THE CITY. [WOR ADDITIONAL CITY NEWS, SEE FOURTH PAGE.] CELEBRATION OF THE EMANCIPATION OELEBRATION OF THE EMANCIPATION
AUT BY COLORED PERSONS.—Yesterday morning
the colored citizens of Philadelphia and vicinity assembled at National Hall, in Market street, above Twelfth, for the purpose of celebrating the emandpation of the slaves in the District of Columbia. The attendance in the morning was rather slim, owing to the inclemency of the weather. The majority of the audience were ladies.
There was also a number of whites in the assemblage.
The stage was decorated with a huge American flag, and occupied by an olchestra, in addition to the officers of the meeting. the meeting.

About noon the meeting was called to order by Rev.

John A. Williams, the chairmen, and after the performance of the Star Spangled Banner by the band, a prayer was delivered by the R. v. John Givens. was delivered by the R. v. John Givens.
The permanent officers were then read off, as follows:
President—Bev. John A. Williams.
Presidents—John Anderson, James Prosser, Jr.,
Rev. Stephen Smith, William Soott, Thomas J. Dorsey, and Dr. H. J. Brown, of Burlington.
Secretarios—F. C. Ray Is, S. M. Smith, and C. B ColJav. The emancipation act was then read, and was followed by the reading of an address on "The Ransom of the Slaves at the national capital," written by the Hon. Chas. Slaves at the national capital," written by the Hon. Chas. Summer.

The meeting then took a recess until afternoon.

The exercises of the atternoon consisted of music by the bands and addresser by: Thomas Hamilton, Esq., senior editor of the anglo-African, Rev. Francis Church, Rev. J. Sella Murtin, late paster Tremont Temple, Boston; John C. Bowers, Esq., and William Micholeon, Esq. The attendance was much larger than in the morning, and the suriesce was respectable. The Rev. J. Sella Martin, in the course of his remarks, asserted that he believed in the course of his remarks, asserted that he believed in the course of time the negro race would become the owners of the soil and the legitimate citizens of the States where slavery now exists, claiming that they were in no ways anxious to be removed to a more Nurthern climate, but that in the course of a very short time, as the mass of those now diving in slavery grew to realize their condition and limit power, they would rise in their strength and assert their rights, and become the passessors and rulers of their own territory.

Evenue Evenues The aversises in the versing EVENING EXERCISES —The exercises in the evening were opened shout 8 o'clock, by a short address by the were opened shout 3 o'clock, by a short address by the Rev. J. Sella Martin.
He was followed by Henry Highland Garnet, of New York, whose remarks were listened to with attention, and elicited rounds of applause. He alluded to the passage of the Emancipation act as bruising the head of the sorpent whose tall must die before sundown. So with slavery; the blw had been given and it surely would fall. He thought that no more Slave States would ever be admitted into the Union. The present unhappy war, he said, had brought good to the co ored people. God had sent it, but the acvil brought it in the shape of Jeff Davis. He thought, therefore, we should thank God for what Jeff brought, therefore, we should thank God for what Jeff brought. The remainder of the programme was concluded by the entire addience joining in the "Star-Spangled Banner." The singing was excellent.

At the conclusion of the exercises, it was stated that the concert would be repeated on next Thursday evening for the benefit of the Cooper Shop Volunteer Refreshment Salcon, which had thrown open its doors, and fed the squad of contrabands who arrived in this city some time since. FOUND DROWNED .- The body of an unknown white man was found floating in the Schuyl-kill river, near Point Breeze Park, yesterday morning. He was of short stature, and was dressed in dark rib pents, black cloth sack overcost, and vest; black neck-tle; figured merine scurf; bigh boots; and white under clothes. In a pocket-book found on the body was a unemorandum, but it has been in the water so long that it cannot be read until the paper is thoroughly dried. From the appearance of the body, it must have been in FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADELPHIA, June 5, 1862. There was a growing disposition to invest money at low rates to-day. Parties seeking investment very na turally notice the promising appearance of the United States securities, and there has been a large demand for them from outside parties. Now that the question of the war is very nearly settled, all classes of business men are casting an eye on Third street as the proper avenue fo safely investing their surplus funds. Quartermasters certificates also begin to find a market in these custom ers. In fact, any and every kind of evidence of indebtedness by the United States is now eagerly caught up and laid away, in many cases, as a permanent security. The continued advance of our Union armies is an antil. lustration of our stock-board operations. Day after day the word is still " advancement." Days with good news days with no news, make no difference. A defeat causes a cessation of business, but no diminution of prices, as was illustrated lately by the Banks retreat. To-day we have another evidence of this fact. Seven thirties, endorsed, were firm at 106. There were no sales of the blank, 106% being readily bid. The sixes, 1881, were also stiffly held at 106. Reading opened at 25%, but also stilly held at 106. Reading opened at 25%, but ultranced %, and was steady all day, closing at latter price. A large busines, was done; about 2,100 shares changed hands.

Catawissa Bailroad shares, common, brought 2%, and advanced the preferred 0, bids for the latter felling. B R Welker, New York advanced %, and was steady all day, closing at latter price. A large busines, was done; about '2,100 shares X at the close. Penusylvania Railroad was pretty firm bid. Bonds of 1864 brought 99%, a slight decline Mine hill Railroad at 45%, first board, and 45%, second, foun ready purchasers, the latter being an advance of % Long Island advanced from 15% to 16, and continued firm at the latter figure. Harrisburg Railroad brought 55, yesterday's rate. In bonds a very large business was done, especially in State fives, which were firm at an advance of & on yesterday's price. In Sunbary and Erie sevens there was no change. North Pennsylvania sixes rose &, selling at 80. City sixes, new, advanced to 101, % over the closing bid of yesterday; the old brought 97, being no change. Schurikill Navigation sixes, 1882, rose &, and were very firm. Morris Canal, first mortgage, sold at 98%. Beading sixes, 1870, sold at 94, an advance of %. Philadelphia and Eric sixes advanced %, and sold at 91%. Bank shares were dull; Girard at 40%, Farmers' and Mechanics' 58, and Kensington 62%, being the only shares sold. Passenge railways were again in d mand at advanced prices, Se cond and Third rising from yesterday's bid of 68% to 68%, with sales.

Money is abundant, and rates for time paper are the same as quoted yesteruny. An advance, with larger business, was made in gold to-day, the ruling rate being day, at & and & premium. As long as there is a full absorb the bulk of them, they will approach the rate of prem, on gold. The la d-warrant trade is at a complete stand-still, no buyers at pearing; rates nominal. Part of this prophecy has come to piss, and we confess we should have more faith in the ontire prediction had the medium also anticipated the truth that has since been made manifest—to wit: That during the progress of the war hundreds of thousands of soldiers and civilians would be elegantly and comfortably clothed in suits procured from the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Reckhill and Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street

To the public.—As this fearful combat increases, our sympathies are naturally drawn to the scene of carrange which ensues. Thousands of our countrymen have fallen in the terrible conflict. Many are slain, while others remain suffering with w-made, who, if they survive, are maimed for life. Our bospitals are overflowing from almost daily accessions to their numbers, while repeated demands come to us from those more contignous to the scene of action. The all is immediate, the piteous cry is fer relief. Who are these sufferers? They are our friends and brothers Shall we, then, ait supinely, and turn a deaf ear to their appeal, regardless of their condition? Bather let our daily energies and evening petitions blend in a holy anthem of solicitude in their behalf.
