Who will imitate the noble example of this Christian and patriotic lady ? Devoted ministers and laymen are giving their time grathitously to this work, and we hope it will be susained, and that liberal contributions will be made for be relief of the soldiers who are pariling their lives in defence of their country. Contributions in articles, sent to the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association, 1009 and 1011 Chestnut street, or of money, to George H. Stuart, Esq.,

STRAWBERRIES AND CREAM .- The palm of strying up the ' prize'' strawberri s of the season must he awarded to J. W. Price, proprietor of the splendid Restaurant, couthwest corner of Fourth and Chestout. For some days past his patrons (who; by the way, con-stitute a large proportion of our first-class citizens who "dine down town") have been feasted upon such ico-cream-au d-strawberry dessert as to occasion general re-mark, the strawberries being of the largest size and most delicious flavor that have yet been cultivated. Price's elegant new dining saloon is daily reaping epicurean lag-

rels, by the faste and luxuriarce with which its tables are constantly supplied. A COOL SUGGESTION .- During the heat of summer improper dress is in no part of the human body more detrimental to health than the head. An almost omnipotent preventive of disease, in fact, at this season, i- found in keeping the head cool The selection of a hat, therefore, becomes a matter of sanitary importance. Warburton's elegant summer hais, in every variety, at

430 Chestnut street, meet the philosophy upon this point to a nicety. Bis stock of Straw Hats is unrivalled. WHOLESOME MEATS FOR THE WARM WEA-THER.-Mr. C. H. Mattson, dealer in fine groceries, Arch and Tenth streets, has constantly on hand a good supply of the best summer mosts-elogast Jersay-cured hams, delicious large-sized longues, and superior dried beef, to which we invite the attention of our readers. "THOMSON'S LONDON KITCHENER," or Europran Range, advertised in another column; by Mesars. North, Chase, & North, No 200 North Second street, is attracting the general attention of the public.

THE SECRET OUT .- The object of the President's visit to General Scott is revealed to the public by the traitorism of the New York Herald's reporter. The following extract explains itself: "I attended the Presicest from New York to West Point, and wasnever from his side; at night I retired with him to his chamber, pulled off his boots, and slept (or tried to) on the foot of H Fetter, Pennsylvania his bed. The President was very restless in his dream continually ejaculating Brave Volunteers !! Banks, "Fremont." "No clothes or shoes.' &c ; and from other remarks I learned that the object of the visit was to con-sult with the 'Old Vetera' as to the propriety of establishing, somewhere in the valley of the Shenand clething depot, similar to Charles Stokes' one-price, under the Continental, in Philadelphia, where clothing and 'bullet-proof vests' could be furnished the army, good and cheap, ready made." WHAT CONSTITUTES A GREAT MAN .- A great nan is affable in his conversation, generous in his tem-
