He could not, however, prevent the reading if the counsel persisted. Mr. Biddle, after consultation with his colleagues, de-oided to read the affidavit. The affidavit was made by Andrew Brumsker, who testifies that he seryed the writ upon Mr. Millward at his residence, Green street, at eight o'clock Thursday morning, and was informed by the marshal that if he received an order from the Secre-tary of War he would send Mr. Ingersoll to Washington; if he received no such order Mr. Ingersoll would be pro-duced in court. A delay of about five minutes mos alloyed to the counsel to confer with Mr. Ingersoll, who had not yet been brought into court. Upon the roturn of the counsel, Mr. Wherton addressed the court and said: My friend, the District Attorney, with his usual kind-ness of disposition and some of propriety, stated to me a few minutes since that he had only within a very short time been apprised of the fact of a domestic affliction in the fore, the suggestion is very kind, that with the pledge he gave personally and which I, was willing to accept, that in case of an adjournment of this case, things, on the part of the United States, should remain exactly as they now remain, with a corresponding pledge on Mr. Ingersoll's part, that things should remain as now, he would suggest an adjournment to a convenient time, suitable to the metancholy occasion. The sugges-tion is one which has been received in the same spirit with which it has been offered, and I would propose an adjournment wntil Morday morning next at 11 o'clock, with the understanding mutually agreed upon as I have stated. 2 .903 OLINTON Street, established by Professor C. Judge Cadwalader desired to say a word in private to the counsels on both sides in consequence of the alloga-tion in Mr. Brumaker's affidavit. After the conference Judge Cadwalader stated publicly the position in which the case stood, and after referring to the time allowed to the Deputy Marshals to make return, a question in his mind had been whether the place of the position in r's ous-tody was not within the precincts of the court, he being held in the Marshal's office in the same building in which the court was convened. Upon this point he wished to say merely that he con-sidered this party as now in custody of the court; ho is within the precincts of the court, and he desired the Marshal to unde raturd that as at present advised the pelitioner remains in the custody of the court. AN ASSESSOR SCALDED BY A WOMAN. — Vesterday, a respectable-looking woman was arrested, by Deputy Marshal Jenkis, at her residence, in Phosiz-ville, and brought to this city, upon the charge of inter-foring with Peter G. Carey, one of the assessors appoint-ed by Marshal Millward. It appears that Carey called at the defendant's house, and; upon asking a few questions, was treated to a lot of boiling water. The infuriated female then ordered the assessor about his busines, at the same time declaring that if others had done the same as she, he would not have got as far as her house. The prisener was held to anawer. The penity for interfering with the assessors is very severe. Why people who are opposed to the draft should wreak their vengeance on the heads of the unfortunate assessors is more than we can conceive. The latter are themselves liable to draft, and are sworn to perform their duties faithfully. Iyn. Executive Ocmmittee-Edward Parrish, of Philadel-phia; H. F. Fish, of Waterbury, Confecticut; W. T. M. THE PHILADELPHIA COLLEGE OF PHARMACY. THE PHILADELPHIA COLLEGS OF PHARMAOY. Bince the last meeting of this Association, this College has made steady progress towards the objects for which it has been so long laboring. The School of Pharmacy under its auspices, has not suffered in its attendance. The session of 1860-61 had 123 matriculants and 40 gra-dustes; and at the session 1861-62 there were 90 matri-culants, and 30 graduates. The publication of the Ame-rican Journal of Pharmacy has been continued uninterrican Journal of Pharmacy has been continued uninter-ruptedly, notwithstanding a great falling eff in the number of subscribers, due to the rebellion, and consequent troubles. This Gollege at a late period last year, ap-pointed a committee to collect together and forward to the Great Exhibition at London, a set of specimens of strictly American drugs. The season was too late to make the collection perfect, yet about two hundred spe-c'mens of all kinds were sent, and it is to be hopad that it will have the effect to draw the attontion of English and Continental Pharmaceulists to the subject of our in-digenous Materia Medica. THE COLLEGE OF PHARMACY OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK. THE COLLEGE OF PHARMACY OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK. During the past two years this College has shown more energy and enterprise than heretofore. The library has been greatly increased with choice works of recent pub-lication, its cabinet with many specimens of American and foreign chemicals, and a large addition to its herba-rium. Its lectures and meetings have been better at-tended than for several years past. The session of 1860 61 was attended by 23 students, of whom 5 graduated. Dur-ing the year 1861 the College moved to the New York University building, and now occupies a spacious room for its purposes. The faculty consist of John M. Maisch; Professor of Materia Medica and Pharmacy, and Ferdi-naud F. Mayer, Professor of Chemistry. The session of 1861.62 was attended by 22 students, and 3 of the class graduated. During the present season, asummar course 1861.62 was attended by 22 students, and 3 of the class graduated. During the present season, a summer course of lectures on Pharmacy, Botany, and Chemistry have heen given by the Profeesors, and were well attended. The lectures on Botany were illustrated by weekly ex-cursions in the suburbs of the city, and the lectures on Chemistry by experiments in the laboratory. Conversa-tional meetings of the members are held monthly, and have been very interesting, though the attendance has not been as large as was anticipated.

AFTERNOON SESSION. The Convention was called to order at three o'clock. A resolution was offered to the effect that the Commit-tee on Adulterations be discontinued, and that a com-mittee of five be appointed, to be called "The Committee on the Drug Market," whose duty it shall be to report annually the fluctuations in the supply and demand of drugs, the variations in quality, and adulterations and sophistications coming under their observation, or re-ported to them by others, and that they be autorized to make report upon any adulteration and sophistications of immediate interest through the pharmeentical ionunale inmediate interest through the pharmaceutical journals as soon as practicable, and that all members are request. d to furnish information of the kind required to this committee without unnecessary delay. A LITTLE BOY SHOOTS HIS OWN BRO-A LITTLE BOY SHOOTS HIS OWN BRO-THER.—Yesterday morning, about 7 o'clock, Walter Henry Rumble, aged three years and three months, re-siding with his parents; at No. 966 North Tenth street, was accidentally shot by his brother, Alfred W. Bumble, aged six years. The father of the two children is a lien-tonant of Company G, of the Scott Legion Begiment. Yesterday morning, after breakfast, while preparing to go to camp, Lieut. Bumble placed his pistol—one of Sharp's patent—upon the mantel-piece. While absent from the room for a few minutes the little bor, Alfred, got hold of the wespon, which was discharged. The ball entered thu eye of his brother, Walter, and loged in the brain, where it still remains.. A physician was immediately summoned, but his services were of no avail, and the poor little fellow died a few hours after the sad occur-reges. The accident caused a gloom over the whole neighborhood. 1st. Oharge, $12 per term of five months. All denon nations admitted. THOS. SMEDLEY, av23-12t* Principal. CRITTENDEN'S PHILADELPHIA
