FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADELPHIA, July 15, 1862. Specie matters denoted considerable excitement to-day, as the rate has advanced 1 per cent. on yesterday's street figure. The demand was very large, and 116 was readily paid for the large pieces. There was no evidence of panic, but it seems as if 115 is to be the base of specie opeons for the present. It may vary up to 117 and down to 113, but it is thought the figure named will be the average for some time to come. This will be the case until the exportation is checked by amounts of produce for-warded, and bills of exchange thereby created in sufficient quantity to throw the balance of trade against the nercial centres. The energy developed by some of the New York shippers is working rapidly to tions in the line of specie exportations.

As a consequence of " old demands" being equal to old, for all commercial-purposes, they advance in about the same proportion as gold, the amount still in circula-tion keeping the relative value of the notes far behind the coin; as they diminish in amount they will grasp at the

Frankfort, 60 days sight. 48 The New York Evening Post of to-day says:
The stock market remains heavy and inactive, but the reduced prices of this morning brought in considerable orders to buy, and at the close of the First Board, we notice a decided improvement in both prices and business. Early in the day New York Central went as low as 894, Enie 824, Calena 68, Michigan Central 50, and other speculative shares in proportion; but sales are now making at an advance of Many per cent. on these figures.

sums .-- For many months, Mr. F. Gutekunst, the most skilful and artistic photographer in this city, has been making the finest card photographs of a public character, for the Album, that have been sold on this side of the Atlantic. Recently, he has fitted up an elegant groundfloor Gallery, in connection with his spacious operating rooms, Nos. 704 and 706 Arch street, where the choicest pictures produced by him are sold to the public; also, ograph Albums in every style. The praise of Mr. G.'s pictures is now sounded everywhere. We do no wonder that his rooms are almost universally resorted to by all who desire first class pictures. ALWAYS AHEAD.—Like a true patriot, J. W. Price, proprietor of the People's Restaurant, southwest corner of Fourth and Chestnut, believes in keeping in the advance. We have followed his catering car paign, since making his late elegant improvements, with some interest, and have found him invariably ahead in urnishing his patrons with choice edibles of the season in advance of all competitors. Yesterday his guests were Tomatoes, and to-day (Wednesday) we understand h will charm the palates of those who know where to dine with the first Green Corn of the season. Price undoubt edly stands at the head of his profession

SUMMER CONFECTIONS .- Mr. A. L. Vansant Ninth and Chestnut streets, is now putting up his elegent confections, expressly adapted for the warm weetle n elegant boxes, for carrying to the country. No one hould leave town without a supply of them. He is als daily adding to his rich stock of hot-house and tropical ruitz-grapes, peaches, bananas, et cetera. WHALING VOYAGE.—This highly entertainng exhibition continues to draw good audiences at the Assembly Building. It is the only entertainment now offered to our citizens, all the other places of amusement having closed for the season. July. July is the hottest month of the year. The northern part of the earth is now fairly aunched into the rays of the sun. The mean tempera ture in Philadelphia is 65 deg., or about 3 deg. high than that of June. The main daily maximum is 73 deg; the mean minimum of the night is 56 deg. The nights are not as warm as those of August, but the days are warmer. The mean range of the thermometer is from 65 deg. to 45 deg. The highest recorded temperature is 102 deg.; the lowest 36 deg.

This all points to the necessity of light clothing; and this in turn points to Charles Stokes' Clothing Store, under the Continental, where it can be had at the lower

THREE STAGES OF BEAUTY .- Beauty has three stages—the coy, the dignified, and the intellectual. The first exists until about twenty, the second until wings and flown away. The young Miss has a primpage iance from her years. In the case of man, however this is different. All men appear beautiful who array themselves in fashionable summer garments, procured a the Palatial Clothing Emporium of Granvilla States. No. 609 Chestrat THE SCARCITY OF CHANGE.-Everybody is complaining of the want of change. Nickels are in demand; silver is eagerly sought for and heavily-paid for; and the price of gold is kiting upward at a frightful rate. We do not know what to suggest for this deplorable want; but if any of our masculine readers need change of a different description, they can readily obtain it by purchesing an elegant suit at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestant

PROVERBIAL PHILOSOPHY. BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL. In the proverbs of the wise Much wisdom often lies: For example,—in those ages Which produced large crops of sages. It was said by one old fellow,— (Bipe his head was, but not mellow.) If you wish to travel gaily · Over life's dull pathway daily, Two things you'll find quite needful, And to have them both be headful;-One-a heart all light within, Two-a pair of pants quite thin. With these things in your possession Swift, oh man, is your progression !

Thus the ancient wise man spoke, And the saying is no joke. But as old sayings may be monded. Some remarks I have appended: Thin pants and a light heart Of the fixtures you require; But a Summer suit entire, Bought at Tower Hall, will make you Travel nicely through life's journey, Then no suitry air can bake you, And no solar blazes burn you. The largest stock of Summer Clothing, suits entire of fractional parts, to be found in Philadelphia, on hand, comprising a general assortment of all styles, size ualities, and prices. We buy and sell for cash onlytherefore, at the lowest possible prices. TOWER HALL, No. 518 Market street, Philadel-BENNETT & CO. SELF-ADJUSTING PATENT CLOTHES-

JAYNE'S ALTERATIVE.—It is n established fact that a very large class of diseases can only be cured by such medicines as will enter into the blood and circulates with it through every portion of the body, for only by this means can the remedy be brought into immediate contact with the disease. To obtain this desirable end, no preparation has ever hee so uniformly successful as Dr. D. JAYNE'S ALTE-RATIVE. SOROFULA, SKIN DISEASES. CANCER, ERYSIPELAS. RHEUMATISM. DROPSY. EPILEPSY. &c. FEMALE COMPLAINTS.—In many affections pe culier to females, especially whon arriving at maturity, or at the "change of life," the Alterative is unsurpassed by any other remedy. Diseases, and diseases originating from a deprayed or imperfect state of the Blood, are all cured by Jayne Alterative; and while it is a fault in many medicine that, when they are removing the disease they are also prostrating the patient beyond recovery, the Alterative has no such drawback. While neutralizing the virus of disease at its very source, it sustains the strength of the suff-rer. The union of Disinfectant Tonic, and Destruent properties in this medicine, and the fact that all these influences are blented harmoniously in its one parations. Let the afflicted give it a trial. The ALTERATIVE is prepared only by Dr. D. JAYNE & SON, No. 242 CHESTNUT Street, and is sold by druggists generally. SINGER & Co.'s LETTER "A" FA-MILY SEWING MACHINE, WITH ALL THE REand MOST BEAUTIFUL, of all Sewing Machines. TUST PUBLISHED! BARCHESTER TOWERS; A NOVEL, BY ANTHONY TROLLOPE. Luther of "Dr. Thorne," etc. Two vols., paper, price

25 cents each vol.; cloth, 75 cents complete. Athony Trollope, who has an excellent reputation in Europe, as a novelist, has written nothing better than a Barchester Towers. It is a novel full of the deepest sterest, and yet is by no means one of those "sensa ion" remances to which a correct judgment very properobjects. It is stirring, simple, curious, moral, wellwritten, and wholly unobjectionable in tone and senti-ment. Add to this that each volume is not only printed on fine white paper, with large, clear time, but that each is made just of a convenient size to drop into the coat pocket, and what could be more luxurious reading for the traveller? BY THE AUTHOR OF "GEY LIVINGSTON," ETG PRICE 50 CENTS. "It would be folly to use stereotyped phrases about this powerful and singular book, with its keen analysis of human motives, and the marked and peculiar charac-ters it introduces to the reader. All the personages who move and; breathe through it are vividly pictured : but Sir Alan Wyverne and Lady Mildred Vavassenr stand out in strong relief from the rest. The story is clearly told, and the catastrophe, though unexpected, is in keeping. Like "Guy Livingston," it will make a legitimate sensation; but we pronounce it a better book than 'Guy Livingston, "-Athenaum. Published by DIOK & FITZGERALD,
