"Say to President Davis and to Congress that they are not yet alye to the magnitude and importance of this cou-test. It is a contest for constitutional liberty. Tell them that the people are far shead of their representatives; that we are ready and auxions to give, at their call, all we have of property, of block—ar, and of life. But there is one thing we will not give, even to them—our liber-tics. Take all chee, but save our liberties. History fur-nishes the example of no propel superior to this people. I left you for Europe last spring, and you were at peace with all the world. I returned just as the public mind had fully comprised the great military disasters of Fort Donelson and Roacoke Islaud, and I then witnessed for the first time, in is full proportions; nall its gran-deur, contrasting io magniticently and significantly with these lorges in the East and in the Wesh this indomitable epirit, rising above all difficulties, trampling upon all re-verses, and demanding victory as its birthright. we copy from the Boston Journal the following letter, written by the Hon. Chailes Sommer to a gentleman in that dity : SEXATE CHAMBER, June 5, 1863. My DEAR Sin: Your criticism of the President is hasty. I em coulident that if you knew him, as I do, you would not make it. Of course, the President cannot be held responsible for the malfessar ces of subordinates, unless adopted or, at least, tolerated by him. And I am sure that nothing un-just or ungentrus will be tolerated, much less adopted, by him. T am happy to let you know that he has no sympathy with Stsuly in his absent wickedness, closing the schools, nor sgain in his oth r act of turning our camp into a huuting-ground for slaves. He repudiates both—posi-tively. The latter fourth say course her due to the intought; send the newspapers' have not gone too far in recording his repeated declarations, which I, have often heard from hus own lipe, that slaves finding their way into the na-tional lines are nev r to be re-enslaved. This is his con-viction, expressed without reserve. Could ycu have seen the President—as it was my pri-vilege often—will he was considering the great ques-ticas on which he has alr cady acted — the invitation to Bmandpation in the States, Emancipation in the District of Columbis, and Liberia—even your zeal would have heen actifield, for you would have feit the sincerity of his purpose to do what he could to carry forward the princi-ples of the Declaration of Independence. His whole soul was coupled, especially by the first proposition, which was peculiarly his cwm. In familiar intercourse with him, I, remember nothing more fouching then dees ar-nestness and completences with which he embedent, while, it premised the sure end of slavery. Of course, to me, who her advert worked a Bridow of Gold for the articeation.
