ormerly of the "Washington Grays," and Lieutenant of Infantry, lately of Rush's Lancers, is now recruiting at N. E. CORNER EIGHTH AND CHESTNUTSTS.,

(UP STAIRS.) This organization offers peculiar advantages not before equalled by any regiment during the war. The Commander, Major Roberts, is a soldier of great experience, of the Regular Army, 4th United States Artillery, and its ability. It is a permanent post, has comfortable quarters, is in a charmingly healthy locality, thus avoiding all the hardships and exposures of field service. The men will be instructed in all the duties of infantry solfield artillery. As the number of companies is limited. none but strong, able bodied men will be received, and serly application is advised. Bounty is allowed. Old artillery soldiers, who can come well recommended, will receive appointments as non commissioned Officers in
