THE MONEY MARKET.

PHILADELPHIA, July 18, 1862. great relief was experienced to-day among business and storekeepers, in the matter of small change e signature of the President, making postage stamps a onal currency, has removed the strain put upon those o required much small colo. Besides accommodating community, the bill makes the issning of " promises pay" by any corporation, or individual, a punishable ace. This act of the President has not only relieved se whole North from the dread of having millions of rthless shinplasters thrown on the market, but it also ents the evidence of hard times-a want of speciem constantly assailing the minds of our people. The aral effect of this postage stamp movement will be orth millions to the Government. Before, everybody s asking "What is to become us?" "We must have inplasters," would be the reply. "I would sconer we nothing " was the invariable remark. But now erybody laughs at the idea of holding post office mps as money, but at the same time they very coolly cket them. From a dreadful depression, storekeepers ave bounded into an extraordinary elation, and the re business men are chuckling again.

Not a few persons imagined when they were tendered a inty-cent stamp, that they had to write a thirty-cent ter, and it was a hard matter to beat it into their heads t the stamp was in reality money. The bill is to take fect on the 1st of August, and, until the details of f me to hard, we advise every one to circulate the new diam as cheerfully as possible. We consider this other masterly stroke by our great Secretary-another op to the cref it of our country.

We have ith in the foresight of Napoleon, and think him to be erely scheming, in order to throw his great antagonist ato the field against us. Napoleon does not sit so se-nucly on his throne us to risk the firmness of his seat enguging in a war with a country so powerful in its irces and so much the natural ally of France, both regards the sympathies of her people and the cotemraneous rise of two of her greatest generals, and the rides she is making in civil, military, and political ower. When to the long catalogue of maxims is added, Napoleon is not Napoleon." the people of both couns will understand the true character of the French the Gorpel, and worth NEW CARTES DE VISITE BY GUTEKUNST .- Mr. F. Gutekunst, the celebrated photographer of this city, has inst brought out, in his own neenllarly artistic style, cartes le visite for the popular Album of the following distinguished divines : Rev. Henry Steele Clarke, D. D., nastor of the Central Presby terian Church; Rev. T. J. Shep-herd, pastor of the Buttonwood-street Church; Rev. J. G. Butler, of West Philadelphia; Rev. Mr. Adair, re-cently located at Northstown; Rev. Howard Malcom, D.

D., one of the most eminent Baptist divi, es and author n the country ; and Rev. Dr. Wadsworth, lately removed to California. Also, a fine copy of a paintin g of Bishop White, of Pennsylvania; one of a bust of Jefferson, and a fine picture from life of Dr. Hodge, a well-known physician in this city.

THE PATENT LIMBS, invented, manufactured, and applied by Dr. B. Frank, Palmer, No. 1609 Chestnut street, have been adopted by the army and navy surgeons as being far superior to all others. We are glad of this, as it is a deserved recognition of one of the greatest humanitarian inventions of the age.

A "PLEASANT TONIC AND APPETIZER, OUT readers will find in "Drake's Plantation Bitters," which is now sold by all the principal druggists and grocers in the United States. It is a most excellent promoter of health Try it.

IN FINE FRUITS AND CONFECTIONS Philadelphia is in advance of every other city in the Union. The stock of Mr. A. L. Vausant, corner of Ninth and Chestnut streets, is so great a noveity in this line that strangers spend hours in examining its delicious contents, and in supplying themselves with his fine French and American mistures, crystalized fruits, hot-house grapes, peaches, and other delicacies not found else where.

"BALM OF A THOUSAND FLOWERS."-This delightful article for the tollet is now selling at ML J. R Casselberry's, No. 45 North Eighth street, at the unprecedented low price of EIGHT CENTS PER BOTTLE, warranted genuine, and fully equal to any sold at 50 cents. The ladies of our city, during the last week, have been availing themselves of this rare opportunity, by thourands, and, as the slock will probably soon be exhausted, we would say to those who have not yet done so, "go and do likewise."

THE "LIGHT" QUESTION, which, some time since, monopolized so much attention, has at last simply resolved itself into this, viz.; that the only portable Light that ought to be used in this city, or anywhere else, is the celebrated Lamp for burning Kerosene Oil, nufactured and sold by Messrs. Witters & Co., at their widely-known "Light Emporium," No. 35 North Eighth street, corner of Filbert.

> UNITED STATES HOTEL, ATLANTIC CITY .--This admirably managed establishment is fast filling up, and a goodly number of guests are daily arriving at the other hotels. So far, the indications are that the season will be a good one for the hotel proprietors at this popular watering place. The first hop of the season will take place at the United States Hotel this evening. Mårk Hassler's splendid bard will be in attendance.

PURE CIDER VINEGAR AND OLD CHEESE. There is, perbaps, no article more injurious to health than par usually sold to consumers. It is nothing else but vitriol diluted with water. from their field pieces, charged with gunpowder. This pipe was taken from the street mains of Richmond, they having no shell. Secesh is also badly off for uniforms. In this locality both soldiers and civilians procure their garments at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Bockhill & Wilson, Nos 603 and 605 Ohestnut street, above Sixth.
