THE BEST PORTABLE LIGHT FOR FAMILY Use -kvery family must be provided with a portable light of some kind, and we take the liberty to day, after having tested the merits of the article, to say that the Light of all lights, which should be universally adopted, Wither for convenience, cleanliness, durability, or eco htmy, is the Witters Lamps, manufactured and sold by Mass. Witters & Co., at their warehouse, No. 35 North Righth street, corner of Filbert. They have also now in More, at much below the usual prices, a splendid assortment of first-quality Britannia Ware. PURE FRENCH AND AMERICAN CONFECTIONS, I Moderante Prices,-Mesers. E. G. Whitman & Co., the well-known Philadelphia Confectioners, Chestaut Street, below Fourth, next door to Adams & Co.'s Ex-Press, deserve credit for having brought the prices of the test, purest, and richest confections, down to within reach of all. Their fine chocolate preparations, roasted almonds, mint and cream candles, sugar plums, and fine mixtures, are the most delicious that we have ever tasted, and their parity and excellence is only equalled by the remarkably moderate prices at which they are sold, both Prholesale and retail.

ARELIGIOUS DOSE,—One of our tract societies has undertaken a new branch of publishing. The managers have caused crackers to be baked, on each of which is which is stamped a text of Scripture. Sinners can swallow the Gospel in this style without its choking them; in last, can eat the cracker with as much grace and ease as it bore the following suitable inscription:

The rebels are fighting for an aristocracy or a monarchy, at the basis of which elavery is to stand immutable and eternal. They hate equal rights, and hate the North because democratic ideas are Prevalent among the Northern people. They have no affection for a republic, no sympathy with labor, no tolerance of a poor man's independence. To attempt to restore the Union, with slavery in it, still intolerant of restraint, baughty, imperious, domineering, is to be beaten in the contest Uniforms ready-made, or made to order, at the Military and Citizens' Clothing Emporium of Charles Blokes, under the Continental Hotel, Chestant Birset, below Ninth. HEADQUARTERS HOME GUARD. CITY OF PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 5, 1862. GENERAL ORDER, No. 11.

The Governor of the Commonwealth having issued his Proclemation, of the 4th instant, in which, a nong other things, he says "that it is expedient that measures should be taken to arm and prepare our people for deferee," it is hereby ordered:

First. That commanding officers of regiments, battalions, squadrons, or batteries of the Home Guard take tailons, an adrons, or batteries of the Homs Guard take prompt and decisive measures to put their respective commands in a condition of efficiency. For this purpose, all members thereof are required to obey the orders of their respective commanding officers, in reporting for any duty to which they may be assigned.

Second. The man of Philadelphia are urged, in the most cumbatic manner, to enroll themselves in the comparies of the Home Guard most convenient to their respective residences, and to form additional regiments then sof. spective residences, and to form additional regiments the sof.

Third. It is essential to the security of the city that a force of 45,000 men should be promptly organized, instructed, and disciplined. To do this, the women of the city should be substituted in all employments suitable to their tender sex now filled by able-bodied men.

Fourth. Men of Philadelphia, a mighty danger is impending over you; contious your inactivity and suplements a few days longer, and total and irretrievable ruin will overwhelm you. A powerful army, flushed with ness a few days longer, and total and irretrievable ruin will overwhelm you. A powerful army, flushed with victory, and enriched with your military spoils, now hovers over your Southern border; another holds in check, in frent of Washington, the remnauts of your armies of the Potomac, of Virginia, and of North Garolina. The invasion of your soil may occur at any moment and such a prize as Philadelphia is too tempting to the barfooted soldiers, who strip your deed and wounded on the battle fields of their clothing to cover their nakedness, not to call forth their every effort to scoure it. Once captured, it will be almodared, and its safety from Once captured, it will be slundered, and its safety from destruction will be the condition on which dishonorable terms of peace will be offered. Arouse yourselves! the 100,000 able bodied men who inhabit this city, with the recourses which it contains, if united, and ably led, can doly the efforts of any Southern army which could be receivilized upon it. precipitated upon it.

Fifth. Let the erganization of new regiments of Home Guards be immediately commenced in all the wards respectively, companies to consist of one hundred and six, mon and officers, and regiments to be composed of ten companies each. By order of . PLEASON TON,

A. J. PLEASON TON,

Brigadier General Commanding Home Guard.

PHILADELPHIA, September 5th, 1862.

GENERAL OBDER No 3.—In accordance with the excellent recommendation of the Governor and Commandor-in-Obief commanders of brigades in this Division are respectfully and earnestly requested to use their best exertions for "the immediate formation of Volunteer Companies and Regiments, in conformity with the mititia act of 1858," and to commence a thorough course of instruction, beginning with the School of the Soldier, drilling ever, day from 3 o'clock P M. till dark.

It is also carnestly recommended that the members of It is also earnestly recommended that the members of each company and regiment be careful in the selection of officers. If the officers are competent the commands will Arms will be issued by the proper officers when companies are formed, and requisitions made in conformity with the law. No doubt is entertained that, in accordance with the Governor's recommendation, all places of business will bereafter be closed at 3 o'clock P. M., that all may have an opportunity to acquire instruction.

Our State is threatened with invasion, and it is our duty to ourselves and to others to be prepared for it. If it is known that we are in a condition to repel an attack, it is not likely that one will be made
