Business Prospects.—Business of mearly all kinds is at present in a state of suspension. The election of Tuesday in Pennsylvania, Ohio, and other Northern States, has diverted much of the attention of producers and merchants from their legitimate calling; and not until after the November elections will trade, even though under the influence of favorable war news, assume its ordinary channels. Upon their results will business become more active or more depressed The Democratic merchant argues that trade will take a new start, should the fall elections be favorable to the political party to whose principles he has sold himself and his goods,

He can see no hope for the nation in the triumph of the Admir istration; no cheering prospect for the future in the suppression of the rebellion. Men, however, who are shrewd enough to know what constitutes the prosperity of the country, are not apt to reason like those who, forgetting honor, nationality, and principle, view svery movement taken by the Administration to crush out this infamous rebellion, as one step further towards a reunited country and consequently that anduring peace, without which there can be no mercantile, financial, or business prosperity. The triumph of the rebellion in the South is the downfall of fortunes in the North illon in the South is the downfall of fortunes in the North—a succession of failure, bankrupts, and breakdowns. What them is Philadelphia's future? With secession an accomplished fact, what is there to bind her to the rich granaries of the West, or the workshops of the East? Philadelphia owes all her greatness to the Union, and without the Union she is then indeed an inland town—robbed of her name and fame. Her forty thousand volunteers will stand pledged to avert so dire a result, and well are they coing it. Knowing ones predict an early renewal of that mercantile status, which has already placed our city in the front ranks of progress The clouds of war are already brightening with a spread-The clouds of war are already brightening with a spread-The clouds of war are the property in gof silver ining.

The dawn approaches, and the full effulgence of a new prosperity is even now visible. The old routine of the Market-street merchant is breaking down, and new form of the contract of avenues are opening. The "Southern trade," the un-scrupulous desire for which fostered in no small degree the vanity and self conceit which finally culminated in open rebillion on the part of the South, had too long been the ignis fatuus of the Philadelphia merchant. For a Southern order for goods he was willing to sell his conscience. He bowed down to the same idol and worshipped the same obscone deities. He pasked his prin-ciples with his carsimeres, and deceived the South that one was as genuine as the other. Philadelphie, as a whole, became convinced at last that the Southern trade was a delusion, and that our future prosperity as a city is owing more to the sterling worth of the Western far-mers and their solvent out mers. It will, of course, ake some time to get accustomed to the new routine. It take some time to get accustomed to the new rounds. It is slow in its coming, yet it is surer in its ultimate effects. With the successful progress of the Virginia armies will business resume its former activity. Every new victory tends to dispet the gloom, and to reawsken the first of industry. A few short months will no doubt witness the reopening of a lealth, and vigorous trude Already the furnaces and factories are resounding once more with the hum of busy operatives. The demand for army clothing has given employment to thousands of the poor, who have not yet but barely felt that a desolating war rages

The fall trade in dry goods is about over, and manufacturing is very materially curtailed, and promises soon to become even more so, unless the supply of cotton, in some unforcesen moment, becomes augmented at an earth day. In scarons of prosperity, cotton manufacturing in the United States held the foremost rank among the in the United States held the foremost rank among the several branches of manufacture, both in respect to the value of the product and the amount of capital employed. The currency of the country is, as yet, a drawback to steady and prosperous trade. The high premium on gold, and the rates of sterling exchange, have contributed to unsettle business affairs. Inflation in stocks still continues, and the spirit of speculation is rampant at the Stock Board. The credit of the Government, through good and evil report, is far above par—a circumstance which augurs well for the future, for, so long as the Government is sustained, there is no reason to athe Government is sustained, there is no reason to

THE COLLEGE OF PHYSICIANS.—This s'ructure, row building at the northeast corner of Thir teenth and Locust streets, is fast approaching comple-December. The building will be of pressed brick, of two stories in height. On the first floor will be an entrance hall and stairway, with two large rooms for the Mütter Museum, a curstor's room, a jauttor's room, and convenient apartments for a janitor's family. In the second stery there will be a spacious lecture room, a small private room for the lecturer, two spicious rooms for the library and for meetings of the College, a committee room, and a librarian's room.

The College of Ph. sicians of Philadelphia is one of the oldest, and has always been esteemed one of the most respectable medical societies in the United States. It was spectable medical societies in the United States. It was founded very early after the Bevolution, and was chartered by the State 26th March, 1789. Among its corporators were the names of John Bedman, William Shippen, Adam Kubn, John Morgan, Benjamin Bush, Samuel and Benjamin Duffield, Geradus Clerkson, Thomas Parke, James Hucchisson, John Carson, John Foulke, Samuel Powell Griffitts, Wilsam Currie, Senjamin Say, Nathan Dorsey, Casper Wistar, Michael Leib, &c., &c. The objects of the College, as set forth in the charter, are "to advance the science of medicine, and thereby to lessen human misery by investigating the diseases and remedies which are peculiar to this country, by observing the effects of different seasons, climates, and situations upon the human body; by recording the changes which are produced in diseases by the progress of agriculture, aris, population, and manners; by searching for medicines in the American woods, waters, and in the houseless in the search has a provided the search. medicines in the American woods, waters, and in the bowels of the earth; by enlarging the avenues to knowbowels of the earth; by enlarging the avenues to knowledge from the discoveries and publications of foreign countries, and by cultivating order and uniformity in the practice of physic."

In 1793, the Society commenced the publication of its Transactions. This publication has been continued at intervals until the present time. For many years the meetings of the College were held in the Hall of the American Philotophical Society, afterwards in the Mercantile Library building. Some years tince the College rented from the Pennsylvania Hospital the building erected for the exhibition of West's picture of "Christ Healing the Sick." which building they as present occury. Larger Sick," which building they as present occupy. Larger accommodations than this house afforded were soon needed for the rapidly increasing library of the College, and the Fellows desired also to have a reading room, where they could meet and communicate to each other early information in relation to epidemics, the improvements in their solence, and where they might consult the various medical periodicals. With that view, about ten years since they established a building fund, which was placed in the hands of truttees to accumulate. This placed in the hands of trustees to accumulate. This fund, raised by subscription among the profession, has now reached to abt ut twenty-five thousand dollars.

Three years ago a portion of this fund was invested in the lot at the northeast corner of Locust and Thirteenth streets. Eubsequently an additional lot east of the above was purchased, so that the College now possesses a front on Locust street of sixty feet, extending back to Camby street, and having a front also on Thirteenth street of one hundred and ten feet.

A short time anterior to the purchase of this ground, the late professor Thomas D. Mutter made an offer to the College to present them his pathological cabinet, and to place in trust the sum of thirty thousand dollars, the in terest of which was to be paid to the College for the maintenance and increase of the museum the payment of a curator, and the endowment of a lectureship on aurgical pathology, on condition that the College would erect, within five years, a fire proof building of suffi-cient size to accommodate the museum, would accept the trust, and adopt the measures necessary for carrying out the designs of the donor. This liberal offer was accepted by the College, and a formal agreement entered into by by the College, and a formal agreement entered into by the two parties.

The library of the College is already a large and very valuable one, and many additions are promised as soon as the new hall is finished, and a secure depository thus provided. In a few sears it must be one of the largest and best medical libraries in this country.

The Mutter Pathological Museum, by the judicious exprintiture of the considerable sum which will annually be provided for its increase, must soon become very extensive and useful. This enterprise will thus tend to maintain for Philadelphia the pre-eminence she has so long enjoyed for the opportunities afforded here for instruc-

CHURCH IMPROVEMENT. - Probably one of the handsomest improvements that have been made to any of our churches has just been completed to Trinity Church, Catharine street, below Third. The church has been closed nearly three months undergoing a complete renovation. The well painting, by Ernest Werner, is beautiful. The whole work done reflects great credit upon the enterprise and zeal of the congregation. Bishop Stevens will preach the opening sermon to morrow morning. From his well-known elequence, there will be no doubt, a large congregation to hear him.

INSTALLATION .- The Rev. David Rennedy will be installed pastor of the Port Richmond Presbyte ian Church, by the Central Presbytery of Philadelphia, on Monday evening next, the 20th inst, at 7 o'clock. Agreeably to the appointment of the Presbytery, the sermon will be preached by the Bey. Morris C. Sutphen; the Bey. James B. Johnston will preside and propose the constitutional questions; the Bey James Clark, D.D., will deliver the charge to the pastor; and the Bey. Henry F. Lee the charge to the peop'e.

SUPPOSED STOLEN PROPERTY. Twenty-three pieces of clothing, principally children's, are at the Second district police station awaiting an owner. The berber police want a claimant for a large copper pump, an iron grappling with chain attached, a flag streamer and rope, a quantity of knives and forks, and other articles supposed to have been stolen. They are at the station house. Front and Noble streets.

THE APPROACHING RACES.—It is many years since we have had a series of regular races in Pennsylvania. Notwithstanding the objections urged against this exciting pastime, there are very many reasons why, at the present, the renewal of racing will be productive of great good. In a recent editorial notice we called the attention of the Government and the people to the necessity of improving the breed of horser, and to the marked superiority of the rebel cavality over our own. In the South racing is a participation. horser, and to the marked superiority of the rebel cavality over our own. In the South racing is at institution. The rich men expend vast sums to procure the best breeds of this valuable animal. They teach their young people the art of riding well and boldly, and they have been rowarded for their enterprise, by the success which has attended their regiments of horse daring the present war. In New York, where for many years the moral objections against racing completely prohibited that amusement, the restrictions were removed by the Legil lature, while Gen. Sickles was a Senator from the city, and since 1850 the most liberal encouragements to facers have been offered, in the competition between men of fortune, and the result has been some of the best trials of speed on record. Mr. John L. Cassaday announces that on Tuesday next be will open the Suffolk Park Course in this city by presenting some of the best horses in the United States, who are entered for very heavy purses. His friends are confident that the races of the week will be contested fairly and honorably. Among the horses that will contend for the prizes are the following celebrated animals:

THE THROAT AND LUNGS. Have you a Cough! Have you Sore Throat? Have you any of the premonitory symptoms of that most fatal ally think lightly of them until it is too late. From this fact, perhaps more than any other, arises the sad arevalence and fatality of a disease which sweeps to the grave at least one sixth of Death's victims.

What are its symptoms?

It usually begins with a short, dry cough, which soon becomes habitual, but for some time nothing is raised except a frothy mucus. The breathing is somewhat difficult, and upon slight exercise much hurried. A sense of tightness and oppression at the chest is often felt. As the disease advances the patient becomes thin in flesh, is afflicted with loss of appetite, great languor, indolence, and dejection of spirits; and may continue in this state for a considerable length of time, but is very readily afected by slight exposure or fatigue. If these occur, the At this stage night-sweats usually set in, and in some cases a profuse bleeding of the lungs may also occur. Pain in some part of the chest is felt, and often a difficulty of lying upon one or the other side, without severe fits of coughing or a sense of fullness or suffocation, is experienced. The pulse becomes full, hard, and frequent. the hectic flush tinges the cheeks, and the dire malady is fast hastening to its close. You now ask, "Is there a cure?"

Consumption has been and can be cured by the use of my Tar Cordial, even in apparently hopeless cases. This assertion I make with the ability to present the most complete evidence of its truth. Space will not admit of my giving the contents of the many thousands of testimenials to its value, which I have been and am receiving from men and women of unquestionable worth and repntion. Whether you now determine to try the medicine or not, send for the circular. After years of study and experiment, I offer this medicine, believing it to be the best remedy for all pulmonary and bronchial diseases. If you cannot be benefited by the use of the Tar Cordial, I believe you are beyond all earthly aid. Yet if there are better curative agents, I carnestly advise their use. The best remedies, the best care, are needed by those afflicted with this disease. Because I believe this to be the best, I

Many, not only of the people, but physicians of every school and practice, are daily asking me, "What is the principle or cause of your great success in the treatment of Pulmonary Consumption?" My answer is this: The invigoration of the digestive organs—the strengthening of the debilitated system—the purification and encorruption which scrofuls breeds. While this is effected by the powerful alterative (changing from disease to health) properties of the Tar Cordial, its healing and renovating principle is also acting upon the irritated sur-

and restoring a healthful tendency. Let this two-fold power, the healing and the strengthening, continue to act in conjunction with Nature's constant recuperative tendency, and the patient is saved, if he has not too long delayed a resort to the means of cure. The Pine Tree Tar Cordial will cure Coughs, Sore Throat and Breast, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Hooping diseases of the kidneys, and female complaints.

[Extract from a letter on the Battle field.]

COMMUNICATED.

This battle (Antietam) has been the most sangulnary of the war, and the only one fought with design and upon military principles. The arrangement of our corps the overlooking position of the Commanding General -the sending into action the right and the left-the closing up of the centre and final success—excites beildering admiration, and carries the mind to the great fields of Austerlitz and Wagram, fought by Napoleon. Of all this have I spoken. The heart-history of such a conflict, purchased by the life and blood of twenty thousand men, must be found in the hospitals. War has its glories-but it has its ten thousand demons in these human tortures, that make the eyeballs ache-the hear bleed—the lips palsy—and the brain reel. The eight is at first positively, unendurable. The life, blood of some still trickling away in silent coluness, while the dissevered limbs and maniac brain of others give rise to sounds Gcd grant I may not again witness. But, ye mothers who now seek a son-or wife a husband—or sister a brother—or sons a father—know and be consoled that even here the hand of mercy is watchful, and better care is bestowed upon your loved one than might at first seem possible. It was in the hospital where rested the gallant Booker that I learned the his tory of those mythical words so often seen and so little understood, "S T .__ 1860_X." Anything alleviating the sufferings and saving the lives of our soldiers is a national blessing. I witnessed some astonishing results It is well known the effect of burnt gunpowder and excitement is thirst, which, added to the loss of blood in the wounded, creates the necessity of a reviving stimulant. In this particular hospital, the physicians were allowing their patients to drink Plantation Bitters, otherwise called S. T .- 1860-X, and although the wounded are most numerous here—this division having opened thfight at 5 in the morning—the men were mostly composed, and there was but very little fainting. The article acts upon the stomach and nerves in a most incomprehensible manner, superior to brandy, and without subsequ nt stupefying reaction. It originated in the West Indies, containing callsaye bark, winter green, lavender, anise, clove buds, orange, snake root, &c., preserved in St. Croix Rum—the S. T.—1860—X being a secret ingredient, not yet revealed to the public. It is principally recommended for want of appetite, disordered liver, intermittent fevers, stomachic difficulties, &c. I understand it was somewhat known in the Southern States previous to the war, and it appears an agent of Jefferson Davis recently applied to the proprietors for the privilege to make it for hospital purposes during the war,

NEW YORK, Jan. 16th, 1862. Agent of, etc.:

Dear Sir: In reply to your communication, offering us "Fifty thousand dollars for the recipe and right to make the Plantation Bitters for hospital purposes during the war," we beg to say your price is a liberal one, considering it would cost us nothing to comply, and that otherwise we can derive no revenue from the Southern States; but, sir, our duties to our Government and our ideas of consistency, would not allow us to entertain it, although it right please us to assuage the sufferings of your misguided followers.

o which they made the following reply:

although it reight presse us we your misguided followers.

We remain,

Very respectfully yours,

P. H. DRAKE & CO. These gentlemen give the history of certain ingredients of their article for over two hundred years—showing that through all changes of the medical profession and its practitioners, strength, composure, and cheerfulness have een derived from these sources. Dr. Woods, in the Washington Hospitals, informed me that he had been unable to produce an hour's sleep in one patient for neary two weeks, and he was fast sinking and crazy, until the Plantation Bitters came to his knowledge, when one day's trial gave him a night's rest, and he was now fast recovering. I am surprised our Government has not equalied Jefferson Davis in energy, and adopted this invaluable article in all our hospitals. As a lay member, I can bear witness it is "good to take," and affords more energy and life than anything I ever tried. Success to the Plantation Bitters! But I have digressed. In my next I shall speak of gathering in the wounded, burying the dead, &c. B. se25 thstul5t

TAS PROF. BOLLES' DISCOVERY in the application of GALVANIAM, MAGNE-TISM, and other modifications of ELECTRICITY, rerish, and other modifications of Elleutificative, received general favor among the most liberal Medical Men of the Old Schools, and is Prof. B.'s system now being brought rapidly into public favor? Yes, verily, and if you doubt it, read carefully the following extracts of letters, and also opinions of some of the most eminent Medical Men of this and other States, who have been traveling and lecturing, teaching and applying the different modifications of Electricity, as taught them by Prof. BOLLES: The testimony of a Medical Man of the Old Schools, thirty years—fifteen years in the Allopathic School and fifteen in the Homosopathic—and has for two years since, fifteen in the Homeopathic—and has for two years since, being qualified by Prof. B., made Electricity a specialty, has cured thousands never benefited by medicines:

Some five months ago I was attracted by a curd of Professor Bolles, No 1220 Wainut street, Philadelphis, claiming a discovery that he had made in the use and application of the varicus forms and modifications of Electricity for the cure of all curable diseases. I called on this gentlemen, and after listening to his theory of the Electrical laws governing life, health and disease, and his discovery in the application of Electricity in accordance with the polarities of the brain-and nervous system, I was impressed that he had something new, and at once applied for instructions on the subject. I now speak from experience, as I have remained in his office for two months, watching the result of his operations and having mysol, the charge of one of the treating rooms for nearly the whole time, and treated from twelve to fitteen cases daily, comprising nearly every kind and grade of chronic the whole time, and treated from twelve to fitteen cases daily, comprising nearly every kind and grade of chronic disease. Although my expectations were high, I must confess they have been fully realized. I have seen a great number of patients who had availed themselves of the best medical skill and remedial agents for years—cases I well knew to be incurable by all other known remedies—permanently cured by a few applications of Electricity; and what has surprised me most, was the rapid improvement and cure of many cases pronounced pulmonary consumption by their physicians, because I had been instructed by Dr. Paige to avoi all such cases; as the treatment tended to injure. I feel impelled by a sense of duity to caution the public against the indiscriminate use of Electricity, as I have known injury to result from its use, in the hands of the ignorant. I would here remain that I have never in my whole experience, or observation from books, pamphlets, or intercourse with men, read or heard of the general or special application of Electricity to the cure of disease, as taught by Professor Bolles, and, therefore, conclude it is original with him.

I would say to those tampering with this mighty agent of life and death to beware lest you strike a blow at the citadel of life, and never think of applying it to the living organism until you understand its nature, and when, where, and how to apply it.

I would here take occasion to recommend my professional brethren throughout the country to turn their attention to this important, sgent as taught by Professor Boiles, who has certainly, in my opinion, discovered the only reliable mode of its application, and thus rendered an important services to the healing art, and a lasting blessing to anifering and diseased humanity

W. B. Wells, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y., after a year's practice, writes to Prof. B. as follows;
I think my faith fully comprehends the fact that Electricity, correctly applied, according to your discovery, is abundantly competent to cure all curable diseases. My experience and success, after extensive practice, fully experience and success, after extensive practice, fully warrant this assertion. Were I sick with a fatal disease, I would far sooner trust my life in the hands of a skilful Electrician than all the "pathies" on earth besides

BUFFALO, N. Y. W. B. WELLS, M. D.

PROF. BOLLES: I am fully satisfied that Electricity, when understood according to its polarities and their relations to the fixed taws of the vital economy, as taught by you, is the most powerful, manageable, and efficient agent known to man for the relief of pair and cure of disease. I would further extention I have for the relief of the same and cure of egent known to man for the relief of pair and care of disease. I would further state that I have for the past few weeks used Electricity in my practice, to the exclusion of nearly all other remedies, and have been eminently successful, and consider its universal therapeutic.

DAYTON, Ohio.

D. McOARTHY, M. D. PROF. BOLLES : For the last nine months I have made Electricity a specialty, and my faith is daily increasing in its therapeutic effects, and I believe, when applied according to your discovery, it will cure all curable dis eases, among which are numerous cases never benefited BUFFALO, N. Y. P. W. MANSFIELD, M O. What I have now to say is from actual observation, as I have spent most of my time for the last two months with Prof. Bolles, and have witnessed the effects of the Electrical agent on from fifteen to twenty-five passents a day, suffering from almost every form of chronic disease; and as strange as it may appear, in a majority of cases a perfect cure was effected in from five to fifteen days. And I will here remark that most of his patients were afflicted with long-standing complaints, considered incurable b all other known remedies.

H. G. KIRBY, M. D.

CINCINNATI, Ohio.

PROF. BOLLES: I believe your discovery to be a reliable therapeutic agent, and feel it my duty to recommend it. Since I have received instruction from you, I have applied it in cases of Aphony, Brenchitis, Corea, Amenorrhea, Asthma, and Congestion, and find that I have the same success that you had when I was under the same success that you had when I was not you had when I was not you had you your instruction I invariably recommend medical men to avail themselves of an opportunity of becoming ac-quainted with your new method of applying Electricity. Detroit, Michigan. DAVID THURSTON, M. D. Prof. Bolles: A great revolution in my mind and practice has taken place since I became acquainted with your new discovery of applying Galvanism, Magnetism, and other modifications of Electricity as a curative agent. I have found by many experiments that Electricity is a safe therapeutic agent in all acute and chronic cases when applied according to your discovery. I desire that medical men should become conversant with your discovery. CLEVELAND, Ohio. MARVIN GODDARD, M. D.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., September 10, 1859. PROF. BOLLES—DEAR SIR: The more I investigate this system of practice, the more confident I am that it is all powerful to meet the ten thousand diseases to which flesh is heir.

You, who first discovered Electricity to be a reliable Yon, who first discovered Electricity to be a reliable therapeutic agent, should be considered a great benefactor of the race, for it is the only reliable system of cure for the woes and ills of suffering humanity. It is strange that physicians have become so wedded to their several systems, brought up from the darkness of past ages, that they will close their eyes against the light now beaming forth through this system of practice. All other systems I regard as the morning star to the rising sun.

P. SHEDD, M. D.

PROF. BOLLES: The nearer I conform to your system of application, the more successful I am, and as I have examined all the guides and works, published upon the subject, and seen nothing in reference to your theory, I do not hesitate to say I believe it to be original with you, and the only reliable system extant for curing disease.
Respectfully yours,
TORONTO. OHAS. RANDALL, M. D. The opinion of a medical man, after thirty years' practice, fifteen in Allopathy and fifteen in Homospractice, fifteen in Allopathy and fifteen in Homospathy:

Prop. Bolles—Dear Sir: I never have, since you gave me instruction in your new discovery of applying Electricity, and God forgive me if I in the future ever do, practice either Homosopathy or Allopathy. I have been strictly governed by the philosophy you laid down, and for the best of reasons—namely: That I am generally successful, and I frankly say to you that I am done with medicine forever.

My success has been great since I have been in Newark, N. J.
