BOAY EVENING a number of ladies and gentienen, who, we understand, give concerts once a week, at the different hospitals, entertained the soldiers connected with the hospital Sixteenth and Filbert streets, with one of their delightful entertainments. Amongst the performers we recognized the Messrs. Gumpert, McCullough, and Mr. Ewing, who opened the entertainment by a grand march on the piano, which was executed in a brilliant manner. Ohoruses and solos were sung by the ladies and gentlemen, which were well received by the soldiers and audience. We trust they may continue these concerts, as they are a source of pleasure to the soldiers.
