the arrival of fathers, husbands, some and friends, who were wounded on the late battle-fields in Yirginia. About eleven o'clock 300 soldiers from the Washington hospitals arrived at the depot, in charge of Dr. Banks, volunteer surgeon. They were conviyed to the Broad and Cherry streets hospital. A large provost guard and a strong police force were in atlendance at the depot, to assigt in the removal of the soldiers. About one o'clock the body of Ool. Koltes arrived at the depot. The coffin was enveloped in the American flag, and placed in a handsemely decorated hearse, drawn by four black horser. The escort c neisted of Captain wm. Moore, Lieut. Christian Zoebel, and ten nen-com-missioned officers of the sourd regiment, who are now on recruiting service in this city, and the Mannerchor Singing Society. The remains were taken to his late residence, in Third street, near Brown. Choot half past three o'clock in the afternoon forty-times cars, loaded with sick and wounded, arrived at the depot. Al then there was a hurrying to and fro of anxious friends, who were desirous of obtaining some tidings of their friends and loved ones in the valley of Virginia. Persons travelled from car to car inquiring if any of the 109th Pennsylvania were on board? Was the 100th Begiment in the fight? and other questions of a si-milar character. Some of the wounded, though reversely injured, expressed their determination to return at an early date; that they hadn't fought enough ; wouldn't go to the hospital. About twenty car loads of the soliders were taken to the Volunteer Befreahment Saloons, and kindly taken care of by the persons in attendance. The remaining soldiers were distributed in the different hospi-tals. We understand that the two thousand patients in the hospital. THE DECEASE OF CAPTAIN DILL -Beforence has already been made by some of the news-paper press to the decease of Captain Dill, of the bark Thomas Dallett, which occurred at sea on the 24th of July. The deceased sailed from this port for many years, being for a long time master of the Bowens. A letter recently received by the firm of Dallett & Son, in whose employ Captain Dill was engaged at the time of bis death, gives some further particulars. It appears this death, gives some further particulars. It appears that from the time of leaving the Capes the deceased fre-quently complained of ill health, though no serious ill-ness was anticipated. On the 21st ultimo he appeared acomewhat better, and, after remaining on deck a short time, went below to the cabin, leaving the first mate in eharge of the ship. A few minutes afterwards the mate eharge of the ship. A few minutes afterwards the mate-was startled by a noise resembling the falling of a body. He immediately proceeded to the cabin-and found Captain Dill lying on his face on the floor. With the assistance of the second mate, the captain was conveyed to a sofa, where he lay quite inferstile. He remained in an unconscious state until he died on the 24th, not once having evinced any return to reason from the time be was first seized with the attack. It was of course, necessary to bury him at sea, which was done the succerding day. The charge of the ship devolving upon the first of August last. her eafly into port, arriving on the first of August last. In the death of Cast Dill, the mercantile community have cause to regret the loss of a valuable official, one who was always found faithful to his duty and efficient in his performance of it. We fear it will not be easy to replace

Let all these be forthcoming at once, and in plentiful abundance, that the noble fellows who have ascrifteed health to the country's cause may be properly cared for.

BRIAN BOROIHME UNITED IRISH LE-BRIAN BOROHME UNITED IRISH LE-GION.—This regiment, commanded by Col. George Grookes, is in process of rapid sugmentation, with a fair prospect of attaining the army standard within a reason-able time A meeting of the officers connected with the organization was held yeaterday morning, at their head-quarters, Connolly's hotel No. 527 Obsenue streat, when a large number of recruits were eported as ready for muster. Irishmen should remember that this regiment will' certainly be attached to Gén. Corcorar's brigade. We predict that this fact will, of itself, be sufficient to stimulate the patriotic ardor of our loyal Irish dit-zens. No more experienced officer than Col. Chrockes-could have hear salested er the commanding officer. He is a brave and accomplished soldier, and enjoys an ex-tensive acquaintance with the community of our city and State.

The usual bounties are guaranteed to all recruits enlist-ing in this regiment. Becculting stations are being orened in different localities throughout the State, and no labor will be spared on the part of those having the inte-rest of the organization at heart to make it efficient and creditable in avary respect editable in every respect, Dyspepsia has the following symptoms: 1st. A constant pain or uneasiness at the pit of the stomach, which is caused by a permanent contraction of the stomach upon undigested food. It generally begins immediately, or a short time after eating; is often very severe and obstinate. 2d. Flatulence and Acidity .-- These symptoms arise from the indigestion of food, shich ferments instead of toms are the effects of the unnatural condition of food in the stomach, and the want of pure bile and gastrio inice. The stomach is often painfully distended by wind; 1 the appetite is sometimes voracious. 4th. Gloom and Depression of Spirits .- This state unfits many for the enjoyment of life, and is caused by the impure blood furnished by imperfect digesiion. In this stage of the disease many persons commit suicide. There is a constant foreboding of evil, and an indifference and positive inability to perform the offices of life. 5th. Diarrhæa.-After being at first costive, the sufferer is afflicted with diarrhœa, which is owing to a diseased condition of the bowels, produced by the undigested food, which is evacuated in the same condition as when esten, and, of course, gives, no strength to the syntem. 6th. Pains in all parts of the system arise from the action of impure blood upon the nerves. They are felt chiefly in the head, sides, and breast, and in the extremities. In many cases there is an uneasiness in the throat, with a sense of choking or suffocation. The mouth is often clammy, with a bad taste and furred tongue. Ith. Consumptive Symptoms and Palpitation of the Heart .- Many persons pronounced as having these diseases have, in fact, nothing but Dyspepsia, the lung and heart disease being only symptoms. 8th.  No. 278 GREENWICH Street, corner Warren st. NEW YORK, And for sale by Druggists generally. ap21-1y GLUTEN CAPSULES OF PURE COD-LIVER OIL. The repugnance of most patients to COD-LIVER DIL, and the inability of many to take it at all, has in-

OIL, and the inability of many to take it at all, has in-duced various forms of disguise for its administration that are familiar to the Medical Profession. Some of them answer in special cases, but more often the vehicle neutralizes the usual effect of the Oil, proving quite as unpalatable and of less therapeutio value. The repug-nance, names, &c., to invalids, induced by disgust of the Oil, is entirely obviated by the use of our CAPSULES. COD-LIVER OIL CAPSULES have been much used lately in Europe, the experience there of the good re-sults from their use in both hospital and private practice, aside from the naturally suggested advantages, are suf-ficient to warrant our claiming the virtues we do for اين ي مو الشيط aside from the naturally suggested advantages, are suf-floient to warrant our claiming the virtues we do for them, feeling assured their use will result in benefit and deserved favor.
