

Obituary

SATURDAY, JUNE 21, 1862.

It is a noble thought that when our brethren leave us for other scenes of action they carry with them the love and the fondness which home and home associations always foster.

It is the noblest sentiment which can characterize the people. It is the noblest sentiment which can characterize the people.

It is the noblest sentiment which can characterize the people. It is the noblest sentiment which can characterize the people.

It is the noblest sentiment which can characterize the people. It is the noblest sentiment which can characterize the people.

It is the noblest sentiment which can characterize the people. It is the noblest sentiment which can characterize the people.

It is the noblest sentiment which can characterize the people. It is the noblest sentiment which can characterize the people.

It is the noblest sentiment which can characterize the people. It is the noblest sentiment which can characterize the people.

It is the noblest sentiment which can characterize the people. It is the noblest sentiment which can characterize the people.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Special Despatches to "The Press." Prussia has been unfortunate in most of her reverses.

Important Intercourse. Washington, June 20. The President has received a bill for the reorganization of the Executive Department.

General McDowell. General McDowell, though only recently injured by a fall from a horse, is reported to be recovering rapidly.

General Duell's Movements. A private letter received from New Orleans says that General Duell is expected to return to the city in a few days.

General Wallace in Command. General Wallace is reported to be in command of the troops at New Orleans.

General Negley's Command at Chattanooga. General Negley is reported to be in command of the troops at Chattanooga.

General Sherman's Movements. General Sherman is reported to be in command of the troops at Vicksburg.

General Grant's Movements. General Grant is reported to be in command of the troops at Vicksburg.

General Sherman's Movements. General Sherman is reported to be in command of the troops at Vicksburg.

XXXIVTH CONGRESS—FIRST SESSION.

Senate. The Senate has received a bill for the reorganization of the Executive Department.

House of Representatives. The House of Representatives has received a bill for the reorganization of the Executive Department.

House of Representatives. The House of Representatives has received a bill for the reorganization of the Executive Department.

House of Representatives. The House of Representatives has received a bill for the reorganization of the Executive Department.

House of Representatives. The House of Representatives has received a bill for the reorganization of the Executive Department.

House of Representatives. The House of Representatives has received a bill for the reorganization of the Executive Department.

House of Representatives. The House of Representatives has received a bill for the reorganization of the Executive Department.

House of Representatives. The House of Representatives has received a bill for the reorganization of the Executive Department.

House of Representatives. The House of Representatives has received a bill for the reorganization of the Executive Department.

Photographs for the Bible.

A new appropriation of $100,000 for the purchase of photographs for the Bible has been made.

Photographs for the Bible. A new appropriation of $100,000 for the purchase of photographs for the Bible has been made.

Photographs for the Bible. A new appropriation of $100,000 for the purchase of photographs for the Bible has been made.

Photographs for the Bible. A new appropriation of $100,000 for the purchase of photographs for the Bible has been made.

Photographs for the Bible. A new appropriation of $100,000 for the purchase of photographs for the Bible has been made.

Photographs for the Bible. A new appropriation of $100,000 for the purchase of photographs for the Bible has been made.

Photographs for the Bible. A new appropriation of $100,000 for the purchase of photographs for the Bible has been made.

Photographs for the Bible. A new appropriation of $100,000 for the purchase of photographs for the Bible has been made.

Photographs for the Bible. A new appropriation of $100,000 for the purchase of photographs for the Bible has been made.

LETTER FROM "OCCASIONAL."

Washington, June 20, 1862. The summer campaign may be said to have fairly opened with the proposal of a protracted fast.

Washington, June 20, 1862. The summer campaign may be said to have fairly opened with the proposal of a protracted fast.

Washington, June 20, 1862. The summer campaign may be said to have fairly opened with the proposal of a protracted fast.

Washington, June 20, 1862. The summer campaign may be said to have fairly opened with the proposal of a protracted fast.

Washington, June 20, 1862. The summer campaign may be said to have fairly opened with the proposal of a protracted fast.

Washington, June 20, 1862. The summer campaign may be said to have fairly opened with the proposal of a protracted fast.

FROM MEMPHIS.

General Wallace in Command. General Wallace is reported to be in command of the troops at New Orleans.

General Negley's Command at Chattanooga. General Negley is reported to be in command of the troops at Chattanooga.

General Sherman's Movements. General Sherman is reported to be in command of the troops at Vicksburg.

General Grant's Movements. General Grant is reported to be in command of the troops at Vicksburg.

General Sherman's Movements. General Sherman is reported to be in command of the troops at Vicksburg.

General Sherman's Movements. General Sherman is reported to be in command of the troops at Vicksburg.

LETTER FROM NEW YORK.

The brig Yankee Blade, Captain Fawcett, arrived this morning from New Orleans, having left that port on the 10th inst.

The brig Yankee Blade, Captain Fawcett, arrived this morning from New Orleans, having left that port on the 10th inst.

The brig Yankee Blade, Captain Fawcett, arrived this morning from New Orleans, having left that port on the 10th inst.

The brig Yankee Blade, Captain Fawcett, arrived this morning from New Orleans, having left that port on the 10th inst.

The brig Yankee Blade, Captain Fawcett, arrived this morning from New Orleans, having left that port on the 10th inst.

The brig Yankee Blade, Captain Fawcett, arrived this morning from New Orleans, having left that port on the 10th inst.

The brig Yankee Blade, Captain Fawcett, arrived this morning from New Orleans, having left that port on the 10th inst.

Advertisements and notices at the bottom of the page.