Evening Post of to-day says: ook a strong Post of to-day says:

ook a strong downward surge to-day. The red silence of the Government in regard to affairs of Richmond produces an uncomfortable feeling, which is further increased by the call for three hundred thousend troops. The market would raily very quickly upon the slightest good news from Washington, and this may come at any moment. Prices seem to be controlled almost entirely by news from the seat of war. The quick demand for money is also not without its influence up on the speculative stocks, these being somewhat disturbed by the active shifting of loans. by the active shifting of loans. Among the st adjest of the list is Cleveland and Pitts hurg, 22% bid.

After the Board the disposition to sell increased, and New York Central sold down to 90; Eric 35%; Michigan guaranteed 584.

The feature of the bond list is the weakness in some of the railroad mortgues which have rapidly advanced of late. Toledo and Wabash seconds fell to 60, Michigan Southern seconds to 83, Illinois Central Construction to 91. 91. rement stocks are % % per cent. lower, but t any pressure to sell. The 7 30 notes are quoted without any pressure to sell. The 7 30 notes are quoted at the close 104%, sales.

The money market is a little uneasy, and the rate or The money market is a little uneary, and the rate on call is full & per cent. The decilie in stocks causes many changes of loans. No new transactions can be effected under 6 per cent, and these on first-class collaturals.

The gold market is quite excited again, and 109% is Treely bid for small and large lots. The uneasiness occasioned by the suppression of news from McCleliau neutralizes the effect of the fresh supply thrown on the market from the payment of dividends.

in dress is scarcely less a natural gift than personal beauty." It is also universally conceded that the nat is the nost expressive feature in the "make-up" of a roell dressed man; therefore, choose a hat of becoming form and proportions. Gentlemen of taste will find the wants met in the best style at WARBURTON'S, No. 430 · Chestnut street. PURE.IMPORTED MALT LIQUORS .- Mr. C. H. Mattson, dealer in fine groceries, Arch and Tenth streets, has now on hand, for medicinal purposes, the pures and best brands of Liondon Brown Stout and Scotch Ales, which he has had subjected to the best chemical tests, and can, therefore, recommend them to the public with perfect confidence as to their absolute purity. ANOTHER GRAND REQUISITION .- THREE : HUNDRED THOUSAND SOLDIERS WANTED .- The President has determined to finish up the work of putting down the rebellion by calling out three bundred thousand mon .In addition to those who are alleady in the field. This overwhelming force will make short work of the traitors and keep them subdued, provided the new levies are properly armed and furnished with such comfortable and elegant uniforms at have al-Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Cheston street, above Sixth. "I Don't SEE IT."-Lord Nelson is undoubtedly the author of this slang phrase. At the cele-brated navel battle-of Copenhagen, Nelson, who was de-termined to continue the fight but wasse attention had been called to a signal of the commanding officer to cease hostilities, placed his hand over his good ere, and pre-tending to look with his blind one, said—"I don't seeit," and at once ordered a brisk renewal of the engagement. This expression is never uttered by those who visit the Mammath Clothing Emporium of Granville Stokes, No. and cheapest summer garments in the country. TO THE FRIENDS OF OUR SOLDIERS. In the report of the battle of "Fair Oaks Farm," the following incident is mentioned by the New York Tribune's corre spondent: "An efficer of the Nineteenth Massachtsett was 'iron-clad' with the patent bullet-proof vest; a bal struck his breast, whirled him around, indented the plating, and rolled down his panialoons. This yest will resist a bayonet thrust, a pistol shot, or a rifle ball, at thirty yards. They are manufactured of three sizes, and Mr. Charles Stokes, who is the sole agen for this city, desires us to say that soldiers can have sen to them a vest that will fit, by a friend giving the average size of the person. No. 2 will fit a great majority of par-sons.
