gallant officer has nothing of the submissive in his character. He deserves, and ought to have, immedi-ate exchange and the reward of a soldier. Do you know the features of his fight on Sunday at Munfordville? With 2,500 men and five pieces of artil-lery he successfully resisted five different assaults upon a mud fort with ditches not three feet wide and deep, made by a force of 5,000 men. He fought these rebeis with raw troops who had not been in the field two months. He killed at least four hundred of the rebeis. His men beat them down from the rifle pits with thegout of their guns. He resusted this force for seven hours, and so well did he manœuvre his men that he lost but seven killed and thirty three wonnded. But, unfortunately, he was reinforced by Gol. And now came the principal portion of the day's work; nothing more or less than a brief, but spirited, battle, in which a small force of our men fought valiantly against a vastly superior force. The enemy began to show him-relf in unexpected strength. He was to be seen in line of battle as far as the eye and glass could extend on the left of Shepheritewm. It became the duty of our men to stand their ground until beaten or ordered to retreat, and they slood their ground most nobly. Hoping to bag its visiting party, the enemy came down upon them like a thousand wolves on a single fold. The sharp orack of muketry and right moke betokened that a battle had' begun. Seeing the perilous position of our men, Ro-bertson's, Gibson's, Benson's, and Tidball's United States Batteries took positions on this side, and poured in ehell and solid shot at a furious rate into the enemy's ranks, but few shot were received in exchange. Our men remained on the other side several hours, al-though actual firing was kept up but little over half an bour, when the order to recross to the Maryland side was given. Our men back in excellent order, not-withstanding the meny had the consolation of know-ing that they had, leftmore tebel dead and wounded on the field thap our own men. A number of our men were taken prisoners. The ceptured belong principally to the 118th Pennsylvania regiment', niew in the field. Through some mit take, they took the wrong rod on the erterat. They fought with the steadiness and coloness of a votoran regiment, and they were highly complimented by Colonel Barnees for their barvery. A FULL ASSORTMENT OF CLOCKS, au28-2m WILLIAM H. Colonel Prevost, whose name heads the list of wounded, received a severe, but not dangerous wound in the side, while carrying the colors of the regiment. All the men of all the regiments, in fact, behaved spleadidly. Hearing the cannonading, and not knowing but a general engagement might ensue, hosts of regiments came hurrying towards the river. Close by the river, and directly opposite Shepherdstown, was General Grif-fin's brigade, every moment expecting that General Mo-rell would order them across the river. General Skes also went across the river, with the regiments attached to his command, and during the battle was prominent in the thickest of the fight. These regiments fully statistical their reputation for gallantry. I learn that his men suf-fered some, but, up to the time of despatching this letter, I have been unable to learn the names of the sufferers. I stances of female heroism have rarely developed in the pretent way. A woman performed an act of daring to-day worthy of record. But it is easy to undeceive them.

At every instance of apparent success by the Union army, many people at Richmord, and many of the sol-diers, always buyen to rejoice that now Biohmond was to be taken, and the trouble ended. This was very much the case before the retreat of the army of the Peninsula. A great deal of machinery was removed towards Dan-ville at the time, and a wast quantity of tobacco was also remeved; but much of the tobacco was understand to ville at the time, and a year quantity of lobacco was also removed; but much of the tobacco was understood to have been afterwards destroyed by exposure to the floods. The scarcity of food and clothing was very great. Corn meal could be obtained at $2 50, but only a bushel at a time for a family. The prices have often been correctly quoted by the Richmond papers, except that some of the articles named were not to be had at all. The ladies, even of wealthy families, looked quite threadbare and very lank without crinolines, while many of them wers for months confined at home for want of shoes, the price, of which was from four to aix times the former prices, and they pror and scarce even at that. —if not more -of the rank and file of the army. So often has this statement been made by atomp orstors and news-papers. that numbers of our citizens seem to regard it at truthful, and the result is, that remarks of an offensive nature have been made in the presence of persons who differ in political opinion with the Democracy of the pre-fert day, sepecially that class known as Breckinridge Democrats. That the remarks I allude to are not only unjust, but absolutely without foundation in truth, the errollment for the draft proves beyond all cavil. In pust, but absolutely without foundation in truth, the enrollment for the draft proves beyond all cavil. It must be plain to every mind, that if the Democrats really form three-fourths of the rank and file of the army, the enrollment will show that a greater per centage of the fighting population have enlisted in the Democratic than in the Republican districts of the State. Now, the enrollment shows the very reverse of this for from it it appears that a far greater per centage of the fighting population of the Republican districts. The Demo-cratic county of Northampton has sent less men to war than the Republican county of Blair, and yet Blair pells at little more than one-half the yote of Northampton. The Republican county of McKean has sent more men to the war than the Democratic county of Monroe, and yet Monroe polls almost fifty per cent. more yotes than McKean. The fighting Quakers of Republican Ohester county have sent within five per cent as many men to war as Democratic Berks, and yet the yote of Berks is thirty per cent. more than Ohester's. The combined you of the Republican counts of Interset of Berks is thirty per cent. more than Senter's as many men to war as Democratic Berks, and yet the yote of Berks is thirty per cent. more than Ohester's. He joined Morgan's battery, and was sent down to Cynthiana with a portion of that com-mand. At that point he took two of the battery horses and then took French leave for the Queen City. and then took French leave for the Queen City. He reports Gen. Kirby Smith in quarters at Lexington, and that the rebel force between our lines and that point are straggling back in a somewhat scattered condition There is a great scarcity of water, as well as provisions, along the road—the wells being exhausted at many of the farm-houses. The Secession semiment is, however, strong, additions being made daily to the rebel troops.

FROM THE COAST OF FLORIDA.

Arrival of the Prize Steamer Columbia at New York-More Prizes Uaptured-Yellow Fever in the South Atlantic Blockading Squadron, &c.

The Anglo-Rebel steamer Columbia arrived at New lork on Sunday afternoon, in charge of Acting Master Charles, U. S. V. N.

Clinton, and Blair, at the last Presidential election, was fourteen thousand four knndred and fifty-three, and the combined voic of the Democratic counties of Berks, Northampton; and Monroe, at the same election, was twenty seven thousand three hundred and thirty-three; yet the Republican counties named have sent to the war over three hundred more men than the Democratio counties they are contrasted with, slithough they pelled hardly more than half the number of: yotes. The morning paper from which I cuilied the information regarding the men sent to the war from the foregoing counties has never exhibited Repub-lican proclivities; indeed, its conductors seem perfectify willing that the corner stone of the rebellion shall remain untouched; to breed future dissensions, if not future wars. If the marshals' returns from all the counties of The following persons were passengers on board the Columbia: Boy. O. E. Herrick, Thomas J. Boynton, United States district attorney, Robert P. Campbell, Miss Ellen Haley, John Hall, 90th Begiment New York State Ellen Haley, John Hall, 90th Eggiment New York State Volunteers. The Columbia reports having spoken, on the 14th instant, off Cape Carnaveral, the British brig Nancy Riley, of London, from Minatitian for London, in dis-trees—all hands down with the fever. Supplied her with medicines, icé, etc. 'On Friday last, off the capes of the Obesapeske, made a steamer ahead, and altered our course to speak her and obtain late newspapers. Upon seeing the course of the Columbia changed, she suddenly, to our great suprime, steamed off to the sastered at brouched, to breed future dissensions, if not future wars. If the marshals' returns from all the counties of Pennsylvania could be published, I am confident, such a condition of things would be revealed, that no loager would the surering inquiries be heard; "Wherefare your Wide-Awakes" Where are your Republicans, now ?". Mr. Editor, the truth is, that the rank and file of the United States army, as far as Pennsylvania is concerned, is almost absolutely made up of Republicans and Douglas Democrats. There are BreckInridge Democrats also in the army but works the super superconcernet.
