It has been ascertained that the greatest amount of aufforing is experienced at and near. Weissport, on the Lehigh river, and the greater portion of the contribu-tions will therefore be di tributed in that quarter by

COLLISION ON THE CAMDEN AND ATLANTIC BAILROAD.—Yesterday morning, the freight train and passenger car from Aliantic City to Camien was on time to a minute, two miles this side of Haddonsield, when suddenly the engineer beheld a locomotive rounding a curve and coming full tilt towards him. In five seconds afterward, the cellision took place. The cowcatchere, for a mousent, seemed in bitter strife; the next moment they flew about in pieces like the fragments of bursting bomb-shells. The Gazelle locomotive, the mischief maker, was sent tack to Cooper's Point quicker than she came. The sturdy Pennsylvania was dislodged from the track, at d the freight cars were badly demolished. Fortunately, no one was hurr, although many were badly scared. "he mistake, it seems, was caused by the superintendent of the road, who, with a view of examining a certain bridge, had the Gazelle fired up and started off. He had entirely overlooked the fact that a train was due about this time at Cooper's Point. The accident might have be en worse. COLLISION ON THE CAMDEN AND AT-

CHARGED WITH BEING PROFESSION-CHARGED WITH BEING PROFESSION-AL THIEVES.—Yesterday morning John Powell was committed for nincty days by Alderman Beitler upon the charge of being a profe-sional pickpocket. He was arrested on Monday at Prers' Farm, where, during the day, several pocket books and two watches were missed. John Musgrave, alias leane Grant, was also arrested at Nineteenth and Costes streets, charged with picking the pockets of Ann Campbell. The lady had been helped out of a passengs car by Musgrave, and she charges him with being so attentive in her regard as to leave her minus forty dollars. Sergrant Brode-attempted to arrest Musgrave, who immediately look to his heels. A sharp chase casued, and a capture was made at Eighteenth and face streets. Musgrave was held to answer yesterday by Alderman Beitler.

PROFESSIONAL THIEVES AND THE PROFESSIONAL THIEVES AND THE NINETY-DAY LAW.—The law passed by the Legislature, giving the May or power to commit to prison for ninety days all professional thieves arrested in crewded places, has proved most beneficial to Philadelphia. It has driven most of the pickpockets from this to other cities, where said law is not in force It is a great pity that the law in question was not nade general in its application, in which case with a little visitance on the part of the police authorities the whole clyfacking fraternity might have been driven from the State. As the law nowstands, the rascal are criven from Philadelphia and Pittaburg into the large towns of the interior, where they operate with little or no approhensions of detection. We see by our exchanges, that inestances of pocket picking in neighboring towns have increased to an alarming extent of late, and, in most cases, the theft is committed by rascals from our city.

ABSENCE OF SOLDIERS FROM THEIR REGIMENTS—The Government has lately determined upon the most stringent measures with regard to soldiers' furloughs, and the absence from the army of enlisted volunteers. A furlough shall not extend beyond twenty days, unlessin cases of sickness or disability. It has also have ordered that all colleges of the requirement and solutions. days, unless-in cases of sickness or disability. It has also been ordered that all officers of the regulars and volunteers, except those on partle, now absent from duty, with leave, will be considered absent without leave, unless found at their posts on June 22. With a view to the enforcement of the order in reference to furloughs, a provet-guard has been established in this city, which is especially charged with the duty of inquiring of every soldier the cause of his presence here, and of arresting every deserter from the army. This guard will abolish the rocation of a property

OUR SICK AND WOUNDED SOLDIERS IN VIRGINIA —A letter has just been received from one of the deputation from the Christian Commission from this city, new at Fortress Monroe, saying that ther From this city, new at Fortreas Monroe, saying that there is still great need of mosquito netting, large size testaments, pickles, and some vater beds. One of the assistant surgeous said that soveral lives might have been saved had trey had these beds. Another deputation from the commission has started to minister to the temporal and spiritual wants of our brave soldiers in General Banks' and General Fremont's divisions, and the Young Men's Christian Association will take charge of any articles that may be left at their rooms, Nos. 1009 and 1011 Chestaut street, designed for the comfort of the soldiers in either of these divisions of the army, as well as that of Goneral McClellan.

RAILROAD-CAR IMPROVEMENTS.—A new feature of comfort and luxury has just been intro-luced by some of the Eastern railroad companies, for due ravellers, on their through trains. It is an improved each, arrayed with broad and heavily-cushioned bottoms and backs, with a simple piece of mechanism attached, by which the corrupant may regulate the inclination for the body according to desire, as in a sick chair. Cushioned resting pieces for the head are also fixed to the tops of the backs of these sears. The care containing them thave also improved ceiling vantilations and according to maye also improved ceiling ventilators and a spacio loon for ladies.

PORT WARDENS .- On Monday the Board of Port Wardens held an adjourned meeting and made another uneucressful attempt to elect a clerk. Four ballots were taken, and upon each Mr. Molley, the Democratic candidate, received eight votes, and Captain Metz, the candidate of the People's party, the sams comber. The Board then adjourned until the eighth of July.

A LIST OF PRICES.—At a meeting of wallmakers it was agreed that the following prices must be paid by the employers to their journeymen: For hospital tent and fly, of fifteen cunces to the yard, $7; for hospital tent and fly, of twenty-two and a half cunces to the yard, $8.50; for Sib ey tent, &c., $6; for wall tent, &c., $3; for servant tent, of three cloths in top, $1.50; for gervant tent, of four cloths in top, $1.50;

whose father has been inhumanly butchered by the rebels for no other offence than being a Union man: whose father has been inlumnally butchered by the rebels fer no other offence than being a Union man:

DEAR COUSIN: I it down, broken hearted, to let you know of my peor, dar father's death. He was away from home sixteen months, all on account of being a Union man. When General Banks came, to Woodsoock, father thought be count come home. He came, and was at home four days; and when General Shields' division moved down this valler, tather thought he would leave with them; but thought he would stay till morning, as it was raining all day and he did not feel well, and all of Shields' force had not got to Front Bayal Before eighteen of the tebels rade up here, arrested father, and guarded him all night. They would not let any of us so sout of the house. Next morning they took him to Uniay and kept him in prison for eight days, by which time the rebels came through this valley, and by order of Col' Ashby three of his men took father and another man bin it in the night and shot them, never burying them until Shields' division came up again, when the Urle man builed them. Geheral Shields told me he would have a venge on the cowardly assassin. My poor mother is a ry low. It has almost killed her. She was insensita for more than an hour and a half the other day. General Shields has been very kind to us. He sent a deft of fifteen miles to see mother. The doctor thought she was somewhat better. All the solders have been very kind to us. It was very hard for me to give up my cear father, and I hope Ged will support us in this great efficien, and enable me to bear up under it, for the sake of mother, and that God will spare her to get well again, as she is my only hope.

His rare old Brandy, and fine Port, Sherry, and Madeira Wines, of the choicest brands, may be relied upon for their absolute purity. WHAT CAN AIL THE CHILD?—Is its sleep disturbed? Do you notice a morbid restlessness; a vaable appetite; a feetid breath; grinding of the teeth, and itching of the nose? then be sure your child is troubled with worms. If their presence is even suspected, procure at once JAYNE'S TONIC VERMIFFER. It effectually destroys Worms; is perfectly safe, and so pleasant that children will not refuse to take it. It acts also as a centle tonic, and no better remedy can be taken for Sold at No. 242 Chestaut street. THE GREAT MISSISSIPPI.—This grand river, estined to be noted in the history of the world, among other things, for its great naval battles, is, with its chief tributary, the Missouri, the longest river in the world.

It takes its rise in the small lake Itasca, which is situated mong hills covered with pine forests, and fed by spring 3,200 miles from the Gulf of Mexico, and elevated 1,700 feet above the ocean. On its banks will rise cities outrivalling those of the Hudson or the Delaware, and, indeed, the celebrated "one-price" Clothing Store of Mr.

Charles Stokes will be outdone by the clothing marts that, on that river, will yet clothe the unborn freemen of the territories of the West. SIX RAINBOWS AT ONCE. The editor of the Marquette News says that, just as the force of a recent shower at that place was spent, the sun looked out rom behind the clouds, when a brilliant rainbow spanned the heavens, then a second, then a third, a fourth, a fifth. and finally a sixth one; all of them in regular graduation from the inner, which was a mere line, to the onter. which was of great breadth and magnitude, and com-pletely encircled the mammoth clothing emporium of Granville Stokes, No. 609 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, where the finest summer garments in the country are SPECIAL NOTICES.

WAITING FOR WAR NEWS. BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL, 'Tis torturing to wait In all suspense's pangs, While this glorious country's fate In trembling balance hangs. We cannot pull aside Futurity's dark veil,

But must in patience bide Nor should our spirits fail. Traitors themselves confess Our great McClellan's skill, And we know that Heaven will bless The cause of Justice still: While to our country's care Our thoughts we should direct. To mind our own affairs We must not quite neglect. Till we from Bichmond hear, Let every man and boy Within his proper sphere The busy hours employ
