Sutlers in Prison at Richmond The following ere among the prisoners confined in Richmond. They are regarded by the Confederate Government simply as citizens, and are confined in the Libby tobacco factory, now used as a prison for the sick and wounded, the surgeons and civilians. They are well, but occupying as they do a room with hundreds of sick and winded, lying with them on the same floer, without octs or beds, and on short rations (two meals per day) of oread and meat, express themselves as decidedly uncomfortable: rtable: Baiph C. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADELPHIA, July 22, 1862. Business on the street was extremely active to-day, and bullion commands the greater part of the attention of the banking fracernity. At the Board of Brokers gold brought 120.  The New York Evening Post says: The New York Evening Post says:

The stock market has come to a stand still, both buyers and sollers awaiting further news from Europe. The advices by the Asia, published in the morning papers are in answer to dates from this stoc to July 1st, and till the response to the accounts of July 3d are received there will probably be no special activity in fancy sticks. The dealings to-day are at a decline of 35 ml. per cant from the prices of yesterday, with but little permittive spirit at the close. New York Central is quited 92, against 1922 and 252 wasterday, and other shares show a correspond-92% 693 vesterday, and other shares show a correspo ng reonotion.

After the Board prices were still lower. New York Central is selling at 01% of 01%; Erie 33%; Both Island 62%; Toledo 46%; Gaiena 60%; Michigan Cantral 68%. The weakest of the railway shares is Michigan Central; And weaters of the rainway naives is microgan bearra; sales were made as low as 58 %, against 60 % yesterday. Michigan guarantied closes with sellers at 54 %. Railroad bonds are quiet and rather lower. Erie Fourtis fell 1% per cent; Cleveland as d'Toiedo Sink-Sig Funds, 1%; Michigan Southern Sinking Funds, 1; Terre Haats and Alton First, 1; Toledo and Wabash riseconds. Terre Mante and Alton First, 1; Toledo and Wadash (Seconds, 4.

There is continued heaviness in Government securities. The reales early in the day were at a doctine of 1 por cent, on the quotations of 7 seat-clay, and since the Board still lower prices are established. Under a pressure to sell, 97 was accepted for the 6s of 1881, and 101½ for 7.30 treasury notes. At the reduction, however, there is a better inquiry. For 6 per cent. certificates of indebtedness 97½ is bid.

The foreign exchange market is quite dull for the Bostion steamer on account of the slack demand. First class bills on London are quoted at 181½ of 132.

The market for silver is very item, and at 115 there is a strong demand. We have heard of purchases of small change, on country orders, at 115½ of 16 per cent.

The gold market is without special change. Nearly all the sales have been at 120 of 120½ for merchantable lots, and 120½ of 20½ of double caules. At the close, there are sellers at 120, which is a shade lower in sympathy with the duliness of the exchange market.

Polindelphia Stock Exchange Sales, July 22. with the duliness of the exchange market.

CITY ITEMS. EXHIBITION OF YOUTHFUL PATRIOTISM IN MANTUAVILLE .- It is gratifying that among the compensating effects of the rebellion at the South, is the development of a genuine, self-sacrificing patriotism at the North. Nor is this confined to any sex or age. Men who have never been known to give a dollar from mere notives of love of country, are now opening wide their purses for the benefit of the braves who have been disabled in the service of our country; and even little children, in emulation of this growing spirit, are vicing with older ones in these humane and patriotic efforts. The latest case of this kind we have to record, occurred at Mantuaville, West Philadelphia, last week. Two little girls, one eleven and the other thirteen years of age, conved the idea of getting up a fair for the benefit of the sick and wounded soldiers, and were making preparations on a tiny scale to hold it in a yard attached to one of their homes. They had not proceeded long, however, before they had enlisted enough older persons in their enterprise to render it of sufficient importance to secure the use of a public room, which was accordingly done, the "fair" having been held on Bridge street above Thirty-eighth street, on the 15th, 16th and 17th instant. The net amount realized from this juvenile undertaking was ninety dollars, which sum, we are requested to state, has been placed in proper hands to be appropriated for the use of one of our city hospitals. All honor to the litle heromes for their praiseworthy example in 80 usefal and noble a field! We hope that many little boy and girls who read this will profit by the lesson, and "go and do likewise." There is no better way of cultivating nobleness of mind and character in children—whether old or young-than by encouraging them in deeds of THE "EXCELSIOR" HAMS -At the present season, of all others, good Ham is decidedly the most wholesome meat that can be esten. We may also add, that to those experimentally acquainted with the celebrated "Excelsion" Hams, cured by Messrs. J. H. Michener & Co., Nos. 142 and 144 North Front street, there is no meat more delicious. It is this fact that ha made the "Excelsior" the ham that is used by good livers in preference to all others. The admirable style is which Messrs Michener & Co. prepare these hams is peculiar to themselves. They are richer in flavor, free from unpleasant saltness, and emphatically delicious. We know whereof we affirm in saving this much. All the principal grocers in this city, and sensible dealers everywhere else, we presume, sell the "Excelsior CARD PICTURES of distinguished persons historical scenes, statuary, and rare old paintings, have become so thoroughly popularized that there is scarcely a well-furnished parlor, among people of taste, without its Photograph Album, filled with cartes de visite and other styles of pictures of that size. While at Washington the general will probably procure all his garments at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Bockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Ohestnut street, above Sixth, an establishment that i patronized by all the wise and the discrect in the land. AN INTERESTING LETTER FROM THE COLONEL OF THE FIVE HUNDRED AND NINTH P. V ._. Dear Uncle You, perhaps, have heard of us through the papers. Last May I encamped the boys in Rattlesnake Swamp, where I staid until the glorious Fourth, when we got a 'corduroy' completed, so we could march out of it. We lost all of our horses and mules, and had to leave our heavy guns. A contraband, who came to tell us about the enemy, I had arrested and sent to Fortress Monroe, as I am particular about the Constitution. Last Saturday I was about making a charge on a squad of rebels, when one of them, who lived about a mile in our rear, sent so weakened my force that, when I made the attack, I was driven back sixteen miles. I have preserved the onstitution, and only put the war back six month The boys are safe and in good spirits. "P. S .- Get a 'bullet-proof vest,' at Charles Stokes Clothing Store, under the Continental, and send it to me right away. Your nephew. GEORGE," A METEOR.—A night or two since, as the moon was partially obscured by a light, fleecy cloud, a meteoric ball, very luminous, of a silvery hue, extremely brilliant, and to the eye somewhat larger in appearance moon. At first, it appeared in the shape of a perfec lobe, then gradually curled itself until it spread into one mmense sheet of liquid fire, and formed letters reading early as follows: Buy your summer garments at the One-price Mammoth establishment of Granville Stokes No. 609 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.
