FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1862.

What shall be done with the Southern Army, if captured.

THE WAR.

To-day we have news from the headquarters of the army in Maryland, giving details of the magnificent victory, which was foreshadowed in our despatch of yesterday.

CAUSE AND EFFECT.

The recent successes of the rebels have astonished Europe. There were those who believed that the struggle would be a hard and long one.

THE NEWS.

We print, to-day, the record of one of the most appalling calamities that have happened in the United States for years.

THE SOUTHERN NEWS.

The outbreak of the Sioux Indians is well understood. An account of the same is furnished by the "Able Advocate."

THE PARTICULARS OF THE FALL OF HARPER'S FERRY.

The particulars of the fall of Harper's Ferry, to-day, possess a melancholy and touching interest.

ARMY CORRESPONDENCE.

Our Harper's Ferry correspondence describes the capture of the place, and the arrival of the army.

GOVERNMENT OF MINNESOTA.

Gov. Ramsey, of Minnesota, in his message to the Legislature on the 12th inst., has announced a number killed in course of the Indian atrocities.

JUDGE KELLEY.

A Democratic Convention of this city attacks the Republican party, by asking why he and other Republican candidates and patriots are not high privates in the ranks of the gallant army for the defence of the Commonwealth.
