the city have devoted their attention to the service of the sick and wounded. To the dying they administer, in tones which no man could employ the infinitely sweet consolations of religion; to the convalescent they speak of bound of religion; to the convalescent they speak of home and happines; to the young boys they bring back memories of their families and firesides; and to the old men they rehearse the heroic deeds of wires, and sons, and daughters The present is the hour not only of feeling, but also of action. The most invincible of widows, the most inveterate of old maids, while the knits the yarn into the sock or stocking, knits the ties of knifs the yarn into the sock or stocking; knifs the tiss of veneration more closely than ever she did when she ca-jold her husband or bámboozled her lover Mrary sex, every age, every condition becomes one-all are united in the claims of true and everlasting liberty. To the coldier, particularly, to larguish upon the inva-lid's bed, is hard, indeed. To listen, for want of aught else, to the jingling of the tambourine-girl, and the melody of the organ grinder, as the music echoes from the atreet through the ward, exem-plifying the "harmony of discerd," is one of the inevita-ble syils efflicting the side and wounded. But kind plifying the "harmony of discerd," is one of the inertia-ble evils soliticing the slok and wounded. But kind hearts feel for them, and kind hands work for them, and in this city, at least, no efforts are spared to make re-cruits in health, as well as in regiments. The brave who have referred to us, enjoy many of the luxuries, as well as comforts, of life. They are invited to the houses of our most refined and respectable families; books-the Bible the history; the romance-are given them and losned them; refreshing perfume is sprinkled by tender hands upon their death-damp brows; cordials and tempt-ing daintics entice their palates. Charity, like the Palace of Art, is "royal-lich and wide." All that can be done, is done, and when we comparatulate onrestrea Falsee of Art, 18 "Foyal-fich and Wide." All that can be done, is done, and when we congratulate ourselves upon our splendid successes, and brood over the dead mul-tilude who have done their duty, and the living, who live but to do it, we may apostrophize Liberty, as one of the most parsionate of poets alluded to a being as near to him.

THE PRESIDENT'S COLONIZATION SOHEME .- We learn that a movement is on foot in this city, in regard to the President's Colonization scheme. The colored people scent to be aroused to the importance of the subject, and are interested in the sailing of the ex-pedition, which will probably take place about the 5th of October, and comprise five hundred individuals. The expedition will land at Ohriqui, on the Isthmus,

The expectition will isno as Onitiqui, on the Astanus, two hundred miles north of Aspinwall and the Panama railroad. If no objection is made by the Ohiriqui Go-vernment on arrival, a landing will be made in Ohiriqui Lagcon. If objection is made, or if the mining and agri-cultural prospects are not good, the colony will go else-where and settle; in the language of the paper of per-minsion from this Government, * at any point within the tropics '' Senator Pomeroy has a letter from the Presi-dent obserging him to it maintain the hones of the Reit, charging him to "maintain the honor of the Re-blic abroad."

To every unmarried adult man will be granted twenty

To every unmarries some man will be granted eventy acres; to every family of five, forty acres; to every family of over five, eighty acres. Large quantifies of coal are now carried from Penn-sylvania to Aspinwall, and any amount of it which may be discovered must prove valuable. The country is the right one for corn and cotton, coffee and coccas, rice and fruits, and plenty of postoles grow wild there. Through all the North anxious parties, making in-quiries or offers, have addressed Secretary Pomeroy, that gentleman having received more than a thousand DEPUTATION TO HAGERSTOWN .--- In DEPUTATION TO HAGERSTOWN. — In addition to the large deputation already sent by the Obristian Commission to Frederick, to look after the woulded of the recent battles in Maryland, they despatched last night the Bev. Dr. Bomberger, the Bev. Wm. O. Robinson, the Rev. S. W. Thomas, and Messra. W. A. Duff and Thomas T. Mason, and some twenty others, to Bagerstown, taking with them a large amount of hospital storer, to be personally distributed by them to our soffering heroes. The commission have now over fifty ministirs and laymen laboring on the battle field, without charge, save their expenses. There is the greatest need of stores and money. All stores abould be addressed to Geo. H. Stuart, Esq., chairman, 13 Bank street, and money should be sent to Joseph Patterson, Esq., treasn-rer, at Western Bank. A despatch was received last evening from the deputation at Frederick, saying that thure is the greatest need for abirts, drawers, and sheets, in addition to other hospital stores.

CITIZENS' VOLUNTEER HOSPITAL. BROAD AND PRIME STREET.S. The managers of this institution have received information that 2,000 sick and woulded soldiers from the late scene of action will and woulded soldiris from the late scene of action will be sent here on Tuesday. The Building Committee are in reed of about 20 carpenters, for which they are wil-ling to pay the regular days' wages, and ask the master carpenters to lend them, for three or four days, some of their hands, so as to have the building 'ready in time. The ladies, a number of whon have, and are exerting themselves in behalf of this noble institution, invite the co-operation of their female friends, to make and pro-vide shgets, shirts, stockings, bandages, lint, slippers, &c., and send the same to the Committee op Supplies, or any of the officers.

THE DRAFT.-The report which we sublished yesterday in reference to the number of volun-teers who have enlisted from Philadelphia, as calculated by a committee of City Councils in conjunction with Colonel Ruft, will be forwarded to day to Governor Cur-tin. Prevident Allen, whose clerks made a similar inves-tigation of the facts of the case, will also send a report rightion of the lacis of the case, will also send a report to the Governor, which, we understand, is essentially the same. It is likely, therefore, that justice will be done Philadelphia, and that our patriotic city will be credited with an excess of about twelve thousand volunteers over her quota. In addition to those submitted to Councils, we learn that Philadelphia will be credited as follows:
