ADDRESS OF THE UNION STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE TO THE LOYAL MEN OF PENNSYLVANIA.

this spirit, and it is now your duty to come forward and sustain the candidates that Convention placed in nomination. We make this appeal to all loyal men. They only are loyal who recognize this war as one waged for our national existence—who give an ardent and unquestioning support to the Administration—who sustain all the measures of Congress for the maintenance of the war-making power—who see in the Southern Confederacy, and those who are in alliance with it, the enemies of Civilization and Liberty—and who do nothing to weaken the hands of the Executive.

They are not merely disloyal who take arms in their hands, and combine themselves into an army. He is a rebel who abjures his allegiand a traitor, who, while enjoying the protection of the Government, and ostensibly observing his pledge of allegiance, contrives to bring dishonor and defeat upon his country. These rebels and these traitors we are called upon to meet. We must encounter them on the battle field and at the ballot-box. The ballot box is the great source of popular power. If beaten there, our victories will be fruitless, our sufferings unrewarded, our sacrifices barren, and the glory and valor of our soldiers will end in the ble peace.

It is unnecessary to restate the causes of the war.

Our opponents have made them the substance of calumny and misrepresentation. For answer, we appeal to the living history familiar to all men. We need not remind the people that at the basis of the Southern rebellion there exists a hatred of Northern men and Northern institutions—of our social, political and revenue systems. This has inspired their leaders during two generations. Wed-ded to an institution which has demoralized them in demoralizing their labor, and cultivating the earth by an enslaved race of men, they have made their slaves the source of their political power, and have ruled the nation with the products of slave labor. The happy hours of our national progress have for years been embit-tered by their insolence. All legislation that tered by their insolence. All legislation that looked to the prosperity of the Northern States and protection to their industry has been opposed and defeated by them. With the growth of Northern strength, as the result of free institu-is and free toil name the mossession of tical power and the gradual resistance to the en-croachments of slavery. Nor need we remind the people of the outrages that followed the efforts of the slaveholders, to recover their unboly and despote dominion. The outrages upon Kansas; the studied insults to Northern Senators and Representatives; the ceaseless abuse of the Northern people, and the gradual concentration of the military and naval power in the hands of the traitors, all contemplated the restoration of their ascendency, and enabled them to inaugurate the treason which cul-minated in war. Strengthened by a wicked Ad-ministration, and sustained by timid and treacherous Loyal men of Pennsylvania, it is for you to deter-mine, between the friends of the Government and the war, and the opponents of both. It is for you to declare for the sympathizers with freedom or the sympathizers with slavery and the rebellion. It is for you to decide whether you will strengthen Abraham Lincoln or Jefferson Davis. It is for you to say whether the traitors shall be crushed or whether our free institutions shall be crushed.

There is, and there can be, no middle pathway. There are, indeed, but two parties—patriots or trai-tors—those who are for the Union and those who are against it. And all men who are not openly for the Republic must be counted among its enemies.

It is a fact that you cannot too carefully ponder,

During the war of 1812, the enemies of the Administration of Mr. Madison soon became as inlong course of public service having earned the confidence of the people and gathered a valuable experience, he is eminently fitted for the trust that famous as the foreign invaders themselves. has been conferred upon him. war with Mexico was waged, as results have proved, by saveholding statesmen, in order that one State more might be added to the number they To elect these gentlemen, will require the concerted and cordial co-operation of the loyal citizens of the State. It would be most culpable if, with every have lately forced into treason; yet the public man who opposed it soon became unpopular, and its victorious general was nominated for the Presiother advantage, we should fail to win a great vic-tory in October for want of an effective and extended tory in October for want of an effective and extended organization; or if we should, by dissensions among ourselves, on minor issues, give the victory to our adversaries. The duty of securing a strong and able representation in Congress, te sustain the President in his noble war policy, and to defeat the candidates of the Breckinridge sympathizers, is paramount and binding. Let us not forget that we have also to elect a Legislature that is to choose a United States Senator, and that in every county important officers are to be elected. If we act up to the call dency by the very party that dissented from the policy which resulted in the war. These are the eloquent teachings of the past. We are now in a death struggle with the most powerful foe to a death struggle with the most powerful foe to human liberty on earth. This enemy is strengthened by slavery in America, and sustained by the monarchies of the Old World. The issue is clearly made—the contending parties openly arrayed against each other. There is not a nation, an individual, or an idea opposed to human freedem that is not enlisted against this Govornment and in favor of the rebellion. We are ourselves our only friends. Within curselves is our only hope. We can have no sympathy from any other Power in the world—no sympathy that is sincere and effectual. The State Convention, composed of the officers are to be elected. If we act up to the call officers are to be elected. If we act up to the call and to the counsel of the State Convention from which we derive our authority, we shall achieve a great and lasting triumph. In this struggle it is the duty of all men to forego personal preferences for the common cause; and he who shall refuse to respond to this sentiment is unequal to the awful responsibilities of the times. To accomplish complete unity, and to prepare for a successful result, it is advisable that the loyal men should meet together in their respective wards and districts frequently. MEETING OF THE DEMOCRATIC CON-VENTIONS-NOMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR CONGRESS, LEGISLATURE, AND THE VARIOUS MUNICIPAL OFFICES .- Yesterday morning the various nominating Conventions of the Democratic party assembled together. The proceedings, as a general thing, were conducted in quiet, and did not seem to interest any except those directly concerned. The proceedings of the day were as follows:

COUNTY CONVENTION. The delegates to the County Convention, to nominate candidates for District Attorney and Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas, met in the morning, at ten o'clock, at Spring Garden Hall. A temporary organization was effected by the election of Oharles W. Brooke, Eeq., as president; Lewis W. Thornton and Alfred T. Jones as vice president; Sampson H. Josephs and Wm. M. Singerly scoretaries. M. Singerly secretaries.

The various precincts were then called off, and the delegates presented their credentials. This business consumed about an hour and a half. It was found that there were geveral contested seats

A motion was then made to go into a ballot for permanent precident. A great to ent president. Agreed to. Messre. Chas. W. Brooke and Peter Armbruster were then placed in nomination.

The ballot resulted as follows:

Brooke, 121; Armbruster, 61.

Mr. Brooke was thereupon declared elected. Upon assuming the chair bespoke as follows:

Gentlemen of the Convention: This is not the time or place for a speech. I will only say that I am deeply indebted to you for the honor, you have conferred upon me, and will endeavor to discharge the duties of my office with fidelity, at the same time I desire the co-operation of the Convention, and trust that its business will be conducted calmly, and without excitement or confusion, as becomes the dignity of the Convention.

A. J. Catherwood, Lewis W. Thompson, Allan Weaver, A. T. Jones, and Wm. Hannings were then nominated for vice presidents, and the ballot resulted in the election of Messrs. Catherwood and Thompson. The temporary secretaries and other officers were co W. A. Lentz was then chosen treasurer

The Convention then adjourned until 2 o'clock. AFTERNOON SESSION On re-assembling, the president announced the committees on contested seats, who retired to transact their business. A delegate objected to one committee, because there were no H's on it; which mistake was promptly rectified. After the respective contests had been settled to the satisfaction of some and dissatisfaction of others, the following gentlemen were nominated to the office of Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas:

Pleas:

Alex. T. Dickson, 60; Isaac Leech, 37; James S. Gibbons —; Jas. Brooks, 22; Alex. J. Kite, 22; Jos. Collins, 16; George L. Kerr, 1; Robt. T. Carter, 1; who received respectively the number of votes affixed to their names.

Second Ballot.—Leech, 35; Brooks, 21; Dickson, 63; Gibbons, 49; Collins, 7; Kite, 21; Carter, 1; Kerr, 1.

Third Ballot.—Leech, 34; Brooks, 29; Dickson, 82; Cliphons, 48; Kite, 12. Gibbons. 48; Kite, 12.

Fourth Ballot.—Leech, 39; Brooks, 24; Dickson, 93 libbons, 51.

Fifth Ballot.—Leech, 42; Dickson, 106; Gibbons, 58.

And Mr. Dickson was declared the nominee of the Convention.

The following gentlemen were nominated for the office of District Attorney:

L. O. Cassidy, 143; W. H. Martin, 10; J. C. Vandyke, 4; I. N. Brown, 42; G. W. Wollaston, 4; J. O. Marshall, 4, who received the number of votes opposite their names, when Mr. Cassidy was declared the nominee of the Convention.

The delegates elect to the Democratic City Convention assembled yesterfay merning at 10 o'clock, in the second story of the National Guards' Armory, on Bace street. To this body is entrusted the party nominations for the "Row" offices, viz: Mayor, City Solicitor, City Controller, Receiver of Taxes, and City Commissioner. A temporary organization was effected by the selection of Mr. Jesse Johnson, of the Second ward, for chairman, and Messra. H. F. Kennedy and C. S. Austin for secretaries. The presentation of credentials consumed the time of the morning session, and at 11½ o'clock a recess was taken in order to facilitate the completion of this business in the hands of the secretaries. disputes which can only be repeated now to the injury of the common cause.

The Convention re-assembled at 1% o'clock P. M., and proceeded to's permanent organization. Nominations for president were made, and a ballot taken with the following result: Jesse Johnson, 142; W. O. Kline, 38. The chairman elect tendered his thanks for the honor conferred. He firmly believed that every volunteer in the Democratic ranks fully appreciated the responsibility that rested upon him as a Democrat. He prophesied a glorious triumph of the Democracy on the second. Tuesday of October, and felt confident that upon the success of that organization alone depended the salvation of the country. A motion being made to adjourn until this morning, the yeas and nays were ordered, and a call of the roll showed a majority in favor of adjournment. The body accordingly adjourned until this morning at ten o'clock. The following is the list of nominations:

For City Commissioner—John Kane, Blisha Lorett, Jas. McShane, John Kames, Geo. W. Jones, Jas. Gordon, Thomas Ellis, Charles M. D. Smith, Joseph Raiston, and William Aller.

For Receiver of Taxes—Thomas James, John M. Molley, Thomas J. Hemphill, Jesse T. Vogdes, Edward Buckley, and John C. Keller.

For City Controller—Stephen Taylor, George Getz, William Curtis, James M. Kelly, Jacob S. Mintzer, Hugh H. Boyle. before him—the rebel who strikes at his own heart and at the Union of these States. CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTIONS.

First District.—The delegates to the First Congressional Convention assembled at the County Court House, Sixth and Chestnut streets, at 10 o'clock.

A temporary organization was effected by calling to the chair Wm. W. Dougherty. Messrs. James 'H. Gaw and Wm. Barnes were appointed secretaries, and Messrs. John Gaughran and Thos. Fitzpatrick doorkeepers. Some time was occupied in receiving credentials and disposing of contested seats, of which there were five. The number of delegates was 53.

Mr. James T. Harmer and Josiah Wood were elected vice presidents, and Dennis Sullivan treasurer. The other officers were re-elected.

The following committee on resolutions was appointed: Thomas Webb, Laurence Tobin, James Harmer, P. J. Cook, Michael McGeor, William Barnes, John S. Lister, P. J. Evans, James Gaw. CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTIONS. Lister. P. J. Evans. James Gaw. Their whole effort since the war began has been to divide the people of the loyal States. They announced, early in 1861, that Pennsylvania should join the South in the event of a separation, and this is their secret hope to-day. They would have held the hands of the Government that the rebels might strike at its heart, and would have succeeded but for the prompt courage of President Lincoln. They followed the fortunes of General Breckinridge up to the period of his desertion into the ranks of the rebels. They repeat his arguments in this their country's darkest hour. Their plea for the Constitution was his plea before Coses.

Nominations being in order, the following gentlemen were named: Joseph Megary, famuel J Randali, Wilson Kerr, Henry M. Phillips, John Cassin, Charles Ingersoll. Jacob Plank and Lawrence Tobin were appointed tellers.

The Convention then proceeded to ballot, which resulted as follows:

For Mayor-Daniel M. Fox.

A second ballot was then taken, as follows: Mr. Ingersoll, being the lowest candidate, was dropped. The third ballot resulted as follows:

To the Friends of the National Administration in Phi-Iddelphia:

It is well known that I have received the Republican nomination for Mayor, and it is alleged that some are using their efforts to procure my nomination for that office by the Nallonal Union Convention, to convene on Thursday next. To such I wish to say that I am no longer a candidate for Mayoralty, and would prefer that not a vote be east for me f.r it. ladelphia: not a vote be cast for mef.r it.

The popular voice has already indicated who the candidate will be, and I can only add that I will give to him and his collesgues on the ticket a hearty support. I will work for them—speak for them during the campaign, and finally vote for them.

During the present distracted condition of our country is the present distracted condition of our country. During the present distracted condition of our country I feel it, my duty to forego party considerations, and to contribute my efforts, humble as they are, in support of the National Administration, fin the heroulean labor to crush the rebellion. This I cannot do by adhering to the nomination conferred upon me. Its tendency would be to distract and divide those who should be friends and co-laborers, and probably result in the defeat of the adherents of the National Administration—a calamity the consequences of which none can foretell.

F The views here expressed are in consonance with those entertained by the great body, of the Republicans, most of whom—myself included—have resolved to give their vigorous support to the National Union party.

FUNERAL CBSEQUIES OF THE LATE REAR-ADMIRAL READ — Yesterday morning the remains of the late Rear-Admiral George C. Read were laid in their final resting place. The imposing ceremonies took place at the United States Rayal Asylum, on Gray's Ferry road, and were attended by a large number of naval and military officers of distinction. The flags of all the United States ressels in port were at half mast during the morning, as were also the flags on the naval asylum and on most of our public buildings.

The attendants at the funeral began to assemble at the Rayal Asylum between 9 and 10 o'clock, and at the latter hour the Governor's house; in the eastern portion of the Naval Asylum between 9 and 10 o'clock, and at the latter hour the Governor's house; in the eastern portion of: the grounds, was througed with the professional friends of the deceased, and the friends of the family.

In front of the Governor's house a company of marines were drawn up, and they remained motionless until the coffin was lifted by a party of sailors, in their blue iniforms, and borne out of the house. The procession was then formed, and, to the sound of the dead march, beaten on muffled drums, the cortege proceeded to the chapel in the main edifice of the Asylum.

The pall-bearers were as follows:

The assemblage then moved back to the main edifice and dispersed. Minute guns, fifteen in number, were also fired at noon rom the flag ship Princeton in honor of the deceased. DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—Between twelve and one o'clock yesterday morning, a fire broke out in a range of two-story brick buildings on Mark's lane, netween Eleventh and Twelfth streets, owned by the Wetherilli, estate, and occupied principally as the stables connected with the mineral-water establishment of Johnson & Co. whose manufactory is at 1121 Cherry street. The upper portin of the building was used as a hayloft, and was entirely destroyed. The lower portion had until recently been a corpenter shop, but at the time of the fire was not used. The flames extended west in the same range of buildings to the stable of Hugh McConnel, street contractor and carter, which was reparated from the other stables by a partition wall. The upper portion of this stable was also destroyed. In the former there were eleven horses and six or eight wagons, and in the latter six horses, all of which were rescued. The next building on the west was seved by a high gable wall. The first floor was occupied by Richard Deen, blacksmith; the upper part was unoccupied. The blacksmith shop suffered slightly by water.

The flames also extended to the eastern portion of Johnston's stable, which was partitioned off as a dwelling for the head stable man, John McMullen, who lived there with his family. The "roof and upper part of this structure was also demolished, and the household effects of the occupant were meetly lost. Mr. McMullen and family made a very narrow escape. The smoke worked its way through the partition, and they were next y antic.

the occupant were mostly lost. Mr. McMullen and family made a very narrow escape. The smoke worked its way through the partition, and they were nearly sufficient and the mineral water estated before they could get out. A club stable, further east, made a narrow escape, and the mineral water establishment of Johnston & Oo., and other surrounding property, suffered slightly by water. There was a lot of coal oil stored upon the premises, upon the north side of Mark's lane, and quite a paule was caused by the fear that it would take fire. The flames, however, were prevented from spreading across the street.

All the property damaged belonged to the Wetherill estate. Loss, $1,000, fully insured. The loss of Messrs. Johnston & Oo was $500, insured in the Fire Association, and the loss of Mr. McConnell was about $50, with no insurance. tion, and the loss of Mr. McConnell was about $50, with ne insurance.

As to the precise portion of the range of buildings in which the fire originated, there is considerable discrepancy in the testimony, some parties alleging that the flames broke out in McConnell's stable, while others assert that they were first seen in Johnston's place. The weight of testimony is in favor of the latter statement, however. The fire was discovered by Officer Godfrey, of the Ninth ward, who located it in Johnston's stable, and his statement is confirmed by a woman, who had a fair view of it from Cherry street. The origin is not positively known, but the fire marshal inclines to the opinion that it was the work of an incendiary. was the work of an incendiary.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING IN THE NINE-DENTHUSIASTIC DIEETING IN THE NINE-TEENTH WABD.—In response to a call, about 2,000 persons assembled on Monday evening, at the corner of Frankford road and York street, for the purpose of aiding the Government in the present crisis, by encouraging enlistments, &c. The meeting was organized by calling to the chair Mejor John O. Gallagher, and appointing as vice presidents the following named get themen: J. Fletcher Budd; Peter Lane, Jr., Samuel A. Miller, David H. Lane, Jas. Taggart, Ferdinand Geiler, and Chas. H. Hamm Capt. Geo. F. Frost and John Bley were appointed secretaries. Able, eloquent, and effective addresses, were delivered by Col. E. W. Power, Col. William Y. Leader, Major John C. Gallagher, Capt. George B. Frost, Col. John W. Forney, Fletcher Budd, Jöseph P. Loughead, Lient. Hamm, and David H. Lane. Hamm, and David H. Lane.

The remarks of these gentlemen were received with round upon round of applause by the large and enthusiastic assemblage present, and the sentiment of the meeting was undeniably unanimous in favor of sustaining the Government at all hazards, in every measure necessary for the prompt suppression of the existing receilion.

At half past 10 o'clock the meeting adjourned, with nine cheers for the Constitution and the Union.

It was a matter of surprise and congratulation to all present that such a large and respectable gathering should be convened upon such a shoit and limited notice. It certainly proves that the masses are sound, and loyal to ertainly proves that the masses are sound, and loyal to This meeting was gotten up through the energy and particism of Captain George F. Frost, who is recruiting for the Merchants! Regiment. ly a young and fine-built Irishman arrived at this poit in a versel from Turk's Island. He was formerly attached to the 46th Regiment of the British army, stationed on the island of St. Helens. He had heard of our battles for the Union, and longed to follow Corcoran to the field. Accordingly, with eight other Irishmen, he deserted, but all were captured but himself. He managed to reach Turk's Island, and from thence to Liverpool. He finally reached this port, and, on Monday, found an Irish regiment in this city. In order to ascertain that he was no impostor, and had served in the British army, he was tested in several "steps" peculiar to the drill. He fully satisfied all present that he was a genuine Irish sol ier from the British army. He has been well taken care of, and premised agood position He-says the Irish goldiers are very anxious to come to this country, and take part in the war for the Union. This company is being recruited in lieu of the draft for nine-months service, and will be ercamped at Beverly, one of the rendezvous of the New Jertey militia, and commanded by Brigadier General George M. Bobeson, of Camden. There is great activity manifested among our neighbors to avoid the draft, and, indeing by the rapidity with which recruits are arriving at their encampments, we have no doubt of their success.

Pennsylvanians in New York Regiments.

LITTLE MEADOWS, SUSQUEHANNA Co., PA., August 19, 1862.

The enlistment fever rages here to a great extent, yet it is to be regretted that many from the northern tier of counties are enlisting in the State of New York. Especially is this the case in Susquehanna county, thereby taking from the old Keystone State the credit which to her justly belongs. Yesterday thirty-six left this place to join their regiment in New York, and nearly all residents of Pennsylvania. Where is the remedy, and The Pennsylvania State Fair. To the Editor of The Press : A committee of the Pennsylvania State Agricul tural Society has been here for some weeks past, making arrangements for the great Fair which is to be held at Norristown, Pa, for four days, commercing on the last day of September next. All communications from those who expect to be contributors to this exhibition, and from others who will be interested in it, should be directed to Hon. A. Brower Longakre, Norristown, Pa., who has been elected Recording Secretary of the Society, cice A. Boyd Hamilton, Esq., resigned. Horses have already arrived here to be made acquainted with the track. We are not at liberty to give the names of the animals, but they are from different States, and are among those known and celebrated throughout the world. The indications are that it will be the best display of the kind ever made in this State. New York, Baltimore, and other cities have already named, many important contributors. The grounds, ample, complete, and beautifully located, have been arranged with a view to accommodate a hundred thousand visitors a day. The Nerristown Railroad Company, and the Reading Railroad Company, have agreed to reduce the fare on their respective routes, during the week of the exhibition, to accommodate all contributors and visitors; and all articles and stock intended for exvisitors; and all articles and stock intended for exhibition will be conveyed free of charge.

A full company of soldiers under command of Capt. R., S. Stewart, left here this morning for Harrisburg. A war committee has been organized here, with sub-committees in every election district in the county, to report the names of all who have gone to the war, with intent to discover the districts to be drafted, and it is found that Norrisbown has not only escaped, but sant over one hundred has not only escaped, but sent over, one hundred men more than her quota. Several of the townships are equally fortunate, but the great majority are still behind? Judge Chapman has just closed a laborious session of the court.

WONDERFUL SCIENTIFIC DIS WALNUT STREET, PHILADELPHIA The difference between fact and fiction, of permanently curing the sick and suffering of their diseases, or advertising to cure, and showing but little or no evidence of cures, can be well appreciated by the anxious inquirers after health, upon attentively reading the following synopsis of certificates from some of the most reliable gentlemen in Philadelphia, who were permanently cured by Prof. BOLLES, 1220 WALNUT: street, and after they had been given up as incurred by nopsis of certificates from some of the most reliable genilemen in Philadelphia, who were permanently cured by Prof. BOLLES, 1220 WALNUT street, and after they had been given up as incurable by the most eminent medical men of this city:

The following is a statement of facts in reference to my condition and astonishing cure of Epilepsy:

For five years previous to my knowledge of Prof. O. H. Bolles' discovery, of the therapeutic administration of Galvanism, Magnetism, and other modifications; of Electricity for the cure of all acute and chronic diseases, I had been severely afflicted with Epileptic Fits of the most obstinate character, and had abandoned all hopes of ever being cured, as I had for years tried the treatment and received the counsel of the most eminent Medical Men of the State, with a view of obtaining relief if any ceuld be found among the Old Schools; but all my efforts were unavalling, and, therefore, all hopes were abandoned, as I then knew of no greater skill for the cure of obstinate cases than in the Old Schools. About six months ago my mind was terned to investigate the new discovery of Prof. O. H. Bolles, 1220. Walnut street, and, after noticing several certificates of cures which were published, and some from persons with whom I was acquainted and knew them to be reliable men, I was induced to call on the Professor and obtain his opinion of my case. After he had examined me about ten minutes, he frankly informed me that he could cure me, and offered to give me a written warrantee of a complete cure, and, in case of a failure, to charge me nothing. This at first seemed an impossibility; but the frankness and earnestness of the Professor convinced me of his scientific accuracy in the diagnosis of my case. He disclosed all my sufferings and symptoms for five years past as well as I knew them myself. I will here state, for the good of humanity, and especially those suffering as I was, that I am cured. I shall take pleasure in being referred of at any time by any one suffering as I was, and a
