September 1, to Obief Clerk Mix, of the Indian Bu-reau, says that he had arrived there Angust 29, with 200 troops, finding, when he arrived, about one company. He found the fort in a very poor state of defence, it never having been finished; but the troops went to work immediately, and expected to have it finished by the fol-lowing night. On his arrival, Commissioner Dole apprised Hole-in-the-Day and other chiefs, that he was ready and willing to hold a council with them at that place. They answer-ed on the following day, by saying they would not meet him there, and refusing to name a time and place. There seem to be two opinious, says Commissioner Dole, in re-gard to these Indian troubles; one is, that the Indians are not in hostility to the whites generally, but have had a personal difficulty with the 'employees of the Govern-meet.
