BROWN'S ESSENCE OF GINGER AND CHO-LERA MIXTURE -We cannot do the public a greater ser-

Some of these quasi traitors may anddenly find themselves tripped up by the heels and lodged in limbo. The law against these practises very plain and severe, and it is equally a dictate of com men sense and ordinary prudence for all good and loyal cilizens to procure their, garments at the Brown Stone

Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth. THE MANUFACTURE OF GOVERNMENT ARMS. The armory in Springfield, Mass., makes 14,000 stand of arms a month. In a short time that establishment. with the five private shops in operation there, will be able to manufacture 35 000 guns per month. The armories at Providence, Hartford, Trenton, Bridesburg, Ilicn, and one or two other places, will each be able to furnish the Government with 200 guns per day. We can also add that the Government, in case of emergency, can procure any quantity of ready-made uniforms from the Palatial Establishment of Granville Stokes, No. 609 Chestnut street, where can also be obtained handsome and cheap clothing for civilians.

HOW TO ESCAPE THE DRAFT."-The following rules have been carefully prepared by a wellknown draughtsman of this city: First-Join a temperance society and keep the pledge, and you will escape some of the most dangerous draughts that have ever visited our land, the draft into the rebel army not excepted. Second-If you are a merchant, pay for your good when you buy them, get the discount, and no draft will ever reach you. Third-Go to Charles Stokes' Clothing Store, under the Continental Hotel, buy a "bullet-proof vest," and ioin Cantain Power's or any other volunteer company and get the bounty while there is time. Any of these rules observed will do the business.

SPECIAL NOTICES. TO THE NEW COMET. BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL. What art thou, mysterious stranger ? What thy nature, what thy duty? The onch the skies thou art a ranger.

Not remarkable for beauty. Bather florid thy complexic And thy whiskers glow like fire;

I suppose, on close inspection, Few thy features would admire Tell me, art thou solid matter. Or a thing of gas and vapors? Wilt thou earth's old body batter, Cutting thy fantastic capers? Wilt thou all to shivers knock us. As the rebels try to do?

Dost thou really mean to shock us? And to carbonize us too? In the wanderings through creation. Many sights have met thy caze; Sights to rouse thy admiration, Sights to startle and amaze. But contess, that in thy travels

Thou hast not, oh! roaming star,

Seen a place so famed for bargains

My nemination last fell, for Associate Judge of the District Court to the exclusion of Judge Strond, was the ccasion of an excitement which threatened to defeat the I was strongly urged to withdraw for the purpose of re-storing harmony to the party. Not desiring to be an in-strumentality of discord at a time when it was the plain duty of every loyal man to sacrifice personal considera-tions for the general good, I requested the Convention to reassemble, and tendered back to it the nomination with which it had honored me. The result was that Judge strong was nominated as my successor, and our while udicial ticket elected. No sooner had I withdrawn than indicial ticket elected. No somer had I withdrawn than it was generally conceded that, in return for sacrificing my charces of an election for the general benefit of the party. I should be nominated at the ensuing election for DISTRICT ATTOBNEY. Such was the general desire that had the nomination been than made; I hazard little in saying it would have been conferred upon me, if not unanimously, at least by an overwhelming majority. If, under such circumstances, you still deem me worthy of the nomination, and as the time is near at hand when you will be called upon to bestow it on, some one.
