more rapidly than that of the other organization, which was no doubt owing to the fact that the former are already provided for by the State, while the latter was depending upon the city.

PHILADELPHIA, May 27, 1862. The opening quotations of the Stock Board were about the same as the closing prices of yesterday. Stocks have pretty generally recovered from the shock of yesterday, and nearly approached the figures of last week. A de cided steadiness characterized the marketduring the day, and operations were large at an advance. A belief that the disaster to General Banks was unimportant, and that McClellan would soon have a loose hand to shake at the rebels tended greatly to this elastic feeling. The arrival of a messenger from Washington, who stated that the residents and those high in office, to be premeditated, induced a still better feeling, and but few seemed inclined to sell United States 7-30s at 4%, although one large sale was made at that figure. Reading recovered to 24%, with no more offered at that figure. City 6s, new, advanced %, and considerable tales at 102%. Beaver Meadow Railroad was firm at 58%. Phi-Indelphia and Sunbury 7s at 90. The closing prices of the board show a continued healthfulness, and the above prices were sustained. About 76,000 bonds changed bands, and but few shares. Passenger railways were a little more in demand at old prices.

The early transactions in gold, on the street, were made at 3% premium. Advices from New York advanced the rate to 4, the market closing at that figure. Silver remains at 2%. Foreign gold is rather dull, and we noted but fow But little is doing in land warrants, the passage of the homestead bill having unsettled the market, and no pernancht quotations can be given. The Sick and Wounded of the Army. The following we extract from a letter addressed t George H. Stuart, Esq., of this city, by the Rev. J. O. Sloan, dated "Steamboat Secor," on the way to Yorktown, May 22, 1862. Mr. Sloan is a member of the depuation sent to Virginia by the Young Men's Christian Association of this city, to attend to the wants and spiitual comfort of the sick and wounded soldiers. After parrating a number of individual cases of interest that ave come under his notice, in ministering to the suffer ers in the Mill Creek and Seminary Hospitals, he says:

There are many of the rebel wounded among them. They all seem greatly surprised at the kind treatment which they receive, and some with whom I have conversed express sorrow for having engaged in the warr. Many of them have died. They seem to be less able to be are up under their sufferings than the Union soldiers. If I can, I will remain as long as I see there is work to bedone. May I write you for whatever I think will add to their comfert and such as cannot be obtained here? There are those in Philadelphia who I know will gladly contribute. The need in many cases in Mill Greek Hospital is nourishing food and little delicacies, such as we cannot find here. I shall remain for some time at Yorktown, and other points up on the way to Richmond, should we find many wounded and sick. Should I find but few, and thas there attending and giving Christian. ers in the Mill Creek and Seminary Hospitals, he says: but few, and these there attending and giving Christian instruction, I shall return to the hospitals at Fortress fenroe. I write this with pencil, and under the rough nection of

I wrife this with pencil, and under the rough incition of the boat. Tell the Obristians in Philadelphia to pray for the wounded and sick of our army.

10 o'CLOK P. M.—We arrived here (Yorktown) at 3 o'Clock, and found 1,600 sick soldiers. They have no reading matter of any kind. I never saw so much eagerness to get thate and religious books. If you could have a box sent here, to the care of Dr. Watson, it would be joyfully received by these soldiers. I shall probably go up to the White House. I am fold there are 1,000 sick and wounded there. They have had no preaching here or religious service of kind, I am told. We visited two of the hospitals this evening, and gave each something to read, and had worship with them. They manifested the greatest gratitude, and beg us to be sure and come to their rooms again. Excuse this hasty scrawl. We are staying with the only on of a family that has remained. The rebels destroyed everything he had, and carried him off with them, but he (scaped, and came in.

J. O. SLOAN. CARTES DE VISITE OF DISTINGUISHED FRIENDS .- Mr. F. Guickunst, the celebrated photographer, Nos. 704 and 706 Arch street, has recently added to his elegant collection of fine card photographs, of his own inimitable production, some exquisite portraits, in this neat and attractive style for the album, of distinguished members (deceased and living) of the Ho-

Mott the Quaker preacher of this city; Joseph John Gurney, one of the chief apostles of Quakerism in this country, with his wife Eliza, and his great and good sister, Elizabeth Fry. The latter, of course, are copied from engrayings, but they are perfect gems of pictures, and are nding a large sale at Mr. Cutekunst's counters. Also, an elegant line of Canton Mattings, embracing every variety, all of which they are selling at upneually moderate prices, in auticipation of their contemplated removal to their splendid new store about being commenced at Ninth and Chestnut streets. A WORD OF ADVICE TO GENTLEMEN .- There re hundreds of our readers, in this city and elsewhere, who know from experience that the Hais and Caps manufactured and sold by Messrs. Charles Oakford & Bon, under the Continental Hotel, are the most stylish, most durable, and the best in every particular, made in this country or Europe. To those who have not yet learned this fact, we would say, "Buy Oakford & Son's hats in preference to any others." Their prices, moreover, are remarkably low, for the quality of goods sold. In hats for children and misses their stock is also unex-

FAOTORY, No. 81 BARCLAY Street,

(Late 233 Broadway and 16 Bond street), my 28-17 HAVE YOU A COUGH? Then use JAYNE'S EXPEUTORANT. Do not allow your cold to take its own course. Two-thirds of the vicims of consumption owe their affliction to the fatal mistake of "waiting for a cough to get well of itself!" Do not fall dute this error, but avail yourself at once of a re medy which thirty years' experience has demonstrated is certain to procure a speedy cure. HAVE YOU ASTRMA OR PHTHISIS? Then use JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT, which will vercome the spasmodic contraction of the wind tubes, and cause them to elect the mucous or matter which closs them up, and by an easy and free expectoration remove all difficulty of breathing. HAVE YOU BRONOHITIS? Then use JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT. This widespread disease, which may generally be described as an wind tubes of air vessels, spreading through every part of the lungs, is often taken for Consumption. The Expectorant subdues this inflammation, relieves the attending cough, pain, and difficulty of breathing, and if the case is not of too long standing, will certainly produce a cure. HAVE YOU CONSUMPTION? Then use JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT. It cleanses the lungs from all irritating matters, while at the same time it heals and invigorates them. Of all the remedies which have been offered to the nublic for this dread disease, none have stood the test of time or maintained so universal a popularity as this Expectorant. Thousands who have been given up by their physicians as incutable have been restored to perfect health by its use, and their testimony must carry conviction to all who read it. HAVE YOU PLEURISY? Then use JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT. By taking two or three large doses in the early stages of the diseas n quick succession, and covering up warmly in bel, this preparation acts as a sudorific or sweating medicine, and ubdues the inflammation at the outset.

HAVE YOU WHOOPING COUGH? Then use JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT. There is no remedy which so effectually overcomes this disease as the Expectorant. What parent can witness the sufferings of her children from this distressing complaint without doing all in her power for their relief? What medicine so alea nefit? Give it a trial then, and let it prove its efficacy, HAVE YOU CROUP? Then use JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT. Children are abject to no disease more sudden in its attacks, or, in the absence of prompt relief, none more fatal in its results han Croup. Parents, therefore, should keep at hand a remedy sure and thorough. Such a remedy may be found in the Expectorant, and every careful mother will keep a supply by her. JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT

Is a standard medicine For thirty years it has been beore the public, and during that period its curative powers have been testified to by all classes of people in all quarters of the world. Physicians, clergymen, lawyers, merchante, and mechanics have experienced its remodial effects, and have furnished us with their testimony, and it may be found at length our Almanac. To their convincing certificates we would refer the doubting. Prepared only at Dr. D. JAYNE & SON'S, No. 242 CHESTNUT Street, and for sale by Druggists gene-
