HOMEOPATHIC HYGEIA COFFEE. -This Cofce, sold by Mr. C. H. Mattson, dealer in fine family proceries, Arch and Tenth streets, is a compound of healthy vegetable substances, and is a most delicious boerage, at once wholesome and paletable to persons in health, but recullarly adapted for the use of patients under Homocopathic treatment, THE NEW CANNON .- The disposition of our citizens to furnish means as an investment or contribution for testing the claims of the new long range canon, is appealed to in our advertising columns to-day. The matter seems to be of urgent importance. THE CONTINENTAL HOTEL REFRESHMENT SA-LOONS .- Mr. Stevens, whose evident aim it is to render these spacious and elegant seloons complete in every matter of managerial detail, has engaged Mr. Burdsall, the deservedly popular caterer and especial favorite of the ladies. Owing to his tact and urbanity as superintendent, this appointment will be highly satisfactory to the public, as Mr. Burdeall achieved a large and wellmerited popularity during the time that his own saloon was open, from his thorough knowledge of all the requirements of his patrons, and continuous attention to; them. The public have thus an additional guarantee that Mr. Stevens will spare no pains to minister to the comfort of his visitors. COMFORT FOR THE DRAFTED .- The drafted men of 1814 received no bounty, but, on the contrary, bad to furnish their own equipments, including gun, knapsack, canteen, cartridge box, and twenty-four rounds of smmunition. Their pay from Government was $8 per month. Offers of substitutes were numerous, but very few were accepted. In 1862 the par of a soldier in the Union ranks is $13 a month, his equipments are furnished him, and he enjoys the privilege of wearing a neat and comfortable uniform made at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth. MWONDERS OF THE TELEGRAPH.—A wonderful feat of telegraphing was executed at a telegraphic goirée given by Mr. Gurney, in London. The wires of different telegraph companies were brought into Mr. Gurney, bayes, Ar. mybeles, circuit of the first telegraph and in favor of the National Adminis-Gurney's house. An upbroken circuit of wire, 5.000 miles in length, was then formed, and through this great distance the electric message was flashed in the space of two seconds. The following message was also transmitted in the short space of one minute: "Buy your summer garments at the One-price Fashionable Clothing Emporium of Granville Stokes, No. 609 Chestnut street, Phila-

THIS SUMMER. -The summer wears her coronal As proudly as before; God's gifts of beauty to the earth Are lavish as of vore. Yet never radiant summer days Were half to sad and long; A mournful music fills our souls. A dirge, but not a song. For low on youder fields of blood,

How many a friend is lying! For truth and right they bravely stood And sealed it with their dying. Borne down in Battle's tide;

We think of that dear Flag of Stars, Our shattered Union bows her head. While hostile bands decide. Uniforms ready made at Charles Stokes', under th

Philadelphia, August 15, 1882.—

FROM THE SUNDAY DISPATCH.—
SEVEN REASONS WHY CONSCIENTIOUS
REPUBLICANS CANNOT VOTE FOR ALEXANDER HENBY:
First. Because he violated the sacred principle of "Freedom of Speech," when he in effect closed a public hall in this city against G. W. Curtis, Eq., who proposed to deliver a literary and scientific lecture. The animus of this tyrannical proceeding, on the part of Mr. Henry, was hatred of the well known political principles of Mr. Curtis, prominent among which was opposition to the extension of slavery. Congress and President Lincola have recently set their seal of condemnation on the pro-slavery views of Mr. Henry, by the passage and approval of the law declaring that all Territories now or hereafter to be acquired shall be forever, free, and by the further and still more glorious Act totally abolishing SLAVERY in the District of Columbia!

Second. Because he opposed the election of our hone-SLAYEBY in the District of Columbia!

Scood. Because he opposed the election of our honed President, Abrabam Lincoln, and, joining the perty of John Bell, songht elect to the President, the man who is not a malignant traitor to his Thurs.

Quity.

Third. Because he opposed the election of our gallant and patriotic Governor, Andrew G. Curtin, and voted for Henry D. Foster, the candidate of the Pro-slavery and Disunion Democracy.

Fourth. Because, whilst professing to belong to no party, be throws his vote and influence, so far as we know and believe, invariably against Republican principles.

Fifth Because he is the acknowledged representative of a social aristocracy, who, having grown rich by selling to the South boots and buttons, dry goods and drugs, harness and hardware, find excuses for the treason of Bell, and others, and set of "Black Republicans" of the North as a fair equivalent of the robbers, traitors, and murderers of the South.

Sixth. Because he is reported and believed to have declared in argument with a citizen, a few short months since, that "he v as almost ready to say that he would be willing that the war should last he weeks if, in consequence thereof, SLAVERY could be maintained in the condition it occupied at the commencement."

Beventh: Because Republicans do not labor for Men, but principles: Because they cannot and will not, vote for any man for any office who is in favor of slavery, and who is liable, in consequence thereof, to be made weak and irresolute in his loyalty. And because, finally, Bepublicens can join hands only with those who heartly and wholly support the Administration of Abraham Lincoln in its heroic efforts to suppress this infamous resulting and made materials infamous resulting and materials and mater bellion, and maintain intact against all enemies a consa crated and undivided Union.
