Atlantic Monthly for July.

This number will be published this day. It commences the tenth half yearly volume, and its continued success is fall evidence of its merit. The programme of the new volume is full of promise. The author of "Margaret Howth" has completed a new story called "David Gaunt," which will soon appear in this magazine. A posthumous journal of personal adventure and travel, by the late Theodore Winthrop, entitled "Life in the Open Air," will speedily be published here: the author of "My Garden" in the May number has contributed several sparkling articles-indeed, the old hands, including Holmes, Lowell, Agassiz, Higginson, and others, are "booked through for inside places." In the present number the most noticeable article is," Chiefly about War Matters," by a Peaceable Man-namely, Nathaniel Hawthorne. It relates his journey from Boston to Washington and the seat of war, last March, and is marked with the writer's observation and individuality. The editor of the A. M., it would seem, does not "endorse" all of his gifted contributor's remarks, so he omits not only single passages, but sometimes whole pages, where he treats of eminent personages, from the President down ! Notwithstanding these omissions, Mr. Hawthorne's narrative is full of interest, for it is full of common-

Here is his brief description of the Monitor: Going on board, we were surprised at the extent and convenience of her interior accommodations. There is a spacious ward-room, mine or ten feet in height, besides a private cabin for the commander, and elseping accom-modations en an ample scale; the whole well lighted and ventilated, though heneath the surface of the water. Forward, or aff. (for it is impossible to tell stern from stem.) the crew are relatively quite as well provided for as the officers. It was like finding a palaco, with all its conveniences, under the sea. The inaccessitulity, the apparent impregnabi-lity, of this submerged iron fortress are most satisfac-tory; the officers and crew got down through a little hole in ihe deck, hermeticely seal themselves, and go below; and unlil they see fit to reappear, there would seem to be no power given to man whereby they can be brought to light. A storm of canon-shot damages them no marks made by the great artillery of the Merrimac on the breadth and dopth of shallow saucers, almost inpar-ceptible dents, with no corresponding bulge on the inpar-ceptible dents, with no corresponding bulge on the in-terior surface. In fact, the thing locked allogsther too safe, though it may not prove quite an angreeable predica-ment to he thus boxed un in incenetrable icon. Here is his brief description of the Monitor : terior surface. In fact, the thing longe on the in-terior surface. In fact, the thing longe alloge there too safe, though it may not prove quite an agreesble predica-ment to be it us boxed up in impenetrable iron, with the presubility, one would imagine, of being sent to the 'bot-tom of the sea, and, even there, not drowned, but stilled. Nothing, however, can exceed the confidence of the offi-cers in this new craft. It was pleasaut to see their be-nign exuitation in her powers of mischief, and the delight with which they exhibited the circumvolu-tory movement of the tower, the quick thrusting forth of the immense guns to deliver their ponderous missiles, and then the immediate recoil, and the security behind the closed port-holes. Yet even this will not long be the last and most terrible improvement in the science of war. Already we hear of vessels, the armament of which is to act enticity beteath the surface of the water; so that, with no ther extern 4 symptoms than a greet tubbiling and foaning, and guith of smoke, and belo of smothered thunder cut of the soaty waves, thore shall be a deady fight going on below-mad, by-and-by, a sucking whirl-pool, as one of the shise goes down. Well-timed, ns well as full of personal informa-

Well-timed, as well as full of personal information, is Epes Sargent's account of "Ericsson and his Inventions"-the only good sketch yet published of a remarkable man and his productions. Mrs. Howe and Dr. Holmes severally contribute poetry to this number, and we find a further portion of Professor Agassis's "Methods of Study in Natural History." Bayard Taylor contributes a story of Quaker Life-touchingly told, notwithstanding the bad grammar of "Thee knows," and "Thee's fond," and "What's thee doing," and "Thee has. has thee," and so on. Mr. Hazewell reviews Fronde's vindication of Henry the Eighth, and there is an excellent, practical paper, showing how Taxation, on right principles, will not be a national burden. We omitted to say that the opening article, by John Weiss, gives many curious specimens of foreign Soldier Poetry.

THE DISCOURSBOF THE REV. WK. J. R. TAYLOR. D. D., ON THE DEATH OF THE LATE DR. GHORGH W. BETHUNE. D D., delivered in the Third Reformed Dutch Church of this city, has been published in neat pamphlet form. The text upon which the sermon is founded is as follows; "Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken nnto you the word of God ; whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation, Jesus Christ, the same yesterday and to-day, and forever." The discourse which follows is an eloquent and scholarly review of Dr Bethune's life and labors, with ap-propriate comments upon individual points. In

memorial sermons of the distinguished dead, Dr. Taylor has long since acquired an enviable name, and the sermon now before us will add new lustre to his reputation in this department of pulpit eloquence. ECCLESIASTICAL UNITY EXPRESSED IN A NEW FORM .- The subject of Union between the various branches of the Presbyterian Church has of late been much agiatated, and is resulting in a parallelism of taste between some of their denominational newspapers that is remarkable. This week the American Presbyterian (organ of the New School Presbyterian Church, in this city), published at 1334 Chestnut street, and the Banner of the Covenant (organ of the Reformed Presbyterian Church), published at 104 Jones alley, come to us with the reading matter on three pages of the respective sheets precisely the same in both papers. As the territory of difference is thus narrowed down to a single page entire union between the two is not im-THE SADBATH SCHOOL OF THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH, WEST PHILADELPHIA, has just held its anniversary. Mr Charles B. Keen, the superintendent, in his annual report, stated that the numher of officers and teachers now engaged in the school is 34; number of scholars in the main school. 235: number in the infant school, 101: total, 369. The pastor, Rev. J. H. Castle, received the "offerings," which amounted to $300. The latter are to be devoted to the completion of their house of worship. A short address was made by the Rev. James S. Dickerson, of Wilmington, Del., and editor of the Christian Chronicle, after which a iubilee piece was sung by the children, and the audience dismissed with a benediction. "THE POWERS TEAT BE." according to the interpretation of South Carolina ecclesiastics, means the State of South Carolina. To this extreme has the periodous doctrine of State Rights been engrafted upon the Southern mind. The Presbyterian Sy-ned of South Carolina, at a recent meeting in Abbe-ville, passed the following resolutions. The at-tempt to doff their spiritual sharacter in avowing treason is commendable, if even is is ridloulons: Resolved, By the ministers and elders compris-ing this Synod, not in their private capaoity as citizens and a convocation of Christian gentle-men, that our all synon cis due through the sover. ing this Synch, not in their ecolesisatical capacity as a court of Jesus, but in their private capacity as a court of Jesus, but in their private capacity as a citizens and a convocation of Christian gentle-men, that our all-giance is due through the sore-reign State to which we belong, and shall be ren-dered to the Government of these Confederate States so long as South Carolina remains in the States so long as South Carolina remains in the THE REY. CHARLES HOWARD MALCON, SOD OF Rev. Dr. Malcom of this city, is pastor of the Second Baptist Church of Newport, R. I., and is now recovering from a pretracted and severe illness. He is at present stopping at the residence of his father at Roxborough. DESTRUCTION OF THE WICKED .- From the following extract from a letter of a Chicago correspondent of the Now York Independent, it would seem that the doctrine of the ultimate and literal destruction of the lost, which has been denounced and preached against as the prince of heresics, is beginning to be regarded with less disfavor. The Mr. Hudson referred to is the author of one of the most able and exhaustive works over written upon this controverted point : "Rev. C. F. Hadson, who holds that the fature punishment of the worked will end in the extinction of their being, and in everlasting loss, is in this oity selling the assortment of books and tracts which he has written on the subject. He has letters fr. m has written on the subject. He has letters from several well-known Presbyterian ministers, express-ing their confidence in him as a Christian and a minister; and while they dissent from his view on this point, they deem his error insufficient to ex-clude him from Church or ministerial fellowship. He feels encouraged by the ready sale of his writings, and says that he knows quite a number of orthodox ministers who give their assent to his views?

THE SHERIFF CONTESTED ELECTION CASE.—When this case was resumed resternay morning Mr. Hirst arose and stated that there was a matter of serious moment in connection with the case, which renuired attention. On Thursday, after the witness. Adams (who testified that he voted at the last election for John Thompson, not having paid a tax within two years), had left the court room, he was arrested, on a warrant issued by Alderman Beitler, on the complaint of Samuel Daniels, who was a deputy in the late sheriff's office, charged with illegal voting, and bound over in the sum of $800. Mr. Hirst referred to the act of Assembly, which con-

Mr. Hirst referred to the act of Assembly, which con-ferred the same power on the court in contested election cases as was possessed by the committee of the Legisla-ture in such cases, and that the act provided that where an illegal voter tostified to his having voted illegally he should not be prosecuted for having so voted. Mr. Hirst further said that it was due to the court that metil the respondent's witnesses were disabused rf this threat that is held oven them of a prosecution if they testified that they had voted illegally, the case should not so on.

He was carried to England's drug store, at Tenth and Gathariue streets, where his wounds were dressed. The alderman, on learn-hus the circumstances, despatched Deputy Constable Gilligant, who made the arrest, and the accused was hold to answer.

testified that they had voted illegally, the case should not go on. Judge Thompson inquired what motion Mr. Hirst pro-posed making. Mr. Birst replied that his motion was that the case abould be continued until to fay, so that the minds of wincesses should be disabased of the threat b) the same means that had been so industriously employed to circu-late it. Mr. Hirst further read the report of the arrest and binding over of the wincess as reported, and also the transcript of the alderman, showing the proceedings be-fore bim. Mr. Hirst further argued that it. was not fair that a witness who was compelled to answer him under owth, and was protected by the act of Assembly, should do so with the threat before him of being prosecuted im-mediately for illegal voting, that their case should not be affected as it was, by the threat of prosecution held over the witnesses, if they declared for whom they voted. Wr. Thayer stated that he should consider it improper for him to say a word in this matter, were it not for the fact that a motion had been mads for a continuance of the cuse. On the part of Mr. Thompson, he deemd it due to him to say that he knew nothing of the arrest, and had not participated in it, either directly or indi-rectly. He opposed the continuance, because, as to the prosecution, it was entirely a matter belween Mr. Adams and his prosecutor, and the contestant's cases should not be affected by the conduct of. newspapers in reporting matters that were invariably reported. PERSONAL.—The Fair of the Union Volunteer Refreshment Saloon, at the foot of Washington atreet, was visited by Parson Brownlov on Thuraday af-ternoon. His scritral was announced by a salute. After he was conducted and introduced to the ladies, and un-dergone a severe hard-shaking, he made a few brief re-marks to the assemblage. He expressed himself gratified to meet the ladies in doing so noble a work, and told what sufferings were endured by loyal Tennesseans; tho afrocities were of such a character that he dare not men-tion them in the presence of so many ladies and children, but he would set them forth fully, and in groper manner, in his forthcoming book. He touched on the leaders of the rebellion and their cause, in a style and manner which he can claim as arcominently criginal. Threabeen deterred from attending on account of the notice, then the court would remedy it. Judge Ludlow agreed with Judge Thompson, saying that while it was spparent what was the object of the ar-rest, yet it had not been established by legal evidence, and at this stage of the case it could not interfare with it. He spreed with Judge Thompson, that they could not judicially notice atticles in newspapers councenting on the case. He forther held that the case ought to pro-ceed, but that indugence should be shown if there was difficulty in obtaining testimony during the day. The case proceeded, and John Rodgers was called and sworn. He testified to having voted at the last election at the Sorenth division of the Third ward ; he voted at the law in datherine. ARREST OF A DISORDERLY SECESH. —An individual giving the name of William Foley was arrested at Penn and South streets on Thursday night upon the charge of disorderly conduct, and was taken 'to the Second District Station House, where he remained during the night. A search of his pockets revealed a bundle of bons fide Confederate notes, of the denomina-tion of $5, $10, and $20. He had also a document signed Wm. W. J. Kelly, Postmaster, C. S. N., and approved by J. Burledge, Commendant Naval Station, South Caro-lina and Georgia. This document was an honorable dis-charge from the O. 8. steamer Huntress. He is a young man, about 25 years of age. He re-fuside infomention of his condition or prospects. Subse-quently it was ascertained that the "Secceth" was one of a released crew of a prize vessel brought heroby th United Estes steamer Massachusetts. The Secretary of the Navy had directed the United States marshal to re-lease all these prisoners, as they could be ouly a burden to the Government. Foley had served a year in the "Confedracy," and, when coming a-bore, eladily threw off restraint, and determined to get 'd dunk." THE LADIES' HEBBEW ASSOCIATION. THE NEW POST OFFICE.-Owing to THE LADIES' HEBREW ASSOCIATION FOR THE BELIEF OF THE SICIC AND WOUND-FD SOLDIERS.-A desire to contribute to the relief of the gick and wounded soldlers now in our midst induces many graceful exhibitions on the part of all classes of the community. Young and old vie with each other in their offerings of all that money can procure, or gentle hards produce j aud, not content with this, many go yot furth er, end give the soldiers the genial effects of their sympathetic visits dur wive, slaters, and daughters seem determined to be as ministering angels. to those whom the hortors of war have thrown upon our hands, and their zeal proves their labor to be one of love. There can be no better way to show their particitism than this, atteredic, as it is, with so many grateful results. A lively desire to systematize their labors and to ob-tain all the sdvantages of co-operation brought together a numerous assemblage of ladies and gentlemen in the vestry room of the Julianus. Street Synagogre, on Thursday evoning. Cheerfulness and tunninity charac-terized their proceedings, and in a very short time they orgenized a relief association. Gillignu, who made the arrest, and the accused was made to answer. On Thursday, as a number of policemen were arresting or driving off a gang of mischievous boys, at Beventeenth and Hamilton streets, they were assaulted by some un-known men in a neighboring foundry, who threw bricks and other missiles. The officers, after having disposed of the boys, proceeded to the foundry and demanded to know the parties who threw the bricks, asying at the seme time that they (the officers) would arrest them. He lost a pair of gold spectacles in the encounter. He was about starting for Washington at the time of the occurrence. There is a scarcity of lamps along that bortion of Washington street, and a party of scoundrels assemble there on dark nights to stlack persons whom they may suspect of hav-ing valuables about them. As Washington street is one of the principal thoroughfares in the southern section of the cit; it is time that a few more lamps were placed upon it, that citizens may see where they are going to and avoid the assaults of ruffians.

laid to Bidgwar, 110 miles from Eric, by the last of Au-gust. The business of the completed portion of the western division of this road, sixty-six miles, has greatly exceeded the experiations of the most nuclear friends of the enter-prise. It is mostly due, however, to the immense ship-net ts of petroleum, so recently developed in Northwest-ern Penneylvanis. The number of barrels of petroleum carried over this portion of the road, since it has been in running order, but little over two years, was 21,706 bar-rele in 1860, and 134,927 barrels in 1861. In addition to which, we have the movement for the present year, up to the 1st of June. of over 110,000 barrels, making a general total of 266,723 barrels of oil forwarded in a little over two years. Reduced to gallons, the quantily is about eleven millions. How BAIL IS OBTAINED FOR CRIMI-How BAIL IS OBTAINED FOR CRIMI-NALS — One of the mysteries of the civil and criminal courts is the ball business. It is something that out-siders cannot understand. In the criminal courts people are surprised, after having a party arrested for some great outrage, to see them out in an hour afterwards ; and yet nobodr. is to blame. For instance : A noted thief is caught in the act and brought before a megistrate, coun-sel is employed, not to deferd him, but to se modify the case that, ball will be modified in the same proportion. The bail is then procured, who is amply secured, and paid one or two hundred dollars for his services. When the case comes on, and the defendant dors not ap-pear, he makes a grand pow-wow, spends twonty-five or fifty dollars to get the thief. Clear, and it he does, then he is sell right; if he fails, he manages by some means to settle the matter for a trifle. In one case alone, we know of a professional bendsman, who has made ten thousand dollars clear during the last year.

PURE COD-LIVER OIL. The repugnance of most patients to COD-LIVER OIL, and the insbility of many to take it at all, has in-duced various forms of disguise for its administration that are familiar to the Medical Profession. Some of them answer in special cases, but more eften theyrchicle neutralizes the neucl effect of the Oil, proving quite as unpaktable and of less theraponit value. The repug-nance, nances, ico., to invalids, induced by disgust of the OIL, is entirely obviated by the use of our OAPSULIES. OOD-LIVER OIL OAPSULIES have been much need lately in Europe, the exportence there of the goof re-solts from their use in both hospital and private practice, adde from the naturally suggested advantages, are suf-ficient to warrant our claiming the virtues we de for them, feeling assured their use will result in benefit and deserved favor.
