THE MONEY MARKET.

PHILADELPHIA, July 29, 1862. Business was rather fist on the street, and a general disinclination to sell was manifested. The idea that a war movement is about maturing in Virginia, and a want of knowledge concerning the number of our forces under McCiellan, causes some uneasiness On the other hand. the promising condition of the recruiting Service, and the promising continuous of the people in other the reports of the outpourings of the people in other citics, gives a feeling of security; so between the two, people are inclined to wait and see before they operate. Stocks still continue depressed for want of purchasers, and purchasers are depressed for want of news. If glorious news should come flying over the telegraph tomorrow, the elevation of the popular sympathy would scon make itself known in the corresponding elevation of prices at the Board; until then we may not expect much advance. Gold was something of a drug on the gnarket to day — the price failing from 116% to 115. Large quantities are coming from the West, and the reexport of gold for the payment of American securitiesthe order from Gen. sherman prohibiting the use of market. Old demands remain at yesterday's figure, and the the meantime, clothing at war prices at Charles Stokes', iznaiket cloved weak, as did that of specie. Penneylvania fives opened at yesterday's figure, 86, but declined M at the second board; the coupon fives de-clined M. City sixes, old, sold at 98; the new opened at A edvance on yesterday's flaure, but lost it at closs. Pennsylvania Ballroad first mortgage bonds sold well at 103; 98 was bid for scond mortgage. North Penasilya-inia Bailroad first mortgage scrip brought 71; Philadelphia and Erie sixes were firm at 93 ; Beading sixes. 1844 extended, declined # ; Susquebasan Canal shares advanced to 5 ; nothing done in the bonds. Four shares Girard Trust brought 32 per share. Schuylkill Naviga tion preferred declined &; Camden and Amboy Railroad brought 126%, no change; B ading declined %; Penn-sylvania Railroad was steady at 47; Green and Coatesstreet passenger railway improved 2 on the bids; Race and Vine declined 2, no sales. Holders were rather stiff, and the market closed steady.

CITY ITEMS. CHILDREN HELPING THE SOLDIERS .- There is nothing more pleasing to contemplate, in connection with the present struggle in this country, to crash out the most diabolical rebellion recorded in the book of time since the revolt of Satan, than the efforts now being put forth in this city, and elsewhere, by little ohildren, for the relief of the wounded and suffering patriots. With all our hearts. God bless their fragrant endeavors to serve their country in this Ohristian way, "and let all the people say, Amen 1". The last cases of this kind that has come under our notice is a Children's Fair, for the Bene-fit of the Sirk and Wounded Soldiers, now being held in the fice large building, No 43 north Sevenith strost, below Arch, next door to Dr. Shields' church, the managers of which-young misses, known to many of our first citizens, on Arch and other adjacent streets-are Misses Maria L. Briggs, Emma Derscheimer, Ellie D.

Fcott, Belle Patterson, Josephine Dickerson, and Jennie Lang The fair will remain open for visitors, daily, from 10 A. M. to 10 P. M., until August 21, and the display of articles, no less than the cause in behalf of which it is given, is such as deserves the interested at fention of our citizens. Let us encourage the young in these patriotic works.

NEW CARTES DE VISIPE AT GUTEKUNST'S. -In a visit to the popular Photographic gallery of Mr. F. Gutekunst, Nos. 704 and 706 Arch street. yesterday, we found the following additions to his splendid collection, to which we have already had occasion to refer favorably in these columns: An exquisite carts of the Bey. Dr. Henry A. Boardman, of this city; one of the late Gen. C. F. Smith-an admirable likenes--especially secured to this house; one of the Bev. Dr. McKean, of this city, a prominent Baptist divine; a life-like picture of the late Rev. Mr. Ladd, of this city, who died in the service of his country; another of the Bev. Theo. Stevens, the popular young pastor of the Green-street M. E. Church, and an admirable picture of Bishop White, cs pied from a painting by Abbey; also an excellent copy of a marble bust of Thomas Jefferson, and a five view of the old Chestnut-street Theatre, and its surroundingr, which will soon be a valued relic of the olden tim -all executed in Mr. Gutekunst's superior style of art. VANSANT'S CONFECTIONS, Ninth and Chestnut streets, are any indispensable article of luxnry and comfort for sojourners from home. They are supplied in nest, ornamental boxes, without extra charge, and besides being a delicious presequisite to watering place comfort, many of them are highly medicinal, and should be used on that account. In addition to his elegant cou-fections, he is now tempting his pairons with lustions, hot house rapes, peaches, fine pears, and all the tropi-cal fruits of the season.

NEW PHOTOGRAPHIC ROOMS, NOS. 912 AND 914. CRESTNUT STREET .- The old-established house of Broadbent & Company have just opened at the above place an attractive Gallery of Art, where will be found every variety of picture, from the plain carte de visite to the most exquisitely-finished ivorytype. Prices are graded as low as consistent with the character of the pictures furnished. Everything that is excellent in the Photographic line may here be enjoyed at leisure, and the art-loving public will not fail to make Broadbent & Company's a constant place of resort. FINE TEAS AND COFFEE AT MODERATE

PRICHS .- Mr. C. H Mattaon, dealer in fine Groceries, Arch and Tenth streets, has now on hand a supp y of fine Oolorg, and the other quality family Tess; also, a pure article of Old Government Java Coffee, at moderate prices, to which we invite the attention of our readers. All goods bought at Mr. Matis . n's are delivered in any part of the city, or neatly packed, and sent to any of the railroad depots, free of charge. Sound TRUTHS .- No man can safely go abroad that does not love to stay at home; no man can safely speak that does not willingly hold his tongue : no man can safely govern that would not chee fully become a subject; no man can safely command that has not truly learned to obey; no man can safely rejoice but he that has the testimony of a good conscience; and no man can eafely wear the summer garments manufactured else-where than at the Palatisl Emporium of Granville Stokes, No. 609 Chestnut, where clothing of the latest styles can be obtained at unprecedented low prices.

THIS VERY "CIVIL" WAR .- We see by the speeches of the speakers at Independence Square on Salurday, that the idea was prominent that hereafter we cannot afford to guard rebel property and catch their Large quantities are coming from the West, and the re-cent large shipmonts from California-the ceasing of the export of gold for the payment of American securities. the use of gunpowder and not "soft sawder." Let it be known that we mean "fight," and the road to Richmond specie in buying cotton, are having their weight in the will be crowded with willing bands and eager feet. In under the Continental.

Business was very dull at the Stock Board, and prices generally note a slight decline. United States securities 'fell off; the saven thirties X, the sixes X on the bld. made him put on the gown, tie the scarf around his neck lay the carpet across his arm, and march through th camp. The result was a general consent of the soldiers to let women's clothing slone.
