THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADELPHIA, June 3, 1862. Prices at the Stock Board ruled rather higher to-day, the effect, probably, of the good news from the seat of war At the first bid United States 6s, 1881, rose %, the seventhirties remaining stationary, but advancing on the closing price &; but little was done in them, while constderable sales were made of the sixes. No customer or holder of bills can domand, or if they do, the bank is at perfect liberty to deny the specie; consequently, no degree of thick-headed ob-stinacy can materially injure or discommode it. We understand that the other city banks have been receiving the bills all day as usual. Let us ask these over-earner and easily-heated partisans of the one's-own-pocket doctrine, if a bank chooses, in these times of suspension, to continue to issue large amounts of " promises to pay" what power is there which can discover its character as long as the bank chorses to hide the fact? Mulevolen nen may get up a hue and cry with credit when a known rotten institution is concerned, but for them to attempt to injure the Girard Bank is as short-sighted as It is senseless, and is only excusable on the ground of

The St. Louis Missouri Democrat of the 31st uit. "The money market continued dull, and nothing of interest transpired to day. Exchange is firm at 1/2, and sales of small lots are made at 1/2 premium? Gold is flat, though nominally unchanged in rates. Of course, when there are no transactions nor inquiry, it might as well be held at one figure as another. No Government vouchers are ofering, eithough parties stand ready to buy all that come at fair rates. Some capital is seeking investment in the bank stock, and shares have improved materially recently. We understand there is an effort making to rater the Farmers' Bank of Lexingson, and the Union Bank of this city. But whether it will be successful remains to be seen. If those banks are restored they will have to do business on a different reinciple than they did before, if they would gain public confidence. However, they must be their own indges of that matter. There is a continual demand for Missouri defence warrants at former rates. There is also an increased demand for uncurrent Missouri money, owing doubtless to the fact above stated, of the probable restoration soon of the conly two uncurrent banks in the State. Our latest advices from New York show an increased firmness in all classes of Government securities and the downward tendency of gold and sterling exchange. Our lates saides hour formers in all clusses of Government securities and the downward tendency of gold and sterling exchange. Money is very abundant at 4 to 5 per cent. interest, and as long as that is the case, there is no fear of heavy depreciation in prompt interest, paying Government stocks. The Boston Commercial Bulletin May 31 says:

"Advices from Loudon, under date of the 14th ult., show that speculation had already made its mark upon the money maket there, and a rise in the rate of interest was daily looked for. A certain uneasiness regarding the American question also tended to resirict loans, and stiffen the pockets of capitalists. The funds had not restiffen the pockets of capitalists. The funds had not recovered from the late depression, and the feeling on 'Change was alcomy. Applications for discount were very heavy, not only at the Bank and in Loadon, but throughout the country. Merchants in England do not wait, as we do here, till pressure comes up in them to seek money, but, upon the first appearance of any probability of a corner, crisis, or movement, rush into the discount market at once, and lay ample anchorage to the windward. This demand was not attributed to the Turkish and Ruesian Lan payments, but to an undefined, fear of tome great political movement being about to occur—some castling by the unfathomable Napoleon."

The Indianapolis Journal has a statement in relation to the fraudulent issue of bonds by D. C. stover, former State agent, from which the following are extracts: State agent, from which the following are extracts:

When the fraud was first discovered, the State authorities yielded to the suggestion of the District Atorney, A. Oakey Hall, and the Attorney General of New York, Dasiel S. Dickinson, as we have attempted to state them, and consent d to a suppression of the affair. The work of recovering the bonds has been going on ever since, and up to last Friday, when the frud first got wind in New York, about $700,000 had been recovered. The amount yet outstanding is not certainly known, but, from the statements of some of the parties implicated, it is believed that it will not exceed $500,000, of which the whole will probably be recovered from the parties or the is believed that it will not exceed $500,000, of which the whole will probably be recovered from the parties or the securities of the State agent.

The fraudulent bonds were detected by the fact, that they were not registered according to law. On March 5th, 1866, an act was approved, to take effect on its publication in the papers; of this city, which was made on March 11th, providing that on the surrend'r of any cortificate of stock the agent should send it to the State Auditor here, who should issues a new one and register it, and on its reception at the agency the agent should also register it, and deliverit to the holder. The fraudulent certificates, of or vers, would not be registered at the agen. on its reception at the agency the agent should also register it, and deliver it to the holder. The fraudulent certificates, of overs, would not be registered at the agency as no corresponding than would be detected at once. By leaving them unregistered, Stover was able to the place of the control of the the law meant they should be, leaving nothing in the agent's bands with whick to commit a fraud, must be set down to the account of the loos way all the State business was at ransacted during Governor Willard's administration

The New York Evening Post says:

The stock ma ket is very strong to day, but not active. There are few stecks offering and prices move up varil, under small orders to bur. The case in money, together with the quick succession, gives buyers great cooffidence, and the speculative excitement of the oarly part of May promises to be re-enacted this month.

After the board the market further advanced, especially on Erie and New York Central. The former sold dargely at 334 co 383, the latter at 80 ½. Chicago and Bock Island is 63 ½ co 64.

Clevelend, Columbus, and Cincinnati is 118 co 120, New Jersey Transportation 130 bid, New Jersey Central 122 jid.

The reliroad bonds are again higher Talaboure. The New York Evening Post says: Joid.

The railroad bods are again higher. Toledo and Wabah seconds sols at 55; Pittsburg, Fort Wayne, and Olicago, 97; Terre Haute and Alton firsts, 110.

State stocks are in good demand for invostment. Oalisonia 7s touched 98. Hilmois coupon bonds are searce, Indiana War I can sold at 94% 205.

The Government list closes strong at 105% for coupons and 102% for registered. It will be noticed that our quotations for registered are ex-interest since the 1st of June, while the coupons remain attached till July Ist.

There is nothing new at the United States Treasury. Old demand notes are quoted 100%. The 6 per-cent certificates have said at 100%.

Money is quoted very easy at 2 percent on call. There is considerable business doing, however, both above and below these raics. Prime paper of short dates is selling at 505% & cent. ちゅうが three to the total tota Philadelphia Stock Exchange Sales, June 3

CITY ITEMS. CARTES DE VISITE OF PROMINENT CITIZENS.

...Mr. F. Gutckunst, the popular and most successful photographer in this country, has lately added to his park collection. No. 704 and 706 Arch street, cartes of Mr. Eli K. Price, Hon. Horace Binney, Thomas Sully, the artist, young General Patterson, Sheriff Ewing, and thers. They are all admirable likenesses, and fine specimens of the photographic art. DELICIOUS SUMMER FRUITS AND CONFEC-TIONS.—Mr. A. L. Vansant, the popular Philadelphia Confectioner, correr of Chestaut and Ninth streets, has liways on hand a fresh supply of fine cream chocolates cream dates, French Nauget, French and American Mixtures, Jelly Cakes, Sweet Jordan Roasted Almonds, and delicious tropical and hot-house fruits in greatest variety, at moderate prices. OARFORD & SON'S NEW STYLE SUMMER HATS, under the Continental Hotel, are attracting universal attention by their elegance of shape, texture, and finish, and the unusually low prices at which they are selling. Their stock of Gents' Furnishing Goods and Head-gear for Children is also very superior PURE LIQUORS FOR MEDICINAL PURPOSES. -Mr. O. H. Mattson, dealer in Fine Groceries, Arch and fenth streets, has constantly on hand a supply of the finest quality of Brandy for medicinal purposes -a pe ectly pure article; also the best Port, Sherry, and Madeira wines. WARM WEATHER .- We advise everybody that wants to keep cool this hot weather to call upon

Messrs. Slocum and Bassett, in the Eastern Market, and indulge in their luscious strawberries, smothered in ica cream. They will find these gentlemen supplied with the very best articles of the kind in the city. HIGH, LOW, AND THE GAME .- Prof. Lowe, at the battle of Chickshominy, it appears, enjoyed the scene in a private box, or basket, at an altitude of about two thousand feet. Surely, war is losing its horrors, and getting romantic, when commodores dress their ships up in May bushes, making the modern Orleanists think that Birnam Wood is coming to town, and genera send telegraph reporters up in balloons, to pry into the back-door operations of the enemy. We next may hear of balloons dropping posters into the enemy's camp, having on them words of good advice, such as "Buy your Clothing of Charles Stokes, under the Continental." THE RIGHT MAN IN THE RIGHT PLACE. -Gen. utler is emphatically the right man in the right place at New Orleans. He snubs the holdest and as he rebels, and he stirs up short-comers with a sharp stick. The General is a good soldier and a sharp lawye and that he is a man of judgment and discretion is evidenced by the fact that he generally procures his wearing apparel at the brown-stone Clothing Hal of Rockill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, bove Sixth. WHAT A WORLD this would be, if all its nhabitants could say with Shakspeare's Shepherd: "Sir, am a true laborer—I earn that I wear, I owe no man hate, envy no man's happiness, glad of other men's good, content with my farm " We might add that it would indeed be a queer world, if all the people in i clothed themselves in the fine and fashionable styles of summer garments manufactured at the palatial establishment of Granville Stokes, No. 609 Chestnut street, where the cheapest clothing is to be obtained at all times

In ship Tonawanda, for Liverpool—Martha A Cheese map and servant; Hugh Kinley, wife, three children, and servant; Kete and Lindeay Julius, all of Philadelphia; Dr Keim, of Manayunk; 42 in forward cabin and steeruge.

SPECIAL NOTICES. ROMEO AND JULIET. BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL. Young Romeo was his mother's pet; He fell in love with Juliet;

(Her papa's name was Capulet,)

She was too young to marry, yet

Her common sense she did forget And all her soul on Romeo set, Oh gracious! what a pity! For he, on an unlucky day, Her cousin Tybalt chanced to slay, And, lest he should be hanged, they say, He thought it best to run away, From fair Verona city

And Juliet, his forsaken bride, With dose of laudanum was supplied; She took it, and 'iwas thought she died, (For playing possum, so she tried,) And Romeo, when he heard it, cried, And then committed suicide, To smother his vexation. Shun his example and his fate; Cool dressing will love's flame abate, Or summer's heat, however great, At Tower Hall kind salesmen wait

DR. D. JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT .-Thirty years of experience has demonstrated beyond the shadow of a doubt that JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT excels every other remedy for the cure of BRONCHITIS.

CONSUMPTION, COEGHS AND COLDS. CROUP AND HOOPING COUGH, SPITTING OF BLOOD. AND ALL PULMONARY COMPLAINTS. Hundreds of other remedies have been lauded and ex-tolled to the skies, but having ro virtues to sustain them, have sunk into oblivion, while JAYNE'S EXPECTO-RANT has continually increased in popularity, until now there is scarcely an inhabitable part of the globe where it is not used and highly appreciated. The following are a few of the many certificates lately received: Rev. A. H. DANFORTH, Missionary at Assam. India, writes: "On my way home from India, on board the English passenger ship Mariborough, I met with Major Clarke, m officer in the Queen's service, who was connected, I think, with the 53d Regiment, and was located in Fort William during the rebellion I soon perceived that he had a troublesome cough, and urged him to take some EXPECTURANT. He at first refused, saying he had had the cough for sixteen years, and had tried every-thing without the least benefit, and he had now given up doctoring as useless. His wife, however, persuaded him to try it, and to gratify her he did so. He found so much relief that he begged me to let him have all I had with me, saying I could get more when I reached home, and

Mr. READING DOTY, of Twenty-mile Stand, Warren county, Ohio, says:
"Recently I had an attack of ASTHMA, the most distressing of all diseases, and yesterday afternoon, after taking a short ride, I returned home almost unable to breathe. Through the persuasion of my wife, I was led to try your EXPECTORANT. The first dose gave intant relief, and after the fourth dose I enjoyed a refreshing sleep, and the next morning grose in better health

HEADQUARTERS 88TH (McLean's) BEGIMENT (P. V.), } COMPANY D, ALEXANDRIA, Va.
MESSRS. D. JAYNE & Son: Gentlemen: During all the time we have been in the service—nearly four months—but one of our company has been sick enough to be placed in the hospital. Our surgeons have often spoken of this, and attributed the unusually healthy condition of the men to the use of Dr. D. JAYNE'S MEDICINES. The EXPECTORANT has been much sought after n cases of COLDS, COUGHS, &c., and has always afforded relief; while the Carminative Balsam has operated like a charm in all cases of Looseness of the Bowels, Diarrhaa, &c.—diseases to which soldiers are rarticularly exposed, from the frequent changes of water would be prevented, and many lives saved, if every con pany in the army was provided with a small supply of your Medicines, similar to the one furnished us. On chalf of the company, I remain, &c. LOUIS WAGNER.

Mr. PRESTON EWING, Laconte, Harrison county, "Being afflicted with BRONCHITIS for the space of three years, to such an extent that I was obliged to re-linquish the teaching of vocal music, and failing to obtain any relief from the physicians whom I consulted, I gave the EXPECTORANT a trial. After using it for a few weeks, I was very much relieved, and by its constant use my throat is now entirely clear of any disease." FREDEBICKA BROOKFELL, No. 641 Fisher street, below Seventh, Philadelphia, writes:
"For more than two years I was afflicted with CON-SUMPTION, and during this time, owing to a constant Cough, and the sharp pain and difficulty of breathing which accompanied it, I obtained but little rest. Having tried in vain many different remodies, I began to lose all hope, when a neighbor, whose husband had been cured of a similar complaint by JAYNE'S EXPECTO-RANT, persuaded me to give it a trial. After taking several bottles, large quantities of corruption were thrown from me, and I then began to mend grajually, until now my health is perfectly restored." Mr. W. C. FISHER, of Weston-Spalding, Lincolnshire, England, writes: .. A little nephew of mine, five years old, was a few months since suffering from the HOOPING COUGH, and I never saw a more distressing case. I immediate ly gave him JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT, according to directions, and very soon began to see an improvement. The could became easier, and expectoration much freer in a few days, and in two weeks the malady was so enthely overcome that it required no further attention."

The EXPECTORANT is prepared only by Dr. D. JAYNE & SUN, 242 CHESTNUT Street. je2-mw2t my3-3m TWENTY-SEVENTH and COATES Sis.
