FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADELPHIA, May 31, 1862. The exciting news from Corinth, and the still more exciting rumors of important rebel ovacuations, has caused an intense thrill in the stock market and on Third street As the rumors were buzzed from one to another, a great commotion was visible, and business for a while received a new impetus. There is a feverish anxiety existing to know if the desertion of the rebel capital will be confirmed by our generals now surrounding that city. Unprepared for or unexpecting such an event, it is quite possible that we have been made acquainted with the Tact long before they will be aware of it, and perhaps their first intimation will come from Tortath to them, as it has to us. Consequently, we must allow some little to clapse before we hear the confirmatory news. advanced: U. S. securities were the first to feel the effects of the glorious news. The New York Post of this evening says:

The stock market opened firm on Government sacurities this forencou, and at a further edwince of % % per cent. on the 6 per conts of 1881 and 130 per cent treasury bouds, and % % per cent. on the 5 per cents of 1874. Soon after the call of the lightleft the Government stocks, the attring news from Richmond and the Southwest was made public, producing a buoyant effect upon Pacific Mail, New York Central, Exic, &c., the advance being quite general on railway shares and also on the railway bonds.

At the close of the first board the general market w peing quite general on railway shares and also on the railway bonds.

At the close of the first board the general market w g firm, the Western stocks sympathising strongly with the upward movement. The Government stocks are somewhat higher than our table of quotations—made before the news—would indicate.

The price of gold is 103% $\infty$ 103% per cent. The market for exchange left off vesterday afternoon at 14% $\infty$ 114% per cent. on London. Some additional business was done this more ing before the closing of the steamer's mails at or within this quotation.

We understand that the rapid rise in the long six-percents, of the Government, noted above, is already inducing the further conversion of United States notes into the five-year rix per cents, at par. The amount applied for at the Sub-Treasury to-day is not yet reported.

The sales of 7 30 per cent Treasury honds are large. applied for at the Sub-Treasury to-day is not yet reported.

The sales of 7 30 per cent. Treasury bonds are large outside the Board of Brokers.

The further accumulation of depositions bank, at a moment when confidence is somewhat sisken in loans on demand to the brokers in consequence of the Indiana fraud, produces the natural result of inducing the city banks to increase, rather than lessen, their own investments in United States stokks and Treasury ponds and certificates, by way of employing the extraordinary balances left with them.

CITY ITEMS. WE wonder whether any of our readers Philadelphia and New York, and how many persons are every day interested in finding good hotel acco tion. For ourselves, we have made a discovery, and that is, that it is possible to find in New York city a hotel having all the requisites of a first-class house, and whos terms are only One Dollar and Fifty Cents a day. Powers' Hotel, 17 and 19 Park Row, is an illustrararies are ahead of us in this discovery, for we find i pular house is.

Its proprietor, Mr. H. L. Powers, has recently made large additions to it, refitted, in fact modernized it, until now it has all the substantial conveniences of first-lease houses' without their exorbitant charges. Its tables are laden with the substantials and luxuries of the season in abundance; its chambers are roomy with good beds and sufficient toilet appurtenances, while from its windows eufficient toilet appurtenances, while from its windows, a better view of Broadway can be obtained than from almost any hotel situated upon it. The ladies' parlors are spacious and beautifully fornished, so that even a rainy day in New York can be pleasansly spont in viewing the panorams of a great city, as it moves on with sights, accree, and incidents ever charging, and hardly equalled upon any stage. With its advantages of situation this hotel has long been a popular stopping place for merchants visiting New York, but now, under its present management and with its recent improvements. ment and with its recent improvements, we anticipate our exchanges the following notice of this deservedly po-

"perfect rush."
It is a matter of some interest to our readers to know that they can find in New York city a hotel situated directly opposite the Asior House, offering to its guests the conveniences and accommodations of a first class house, for the unusually moderate charge of one dollar and fifty cents per day, and we recommend them to try Powers!
Hotel. They will find that its proprietor passesses the accomplishment of knowing how to keep a hotel. COMMODORE PORTER'S LETTER to Senator Frimes, in reference to the fight with his mortar flotilla, save: "I moved the homb-schooners under a point of woods, where, with their masts covered with green bushes, and their rigging with vines, they were invisible to the best glasses, we destroyed three iron-plated butteries, mounting thirty-one rifled guns, six or seven ironplated gunboats, and nine or ten things got up for the occasion, besides a fortified dry-dock, and the rebel rams Manassas and Louisiana." We may add, that not withstanding the great destruction of rebel cotton, and the rahal grame cotton, and woolen clothing is still sold at a low price, at Charles Stokes', under the "Continental." FEEDING THE REBEL POOR.—General Butler has seized a lot of bread and meat, that was intended for the use of the rebel army, and he designs distributing it mong the poor of New Orleans. Some of the Orleans ites grumble at the arrangement. These malcontents would growl if the general would give every poor man in the Crescent City a clean shirt, at his (the general's) own cost; while they would scarcely feel common gratiude if he would make their Mayor and Council at least like centlemen, by sending on to Philadelphia to procure, for each of the magnates, a new and elegant suit, from the brown-stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth. Time is Money, says an old proverb, and he who owes money generally wants to get as much time and value for it as possible. Hence, we advise all who wish to get the full value of their money, in the purchase of clothing, to repair at once to the fashionable temple of Granville Stokes, No. 609 Chestnut street, where the most superior summer garments in the city are manufactured, and sold at greatly reduced prices, in order to keep pace with the temporary duliness of the times. He at first refused, saying he had had the cough for sizteen years, and had tried every-thing without the least benefit, and he had now given up octoring as useless. FREDERICKA BROOKFELL, No. 641 Fisher street w Seventh, Philadelphia, writes: For more than two years I was afflicted with CON-SUMPTION, and during this time, owing to a constant ough and the sharp pain and difficulty of breathing which accompanied it, I obtained but little rest. Having tried in vain many different remedies, I began to lose all hope, when a neighbor, whose husband had been cured of a similar complaint by JAYNE'S EXPECTO-RANT, persuaded me to give it a trial. After taking several bottles, large quantities of corruption were thrown from me, and I then began to mend gradually,
