RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE. The New Catholic University of Ireland. One of the most imposing and significant events of modern times, in the history of the Roman Catholic Church, occurred in Dublin, Ireland, on the 20th of July, and is recorded in extenso in the Dublin Freeman's Journal, of the 26th ult., and republished in the Boston Pilot of this date, in which it occupies some twelve columns, solid. We refer to the ceremony of laying the foundation of the Catholic University. The demonstration was one of the grandest ever witnessed in the Emerald Isle, and is regarded by Catholics as marking an epoch in their educational history. That the haughty Premier of England should withhold a charter from this new national institution of learning is eliciting the bitterest comment of Catholics all over the world, and, from present indications, the astute Premier may yet find it expedient to yield the point. He has been told that by right and justice the Catholics of Ireland are entitled to the enjoyment of educational equality with their Protestant fellow-countrymen, and in the imposing demonstration on the 20th ult. not less than thirty thousand of their number turned out formally, practically, and emphatically to assert that this demand shall be respected by the British Minister. Thirty-three prelates, representing millions of Catholics all over the globe, participated in the solemnities of the occasion. The honor of preaching the sermon devolved upon Archbishop Hughes, of New York, of whom it is said in the report, "Every eye was bent on the great and venerable ecclesias. tic. of whose splendid virtues and exalted genius as a Christian orator all had heard so much. In a clear and musical voice he delivered a discourse, which was heard with deepest admiration and interest to its close." The words upon which his sermon was founded were from Luke xi. 52: "Woe to you, lawyers, for you have taken away the key of knowledge; you yourselves have not entered in, and those that were entering in you have hindered." At the close of the sermon the prelates and clergy -of themselves a vast concourse-retired from the edifice in which these preliminary services were held, together with the professors and officers of the University, in order to prepare to join in the great procession, which had commenced to move in dense masses through Marlborough and Talbot streets. extending over four miles in length. The van of the procession was led by eight thousand boys, from the parochial schools of the city and suburbs of Dublin, bearing aloft a perfect maze of variouscolored bannerettes. In the procession all the trades, designated by appropriate devices, were represented. As the latter affords a graphic idea of the industrial interests of the country, we may name them, as follows:

Slaters, smiths, saddlers, stone-cutters, marblemasons, decorative-painters, chandlers, corkcutters, tobacconists, bakers, sawyers, coopers, butchers, bricklayers, shoemakers, carpenters, tailors, plasterers, tanners, stenemasons, horseshoers, chimney-cleaners, cabinet-makers, basketmakers, poulterers, plate-workers, coach-makers, letter-press printers, silk-weavers, brogue-makers, bricklayers, laborers, the ancient order of foresters. the Dublin shop and warehouse men, drapers' as sistants, grocers and vinters, pawn brokers' assistants, law clerks, commercial clerks, together with the following fraternities, corporations, et cetera: The Tontine societies, young men's societies, the National Brotherhood of St. Patrick, the Religious Confraternities, Corporation of Dublin, provincial deputations, (under which head thirty-two different towns were represented,) the magistrates, memhers of Parliament, benefactors of the University, what were formerly known as the Mount Joy estates. It contains thirty-three acres, exactly the | $100 P to Same amount of space as that occupied by Trinity

HOPS are held firmly at the advance noted last week.

College, including the park and proposity and propos College, including the park and provest's garde As many of our readers, who feel an interest in this great educational enterprise, are personally familiar with the site, it may not be improper to give its exact boundaries. The ground is bounded on the west by the "Bishop's fields," which are divided from it by a long line of thorn hedges, stretching out southwest to the grounds adjacent to the North Union Workhouse auxiliary sheds; on the south by the northern bank of the Royal Canal and Burnett place; on the east by Drumcondra road, and on the north by Mr. Jameson's demesne, extending to the Tolka river.

The foundation stone was laid in the presence of nearly one hundred thousand people, at about six o'clock in the evening. The honor of the chair, on arriving at the site where the grand ceremony was to take place, was also assigned to the Archbishop of New York. The officiating prelate in laying the first stone was the Rev. Dr. Dixon, the primate already referred to. The psalms and hymns prescribed by the ritual for the occasion, were chanted by a choir consisting wholly of clergymen. The Rev. Dr. Murray was master of the ceremonies, at the conclusion of which, brief addresses were delivered to the people by Major O'Reilly, M. P., and

The whole was followed by a grand banquet, at which were sumptuously entertained a large number of prelates, clergy, members of the municipal bodies, members of Parliament, professors, officers of trades, and others. The Rev. Dr. Woodlock, President of the University, presided, who, when the cloth was removed, and thanks returned, rose and proposed the health of his Holiness Pope Pius IX, which was received with cheers. The next toast proposed by the chairman was, "the health of her gracious Majesty the Queen," which was also duly drank and cheered. "The memory of Daniel O'Connell," constituted the third toast, and was, by request, responded to, by "the" O'Donoghue, M. P., who, in opening, referred to the fact that he was "a very humble relative" of the great O'Connell. The "health of the Most Rev. Dr. Hughes" was next proposed and drank amid enthusiastic cheers. The Archbishop's acknowledgment of this courtesy was a characteristic effort, abounding in wit, sarcasm. and pleasant Irish reminiscences. The next toast was "The health of the illustrious prelates who have attended the ceremonial," and was responded to by the Rev. Dr McCloskey, Bishop of Albany, N. Y. Speeches were also made by the Lord Primate, Dr. Dixon, and the mayors of Cork and Limerick. On the day following this imposing ceremonial July 21st, a public conference of members of Parlisment, mayors, chairmen of towns, commissioners, municipal representatives, magistrates, gentry, &c., who have joined in the national demand for a charter to the Catholic University, was held in the Round Room, Rotundo, to deliberate upon the course to be adopted with reference to future public action. The meeting was densely crowded, and the greatest enthusiasm characterized the proceedings. The chair was occupied by Mr. M. R. Ryan, mayor of Limerick. Resolutions were unanimously adopted condemnatory of the refusal by Lord Palmerston to grant the charter, and expressing the determination of the meeting to combine in continued efforts for its attainment.

REV. DR. HAGUE, of the Madison Avenue Baptist Church, New York city, has resigned the pastoral charge of the church on account of illhealth. THE BRAINERD PRESRYTERIAN CHURCH OF EAST ton, Pennsylvania, has given a call to Alfred H. Kellogg, a licentiate of the Central Presbytery of Philadel hia.

REMAINS OF DR. BETHUNE.—The remains of the Rev. Dr. Bethune, forwarded to this country by the bark Undine, which left Leghorn on the 27th of May, are now daily expected. The funeral will take place in New York, in accordance with minute directions left by the deceased. A New Paston.—The Rev. Robert Taylor, pastor elect of the Second Presbyterian Church, Germantown, has accepted the call of the church, and will enter upon his new duties to-morrow (Sunday) morning, 17th inst. We are glad that this church has so soon secured an acceptable pastor, and hope that it will flourish under his ministry. AMBERST COLLEGE IN THE ARMY. -The following is a correct list of those who have gone into the army from college :

Brigadier general, 1; colonels, 2; lieutenant colonel, 1; mejors, 3; captains, 11; assistant adjutant general, 1; first lieutenants, 16; adjutants, 2; second dieutenants, 9; brigade surgeon, 1; surgeons, 4; chaplains, 9; hospital steward, 1; sergeant, 7; privates, 5; rank not ascertained, 7—Total, 80. WILLIAMSPORT, PA.—Rev. Wm. R. McNeill, of Schuylkill Falls, has accepted the pastoral care of the Baptist church at Williamsport, and will enter upon his labors there the 1st of September. A Long Pastorate -On Sabbath, August 31, A Long Pastorate —On Sabbath, August 31, Dr. Spring preached his fifty second annual sermon in the Brick Presbyterian Church, New York. In the course of the sermon, he stated that, in pastoral labors, including Sabbath and weekly lectures, he had preached something more than 7,000 discourses, written one sermon each week during the whole period of my ministry; married 800 couples; baptized 1,429 children, and received into the communion of the church 2,306. Of funeral services he had not preserved any record, and, though called on in innumerable cases to perform these services not connected with this congregation had services not connected with this congregation had never refused to attend that of a stranger.

AN EXAMPLE.—It is said that while on his travels at the West, Hon Edward Everett was preparing to attend public worship on the Lord's day, when some distinguished visitors were announced. In a few mem uts, he frankly informed them that he was a church going man, and they could either accompany him, or excuse him for bidding them good day. A gentle rebuke.

A NEW RELIGIOUS ENTERPRISE. -A number of prominent residents in the old district of Kensington have formed themselves into a religious or-ganization known as the First Cengregationalist Church ganyation known as the first Congregationalist Church of Philadelphia. They design securing the services of some able expounder of the Scriptures who will assume the pastoral care of the congregation. A teacher's association and a Sabbath school have also been organized. A hall has been fitted up in Thompson street, between Front and Frankford road, where religious services will be held every Sunday morning and evening.

RELIGIOUS.—The Rev. Dr. Carden has been called to the rectorship of Zion Church. The call has not yet been accepted. PATRIOTIC HOSE COMPANY. - The nopess of certificates from some of the most reliation in Philiadelphia; who were permanently cured by Prof. BOLLES, 1220 WALNUT street, and after they had been given up as incurable by the most eminent medical men of this city:

ET he following is a statement of facts in reference to my condition and astor fishing cure of Epilepsy:

For five years previous to my knowledge of Prof. C. H. Bolles' discovery of the therapeutic administration of Galvanism, Magnetism, and other modifications of Electricity for the cure of all acute and chronic diseases, I had been severely affiliced with Entileptic Fits of the most obstinate character, and had abandoned all hopes of ever being cured, as I had for years tried the treatment and received the counsel of the most eminent Medical Men of the State, with a view of obtaining relief if any could be found among the Old Schools; but all my efforts were unavailing, and, therefore, all hopes were abandoned, as I then knew of no greater skill for the cure of obstinate cases than in the Old Schools. About six months ago my mind was turned to investigate the new discovery of Prof. C. H. Bolles, 1220 Walnut street, and, after noticing several certificates of cures which were published, and some from persons with whom I was acquainted and knew them to be reliable mon, I was induced to call on the Professor and obtain his opinion of my case. After he had examined me about ten minutes, he frankly informed me that he could cure me, and effered to give me a written warrantee of a complete cure, and, in case of a feilure, to charge me nothing. This at first seemed an impossibility; but the frankness and extrestness of the Professor convinced me of his scientific accuracy in the diagnosis of my case. He disclosed all my sufferings and symptoms for five years past as well as I knew them my self. I will here state, for the good of, humanity, and aspecially those suffering as I was, that I am perfectly cured. I further would state that mere than four months have elapsed since my cure will be f Judah Levy, Bronchial Consumption, 814 South Front Edward T. Evans, preacher of the M. E. Church, Dys-

PURE COD-LIVER OIL. The repugnance of most patients to COD-LIVER OIL, and the inability of many to take it at all, has inoll, and the inability of many to take it at all, has induced various forms of disguise for its administration that are familiar to the Medical Profession. Some of them answer in special cases, but more often the vehicle neutralizes the usual effect of the Oil, proving quite as unpalatable and of less therapeutic value. The repugnance, nausea, &c., to invalids, induced by diagust of the Oil, is entirely obviated by the use of our CAPSULES. OOD-LIVER OIL CAPSULES have been much used lately in Europe, the experience there of the good results from their use in both hospital and private practice, aside from the naturally suggested advantages, are suf-
