SPECIAL NOTICES. A CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS.

BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL.

Patriois, at Columbia's call, Basten to the result . rli: Come fro nevery loval State: Never for compulsion wait. Never let your country drag Freen an to support her flag. Come at once; at such a time, When indifference is a crime, Let no impediment delay, Or keep you 'rom the mortal fray. Since the timid and the brave Both must find the destined grave; Since the fated hour must come When each mortal finds his doom. What will it avail you, say, Quietly at home to stay? Death has more in hed-rooms slair Than on the embattled plain. Go, ye patriot beroes, go; Rush to meet the traitor for But ere you your homes forsake, All due preparations make; Arms and amountainion take. Haversacks, canteens provide. Clothes from Tower Hall beside.

And maintain your country's right, Min. ling duty with delight. TOWER HALL, No. 118 MARKET St., Philada. BENNE T & CO. DEAF MADE TO HEAR - Instruments assist the Hearing at P. MADEIRA'S, 115 South TENTH Street, below Chestrut.

I was strongly arged to withdraw for the purpose of restoring hermon to the party. Not centing to be an instrumentality of discord at a time when it was the plain duly of every loyal man to sacrifice personal considerations for the general good, I reque ted the Convention to resess mble, and tendered back to it the nomination with which it had honored me. The result was that Julge Strong was mannated as my successor, and our whole judicial ticket elected. No sooner had I withdrawn than it was generally conceded that, in return for sacrificing my challes of an election for the general benefit of the party. I should be nominated at the cosning election party, I should be nominated at the ensuing election for DISTRICT ATTORNEY. Such was the general desire that, lad the nomination been the n made, I begard little in easying it would have been conferred upon me. if not unanimously, at least by an overwhelming majorit not obtain many, we least by an over-chelming majority.
