MEDICINAL. CONSUMPTION

CONSUMPTION

DR. WISHART'S PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL. MATURE'S GREAT REMEDY FOR ALL DISEASES OF

THE THROAT AND LUNGS.

BROWN SHEETINGS, BLACK AND COLORED ALAACAS, Have you a Course? Have you Sore Throat? Have you any of the premoditory symptoms of that most fatal lisease, Consumption ? Those who should be warned by these symptoms gene rally think lightly of them antil it is no late. From this fact, perhaps more than any other, selses the sad preralence and fatality of a disease which sweeps to the grave at least one-sixth of Death's victims. What are its symptoms?

It usually begins with a short, dry corgh, which some becomes habitual, but for some time nothing is raised except a frothy mucus. The breathing is somewhat difficult, and upon elight exercise much hubried. A senseof tightness and oppression at the chest is often felt. As the disease advances the patient becomes this in flesh, is afflicted with loss of appetite, great languer, indolence, and dejection of spirits; and may continue in this state for a considerable length of time, but is very readily affected by slight exposure or fatigue. If these occur, the cough becomes more troublesome, and is attended with expectoration, which is most copious and free very early in the morning. It is sometimes streaked with block. At this stage night-sweats usually set in, and in some cases a profuse bleeding of the lungs may also occur Pain in some pert of the chest is felt, and often a difficulty of lying upon one or the other side, without severe perienced. The pulse becomes full, hard, and frequent the hectic flush tinges the cheeks, and the dire malady is

You now ask, "Is there a cure?" Consumption has been and can be cured by the use my Tar Cordial, even in apparently hopeless cases. This assertem I make with the ability to present the mos complete evidence of its truth. Space will not admit of my giving the contents of the many thousands of testimonials to its value, which I have been and am receiving from men and women of unquestionable worth and reputation. I have had a number of these certificates printed n circular form, which I will send you free on applica. tion. Whether you now determine to try the medicine or not, send for the circular. After years of study and experiment, I offer this medicine, believing it to be the best emedy for all pulmonary and bronchial diseases. If you cannot be benefited by the use of the Tar Cordial.] believe you are beyond all earthly aid. Yet if there are better curative agents. I carneally edvisa their man The best remedies, the best care, are needed by those solicited ask you to try it.

Many, not only of the people, but physicians of every school and practice, are daily asking me, "What is the principle or cause of your great spaces in the freatmen of Pulmonary Consumption?" My answer is this: The invigoration of the digestive organs—the strengthening of the debilitated system—the parification and enrichment of the blood, must expel from the system the corruption which scrofula breeds. While this is effected by the powerful alterative (changing from disease to health) properties of the Tar Cordial, its healing and renowating principle is also acting upon the irritated surfaces of the lungs and throat, penetrating to each disased part, relieving the pain, subduing inflammation and restoring a healthful tendency. List this two-fold power, the healing and the strengthening, continue to act in conjunction with Nature's constant recuperative ten dency, and the patient is saved; if he has not too long delayed a resort to the means of cure. The Pine Tree Tar Cordial will ours Coughs, Sore Throat and Breast, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Hooping Cough, Diptheria, and is also an excellent remedy for iseases of the kidneys, and female complaints. Sold wholesale and retail at my Medicinal Depot, No

A POSITIVE CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA

fuaded. WHAT IS DYSPEPSIA ? Dyspepsia has the following symptoms: 1st. A constant pain or uneasiness at the pit of the terach, which is caused by a permanent contraction of the stomach upon undigested food. It generally begins immediately, or a short time after eating; is often very severe and obstinate. 2d. Flatulence and Acidity.—These symptoms arise from the indigestion of food, which ferments instead of digesting. 3d. Costiveness and Loss of Appetite. These symptoms are the effects of the unnatural condition of food in the stomach, and the want of pure bile and gastric juice. The stomach is often painfully distended by wind: the appetite is sometimes voracious.

4th. Gloom and Depression of Spirits. This state unfits many for the enjoyment of life, and is caused by the impure blood furnished by imperfect digostion. In this stage of the disease many persons commit suicide. There is a constant foreboding of evil, and an indifference and positive inability to perform the offices of life. 5th. Diarrhea -After being at first costive, the sufferer is afflicted with diarrhoon, which is owing to a diseased condition of the bowels, produced by the undigested food, which is evacuated in the same condition as when eaten, and, of course, gives no strength to the

6th. Pains in all parts of the system arise from the action of impure blood upon the nerves. They are felt chiefly in the head, sides, and breast, and in the extremities. In many cases there is an unessiness in the throat, with a sense of choking or suffication. The nouth is often clammy, with a bad taste and furred 7th. Consumptive Symptoms and Palpitation of the Heari. Many persons prozounced as having these diseases have, in fact, nothing but Dyspepsia, the lung and heart disease being only symptoms. 3th. Cough. This is a very frequent symptom of Dys-

papsia, and leads very often into confirmed consump-

. 9th. Want of Sleep - A very distressing symptom, 10th. Symptoms of external relation -The patient is affected painfully by cold and heat, which is owing to unnatural dryness of skin, and the skin is often affected, by exaptions and tetters. The gloom dyspeptic avoids society as much as possible. 11th. Fomiling. -A frequent and distressing symptom.

It relieves the pain, but emaciates and wears or at the zatient. 12th. Dissinses, dimness of vision, heada she, and staggering, in walking.—These are very alarm Ang symp. toms, which are speedily removed by our m edicine, but if neglected, are quickly followed by n ambness and sudden death.

13th. It is impossible for us to give all the symptoms of Drapepaia in so small a space, but the above are considered sufficient—if we add that the patient loses his memory and attention to surround ing objects, and frequently becomes marose and sor in disposition. We should say, however, that pains in the joints and stiff. ness of the limbs, which go b , the name of rheumatism and neuralgia, are very of ten produced by Dyspepaia. Also, a hardness of the m ascles of the abdomen, which become contracted and, hard; and in some cases the belly sinks, instead of being gently prominent. In cases of general debility, use WISHART'S PINE TREE T/IR CORDIAL with the PILL. N. B .- All orders promptly attended to on receipt o the money.
