MILITARY. N ROBERTS' INDEPENDENT AR-TILLEBY, TO BE STATIONED PERMANENTLY AT FORTRESS MONROE.

COMPANY A, Captain SAMUEL HAZABD, Jr., formerly of the "Washington Grays," and Lieutenant of Infantry, lately of Bush's Lancers, is now recruiting at N. E. CORNER EIGHTH AND CHESTNUTSTS. (UP STAIRS.)

This organization offers peculiar advantages not before equalled by any regiment during the war. The Commander, Major Roberts, is a soldier of great experience of the Regular Army, 4th United States Artillery, and its officers have been appointed for their experience and ability. The men will be instructed in all the duties of infantry soldiers, garrison as well as field, in sea coast, heavy and artillery. As the number of companies is limited, none but strong, able bodied men will be received, and early application is advised. Bounty is allowed. Old artillery soldiers, who can come well recommended, will receive appointments as non commissioned Officers in this corps of picked men. oc6 mwf 6t
