THE PRESS.-PHILADELPHIA, THURSDAY, JULY 24, 1862.

GREEN FRUIT. As

years, and other unwholescome fruis, are beginning to make thir appearance in our markets, we would recom-mend all who have any regard for their health, and do not wish to be taken sick with the cholers morbus, and other complaints which prevail at this teason of the year, tojabatain from eating this kind of fruit in large quantities. Bips and fresh fruits are wholesoms articles of diet, but nothing can be more injurious thas an un-graphic fruit, By being careful as to the kind and quantity of fruit nead, the payment of large fees for medical attendance will be avoided.

FATAL ACCIDENT ON THE BALTIMORE DATAL ACCIDENT ON THE BALTIMORE RAILEDAD.—Yesterday morning, about six o'clock, a lad nanied Owen McAnally, was run over by the way freight rais going South, on the Baltimore Railroad. The acident happened at Eighteeuth and Prima streats The boy attempted to jump none one of the cors, when he fell, and the train passed over him. Both legs were crushed in a shocking manner. The unfortunate youth was coiveyed to the residence of his prents, NO. 324 Marriot streed, and died a short time atterwards. But a few minutes before the accident he had been warned by his mother against jumping upon the cars, while in motion;

VIOLENT CONDUCT .---- Yesterday morn--

NAVAL MATTERS .- The affairs at the INAVAL MATTERS.—Inc affairs at the navy yard are very brisk, the number of men employed there amounting to about twenty two hundred, including michanics and laborers. The different departments of labor she winnch activity. Gun carriages, of the latest improvement, are turned out rapidly by a large number of works ene. The blacksmiths, boatbuilders and joiners, and other branches of the yard are doing a large busi-ness. Immense lots of shell arrive daily, which are treated to a cost of maint, such the acrews instruct for the fuse before they are fulled. This keeps a large force of men-gungged.

CHARGED WITH PASSING COUNTER. FE. TMONEY.—Argustus Harson and James Watson, both colored, were before Alderman. Beiller, yesterday afternoon, charged with passing a counterfait five-dollar bill on the Bank of Newark, New Jersey, at Girard avenue and Lavrence streets. The defand ants had at-tempied to pass the bill at two or three different places They were committed in default of $1,500 bail to answer the charge at court.

IMPROVEMENT OF PUBLIC SQUARES.-The Committee on City Property have resolved to re-port an ordinance, appropriating $2,000 for the purchase portan ordinance, appropriating $2,000 for the purchase, of seats for the public squares. The pattern of the seat is the same as those now in the Geutral Park, of New York. The toad-stools have been voted a nuisance long ago, and people will rejoice to learn that their places are. Soon to be supplied with something comfortable and con-

SOLDIERS' FAIR .--- A fair will be held in Girard Hall, southwest corner of Sixth and Girard avenue, on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday of this week (day and evening), for the benefit of the slox and wound de soldiers at the hospital Sixth and Master streets. It is given by a few patriotic young ladies in the northern part of the city. part of the city.

LIBERAL CONTRIBUTION -The ladies of Pottstown recently sent to this city for the use of the bick and wounded soldiers, five large boxes of hospital stores. Among the delicacies were fifty quarts of current jelly, with other jellies, preserved fruits, &c.

PERSONAL .--- Colonel Joshua T. Owen, the gallant leader of the 69th Ponnsylvania Begiment, concected with the Irish Brigade, in now in town, having nome here to recruit his health. He expects to return to his regiment in a few days.

COMMENDABLE - The New Jersey Central Rail oad Company have resolved to forward over their road, free of charge, all the sick and wounded sol diers who may be required to pass over it. This is quite commendable.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

THE MONEY MARKET.

PHILADELPHIA, July 28, 1862. Gold was in active demand to-day, and the rate functuted from 18 premium up to 18%, and back to 18. The faiter was the closing bid. If the present figures of the export table continue, we shall soon have a fall in the price of gold. Already is the weekly amount of exports of grain and other produce caual to that of specie. and it the reports of short crops in England, France, and Russia are verified, we shall have another reason to bring down the price of the precious article, and the quicklifons must sink to a mere nominal figure. There is an idea that the Secretary of the Treasury will soon be in the arket, and this tends to keep alive the speculative fee ing. The large amount that he will need next month d the present inactivity of the Union armies are favora ble sources of high premiums. But the Secretary is shrewd, and may have a reserve pile on which to fall back ; and before the 19th of next month great Union ories may be announced, so the chances are, at least, al for an early fall in the rate. Old demands also declined, opening at 107 and ad-Vancing ½ during the day. The latter was the closing price. Silver remained at about yesterday's figure, and 8 ner cent was readily offered for small change, as much trouble is caused by the contradictory statements made regarding the postage stamp currency. There was about the same faeling as yesterday at the Stock Board, and a general disposition was observable among buyers hold off." before leaving, and for a delicious smoke we know of noncomparable to the brands here referred to, sold by Mr. Mattson. A LOVE STORY .- [Translated from the French.]-Fair Sallie and her lover, Mat, close by the fire in silence sat; a dish of apples, rosy-faced, was 'tween them on the table placed; Sallie, slicing one in twain, passed it to the bashful swain; Mat looked con-fused, then cold did look, and said, as he the apple took, Now, dearest Sallie, unto me as kind as to this 'wine say be; you've halved the apple, pray have me!" Now, Sallie seeing Mat so oute, said, " Mat, go get your wed-ding suit, at Stokes', 'neath the Continental (Sallie isn't sentimental), and since an apple brought this about, other fruits there'll be no doubt; while gaining joys and losing cares, apples may give place to pairs " A QUEER OLD MEDLEY .--- A New York paper
