A number of refugees from Texas came on the Ocean Queer. Among them are three brothers Everett, natives of Knexville, Tennessee, whose father owns and works a fam in Rusk county, Texas.

These young men were urged by Secessionists to join them, but they always refured until last April, when their aged father was threatened with hanging. The brothers then consented to entiet, but, instead of going to the recruiting station, made their way to Brownsville, and thence on board the United States steamer Montgomery, which took them to New Orleans.

These young men say that General Sam Houston, though avowedly a Secessionist, is at heart a Union mad. He it is in retirement on his plantation, on the San Jacinto river, and takes no part in politics. He is said to be the chief of a secret Union men scolety, who assemble at Austin, and are ready to come out openly, as soon as they can receive the assistance of the Government.

The people of Texas are divided on the question of Secession, the Irish and Germans being mostly Union men, while the natives, and chiefly the Down Rast men, are decidedly in favor of Secession. There is but very little feeling, however, in favor of cotton-burning anywhere in the State of Taxas.

CAPTAIN HOPKINS' STATEMENT.

Uaptain Hopkins, of the 31st Massachusetts, who came passenger on the Ocean Queen, sistes that there is but ittle slucere Union sentiment in New Orleans. Those who are for the Union since the taking of the oity by General Butler are those who were always in favor of the Union, but even these persons are ready to go over at any time in case like robels should ever prove the strong; eat ide. When the Ocean Queen left there were only five American flags floating over the city.

Business was very dull in the city. The hotels were open, but were not very full. The theatrea were straggling to obtain paying audlences, but the houses were very slim. Capt. Hopkins, before leaving the city, desired to purchase a pair of gloves. He visited a number of stores before he could find a pair, but floally went into a large furnishing establishment, where, after no little searching by the clerks, one pair of soited gloves was found, for which he paid §1.50. The stocks of goods in the stores are nearly all exhausted. in the stores are nearly all exhausted.

Forts Jackson and St Philip are now under the command of Col. Gooding, of the 31st Massachusetts. The American coxent at Havana having informed General Butler that the yellow fever had made its appearance among the shipping at that place, General Butler has established a regular and efficient quarantine.

The cargo of ice which she brought sold at 8% cents per pound, and lenions at $3.09 per box. of ice which she brought sold at Si cents per pound, and lenous at $369 per box.

Provisions were becoming more plenty, but still retained their high prices. Fresh beef is selling at 50 cents per pound; black ten at $460 per pound; flour at $20 per harrel. Common calico at $3 per pard, but green vegetables were getting somewhat cheaper.

There is still much suffering among the lower classes, not so much from want of provisious as from want of labor. Captain Brown of the, steamer Saxton, gave a poor beegar woman a piece of meat and breal, and in less than an hour, more than 500 beggars surrounded his reasel asking for food.

Hon Pierro Soulé and Adolphe Mazouresu, late. High Sheriff of New Orleans, came prisoners in the Ocean Queen. Mr. Soulé, though lot king somewhat dejacted, still maintains the same proud bearing he had when he was the United States Minister to Spain. Mr. Mazouresu is apparently contented with his cituation. Neither of them has anything to say about the state of affairs at New Orleans. New Orleans.

The bill as passed provides for the emancipation of slaves of all the following classes:

First. Of every person who shall act as an officer of the robel army or navy.

Scond. Of every person who shall act as President, member of Congress, judge of any count. cabinet efficer foreign minister, commissioner, or cound of the so-called Confederate States.

Third. Of every 1 erson who shall act as Governor of a State, member of a Convention or Legislature, or judge of any State court of the so-called Confederate States.

Fourth. Of every person who, having held an office of honor, truet, or profit in the United States, shall hold an office in the so-called Confederate States.

Fifth. Of every person who shall hold any office or agency under the so-called Confederate States, or under any of the States thereof; but persons in the third and fifth clares must have accepted their appointments since the date of the passage of the Secession ordinance of their States, or nave taken an oath of allegiance to the Confederacy.

Sixih. Of every parson not within the above classes. Ine care of the pastage of the Secession ordinance of their States, or have taken an oath ot allegiance to the Confederacy.

Sixth. Of every person not within the above classes who, after the passage of the act, being wilfully, and without cempulsion, engaged in armed robelion, shall not, within sixty days after proclamation by the President, lay down his arms and return to his allegiance.

The bill also disqualited the said six classes from holding effice under the United States Government.

The President is authorized to negotiate for the acquisition, by treaty or otherwise, of lands or countries in Mexico, Central America, or South America, or in the islands of the Gulf of Mexico, or for the right of settlement up in the lands of the said countries, for all persons liberated under this act, to be removed with their own censent. For the nurpose of paying the expense of the purchase of such lands, and the removal of such persons, the President shall use such money as Congress may from time to time direct, arising from the sales of the property formerly owned by rebels, and which shall have been confiscated to the use of the United States.

The other sections of the bill mainly relate to the machinery by which the provisions of the bill are to be enforced.

The House then resumed the consideration of the bill forced.

The House then resumed the consideration of the bill authorizing the issue of additional treasury notes.

Mr. WIOBLIFFE (U.), of Kentucky, opposed it. He wanted to know what is to be done with the monoy, and whether any of it is to be appropriated for emancipation and the support of the eleven hundred contrabunds here who occupy houses which might be devoted to the sick and wounded instead of taking churches for that nurses. Mr. POMEROY (Rep.), of New York, during his remarks, said we had better borrow money at 7 per centum than inflate the currency during the present condition e affairs.

Mr. PIKE (Rep), of Maine, opposed the bill.

The committee then rose and the House adjournel.

Revolution in Venezuela. By the arrival yesterday of the bark White Wing, Captain N. Esling, from Porto Cabelle on the 5th instant, we obtain the following news in regard to the insurrection in Venezuela: On the 16th of May the Federals attacked Laguayra, got possession of the prison and magazine, and released all the prisoners. They also took what powder they found in the magazine and made good their retreat without doing any other damage than firing a few shots at the houses. On the 22d they attacked Caracas with about five or six hundred strong. After fighting from eight o'clock in the morning until dusk, they re treated. Their loss is unknown. The loss on the Government side was about one hundred killed and wounded. On the departure of the White Wing everything was quiet. Coffee was coming in slowly. THE DIAL is the title of a new daily issued by S. E. THE STRAWBERRY UROP.—The strawberry crep of this season equals, and probably exceed, any previous crop in the vicinity of this city. For three weeks past trains of wagons from New Jersey and our adjacent counties have been constantly coming into the city, and yesterday they appeared to be quite as plentiful as at any time during the season. In point of quality, as well as quantity, there is a superiority, the most of the berries being large and fine flavored. After years of experiments the growers of this fine fruit have discovered that the greatest success always attends when the beds are set on a hill-side looking to the east, both in regard to quantity and size. In such profusion are the berries still that they are a drug at twelve ceuts per gallon, only the better qualities going above that figure, except some choice varieties, which are rare. The height of the season will probably be over this week.

FIRE LAST EVENING.—The alarm of fire last evening, about ten o'clock, was caused by the burning of some combustibles in a wine cellar at No. 42 Third street, above Chestout An alarm was struck h Inin tiree, above the stutt. An alarm was struck by the State House, and a large number of fire companies were soon on the ground, although the services of but one or two were required. The flames were extinguished with but trifling demage, sithough for a time it was feared that it would prove more destructive. The fire was first discovered by some police officers, who fought the flames some time before an alarm was given, but were unable to arrost their progress.

Doings of the Provost Marshal Since the appointment of a Provost Marshal for this city the streets have been cleared of a number of straggling soldiers. A corporal's guard is constantly about, and thus far numerous coldiers, naable to give a satisfactory account of themselves, have been arrested. The Provest Marshal has established his headquarters at the old Pennsylvania Bank building, where all parties taken into custody are conducted.

That style is designed only for "plump" ladies, and, of course, makes ladies to whom Nature has been niggard of the cushiony adipose in their composition look positively frightful. Now, fashionable ladies in England are commonly lean. They affect the delicacy of the sylph, and scorn the robustness of the milkmaid. H. S. BENSON, Proprietor. INITED STATES HOTEL.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., JAMES K. ROBISON, This celebrated Hotel will be open for the reception of visitors on Saturday, June 21, 1862, and will continue open until September 15.

Since the last season many handsome improvements have been made, both to the house and the grounds, adding still further to the comfort, convenience, and pleasure of the guests.

Persons desiring to spend the sum ner at the Sos Shore will find the accommodations at the UNITED STATES superior to those of any other house on the Atlantic Coast.

HASSLER'S CELEBRATED BAND has been engugrd for the season, and will be under the direction of the Merst. Hersler.

Mr. THOMAS H. BARRATT, late of Cape May, will have charge of the Billiard Room, Ten-pin Alleys, and Shooting Gallery.

The extensive improvements made two years ago, and those now in contemplation by the owners of this splendid establishment, are an ample guarantee of what the patrons of the house may expect under its present management.
